GLENDON'S WIFE IS QUESTIONED

Today

Drink, Credit, Gold Men Cling to Money What Does the Soul Do? Get Yourself an Enemy

— By Arthur Brisbane —

MIAMI, FLA., Dec. 15—Credit and the value of money appear to be matters of public confidence, except when a nation goes entirely crazy or becomes financially crafty, as Germany did, and issues thousands of billions of worthless paper.

Gold experts who "know all about money" said President Roosevelt's financial policy was ruining United States credit. Then Uncle Sam said, "I should like to borrow about a billion dollars." And the people promptly offered him three billions at low interest rates. Fact outweighs theory.

Considering taxes on alcoholic drinks, it would be worth while to review opinions expressed by Thomas Jefferson, who knew the people of the United States and wrote their Declaration of Independence. He recommended an English brewer to the Legislature of Virginia, urging that he be well treated, because good beer would conquer drunkenness. He imported his own light wines from France, and urged lowest possible taxation on such wines, saying:

"No nation is drunken where wine is cheap, and none sober where the dearness of wine substitutes ardent spirits as the common beverage."

In London in the old days, when distilled spirits were new and high alcoholic taxes not invented, you read over gin shops such signs as:

"Here you get drunk for a penny."

A curious fact about gold and the thing we call money is related by B. C. Forbes.

With the government paying more than $34 an ounce for new native gold and European gold, plenty of gold offered by jewelers and others, for $27 an ounce, could not find buyers. Mr. Forbes quotes a jeweler with plenty of refined gold, 24-karat, made from old jewelry and virgin gold produced by miners, who wonders why government will pay $34 an ounce for some gold and won't pay $27 for other identically similar gold.

Does anybody really know anything about money?

The President does, apparently, for up to now his experiments are working well.

Albert Bates, convicted of kidnaping Charles Urschel of Oklahoma, is in prison at Alcatraz, locked in solitary confinement, to stay there until he reveals the hiding place of $100,000 that he got as his share of the $200,000 Urschel kidnaping ransom.

Bates says no, he will keep his money, although he will never see it, stays in solitary confinement, and the world wonders.

It need not wonder. Scores of "distinguished Americans," already possessing millions and not in legal confinement, work themselves into the grave, always adding "just a little more" to what they have, never freeing themselves from the slavery of money-making. And they never see or enjoy their wealth —accountants show them figures.

Men are not so foolish in England or France. There financial independence means mental and physical freedom. Here, once the harness is put on, only death takes it off.

Universal Service issues this interesting story: Theodore Krause and Byron De Fee, automobile mechanics, were found "dead" of carbon monoxide poisoning from the exhaust of a motor cumibus in which they were taking a "little nap."

Formerly the two men would have been dead to stay dead, but Drs. Connor and Barwasser of the Chicago Mercy Hospital knew the latest scientific remedy. They injected a solution of methylene blue and aniline dye into the "dead" men's blood vessels. Mysteriously, that methylene blue fights the carbon monoxide poisoning. Both men came back to life. After being "dead" for quite a long time, Krause, alive again, and asked how it felt to die, said:

"I didn't feel nothing."

He had a headache. De Fee said:

"No neither, as I came too, darned if I didn't think it was the Coast Guard working on me."

Answer this interesting question:

What does the soul do when the body is technically dead? How long does it wait around to make sure there isn't some recent scientific discovery that will bring it back?

When the heart stops, and the

Continued on Page 9, Column 1

WEATHER

Cloudy and warmer tonight, followed by snow, changing to rain. Saturday warmer.

High tides, 9:06 a. m.; 9:37 p. m.
Sun rises 7:06, sets 4.12.
Light all vehicles at 4:42.

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN

NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST EVENING NEWSPAPER

VOL. 30—No. 227 Published Daily by N. E. Newspaper Pub. Co. Entered as 2nd Class Matter at Boston P. O. BOSTON, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1933 2 CENTS ZONE PRICE 3 CENTS

NEAR-PANIC ON SUBWAY EXPRESS

Hockey Heads Start Clash Probe

TRAIN RUNS BY 3 TUBE STATIONS

Women in Near-Panic; Had Failed to Hear "Express" Order

Hysteria rode on a Boston Elevated rapid transit train today as it ran past three stations southbound without stopping. Only the efforts of a Boston policeman, a passenger, prevented a panic in several of the cars.

According to Boston Elevated officials, the train, because it was late two and a half minutes when it reached South Station, had been announced as express from Broadway to Ashmont.

The train stopped at Field Corner, and Elevated officials explained that a street car conductor who was a passenger had discovered that some of the passengers had not heard the announcement at South Station.

ONE WOMAN SWOONS

The train, running from Harvard sq., Cambridge, to Milton, made the usual stop at Broadway station in South Boston, but as it approached Andrew sq. station and those passengers who intended leaving rose and made for the doors, the train, instead of coming to a halt, whistled through and picked up speed.

Near-panic swept the passengers when the train ran past Columbia station, the next stop southbound beyond Andrew sq., and one woman fainted.

Patrolman Henry F. Hogan of Mather st., Dorchester, who was on his way home, strode through the cars, attempting to calm the women. A number of the male passengers joined him in his efforts.

But then the train shot through Savin Hill station, still without stopping, and the work of the policeman and his aides was almost entirely undone again.

PASSENGERS RELIEVED

Patrolman Hogan had succeeded in entering the forward car as it reached Fields Corner station, and there, to everyone's relief, the train stopped. Doors were opened, all passengers left and a woman who gave her name as Mrs. Anna Clark, 55, of Gorham st., Belmont, collapsed on the terminal platform.

An ambulance was called from Fields Corner police station and Mrs. Clark, at her request, was taken to the home of a friend in Monadnock st., Roxbury.

According to Elevated officials, should an operator of a train become ill and take his hand from the throttle, the power automatically shuts off and the train comes to a halt.

Balance and Receipts

Washington, Dec. 15—Today's Treasury balance, $898,045,119. U. S. Customs receipts, $11,711,113.

'Fire Fear' Leads Man to Freeze

Today's cold, scheduled to be followed by a thaw and rain, cost the life of John H. Finn, 75, free lance news writer, of Boston st., West Peabody.

Finn was found, frozen to death, in bed at his cottage home. Fear of fire, neighbors said, caused him to extinguish his fire each night before going to sleep.

Discovery of the body was made by Mrs. Ursula Trouk, who lives next door. Her thermometer, she said, showed a minimum temperature today of 2 degrees above zero.

Finn is survived by a son and daughter, both school teamers. He was an authority on leather industry subjects and conducted a syndicated column on the game of checkers.

Low temperatures today, establishing a record for the season thus far, are to be followed, the forecaster said, by increased warmth with snow and rain. A storm area is reported to be moving "New England-ward" from the vicinity of Lake Michigan.

Boston's official minimum temperature today was 8 degrees above zero. At Concord and other bureau thermometers registered 1 degree below zero.

DEATH IS MERCY TO INFANT

Toronto, Dec. 15 (AP)—Nine months of suffering was ended today with the death of a Toronto baby whose mother had appealed to doctors to end its life.

Victim of hydrocephalus, which caused its head to grow to three times normal size, the infant became unconscious early this week. Pressure on the brain paralyzed all the vital organs.

Dr. Luke Testey, surgeon, said it was "fortunate the parents are sensible about it; that the mother is bearing up well after the terrific and utterly unnecessary strain placed upon her by inhumane, cruel law.

"Perhaps now authorities will realize the needless agony and suffering which have been caused a baby who did nothing wrong and two parents who loved it."

Binghams Start Home for Holidays

London, Dec. 15 (AP)—Ambassador Robert W. Bingham and Mrs. Bingham started home for the Christmas holidays today. They expect to return to London early in February.

"There is not the slightest foundation for the report that I may not return or that I am going to another post," said the ambassador.

He will go to Washington to see President Roosevelt en route to his home at Louisville, Ky.

LICENSE HEAD AND WARNER CONFER

Many Boston Permit Buyers Demand a Cash Refund

BULLETIN

Atty. Gen. Joseph E. Warner paid a mysterious visit to the Boston licensing board office today and conferred with Chairman David T. Montague. He said the call had nothing to do with liquor licenses, but refused to explain it beyond stating it was "personal."

The muddled liquor situation was still further clouded today by reports that a number of persons who have obtained licenses are now seeking to return them and get refunds.

As the license board opened to issue [illegible] ... other [illegible] ... and the latest bickering, Sec. Louis Ivris was examining the law to determine whether refunds can be made.

It was of interest to the would-be many license holders are now convinced that because of conditions, including lack of interest by the general public, they would be unable to make decent profits.

Persons with mathematical minds pointed out that package stores for example, with minimum overhead would have to sell at least 200 pints of average-priced liquo, a week to keep out of the red.

320 GET LICENSES

This situation, coming on the heels of numerous charges that "fixers" had collected from $200 to $1000 from applicants for obtaining licenses, added to the mixup at the License Board.

At the present time 320 licenses have been granted in Boston, many of them for malt beverages and wine, with drugstore licenses still in abeyance.

Chairman John P. Buckley of the State Alcoholic Beverages Commission said pre-prohibition prices probably would never return.

He said it is doubtful if there is any reduction at all unless federal taxes are lowered considerably. Told that some places are profiteering on liquor, Buckley said public opinion would take care of them.

MUST SHOW PRICES

He was visited at the State House by Chairman David T. Montague of the License Board, who also called on Governor Ely. Both visits were unimportant, it was stated.

The state commission issued a warning to package store proprietors that a price list must be displayed in their premises, that each package must bear the selling price, and be sold only in the original manufacturers' or wholesalers' and importers' package.

8 more shopping days to XMAS!

'ACE' STILL IN COMA; GAG IS ON SCANDAL

Wife, 2 Officials See Ice Star as He Lies Under Opiates

Complete Details on Sport Pages

The National Hockey League today invoked gag rule in an apparent effort to suppress the nastiest scandal that has broken out in its ranks since professional hockey moved to the south of the Canadian border in 1924.

Frank Calder of Montreal, president of the big loop, and Frank Patrick, managing director in charge of referees, also from Montreal, were in Boston today apparently to conduct a personal investigation of Tuesday night's game between the Toronto Maple Leafs and the Boston Bruins, during which Eddie Shore, much-advertised "bad man" of the Bruins, crashed into Irvin "Ace" Bailey, Leafs star, who is now fighting for his life in City Hospital.

SHROUD IT IN SECRECY

Although they spent 30 minutes at the bedside of the Toronto player, who underwent a three-hour brain operation late yesterday, the [illegible] make any comment on the situation, hurrying back to the Hoted Manger in a cab.

It is believed, however, that they will confer with officials of the Boston club and with Shore, who—together with George "Red" Horner of the Leafs—is under suspension as a result of Tuesday night's encounter, to gather facts for presentation at a meeting of the league directorate in Montreal next Wednesday.

Meanwhile, strictest secrecy about the condition of Bailey was enjoined on all City hospital attaches. Not even the usual brief hospital bulletins were to be issued to newspaper men, they said.

RALLIES FROM SHOCK

This extraordinary silence was being maintained, they said, on orders of Dr. Donald Munro, City Hospital brain surgeon, who operated on Bailey last night. It was indicated that he might make a statement later.

From other sources, however, it

Continued on Page 9, Column 1

4,000,000 ON CWA PAYROLL

Washington, Dec. 15 (AP)—The Civil Works Administration said today that more than 4,000,000 are now on its payroll.

This was the goal set by President Roosevelt, in authorizing use of upwards of $400,000,000 for direct employment of persons therefore on relief rols. It is expected that Congress will be asked to provide more funds for this purpose to carry the CWA into the spring months.

Harry L. Hopkins, Civil Works Administrator, said he had information showed the full quota of employment planned for Dec. 16 has been completed.

He paid tribute to state and local Civil Works Administrations and volunteer workers.

Maine Town Shivers at 44 Below Zero

Fort Fairfield, Me., Dec. 15 (AP)—The coldest spot in the country yesterday when the mercury dropped to 28 below zero. Fort Fairfield today fairly crackled in a frigid 44 below.

The latter mark was reached at 6:30 a. m., two hours later it was only nine degrees warmer.

Child Sets Kitchen Bonfire, Crippled Woman Dying

Two women, one an aged, bedridden cripple, and a four-year-old boy, were rescued during two fires in Malden and Arlington today.

The boy, tired of playing with his electric train in his home, 15 Arlington st., Malden, lighted a bonfire in the kitchen by way of novelty. The resultant damage was $1000 while he was rescued by his mother, and the invalid was carried out by firemen.

Joseph Ryan, jr., son of the owner and occupant of the second floor, was the lad who sought diversion by touching off a pile of papers. His mother snatched him unharmed, from the quickly-spreading flames.

Chief William J. Dooling and his driver, Ernest Nelson, first on the scene, found smoke filling the first floor and carried out Mrs. Mary McFadden, 85, who was unable to move from her bed. She is the mother of Mrs. C. R. McKenzie, the first floor tenant.

The proverbial "passing motorist," in this case Joseph Campobasso, jr., of 44 Decatur st., Arlington, was the hero of a rescue during a fire in the home of Percy R. Bowker at 477 Summer st., Arlington.

Campobasso discovered the flames and found the house unoccupied except for Mrs. Nellie Masek, 60, who was asleep in a locked bedroom in the attic. He broke the door lock and carried her to safety. In a few minutes more she would have been overcome.

The fire, originating from undetermined causes in the attic partitions, caused $500 damage.

Bitten Thrice by Same Dog in 2 Hours

Irene Kirk, 6, of Saratoga st., who was under watch today for any aftermath of dog bites. She was nipped three times by the same dog within two hours yesterday. (Boston American photo.)

GLENDON, JR. HAD DOUBLE INSURANCE ON LIFE

Grill Wife on Policy; May Ask Father for Death Note

By ARTHUR J. QUINN
Boston Evening American Staff Correspondent

Chatham, Dec. 15—State officials today checked the reported existence of a $10,000 insurance policy, with a double indemnity accidental clause, in connection with the fatal shooting of Richard J. Glendon, Jr., 37, Columbia crew coach, reported victim of the accidental discharge of his own gun.

Glendon's widow, Mrs. Marie Fay Glendon, former Brookline [illegible] questioned in her home here last night today. Atty. Frank Smith and State Detective Ernest Bradford.

WIFE IS GRILLED

Detective Bradford, revealing that the state authorities are not yet satisfied Glendon's death was an accident, revealed the insurance in force of the case. According to the detective, Glendon's two children are the beneficiaries of the insurance.

Glendon was estranged from his wife last summer, but a complete reconciliation was said to have been effected last week end. She was questioned at her own home, two doors from the home of Glendon's father where a mysterious note is said to have been found after the famous coach vanished Wednesday.

WILL DEMAND NOTE

Bradford said he would demand this note or at least a knowledge of its contents.

Medical Examiner Carroll H. Keene, who said last night he was satisfied the death was accidental, said today:

"If the district attorney wants an autopsy, I will perform it. My mind is still open, and I may change my decision if there are new facts.'

Smith is acting for Dist. Atty. Crossley, who is in Albany, N. Y., on an extradition matter.

Glendon, it is said, died from a blast of his own shotgun supposedly while out hunting, but his attire, including rubbers and blue trousers, was far from being the conventional hunting costume.

His gun and body were found on opposite sides of a wire fence, and the charge of shot had entered the right side of the body; these points all being consistent with accidental shooting, Dr. Keene holds.

DEEP PROBE LOOMS

Glendon's father, Richard J. Glendon, Sr., former Navy crew coach, will be interrogated at some length. Smith expressed

Continued on Page 9, Column 3

INSULL IS GIVEN 30 DAYS MORE

Athens, Dec. 15 (AP)—The Greek government today extended Samuel Insull's time to remain in this country until Jan. 31.

Previously the government announced he would be forced to leave the country Jan. 1.

He was informed his passport will be visaed to any country he chooses to visit but as he has no passport, Mr. Insull will be required to travel on temporary papers.

70 Sent Home From Unheated School

Seventy pupils in the Oliver Wendell Holmes School, Roxbury, were sent to their homes today when a breakdown in the heating apparatus made it impossible to heat two classrooms.

The classrooms were cold when the children arrived this morning. Headmaster Wagge attempted to place the pupils in other classrooms, but lack of space prevented this.

After consultation with Supt. Patrick T. Campbell, the children were sent home. The department of school buildings announced the defect would be remedied over the week end.

Rebecca West
considers a modern miracle: the perennial popularity of Kipling.

Chas. Hanson Towne
reviews Frank H. Simonds' new book.

Bruno Lessing
acquires a new ambition.

Ben Ray Redman discusses our contradictory selves.

on the daily
March of Events Page
Today—Page 13

INJURED GIRL IS UNDER WATCH

Any dog, they say, is entitled to one bite. Just in fun, however, a friend's pet collie took three nips at Irene Kir, 6, of 663 Saratoga st., East Boston. Today no one was under careful watch for any aftermath.

After the first two bites, Irene went to the East Boston Relief hospital and had her injuries antiseptic ed and bandaged. Then she returned to her friend's house at 412 Bennington st.

More play. More scuffling. And another nip from the excited collie. Irene went to the hospital again and the puppy, soundly spanked, to disgrace and exile in the cellar.

200 TROOPERS HUNTING DOG

Trenton, N. J., Dec. 15 (AP)—New Jersey's 200 uniformed state troopers have been ordered by Governor A. Harry Moore to look "here, there and everywhere" for an 11-year-old Jersey City' boy's "best pal"—a brown mongrel dog named Rex.

"I lost my best pal, my best companion, whom I love so dearly," Adolph Gioia, jr., wrote the Governor, begging for some executive action. "He's a sort of a mixed breed, half German police and half chow dog."

Cong. Douglass Gains Rest in Hospital

Congressman John J. Douglass of East Boston was reported as resting comfortably today in City Hospital, where he has been a patient since Thanksgiving Day.

Congressman Douglass suffered a nervous collapse at his home on the holiday. He has been very ill, but at the hospital was reported better.

Today's American

AMERICAN PATTERN ... 28
AUSTEN LAKE ... 21
BETTY ALDEN ... 12
BRIDGE, By Mrs. Culbertson 28
BILL CORUM ... 24
CHARLES H. TOWNE ... 13
COMICS ... 29
CROSSWORD PUZZLE ... 29
DRAMA AND SCREEN..24, 25
EDGAR A. GUEST ... 30
EDWARD ANTHONY ... 30
ELSIE ROBINSON ... 30
EMBROIDERY PATTERN 29
FINANCIAL ... 26, 27
GEORGE HOLLAND ... 23
"GIRL FROM NEW YORK" 19
LIFE OF MARY PICKFORD ... 15
LOUELLA PARSONS ... 29
MARCH OF EVENTS ... 13
MARTHA LEE ... 20
O. O. McINTYRE ... 30
PRIZE RECIPES ... 18
RADIO NEWS ... 24
ROBERT E. ROGERS ... 15
SPORTS ... 21, 22, 23, 24
SOCIETY ... 12
THERESE DESCHAMPS .. 20
VICTORIA GAINES ... 20

NEW U. S. TAX SCHEME CUTS INCOME LEVY, AIDS BUSINESS

HUSBAND-WIFE RETURN TO BLOCK HEAVY EVASIONS

Case of Charles E. Mitchell's $1,000,000 Avoidance Cited as Pointing Need for Double Report

Washington, Dec. 15—Extensive revision of income tax laws was recommended to the House ways and means committee today by Acting Secretary Morgenthau, but questions of rates were withheld pending completion of the budget.

It is estimated the new plan would raise about $100,000,000.

Important recommendations include:

A lower tax rate on earned income and from income on investments.

A requirement that husband and wife make joint income tax returns, a change estimated to bring in $40,000,000 of additional revenue a year.

Co-ordination of federal and state systems of taxation.

Allow actual depreciation to business, but rescind tax credit for oil and mining discovery.

Revise capital gains and loss provisions, but retain them, by establishing flat rate or spreading gains over period of years. Allow carrying loss forward one year.

Treasury should have wide powers to prevent tax avoidance through personal holding companies.

Revise exchange and reorganization provisions.

Continue foreign tax credit to encourage foreign trade.

Allow consolidated returns to corporations with subsidiaries.

Allow partnership losses to be deducted from personal income.

Continue provision allowing withholding of taxs at source on tax-free covenant bonds.

Remove statute of limitations against government if taxes avoided by fraud; other state of limitations revision.

Give Commissioner of Internal Revenue wide power to investigate books of corporations and individuals.

In presenting his recommendations for joint return by husband and wife, Morgenthau referred directly to the case of Charles E. Mitchell, New York banker, saying:

"The present law encourages sales by one spouse to another. In the most notorious recent case the jury acquitted the husband from a criminal charge in such a situation. The income taxes which the husband sought to avoid in this manner amounted to over $1,000,000."

Morgenthau said all his recommendations were directed to see that legitimate business should not be impeded.

He agreed with the committee plan of fixing a single normal income tax rate and adjusting surtaxes accordingly, but pointed out the committee rates for this change would put the heaviest burden on taxpayers with incomes from $15,000 to $20,000.

Benny Rubin Must Pay Wife $30 Month

Los Angeles, Dec. 15 (AP)—With $60 in his pocket, Benny Rubin, film funster, has to pay his wife $300 a month pending trial of her divorce action, a Superior court judge has ruled.

Mrs. Rubin said she needed $100 a month to care properly for herself and four-year-old daughter, Lila. But, says her comedian husband, he is earning only $500 a week and is sure of a job only for the next two weeks.

Boy on Skiis Hits Tree, Dies of Injury

Springfield, Dec. 15 — Eugene Lange, 9, is dead, the first victim of winter sports in this section this season. Police said the boy was skiing in woods near his home and fell, probably hitting a tree. He died of a cerebral hemorrhage.

Alabama to Execute 9 Killers as Record

Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 15 (US)—A mass execution, unequalled in the state's history, will take place Feb. 9, when nine convicted murderers, one of them a woman, will die in Alabama's electric chair.

Rector Paints to Aid Flock

Rev. Francis B. White, rector of St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, Somerville, setting an example for his flock in the call for volunteers in renovation of the parish hall for a recreation center for the young people. (Boston American photo.)

MAINE VOTERS MUST O. K. RUM

Augusta, Me., Dec. 15 (AP)—Maine residents cannot bring in legal liquor from other states until the people pass on the Weatherbee Transportation Act, enacted by the last legislature and on which a referendum was invoked by prohibitionists.

Th Supreme Judiial Court today informed the State Senate that invoking of the referendum—for which no elsction has been called by Gov. Louis J. Brann—precluded any legislation along that line by the present special session.

Another opinion by the court also eliminated the possibility of passage of a permanent control plan pending repeal of the state amendment.

"The right of the voters to pass upon the Weatherbee act is absolute. It cannot be abridged by further action of the Legislature," the opinion said.

SHOW TO AID CHURCH WORK

Rev. Francis B. White, rector of St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, Union sq., Somerville, is working, with parishioners, in making extensive improvements in the parish hall and the basement of the church building for a community recreation center.

Under the direction of the rector, who helped in the carpentering and painting work, old wooden floors have been removed and granolithic installed, and the hall and stage enlarged.

Bishop Samuel G. Babcock has assumed responsibility for the payment of most of the necessary improvements. Mayor John J. Murphy, Mayor-elect James E. Hagan and other citizens have taken an interest in the undertaking.

Added aid will be forthcoming from the receipts of a minstrel show to be given this evening under the auspices of the Sir Galahad Club

ROOSEVELT TO STAND PAT ON GOLD POLICY

Dollar Is to Be Further Devaluated in the Present Plan

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

Washington, Dec. 15 (INS)—There is to be no retreat, for the present at least, in the administration's gold-buying policy, under which the American dollar has been pushed down to about 62 cents in terms of foreign currencies.

Instead, the policy is to be advanced. Congressional leaders said today they had been advised upon what they described as high authority that the administration plans to further devaluate the dollar before calling a halt in its program. This will be accomplished by increasing the bid price for gold above the $34.01 figure that has obtained for two weeks.

NO STABILIZATION NOW

When the advance is to be resumed, and to what ultimate goal, was not disclosed, but it was emphatically stated there is to be no dollar stabilization for the time being, reports in London and New York to the contrary notwithstanding.

The reasons prompting the administration in maintaining the gold price at $34.01 for 13 consecutive business days—this price being announced again this morning—were said to be: (1) the facilitation of the Treasury's $959,000,000 refinancing operations during the first half of December, and (2) to afford Prof. George F. Warren and other advisers opportunity to study the situation. The refinancing has now been accomplished, although the Treasury was forced to sharply increase the interest rate to 2¾ per cent, as compared to ¾ of 1 per cent a year ago.

PRESIDENT HAS CONFERENCE

The whole program, past and future, was given a thorough going over at the White House by President Roosevelt and Treasury and Federal Reserve officials. It was after this conference that announcement was made of no change in policy.

The Treasury's next refinancing operation will be $120,000,000 in Treasury certificates on Jan. 1. Whether the gold price is to resume its advance before this date remains to be seen.

There must be a certain degree of stabilization attained, however, before April 15, when $1,800,000,000 of fourth Liberty Loan bonds mature. Otherwise, it is believed the Treasury may experience some difficulty in the operation.

Bullitt Honored at Moscow Dinner

Moscow, Dec. 15 (INS)—William C. Bullitt, newly-arrived American ambassador to Russia, was to be the guest of honor at a state banquet tonight presided over by Foreign Minister Maxim Litvinoff.

Bullitt spent most of today paying courtesy calls upon his diplomatic colleagues.

12 Children Killed in Wreck

Poznan, Poland, Dec. 15 (INS)—Twelve school children lost their lives today and 20 persons were so seriously injured as to require hospital treatment in a collision between two passenger trains near here.

Wall Street's Speed Causes Gold 'Leak'

New York, Dec. 15 (AP)—Wall St. brokers advanced a simple explanation today for the mystery surrounding the reported "leak" alleged to have enabled London to obtain the RFC's purchasing price for gold several minutes before the Treasury Department's official announcement reached England.

There is no leak, the brokers said; it's just that Wall St. is faster than the Treasury Department.

When the Treasury Department makes the gold price public at 9.45 a. m., Eastern Standard Time, the stock exchange brokers with important foreign connections usually have a teletype printer in their offices linked directly with the cable system. In less than a minute the news is on its way, and by 9:46, the brokers said, the gold price has not only reached London, but Wall Street offices have foreign exchange quotations showing the effect of the news abroad.

Wall Street brokers said they're sure the Treasury Department can't get the quotation abroad as fast as that.

PARLEY TO AID CONSUMERS

Washington, Dec. 15 (US)—A two-day joint conference—the first to be held on consumers' problems under the recovery program—opens at the White House today.

The meeting was called by Mrs. Mary H. Rumsey, chairman of the consumers' NRA advisory board, and Dr. Fred C. Howe AAA consumers' counsel. In a joint statement, they said:

"As consumer representatives, our offices have a major task in focusing attention on consumer interests in the development of codes and marketing agreements and in keeping consumers advised of developments under the recovery program.

"In calling this group of consultants we will have an opportunity to build up contacts with those whom he represent and to develop channels whereby their needs may be brought to us and our efforts in their behalf made known to them."

5 DEFAULT ON WAR DEBTS

Washington, Dec. 15 (US)—On a basis of 5.8 cents on the dollar, European nations today make token payments of $2,868,123 to the United States in lieu of the $153,952,637 they owe.

The State Department, meanwhile, made public all correspondence in connection with the current installments, except with Great Britain, whose payment was earlier agreed upon as $7,500,000, and Lithuania and Hungary, with which none was available.

France, her two satellites, Belgium and Poland, together with Estonia and Hungary, defaulted outright.

Czechoslovakia pays $150,000 on an instailment of $1,682,813; Italy, $1,000,000 on $2,133,906; Latvia, $8500 on $180,706, and Lithuania, $10,000 on $105,474.

Finland alone paid in full, $229,623.

Belgium tartly declared it has never intended paying its war debt, except as contingent upon German reparations receipts.

POISON THREAT CITED IN CRANE DIVORCE SUIT

Newton Matron Is on Stand Today to Deny Husband's Charges

Planning to refute charges of excessive drinking and abuse, made against her by her husband, Mrs. Anna L. Crane, attractive young Newton matron, will take the stand in Middlesex Probate Court today.

She is contesting the petition of Percy F. Crane of Mellen st., Cambridge, son of William Crane, Newton contractor, and is seeking separate support.

Mrs. Crane, mother of five children, was accused by her husband of staying out all night without explanation, with drinking her own home brew until she fell on the floor, and with threatening to poison him.

The two were married in Nashua, N. H., Jan. 18, 1918, and went to live in George st., Newton. Testifying regarding his wife's alleged drinking habits, Crane said that in June of 1932 he came home late one night and found her on the floor. Mrs. Crane had a gash on the head, he said, and was taken to a hospital. Later, he testified, she said she would "get him" and drag him down in the gutter.

Crane said his wife had threatened to poison him and he had some coffee analyzed last May. The result of the analysis was not disclosed.

Mrs. Crane was always the agressor in family rows, according to her husband, and although she threw pans and plates at him, he said he never raised a hand against her. She called police several times charging Crane had struck her, he testified. A Newton police officer, who said he was called to the house twice, testified Mrs. Crane showed no evidence of having been drinking.

U. S. Gold at Half for Thirteenth Day

Washington, Dec. 15 (AP)—The government's gold price today was kept at $34.01 an ounce.

This quotation for newly-mined domestic gold—fixed December 1—was repeated for the 13th business day. No early stabilization was in sight.

London's price on the basis of sterling, opening at $5.12½ to the pound, was $32.41 an ounce.

PARIS DEFENSE GROUP WEIGHS NAZI BID

Lack of British Aid Makes French Wary of Berlin Deals

By KARL H. VON WIEGAND
Universal Service Special Wireless

Paris, Dec. 15—The French council of national defense, composed of the ministers of war, navy and air, meets today to consider Germany's plans for re-armament and Chancellor Hitler's bid for an army of 300,000 men, an air force and tanks.

This council will precede a cabinet meeting at which the French government is expected to come to a decision on whether "exploratory conversations" with Hitler may provide a basis for taking up direct negotiations with Berlin.

At the same time, it was revealed Germany's written reply to Britain, outlining her armament demands, has been sent to London, and the cabinet is expected to consider it in committee today.

The German reply to Britain, it is understood, amplified with argument statements, already made verbally to the British ambassador to Berlin, who arrived in London yesterday to confer with Foreign Secretary Sir John Simon.

Without strong commitments by Britain for France's security, which the British government is said to be wary of because of British public opinion, the French are understood to be strongly opposed to Hitler's demands.

On the other hand, Germany's attitude is very much like "what are you going to do about it?"

Chair or Disease Death Up to Convict

Ossining, N. Y., Dec. 15—The choice of whether he shall die from appendicitis or from the shocks of the electric chair apparently rest with Ross Caccamise, inmate of the Sing Sing death house.

Caccamise has refused to undergo an emergency appendix operation and Warden Lewis E. Lawes said that although the State could legally take measures to save the prisoner's life for the chair it would allow Caccamise to make his own choice.

Imported SCOTCH GRAIN

A flexible heavy sole in a Genuine Scotch Grain is an achievement in fine shoe making Regal Reproduction of a famous London Custom Bootmaker's Full Brogue Wing Tip Model. In Black and a rich shade of Brown.

Now 5.55

SCOTCH GRAIN SPECIALISTS

Perhaps the best reason why we are recognized Nationally as Scotch Grain Specialists from Coast to Coast is because we have made more fine shoes, from the finest Imported Scotch Grain Leather during the last ten years, than any other Shoe Manufacturer in America.

Genuine Imported Scotch Grain is more expensive than most leathers, but there is no better leather tanned for rough Weather and rough Wear. It's a tough tannage that will take a lot of punishment without showing any distress.

But perhaps the biggest surprise is that we have made this stout sole flexible this year. We have put in a flexible Inner Sole and put on a flexible Outer Sole so that you can step out with more comfort than you ever enjoyed in a Heavy Winter Scotch Grain Oxford.

ALL LEATHERS • ALL STYLES • ALL ONE PRICE, 5.55

REGAL SHOES

70 TREMONT ST. at Parker House (Men's and Women's)
129 SUMMER ST. at Church Green (Men's and Women's)
68 SUMMER ST. Cor. Otis St. (Men's and Women's)
322 WASHINGTON ST. Cor. Mille St. (Men's and Women's)
233 TREMONT ST. Cor. Stuart and Tremont Sts. (Men's Exclusively)
573 WASHINGTON ST. Near Avery St. (Men's and Women's)
99 WASHINGTON ST. Cor. Elm St., Adams Sq. (Men's Exclusively)
ALL STORES OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS

Sloane's

40-42 Winter St., Boston

for Friday & Saturday

112 of our $10.95 and $12.95 DRESSES ON SALE

$6.90

Season's smartest styles! Wide shoulders! New sleeves, etc., in the new shades. Green, Blue, Brown, Navy, Wine, also Blacks. A few party dresses included.

SIZES 14 to 40

Main Floor Dress Dept.

SALE!

Usual 3.00 and 3.50

GLOVES

$2.10

- real super quality KIDSKIN.
- the finest CAPESKIN available.
- fashionable BLACKS and BROWNS with discreet contrasts.

35 Temple Place

Emerson

35 Temple Place

Emerson

SILK UNDIES

$1.09

Marvelous at this price!

- Chemises, lavish with lace or smartly tailored.
- Dance Sets in intriguing new styles.
- Panties that make the most festive gifts.

In exquisite pastels

The Christmas Gift He's Hoping For A SPECIAL SELLING

Monogrammed— All Wool

FLANNEL ROBES

$5.45

One of the very finest flannels procurable—really tailored. Double breasted with smart notch collars. Solid colors or with contrasting collars, cuffs and fringed belts. His initial on the breast pocket is free. Blue . . brown . . green . . maroon . . tan.

Selected Suede LEATHER JACKETS sensational at

$5.95

The fine selected skins, the exceptionally roomy cut, the genuine Talon zipper fastening—everything about them so obviously says dollars more! Cocoa brown. Sizes 36 to 48.

PHONE AND MAIL ORDERS FILLED

Leopold Morse

Uptown 48 Summer St. Downtown Adams Sq.

JESSIE COSTELLO TO START NEW REVIVAL IN PROVIDENCE

AIMEE SCOFFS AT STORY OF JEALOUSY

Two of Evangelist's Workers Join Rival Enterprise

Cast out of the Four Square Gospel Church by no less a person than Sister Aimee Semple McPherson, Sister Jessie Burnett Costello is about to branch out as a rival revivalist.

After splitting the Four Square Gospel Church wide open, and being "aired" by the head of the organization Mrs. Costello is taking at least two of Aimee's workers with her, in a new enterprise.

With the Rev. Charles Rosendahl, who also severed his connection with the church, Sister Jessie is scheduled to open a revival service in Providence tomorrow night.

Furthermore, the Rev. Carol Correll of the Four Square Gospel Church, has also cast his lot with the attractive Peabody widow, and will assist her in revival work, according to Aimee.

AIMEE DENIES JEALOUSY

Reached on the telephone in Indiana, where she is opening a revival service, Sister Aimee denied she had ousted Sister Jessie for stealing the show from her at the recent Boston Garden revival.

"It is child's talk to say I am jealous of Mrs. Costello," said Aimee, "I am not afraid of a pretty face in the Lord's work, and never was."

Aimee said she was induced to permit Mrs. Costello to take a prominent part in the Boston Arena services, and that it turned out to be a mistake. Aimee left Boston $700 in debt, she said.

"It was like taking a child, placing her on a throne and putting a scepter in her hand," she said. "She knows little or nothing about conducting a revival service. She knows little or nothing of preaching. She has received no particular instruction in this that I have knowledge of."

$300 HOTEL BILL

Sister Jessie was released, according to Aimee:

"Because I cannot permit anybody to preach under the banners of the Four Square Gospel Church until properly trained at Angelus Temple. I gave Mrs. Costello an opportunity to study at Los Angeles."

Billy Hill's Wife Saved 'Roundup' From Being Sold for Pittance

Belief in Weymouth Boy Who Never Saw a Dogie Brings Fame

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Hill—he's a Weymouth native—who found their pot of gold in the golden rainbow of the proceeds of his "The Last Roundup."

Barbara Holmes gives her patrons a card of introduction from the bureau to the agency or person offering the rental.

"Git along, little dogie—git a-long—git alonngg . . ."

Billy Hill, the former Weymouth boy who wrote it was all ready to sell it outright for $25. Cash in hand, no strings attached.

Meaning, of course, "The Last Roundup," hit of the Follies and biggest Tin Pan alley seller since 1929.

The story came out today. He was all set to let it go for $25, being in that so-long-old-pal mood and not very confident that anybody except himself and his wife would ever sing it.

But Mrs. Hill said no. She butted into the transaction. Thereby having saved the Hill family to date the neat sum of $9,975—for the Hill royalties so far are $10,000—and still coming in.

WIFE WAS CONFIDENT

Billy's wife, like many wives, knew her husband was wonderful. She knew he'd be famous some day, so she insisted that he keep contracting for potential royalties.

A lot of those royalties never ran out. "The Last Round-Up," however, is different. Even cowboys, say folks who know cowboys, are singing it.

But Weymouth old-timers—and residents of Roxbury where Billy Hill was born 34 years ago—can't seem to frame themselves a mental picture of Billy in woolly chaps and a sombrero. Billy never was a hard-boiled, hair-on-leather, out in-all-weathers sort of youngster, during his years in Greater Boston.

He was tall and gangly, but none too husky, former chums of his recall. Swimming was his favorite sport, but he'd quit the water any time to sit in the sun on the bank and play his sweet potato, piccolo to you, ladies and gentlemen of the radio audience. The violin was Billy's official instrument, according to parental edict, but the sweet potato was handier to put in a fellow's pocket when a fellow was hiking to the Weymouth swimming hole.

The late Charles K. Harris, writer of "After the Ball Was Over" and other sentimental ballads of the era, was Billy Hill's boyhood idol.

What does he know about hosses?

Plenty, ladies and gentlemen of the radio audience. Once upon a time, when the minister, in a buggy, came calling at the Hill home, 36 West st., South Weymouth, Billy "borrowed" steed and vehicle. He laid the whip on lustily, and that horse made a record passage to the village four corners.

So Billy, then of grammar school age, began collecting equine color. And his daddy, with a razor strap, made sure he didn't forget the buggy episode.

That, so far as Billy Hill's old friends and neighbors in Weymouth can figure, is all the horsey background he ever got for his cowboy classic.

More than 200,00 copies of "The Last Roundup" were sold in one six-week period, Tin Pan Alley statistics show. That sort of thing means a fortune in royalties for the lucky author.

But Billy Hill would have sold his song for $25—but for Mrs. Hill.

BLAZING BODY OF MAN FOUND

Chicago, Dec. 15 (AP)—The blazing body of John A. Jobb, 53, caretaker of an apartment house, was found early today in a vacant lot near an oil company building in West Washington blvd. The body was so badly charred police were unable to determine whether hed had been slain before being set on fire.

A burlap sack was wrapped about the head and a wire about his neck, and bourde and bricks piled over the body. Gasoline or kerosene apparently had been used to start the fire.

Harry Boyd and Mrs. Mabel Sacco, apartment residents, identified the body and said Jobb had been missing since last Tuesday.

Police began work on a theory that he might have been accidentally killed in a brawl and that companions decided upon the torch to dispose of his body.

Beheading of Two Asked for Reich Fire

Leipzig, Germany, Dec. 5—State's Atty. Karl Werner is asking beheading on the block for two of the five men charged with high treason in connection with a fire last winter in the German Parliament building.

The prosecution demanded that Ernest Torgler, former Communist whip in the Reichstag, and Marinus Van Der Lubbe, a young Dutch brick mason, who confessed setting the blaze, go to the axe "in expiation."

BATH COST STILL UP TO U. S.

Washington, Dec. 15 (US)—Acting Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau still believes the government should pay for the shower bath and cooling system which he had installed for his personal convenience at the farm credit administration headquarters, when he was its director.

He reiterated his conflict with Comptroller-General McCarl in this matter when he said:

"At the time I ordered the shower bath and cooling system, I thought it was a proper expenditure, and I still think so."

McCarl has turned thumbs down on the $1406 bill rendered for these improvements.

Hubbies' Bedroom Scenes Too Much for Actresses

New York, Dec. 15—Husbands may croon and husbands may be comedians, but when these husbands enact "bedroom scenes" with other blondes and brunettes, right under the noses of their respective wives, that is too much, even for hardened show girls.

Anyway, Betty Beal, petite performer at the Hollywood restaurant and official mascot for the Brooklyn Dodgers professional football team, and Helen La Vonne, formerly with "Hit the Deck" and George White's "Scandals," think it is enough for them to ask for divorces in the same court.

Betty's husband, Eddie Stone, a crooner, had brunette trouble, so she told Referee John Ford yesterday. It all happened a hot night last July when Betty unexpectedly came home to find her mate and a lively brunette together.

Helen's husband, Jack Squires, formerly with Ed Wynn in "The Laugh Parade," picked a blonde and a hotel—but it was all the same, Helen.

Both girls admitted they couldn't take it, especially with the lack of contrition shown by their spouses. Referee Ford reserved decision in both cases.

When you are looking for the home, apartment or room "that pleases," be sure to visit Barbara Holmes at the Free Rental Bureau on the fourth floor of the R. H. White Co. She is sure to have just the place for which you are looking.

GARY COOPER TO WED TODAY IN NEW YORK

Sandra Shaw Will Become Bride of Screen Star

New York, Dec. 15 (INS)—Gary Cooper, romantic cinema heart throbber, and Veronica Balfe, New York society girl known on the screen as Sandra Shaw, will be married this afternoon in the actor's hotel apartment.

Confirmation that the wedding, long rumored in Hollywood, would take place came today from Cooper and from Mrs. Paul Shields, mother of the bride-to-be.

Only relatives of Miss Balf and a few close friends will be present.

Miss Balfe, who is 20, made her debut here two years ago, after attending the fashionable Todhunter school here and the Bennett school in Millbrook, N. Y. About a year ago she went to Hollywood to shape a screen career and, although she has achieved no starring roles, has played in several pictures.

Cooper is the son of a Montana judge.

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

Hollywood, Dec. 15—Get ready to congratulate Gary Cooper and wish Sandra Shaw many, many years of wedded bliss.

Many, many stories have been printed of their exapected marriage and of their plans but this time there is no false alarm; Gary and Sandra are to be married today.

Immediately after the ceremony they will take the Twentieth Century train, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shields, mother and stepfather of the bride. They will go directly to Phoenix, Arizona, where they will spend a honeymoon riding in the desert and hunting in the mountains. This honeymoon jaunt will last until Marion Davies' picture goes into production early the first of the year.

The former cowboy, noted for his silence, who came out of Montana and made good in an incredibly short time on the screen, plays opposite Marion in "Operator 13" and that will be his first picture after his marriage.

Gary had made up his mind, he told me before he went to New York, not to marry for a full year but who was it said "Wise men change their minds, fools never," and Gary doesn't fit in the latter category.

The bride is the niece of Cedric Gibbons, husband of Dolores del Rio and well known art director. She came to Hollywood for a motion picture career and, although she has never done anything spectacular on the screen, she is exceedingly popular with all in the film colony who know her.

Time and time again Gary has been reported engaged to other girls but he seemed to shy at matrimony until he met Miss Shaw, upon whose third finger today he will place a wedding cirdlet as a companion piece to the gorgeous diamond engagement ring he gave his bride before their marriage.

INMATE FLEES DEER ISLAND PRISON

Porto Rican Was Serving Three Months Term for Theft

Raminio Reyes, 32, of Hanover st., serving a larceny sentence at Deer Island, escaped from that institution early today.

His absence was discovered shortly after 4 a. m., when he was found to be missing from the po rerhouse where he was working as a coal passer.

An alarm was given and Head Master Richard M. Muleahey ordered a search of the island, which was unsuccessful.

Despite the fact that Reyes was believed to be hidden somewhere on the island, the Boston police were notified.

Reyes, a Porto Rican, was serving a three months' sentence for larceny, going to the island on Oct. 26 last. He was working on the 11 p. m. to 7 a. m. shift in the powerhouse when he escaped.

The missing man is described as having four scars on his face, and variegated tattooing on both arms.

WIDOW LOSES 4 TOTS IN CRASH

Crescent City, Fla., Dec. 15—Ten children were killed and 30 injured when a freight train struck a packed school bus at a crossing shrouded in fog.

Several of the injured, picked up where they fell along the railroad right-of-way from the splintered bus, are not expected to survive.

The tragedy came as D. R. Niles, elderly driver of the bus, reached the end of his five-mile rural route at Silver Pond Grove, south of here, and was about to bring his little charges to the Crescent City elementary school.

The driver survived the crash. Mrs. Bennie Smith, a widow, lost four children.

JAPAN MOVES TO GET RAILWAY

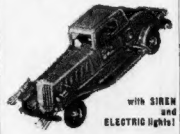
Moscow, Dec. 15 (US)—Another step regarded here as preliminary to seizure by Manchukuo, Japanese puppet state in Manchuria, of the Chinese Eastern Railway, partly owned by Russia, was reported in an official dispatch from Khabarovsk.

It declared the procurator of the Manchukuo court has announced the appointment of Hao-Chen-Su as manager of the C. E. R., taking the administration from Russian hands.

Toy Special

JORDAN MARSH COMPANY

Mechanical Fire Chief COUPES



with SIREN and ELECTRIC lights!

$1.19

Complete with batteries!

What a car, we've sold thousands! Red headlights that turn on full or dim! Red tail light! A siren that whistles while the coupe runs! Long-running clock-spring motor. All steel body! Rubber tires.

Mail or phone orders—Call HUBbard 2700

SECOND FLOOR—ANNEX

Toy Special

JORDAN MARSH COMPANY

Tak-a-Peg Play Bench

$1.95

It's a new idea for child play. A wooden bench, the top of which is covered with holes, and the kiddies sit by the bench and pound the little colored pegs into the holes making hundreds of different designs. Peg games may also be played with the pegs!

Bench, 50c additional

Mail or phone orders—Call HUBbard 2700

TOYS—SECOND FLOOR ANNEX

Quits Al Smith, Jr.

Mrs. Alfred E. Smith, Jr., wife of the son of the former governor of New York, who is now living at Syracuse, N. Y., apart from her husband, who is in New York city. She is obtaining legal advice and is not denying that a separation action is imminent. (International News Photo.)

HEIRESS WINS ANNULMENT IN ROCKPORT

Says Professor Wed Her Without Revealing First Nuptials

Rockport, Dec. 15—A Cape Ann society girl and heiress today resumed her maiden name of Miss Katherine Rogers, her marriage to Prof. John G Thompson, of New York, having been dissolved in Salem probate court when Judge Harry R. Dow granted a decree of annulment.

The decree was awarded by Judge Dow after a short hearing yesterday afternoon, which was shrouded with a fair degree of secrecy. Prof. Thompson, who had previously entered an official appearance, did not contest the case.

The hearing of the case was not scheduled by Registrar of Probate William F. Shanahan until the last moment. Former U. S. Atty. Frederick H. Tarr, counsel for the young wife, asked the court for a private hearing but Judge Dow declined to do this.

The suit for annulment of the marriage was filed in Salem last month and the papers were impounded by Judge Dow. The young wife had returned to her father's residence in Granite st. here some weeks before the suit was entered.

In court yesterday she testified briefly. After her evidence, which required about five minutes, the decree was granted.

She told of her romance with the professor during the summer of 1932, when he came here to tutor the son of a Harvard professor. She told of how she kept company with him and how he courted her. She declared that even then he was still the husband of Mrs. Alyce Parker Thompson of New York.

She said he left Rockport at the close of the season but that she corresponded with him. In December, 1932, she said, she joined him in New York. A few months later she learned of his estranged wife.

JORDAN MARSH COMPANY
GREAT BASEMENT STORE

SATURDAY Last Day of Our Great Annual Christmas Sale!

Some SAMPLES . . . Few Seconds

Feature—Women's Gift Gloves

Imported Kidskins
Novelty Lambskins
Knit Lined 1-Clasps
FUR Lined Suedes

$1.84 PAIR

All fresh new gift styles. Lambskin and kid slip-ons in Black and White or Brown and Beige. Complete sizes 5¾ to 7½. Fur-lined suede and knit-lined capeskin in Black, Brown or Gray. Sizes 6 to 8, but not every color in every size. No Mail or Phone Orders.

Over 25 Gift Styles---Women's Handbags

Chain Handles
Back Straps
Envelopes
Pouches
Top Handles
Novelty Styles

48c

So many styles you'll find it hard choosing . . . smart wools and novelty grained leatherettes (fabric) with moire linings, mirrors and change purses and stunning ornament trimmings like those you'd expect only on bags that are much higher priced. Plenty of black and brown. Plenty of large, roomy types. All rare values worthy of gift-giving.

Gift Values on Men's---Women's Handkerchiefs

Men's Irish Linen Handkerchiefs
Fine count. All white. Large size with ⅜ or 3/16-inch hems.
6 for 75c

Women's Irish Linen Handkerchiefs
Fine count pure white Irish linen with midget hemstitched hems.
6 for 45c

Women's Hand Embroidered Lawn Handkerchiefs
3 in box 35c

Men's Fine Cotton Plain White Handkerchiefs
12 for 69c

SPORTS CARNIVAL

Colorful Gift Blouses

Usually $2.55 $1.45

A gift that will make a hit with any miss! Crepe and taffeta in white, black and brown.

Gift Sweaters

Wide selection of zephyr and wool sweaters, interesting new necklines. $2

Gift Flannel Skirts

Well tailored, wrap around and pleated styles in brown, black, green, navy. Special! $2.25

Sports Jackets

Gay wool, hip length style in red, green, brown and royal. $5.95

Sports Shop . . . Second Floor

NRA

Gilchrist's

THE PLACE TO BUY
SKATES, SNOWSHOES, SKIS SLEDS
and TOBOGGANS.
IVER JOHNSON
SPORTING GOODS CO.
"92 Years of Dependable Service"
155 WASHINGTON ST. CORNER BOSTON

JOHNSON SNUBS RETIRE RUMOR

Washington, Dec. 15 (INS)—Published reports that Gen. Hugh S. Johnson would retire as recovery administrator and accept a new post in the administration met with denial here today.

Johnson, himself, said:

"There is nothing to it."

At the White House it was stated nothing was known of any impending change in Johnson's status.

Almost every week rumors that Johnson will resign creep into print somewhere and meet denial. The latest rumor was that Johnson would get out because of anticipated criticism of his conduct of the NRA once Congress returns; also that President Roosevelt wanted a more conservative administrator of the NRA, and a greater drive in the PWA, and that by switching Johnson he could accomplish this.

2 New Hampshire Lifers Pardoned

Concord, N. H., Dec. 15—Life's recessional brightened today for John Stewart, 75, and 18 years a "lifer." He was pardoned by Governor John G. Winant. The aged trusty was serving sentence for slaying a woman inNorthfield in 1915.

Pardoned with him is Fred Brown, 55, convicted of slaying his wife in Colebrook also in 1915.

NRA Given Credit for New Business Improvement

Admitting that the NRA was a "giant experiment," Donald R. Richberg, general counsel of the National Recovery Administration, told a Ford Hall audience that it had nevertheless made a great advance along the road to permanent recovery during the past six months.

He declared this assertion was not based on casual information but was the result of volumes of statistics compiled and analyzed by national industries, seeking the real facts of the effects of the NRA.

FILENE SUPPORTS HIM

His contention was borne out by Edward A. Filene, chairman of the State Recovery Board, who presided at the meeting. He produced figures which showed increased earnings in Massachusetts. His figures showed an increase of 26.2 per cent in employment; 59.7 per cent in payrolls and 16.9 in earnings in the state between March and October. At the same time, he declared, the cost of living had increased only 8.7 per cent.

Characterizing the NRA plan as a "giant experiment," Richberg said there would be a need for constant change before a satisfactory system to regulate industry and employment was devised.

He admitted also that many mistakes had been made in the administration of the NRA but pointed out that, if there had been no errors, it would have been because nothing was being done.

He also flayed "tories" and a class which he termed "ten per centers." This group, he said, had its eyes fixed always on the 10 per cent profit but that they were fortunately only 10 per cent of the population. Their ideas are usually 10 per cent right and their social intelligence rates about 10 per cent, he declared.

He declared that a revolutionary experiment in self-government was being carried on but it was one of method, not purpose. He said the NRA does not seek the regimentation of millions of wage earners.

TO STABILIZE TRADE

Neither does it seek to bring about the control of industry but rather the industrial freedom from control. No trade or industry is free from control, he declared, but the world is now moving away from irresponsible control of industry to a responsible control.

In closing he declared that the present administration is seeking to create and maintain a nation-wide co-operation to stabilize trade and industry and increase the security of capital and labor by providing a planned assurance of fair profits, reasonable hours of work and adequate wages.

Office Safe Carried Off

A small safe containing $10 and company books was taken from the office of Fein Young Co., sausage manufacturers, Prentiss st., Roxbury, it was discovered today. The thieves entered the office through a skylight.

WEIRTON DEFIES NRA MEN VOTE

Weirton, W. Va., Dec. 15 (INS)—In an atmosphere of tension, 12,000 workers of the Weirton Steel Company's three plants were casting ballots today in their election of representatives for collective bargaining.

Disregarding the warnings of Administrator Johnson and Senator Wagner, chairman of the Labor board, leaders of the company union supervised voting.

The election bids fair to prompt a major court test of federal power to intervene in relations between employers and labor under the National Industrial Recovery Act.

The voting was proceeding under the eyes of State troopers, and agents dispatched by the Department of Justice to gather data for the threatened governmental prosecution of E. T. Weir, board chairman of the company.

N. E. MILK MOVE PUT UP TO U. S.

New England milk producers and distributors turned their eyes toward Washington today for the next move in the troubled milk situation here.

A special hearing, held by the New England milk arbitration board, headed by Judge Benjamin F. Cleaves, of Portland, Me., ended at the federal building yesterday. In addition to considering the voluminous testimony presented at the eight-day public hearing in charge of AAA officials the board heard additional evidence from those interested in the situation here.

Allan R. White, Quincy dealer, testified that milk companies would be able to employ additional men and invest $5,000,000 in plant equipment in the event the milk business now in stores was returned to them.

TWO HUNTERS FEARED LOST

Bridgeport, Ct., Dec. 15 (AP)—Two duck hunters were reported drowned today as their rowboat overturned in Long Island Sound, of Stratford.

A single survivir, Minot L. Barter, 34, of Danbury, was rescued from the overturned boat. He was taken to Bridgeport Hospital in serious condition.

Barter said his two companions, Dr. Johrs J. Mayercik and Joseph A. Sabo, both of Danbury, were lost as their 14-foot boat was swamped by high waves about dawn.

Barter said they encountered difficulties when their oarlocks froze. Then the boat capsized in the heavy seas. Barter did not see his companions again.

Hurt Mother Lugs Infants 2 Miles

Orleans, Dec. 14—Plodding two miles through snow drifts over a pitch-dark highway, with her two infant children in her arms, Mrs. Manuel Meads arrived at her home early today, after her car had skidded into a tree and was wrecked.

Mrs. Meads was rendered unconscious in the crash and her youngest child, Anna, 1 year old, was hurled from the car into a snow bank. The mother came to on hearing the cries of Anna and Grafton, 2, and carried them unaided back home.

Newfoundland Bill Gains in Commons

London, Dec. 15 (INS)—The bill enabling the British government to take over the government of Newfoundland to save it financially passed its second reading in the House of Commons today in a lengthy session, prolonged by heated debate.

Laborite members of the opposition obstructed passage of the bill throughout the night, and the house had been in session 21 hours before the government won its fight.

B. & A. Brakeman Killed

Springfield, Dec. 15 (AP)—Hormidas Peyvort, 42, a brakeman on the Boston & Albany R. R., was killed here today when he was crushed between a freight car and a building in the freight yards.

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN
"New England's Greatest Evening Newspaper"

Entered as second class matter at the Postoffice at Boston, Mass., under the Act of March 3, 1879, also at the Postoffice Department, Ottawa, Canada.

Published daily except Sunday and holidays, 8 Winthrop Square, Boston 5, Mass. by NEW ENGLAND NEWSPAPER PUBLISHING COMPANY.

Subscription by mail, postpaid, one month, 50c; three months, $1.50; six months, $3; one year, $6. Boston Postal District, 75c month. Domestic rates include postage in the United States, Porto Rico, Philippines, Cuba, Hawaii, Alaska, Mexico, Canal Zone, Canada. Mail subscriptions payable strictly in advance. Rates to foreign countries, one month, $1; six months, $6; one year, $12.

The Boston Evening American assumes no financial responsibility for typographical errors in advertisements, but will reprint that part of an advertisement in which the typographical error occurs. Advertisers will please notify the management immediately of any error which may occur.

MEMBER ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for reproduction of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper, and also the local news published therein. All rights of republication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

STARTING TODAY—for one week

Bond Stages a Christmas Spree

Our gift is a $10 saving on a keen new lot of Two Trouser Cameron Worsteds

For this event, they're going at $25

Why should we men again take the well known back seat, just before Christmas? Lots of us want new clothes for the holidays—if somebody will just bring forth an attractive offering. So we, at Bond's, are going to jump in and start something, right now! These new Cameron Worsteds, at present day costs, rightfully belong in stock at $35. We're going to sell them for $10 less! ● ● Good business for us, because we keep things humming. Good business for you, because you'll be wearing one of America's most distinguished worsteds, at a substantial saving ● ● Take this invitation to make merry at Bond's Christmas Spree. It starts today!

Yes, sir! OVERCOATS too!!
Sedan Worsted-Curls and Meltons

600 of 'em step out at $22

No need waiting any longer to buy that new overcoat. Here's your "break"—a chance to save money. When you can carry away a blue-blood Sedan Worsted-Curl or Royal Melton for $22, hop to it.

Use our popular TEN PAYMENT PLAN
Pay $5 at purchase, split the rest over ten weeks. No extra charge for this thrifty service

BOND CLOTHES
618 WASHINGTON ST., at ESSEX
Open Saturday Evening Till 9 P. M.

WORLD RADIO, 82 Summer St., Boston, Mass.

PENNY DAY!

TOMORROW SATURDAY 16

Kolster "INTERNATIONAL"
Latest Product of Kolster Factory

Factory Price was $74.75
Now only $34.50
COMPLETE with 8 RCA Radiotrons

Your last chance to buy one of the country's leading radios at a new low price. 8-tube superheterodyne, handsome cabinet. This great value is for Penny Day only. Limited quantity. Come early!

$2 first payment

Penny extra for this beautiful lamp

Exquisite iron bridge lamp—beautiful shade—for Penny Day only you can get this lamp with the purchase of any console radio.

When Sold Separately $10

European Stations Guaranteed
RCA Victor

$54.50 complete

Selective short-wave receiver for long and short wave stations. New type coil system permits sharper and more accurate tuning. Features full-vision airplane dial, continuous variable tone control, automatic volume control, full dynamic speaker.

PENNY EXTRA
General Electric Clock

Beautiful modernistic General Electric clock with purchase of New RCA Victor.

When sold separately $5.95

New Compact
PHILCO
Super Heterodyne

$22.50 complete

Popular superheterodyne, dynamic speaker—handsome cabinet. Picks up police calls!

PENNY EXTRA
Exquisite Table Lamp

New candle design—that added touch to the home!

When Sold Separately $3.95

1934 New WORLD

$9.95 complete

Have one of these little personal radios handy for all the interesting broadcasts. Take one with you anywhere. They play on AC and DC and need no installation. Gets police signals. Small, compact.

PENNY EXTRA
RCA Radio Log

Long and short wave station finder and map—an essential need for every radio.

BUY your radio from New England's Largest Radio concern . . .

Philco . . . RCA Victor . . .
Atwater Kent
Majestic . . . Zenith . . .
Crosley . . . Stewart Warner
And many others.

$2 first payment

WORLD RADIO
82 Summer St. Boston, Mass.

BEVERLY—175 Rantoul St.
BOSTON—82 Summer St.
BROCKTON—61 Legion Parkway
FALL RIVER—64 Pleasant St.
FRAMINGHAM—25 Concord St.
GARDNER—73 Main St.
GLOUCESTER—Center St.
LAWRENCE—379 Essex St.
LOWELL—514 Merrimack St.
LYNN—3 Market St.
NEW BEDFORD—1185 Acushnet
NO. ADAMS—13 Union St.
NO. ATTLEBORO—3 No. Wash. St.
NORWOOD—642 Washington St.
PITTSFIELD—34 Eagle St.
QUINCY—1253 Hancock St.
SALEM—97 St. Peter St.
TAUNTON—42 Weir St.
WOBURN—402 Main St.

MAINE
AUBURN, ME.—19 Turner St.
PORTLAND, ME.—12 Forest Ave.
SANFORD, ME.—132 Main St.

NEW HAMPSHIRE
BERLIN, N. H.—177 Main St.
CLAREMONT, N. H.—38 Tremont Sq.
CONCORD, N. H.—23 School St.
FRANKLIN, N. H.—15 Franklin St.
KEENE, N. H.—101 Main St.
MANCHESTER, N. H.—1048 Elm St.
NASHUA, N. H.—41 Main St.

RHODE ISLAND
PAWTUCKET, R. I.—12 Broad St.
PROVIDENCE, R. I.—192 Empire St.
WOONSOCKET, R. I.—523 Main St.

VERMONT
BURLINGTON, VT.—181 Main St.

Paris Cables:
• GAY PASTELS
• BRIGHT METALS
• JEWELS

Open Evenings 'til 9 and here . . .

SCOTT FURRIERS

Leads, as always, with a new collection of Stunning Paris Inspired Holiday DINNER FROCKS at $8.95

Bright, glittering gold-threaded tops on graceful, slender skirts, giving the new "shirt-waist" effect that Paris loves and you will, too. Soft, draped necklines, dropped shoulders and cleverly placed fullness on smart, long sleeves, details that make these gay, light-hearted frocks real fashion leaders. In these color combinations: Dusky Pink with Black, Turquoise with Black, Absinthe Green with Black, Gold with Brown, Rust with Brown, Green with Brown and White with Black. Sizes 14 to 20.

—And best of all

If you wish you may open a Charge Account or use the famous Scott Unique Payment Club, the only one in New England, and enjoy small weekly or monthly payments while wearing your dresses. There are no extra or carrying charges for this service at Scott Furriers.

On the Radio: Every Sunday-WNAC-WEAN-10 P.M.-Phil Harris and His Hollywood Orchestra.

SCOTT Furriers
411 WASHINGTON ST.
Next to Loew's Orpheum

WOMAN SAVES 3 YEARS FOR TRIP; LEAPS IN SEA

New York, Dec. 15—The suicide of a young woman, who leaped from the rail of the Italian liner Conte De Savoia, while it was passing through the Azores at a speed of 30 miles an hour, was reported on the ship's arrival here.

The woman, Josephine Mraz, 35, a dressmaker, of 106 W. 179th st., was returning from a visit to her mother and other relatives in Hungary. She had saved three years to make the trip.

Passengers said she had been disappointed in love. But at her home, her brother-in-law, Joseph Moder, said her family in Hungary had wished her to marry a man of their choosing. A few days ago, a letter was received from her, saying she looked forward to being home for Christmas.

Last Sunday, while the Conte Di Savoia was half a mile off the coast of San Michele, in the Azores, Miss Mraz jumped onto the rail on the main deck, in special class. Before passengers could interfere, she waved her hand, shouted "Goodbye, everybody," and dropped 50 into the ocean.

A steward raced to a telephone and notified the bridge. Despite her speed, the liner swerved from her course, throwing many passengers off their balance.

YOUNG THAW TO PILOT HEIRESS

Phoenix, Ariz., Dec. 15 (AP)—Mrs. E. A. Guggenheim, member of the Guggenheim copper family, will take off in her private plane from Phoenix sky harbor tomorrow morning for a four month aerial tour of South America.

Russell W. Thaw, son of Harry Thaw, 22, will be her pilot. They will fly to South America by way of Nogales and Mexico, D. F.

Broker Jailed for Aiding Old Hero

New York, Dec. 15 (AP)—The rescue from drowning 20 years ago of a little girl brought the law down today upon Clarence Thorne, an elderly investment broker.

Thorne was held in $500 bail on a charge of having written annoying letters to Mrs. Evelyn Sharp.

Thorne's story is this:

Twenty years ago Mrs. Sharp, then a girl of 6, fell into the stream. She was rescued by a man named John Cavanaugh. Mrs. Sharp's father was so gratified that he declared Cavanaugh would never need to want for anything, Thorne said.

Recently Thorne met Cavanaugh. He found him feeble and impoverished. He heard the story of the rescue and offered to write Mrs. Sharp.

Dr. P. H. Ingalls of Hartford Dead at 73

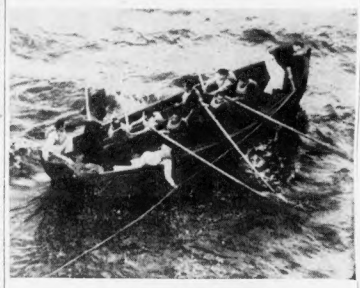
Hartford, Dec. 15 (AP)—Dr. Phineas H. Ingalls, 77, widely-known gynecologist, a native of Gorham, Me., died at his home here tonight of heart disease after an illness of several months.

He had been connected with the Hartford hospital for half a century, and was medical director of the Aetna Life Insurance Co.

Death Leap Halts Liner

RAILS LINED BY DEATH WATCHERS

Passengers, although suffering the effects of a stormy passage, crowded the rails of the big liner to watch sailors comb the sea for the body of the woman who jumped from the main deck to die in the sea. (International News Photos.)



SEA SEARCHED FOR SUICIDE

Far astern members of the crew of the Conte Di Savoia, bound for New York from Italy, sought the body of Miss Josephine Marz, who committed suicide by jumping into the sea while the ship was off the Azores. She had saved three years for the trip.

OCEAN GIVES UP LOVE VICTIM

Unable to thwart the sea before it took the life of Josephine Marz, the lifeboat crew found her suicide body and returned it to the liner. Thwarted love was blamed. (International News Photos.)

U. S. EASES UP ON RAIL LOANS

Washington, Dec. 15 (INS)—A policy of leniency toward seven railroads which have defaulted on loan payments due the government was placed in effect today by the R. F. C.

The huge Missouri Pacificheaded the list of roads unable to repay R. F. C. loans.

"We will take no steps to force these roads into receivership or bankruptcy," said Jesse H. Jones, R. F. C. chairman.

"The government is only one of the creditors in each instance. If other creditors should institute court proceedings to protect their interests het R. F. C. naturally would co-operate with them."

Four other roads in default of principal and interest are the St. Louis and San Francisco; Wrightsville and Tenille of Georgia; Chicago North Shore and Milwaukee, and the Central of Georgia.

Prof. A. W. Slocum, Vermont, Dies Here

Burlington, Vt., Dec. 15 (AP)—Prof. Allison W. Slocum, 67, head of the physics department at the University of Vermont for the past 39 years, died in Boston today after an operation, according to word received in Burlington.

Prof. Slocum was born in Dartmouth, Mass., graduated from Haverford College, and did post graduate study at Harvard and Berlin, Germany. He leaves a widow and two sons, Edward and Allison.

Police End Ghostly Pranks of Boy

It takes the men of Roxbury Crossing police station to lay a ghost.

Patrolmen William T. Drohan and Coleman Costello, called to a house on Huntington ave., near Brigham circle, by the report that a ghost was at work, the officers, after some difficulty, found the spook to be the 5-year-old son of the family. He was left in the hands of his parents, who grimly guaranteed there would be no more ghostly happenings.

MANCHUS KILL 7, ROB TRAIN

Harbin, Manchuria, Dec. 15 (INS)—Wrecking the Eastbound Trans-Siberian express train by placing barricades upon the tracks 45 miles west of Taitsihar, 300 bandits today overpowered the train's small military guard in a battle in which seven were killed and eight wounded seriously, and then kidnaped many first and second-class passengers.

After pillaging the mail car and robbing all passengers, the bandits made off with several of the wealthier-looking passengers, to be held for ransom.

Turn to the classified page today and select the rental ad that appeals to you. Then go to R. H. White Company and consult with Barbara Holmes. She will save you both time and money.

LINDYS LAND IN SANTO DOMINGO

San Pedro, Dominican Republic, Dec. 15 (AP)—Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh landed here at 10:40 a. m., Eastern Standard Time, today, after a flight from San Juan, Puerto Rico, Pan-American Airways announced.

San Pedro is on the southern coast of the Dominican Republic, east of Santo Domingo and about 225 miles west of San Juan.

They alighted here, Pan-American officials said, because of the good airport and facilities. They planned to stay here today and resume their journey toward Miami and New York tomorrow.

2 to 6 Below Zero in Berkshire County

Springfield, Dec. 15 (AP)—Below zero temperatures, the first of the season, occurred in many places in western Massachusetts today, particularly in Berkshire County, where readings ranged from 2 to 6 below. A sleet storm developed early in the day in Berkshire, with indications of serious traffic troubles should it continue.

Prof. W. L. Gunness, in charge of the State College Meteorological Observatory at Amherst, said the records showed that while the present cold is not exceptional, its prolongation over so long a period as six days is extremely unusual.

Barbara Holmes gives her patrons a card of introduction from the bureau to the agency or person offering the rental.

Girl Killed by Auto

East Haven, Ct., Dec. 15—Amelia Kawra, 16, died at New Haven hospital today of injuries received when struck by an automobile.

Fireman Falls 35 Feet

Randolph, Dec. 15—Falling 35 feet when the second story floor collapsed in a burning building, Fireman Nicholas Moore was seriously injured yesterday

Posner's

The Men's Store Where Women Like to Shop

NRA

★ BUY MEN'S GIFTS IN A MEN'S STORE ★

Arabian Mocha or Pig-tex Gloves

$2.45

Soft selected mocha skins. Embroidered back, button style. Pig-tex in button or slip-on style.

SPECIAL: Fur lined, tan or grey leather shell gloves $2.95

WASHINGTON ST. At Avery | SCHOOL ST. Next to City Hall | COURT ST. At Scollay Sq.

Washington St. Store Open Evenings

GILCHRIST'S CASH and CARRY BASEMENT

READY SATURDAY AT 9 SHARP!

Women's Shoes

Famous Names and Others Seconds and Odd Lots

Shoes that your friends will think stepped out of an expensive specialty shop. Patent leathers, kids, calfskins, suedes in pumps, straps, oxfords.

$1.69

Gift Bargains . . Sportswear

Fashion Dresses

Usually $3.95 to $5.95

Prints, rayons and silk dresses in Sunday night and street styles. New high colors and prints. 14 to 20, 38 to 44.

$2.95

Gay Party Dresses

Usually $7.95 and $8.95

Sunday night, hostess and evening dresses. Star dust taffetas and soft moss crepes. Save.

$5.95

Handmade Sweaters, Flannel Skirts, Blouses, and Wool Twin Sweater Sets

All Wool Flannel Skirts

Choice of several smart styles. Black, green, brown.

Silk or Rayon Taffeta Blouses

Five smart styles. Brown, white, eggshell, and pink.

Wool Twin Sweater Sets

Brushed wool or flat spool knit. Brown, oxford, blue, red.

Handmade $5.95 Sweaters

Hand crocheted like the $5.95 sweaters in 5th Avenue shops.

$1.95

Ski Pants for Misses, Juniors and Girls..... $2.99

Bunny Wraps

Johnny collars $14.95

Any woman will adore this all white, new style wrap of soft bunny. Be early for these. They'll sell out at this price.

Silk Undies

Lacey and Tailored $1.39

All bias cut. Slips, gowns, dance sets, pajamas and chemises. Even hand-made panties. Tea Rose, Peach, and Flesh.

Men's Gift Shirts

• Collar attached
• Preshrunk
• Cotton broadcloth

79c

6 for $4.65

What shirts! Boy, oh boy! All fresh and new, fine finish shirts in solid colors and fancy patterns. Some with two collars and some in neckband style. Every one cut full and perfectly tailored. Save.

Men's Gift Sport Sweaters

Even many all wool. Crew or turtle necks. Navy, maroon, heather or white. Some seconds.

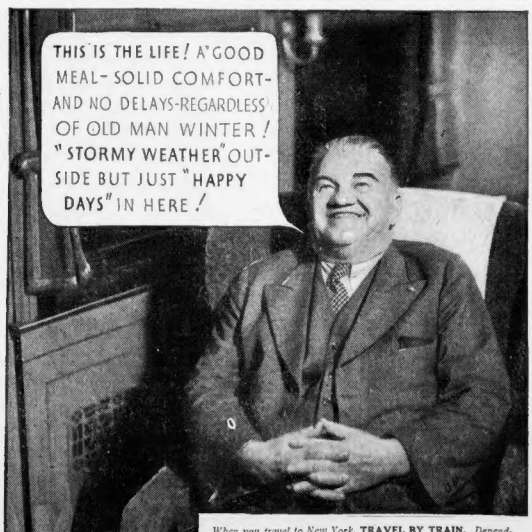
$1

Men's Leather Slippers

Seconds and odd lots. Everett or Opera style in kidskin or calfskin. Leather soles, rubber heels. 6 to 11. A practical gift.

$1.79

NO MAIL OR PHONE ORDERS



THIS IS THE LIFE! A GOOD MEAL - SOLID COMFORT - AND NO DELAYS-REGARDLESS OF OLD MAN WINTER! "STORMY WEATHER" OUTSIDE BUT JUST "HAPPY DAYS" IN HERE!

When you travel to New York, TRAVEL BY TRAIN. Dependable service almost hourly over the Boulevard of Steel—the Shore Line route. Low round trip 30-day fares; also special week-end fares and Sunday excursions. Make reservations at South Station (Phone Hubbard 6800), Back Bay or City Ticket Office, 67 Franklin St.

THE NEW HAVEN R.R.

BOYCOTT ASKED FOR HIGH-COST LIQUOR

Washington, Dec. 15 (INS)—A boycott on liquor until prices are slashed was proposed today by Rep. John J. O'Connor (D.) of New York, militant congressional wet, as he continued his campaign against the alleged "whiskey trust."

Meantime there were indications of a further letting down of the bars on foreign liquor which may have its effect on the price situation in the next few months.

O'Connor's charge that a "whiskey trust" has carried its lobby into Washington aroused members of the Senate finance and House Ways and Means committees as preparations were made to write a tax measure.

N. Y. PLOT CHARGED

A trust charge by New York liquor dealers was sent to the federal alcohol control administration for action by Rep. Crowther (R.), of New York, member of the ways and means committee.

"I would suggest a boycott on liquor until the prices are reduced," said O'Connor. "There is no justification for present prices.

"The distillers will take five hundred million dollars from the American people in six months above a fair profit if the present system is continued. I am opposed to strict federal control of the liquor business, and am against price fixing. The public can cure the situation."

IMPORTS FROM CANADA

The federal alcohol control administration, it was disclosed, had provided an extra liquor quota of 3,700,000 gallons of whiskey for importation from Canada. The liquor is to be used in American distilleries for blending purposes.

This special quota, in addition to the general five and a half million gallons foreign quota, may relieve the "drouth" throughout the country, officials said.

Investigation of O'Connor's charges of lobbying in Washington and control of distilleries may be undertaken by the ways and means committee in writing a liquor bill.

Woman Cleared in Auto Death

Middletown, Ct., Dec. 15 (INS)—Mrs. Mabel L. Kelley of Fitchburg, Mass., was exhonerated today of all responsibility in the automobile death of John Carlson of Middlefield, by Coroner L. A. Smith.

DYING VICTIM GIVES CLUE

Fitchburg, Dec. 15—In a dying statement Ernest W. Clark, victim of a mysterious shooting, told police his murderer was about 20 years old with light hair and pink cheeks.

Clark, war veteran and clerk at a local sporting goods store, died in the Burbank Hospital with nine bullet wounds in his body. A military funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at the Sawyer Funeral Home at 2 o'clock. He leaves a wife and child.

Smith College Wins Debate on NRA

Northampton, Dec. 15—The debating team of Smith College has been awarded the decision in a debate against Mt. Holyoke on the subject, "Resolved, That the Principles of the NRA Should Be Adopted as a Permanent Part of America's Government Policy." Smith had the negative side.

Parents Seek Boy Lost at Dartmouth

Hanover, N. H., Dec. 15—Not a single clue to the whereabouts of Clarence L. Marks, Jr., missing Dartmouth student, had been found today, the third day after his disappearance.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Marks of Philadelphia, were here, questioning friends of the boy, but none of them had seen him since Sunday. They expressed the opinion that he might be seeking background for his writing.

Clarence L. Marks, Jr.

Dennis Halliser, chief of police, was keeping in touch with all New England towns to which descriptions of the missing youth have been sent.

CLUB BANDIT IS TRACED

Police were checking with a local taxicab company today in an attempt to trace the "stop light" bandit, who escaped in one of their machines after holding up the night clerk at the University Club and getting away with $350.

Police declared the description of the bandit, as furnished by Herbert W. Hagger of Jefferson st., Dedham, clerk at the club, tallied exactly with that of the youth who has been robbing motorists, who had been forced by signal lights to stop in traffic.

The youth, tastefully dressed, walked into the club early today.

He stepped to the desk, where Hagger was standing and asked if a man named McNulty was registered at the club.

Hagger started to look through the records and replied that no one of that name was registered. As he looked up he found himself facing a blue steel automatic in the hands of the bandit.

"Give me all the money in the safe and hurry up about it," he quoted the youth as saying.

PENSION LOST, TRIES TO DIE

Portland, Me., Dec. 15—Said to have been despondent over the loss of his pension and failure to obtain work, Hans C. Larsen, 61, a Spanish War veteran, attempted suicide today by plunging into the harbor.

Larsen evidently changed his mind when he struck the icy water, for he swam to a reef of jagged rocks, severely cutting both hands in crawling out of the water. He was rescued and taken to the Maine General Hospital suffering from exposure and injury. In his clothing police found $32 in cash and an additional $100 was found in a friend's safety deposit box.

Turn to the classified page today and select the rental ad that appeals to you. Then go to H. H. White Company and consult with Barbara Holmes. She will save you both time and money.

BOLIVIA SAYS IT HOLDS FORTS

Buenos Aires, Dec. 15 (AP)—Dispatches from the capital of Paraguay today announced unofficially the fall of one more Bolivian stronghold in the Chaco Boreal, and Pan-American statesmen at Montevideo renewed their efforts to establish peace.

The dispatch from Asuncion said Paraguayan soldiers had taken Fort Cuatrovientos following surrender of Fort Saavendra, Bolivian stronghold, and bombardment of Fort Munoz.

Conflicting dispatches from La Paz, Bolivia, denied the enemy had occupied several forts, and added that in the Platanillos sector a Bolivian patrol routed an enemy patrol, killing 20 soldiers and an officer.

5 'Joke' Victims in Want, Plymouth to Aid Them

Plymouth, Dec. 15—A movement was underway here today to obtain funds to send back to their homes, three men, a woman and her 5-year-old son, victims of a cruel hoax which brought them from Mt. Desert Island, Me., to Clarke's Island in Plymouth harbor.

The unfortunate five, their money and provisions gone, were found huddled in the cabin of their 22-foot sloop, which had been tied up at State Pier, early yesterday by Harbor Master Orin C. Bartlett.

They are Capt. Malcolm D. Gott, 45, of Tremont, Me., head of the expedition; his wife and 5-year-old son; Capt. Phil Laskey and a fifth man who refused to identify himself.

They told of their pitiful odyssey which they had been led to believe would end in their establishment of a seaside farm on Clarke's island. Police appealed to the town welfare department and they were provided with food, oil and wood. Last night shelter was given the mother and boy, while the three men remained aboard the vessel.

According to their story, a Duxbury man told them last summer they might come to Clarke's island and establish a farm on property owned by one of his relatives there.

They set out from Mt. Desert Island last October with high hopes that they would establish themselves successfully and spend a less rigorous winter than was their usual lot in Maine.

After weeks of stormy sailing, down the coast they finally reached Clarke's island late in November.

They had scarcely settled there when they were ordered off the island by the relative of the man who invited them. They were told the latter had only been joking, they said.

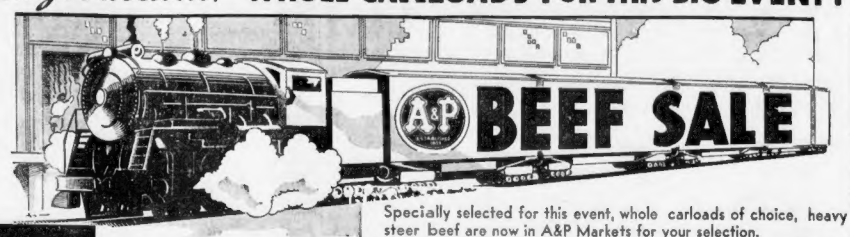
Two days ago they carried their few remaining possessions aboard their sloop and headed for Plymouth. At daybreak yesterday they reached the pier and tied up.

Young's 94-100 HANOVER ST.
OPEN EVENINGS TOYLAND LARGEST SELECTION IN BOSTON
EVERYTHING AT LOWEST PRICES

AUTO SPORT ROADSTER — Adjustable pedals—Headlights. 4.75. Full line of other sizes and fancy models.
PEDAL BIKES — Disc wheels—Solid construction. 98c
Clearance Sale of Sidewalk Bikes — Ball Bearing Wheels. $8.50. Full Line of Other Sizes.
MECHANICAL DRUMMER — Big Value. 75c
Steel Coaster WAGONS — $1.50 values—extra heavy gauge steel. 98c. Larger sizes at low prices.
VELOCIPEDE — 12" wheel—solid rubber tires—spring saddle. $2.49. All other sizes including Shlepp line.
DOLL CARRIAGE — Reg. $2.50 value. $1.75. A full line of Whitney and English Coach Doll Carriages.
POOL TABLES — A complete line of other tables as to 12 ft. in size at low prices. 98c
BLACKBOARDS — $3.00 VALUE. 59c. Full line of larger sizes at low prices.
ROLL TOP DESK AND CHAIR — Regular $7.50 Value. $4.98. Larger sizes to Out. Master or Minister.
American Flyer TYPEWRITER — Works real like a real typewriter. Heavy gauge steel. Beautifully finished in tan enamel. $1.79
WIND UP TRAINS — Complete with electric headlight and battery. 89c. Full line of other sizes at our prices.
"ZILOTONE" — Latest musical sensation complete with 3 popular records—reg. $2.50. $1.49
BABY DOLL — Cries and goes to sleep—Real eyelashes, composition head, arms and legs, 27 inches high. Beautifully dressed in organdy. $2.49. OTHER DOLLS FROM 25c TO $4.98
MAMA DOLL — She cries, sleeps and walks. Real hair and long curls. Beautiful silk dress in different colors. $3.50 value. 27" high. $2.49. LARGEST ASSORTMENT OF DOLLS IN BOSTON AT CUT PRICES.
YOUNG'S FOR LOWER PRICES! 94-100 HANOVER ST. Near Washington St.

The Great ATLANTIC & PACIFIC Tea Company

They've arrived! - WHOLE CARLOADS FOR THIS BIG EVENT!



A&P BEEF SALE

Specially selected for this event, whole carloads of choice, heavy steer beef are now in A&P Markets for your selection.

A&P ESTABLISHED 1859 WHERE ECONOMY RULES

FACE RUMP ROAST

Prices effective for Boston and Vicinity

Right between the Thanksgiving and Christmas Turkeys—what could be better than a juicy, flavor-full roast of prime beef from the A&P! Try it this week-end. 19c lb

Other A&P Beef Specials

Chuck Roast	BONELESS LB.	18c
Sirloin Roast	BONELESS LB.	32c
Fancy Brisket	CORNED BEEF LB.	19c
Shoulder Roast	of Beef LB.	19c
LAMB LEGS	LB.	19c
FRESH SHOULDERS	SQUIRES LB.	10c
FOWL	3½ to 4¼ LBS. LB.	19c
Steak Cod	2 LBS.	25c
SWORDFISH	SLICED LB.	29c
OYSTERS	FOR STEWING PINT	23c
MACKEREL	TINKER LB.	7c

Fresh Fruits & Vegetables

Oranges	FLORIDAS BAG	39c
Grapefruit	BAG	25c
	LARGE SIZE 3 FOR 19c
YELLOW TURNIPS	5 LBS.	15c
CARROTS	2 BCHS.	13c
BEETS	BUNCH	5c

Holiday Table Suggestions

HARD CANDY	1-LB. CELLOPHANE BAG	25c
GUARANTEE CHOCOLATES	POUND BOX	35c
MILLER CHOCOLATES	(ASST.) POUND BOX	25c
MIXED NUTS	LB.	25c
WALNUTS	LB.	29c
ALMONDS—	SOFT SHELLED LB.	25c
PECANS	LB.	29c
H-O OATS	PACKAGE	11c
NBC CHEESE LUNCH	PACKAGE	23c
GRAHAM CRACKERS	N. B. C. 1 LB. PKG.	18c
RAJAH EXTRACTS	2 OUNCE BOTTLE	25c
MAZOLA OIL	PINT CAN	23c
FLEISCHMANN'S YEAST	CAKE	3c
SUNNYFIELD RICE	2 1 LB. PKGS.	15c
SUNNYFIELD OATS	Quick or Regular SMALL PKG.	5c
OLD MUNICH MALT	CAN	49c
WALDORF TOILET PAPER	6 ROLLS	25c
OCTAGON SOAP	6 CAKES	25c
GOLD DUST	LARGE PACKAGE	15c
OCTAGON SOAP POWDER	2 PKGS.	5c
S O S CLEANSER	2 CANS	25c

EXCEPTIONALLY LOW PRICE FOR FLOUR

FLOUR Pillsbury's Best 24½ LB. BAG $1.05

SILVERBROOK PRINT OR TUB—

BUTTER 2 LBS. 45c

DEL MONTE SALE

YOU'LL save money, and be sure of fine quality not only on "special" items, but on everything you buy at A&P.

last 2 days of this special offer!

SPINACH	DEL MONTE—"Fresh Green" flavor	NO. 2½ CAN	15c
PINEAPPLE	DEL MONTE—sliced or crushed	2 NO. 2½ CANS	35c
PEARS	DEL MONTE—delicious Bartletts	2 NO. 2½ CANS	35c
PEACHES	DEL MONTE—sliced or halves	2 NO. 2½ CANS	29c
ASPARAGUS TIPS	DEL MONTE	NO. 1 SQ. TIN	23c
FRUITS for SALAD	DEL MONTE five fruits 2	NO. 1 CANS	29c

SPECIAL PRICE, THIS WEEK ONLY. STOCK UP FOR CHRISTMAS.

CIGARETTES Old Golds Chesterfields Lucky Strikes Camels CTN. 99c

NATIONAL CHEESE WEEK—EVERYONE IS EATING CHEESE THIS WEEK.

CHEESE WHITE OR COLORED 2 LBS. 37c

SPARKLE DESSERT	PURE FRUIT FLAVORS OR CHOCOLATE	2 PKGS.	9c
CRACKED WHEAT BREAD	SPECIAL PRICE	LF.	8c
SNIDER'S SLICED BEETS		GLASS JAR	10c
LOBSTER	All clear meat; ready for salads	2 NO. ½ CANS	49c
SALMON Red	CAN 17c	Pink 2 CANS	25c
BAKING POWDER	QUAKER MAID	1 LB. CAN	25c
IONA STRING BEANS		4 CANS	29c
BIG BOY VEGETABLE SOUP		2 LARGE CANS	25c
IMPORTED SARDINES	MARTELS PORTUGUESE	CAN	17c
CHASE & SANBORN COFFEE		POUND CAN	27c
CONDOR COFFEE	Vacuum Packed	POUND CAN	25c
PALMOLIVE SOAP		3 BARS	17c
SUPER SUDS	Kitchen Size	3 PKGS.	21c

A&P FOOD STORES of NEW ENGLAND

1859 The Great ATLANTIC & PACIFIC Tea Company 1933

Houghton's December SALES

DECEMBER 1 FRIDAY · DECEMBER 2 SATURDAY · DECEMBER 4 MONDAY · DECEMBER 5 TUESDAY · DECEMBER 6 WEDNESDAY · DECEMBER 7 URSDAY · DECEMBER 8 FRIDAY · DECEMBER 9 ATURDAY · CEMBER 11 MONDAY · DECEMBER 12 ESDAY · DECEMBER 13 WEDNESDAY · DECEMBER 14 URSDAY · CEMBER 15 FRIDAY · DECEMBER 16 URDAY · CEMBER 18 MONDAY · CEMBER 19 TUESDAY · DECEMBER 20 NESDAY · ECEMBER 21 THURSDAY · DECEMBER 22 FRIDAY · ECEMBER 23 SATURDAY · DECEMBER 26 TUESDAY · DECEMBER 27 ONESDAY · ECEMBER 28 THURSDAY · DECEMBER 29 FRIDAY · ECEMBER 30 SATURDAY

Because we dare to think of coats in December

We present a SALE

Two Smashing record-breaking low prices which makes it possible to enjoy your winter coat on Christmas day at regular after-Christmas year-end sale price!

Frankly . . . every coat is worth more and you are fortunate indeed to have this chance

$17

Group of 400 smart new winter coats — tailored for cold weather wear!

We dare think of winter coats with Mr. Santa Claus occupying the main spot of interest for the biting cold winds are here and it may be even colder Christmas morning when you so need a warm, smart coat. These are all silk lined and warmly interlined. Made of smart cloths trimmed lavishly in caracul, Vicuna fox, raccoon tails, French beaver (rabbit), Manchurian wolf (dog). Sizes 14 to 20—38 to 50.

Houghton's, second floor

Elaborately trimmed in fine grade furs—coats at dollars less than their actual value—buy for Christmas!

$23

Not only dressy but utility coats beautifully lined in silk!

—Coats that are stunning and yet they are made to withstand the hard knocks of winter wear. Made of smart all wool crepes in solid black, brown, green and Rhumba red—all warmly interlined and lined in silk. Sizes 14 to 20 and 38 to 50. One of these stunning coats would make a most acceptable Christmas gift—proving your generous Happy Christmas wishes to mother, daughter or sister!

Houghton's, second floor

A Christmas gift suggestion

Beret and scarf sets

59c

Packed in individual boxes

Here's a perky fashion gift that can be worn with the utmost chic! Smart beret with scarf to match in brightly colored brushed wool, also corduroy. Orange, red, green, blue, brown, sand and white.

Houghton's, street and second floor

Give him a practical gift

Boys' sheeplined coats

Usually 2.95 2.69

A Christmas gift that a boy will enjoy and a practical one at that! These are made of black leatherette fabric lined with thick, warm sheepskin lining. Sizes 8 to 18.

MELTON COSSACKS

Tailored of 32-oz. blue Melton cloth extra warm and heavy —has talon zipper front, sizes 8 to 18. 2.55

Houghton's, street floor

Gifts for outdoor wear!

Corduroy ski pants

2.98

Well tailored fine grade corduroy in solid green, brown, blue, red or black—all warmly lined in wool kasha—fitted ankle cuffs, waist band. Sizes 14 to 20.

Sport sweaters

In solid colors or gay stripes, plaids, prints —in two-tones. These come in long or elbow length sleeve—crew, turtle and v-neckline — brushed and plain wool or zephyr. 2.29

Houghton's, second floor

Ascher's tots' wool knit suits

leggins sweater mittens helmet 3.49

Ascher's knit suits are of the finest—100% pure wool, these look like hand knitted—two styles, coat or slipon sweaters. Sizes 1 to 4. Colors: White, red and pastels.

Girls' gift pajamas

Girls and tiny girls have their mother's enthusiasm over dainty lingerie gifts—these are beautiful pajamas of finely woven soft rayon in one piece style—some trimmed with dainty fagoting—all have touches of pretty ribbons. Sizes 8 to 16. 1.15

Houghton's, second floor

Gloves are always welcome

Cape gloves 2.25

Two of the many styles offered

Expertly fashioned of fine quality skins—full cut (table cut), all washable and guaranteed to give excellent service. In novelty slip-on style—fancy stitching and applique —black and white. Sizes 6 to 8.

Women's LINED capeskin gloves

—A smartly tailored glove, pull-on style, made of soft, sturdy capeskin in tan or brown —lined in warm wool fleece. Sizes 6 to 8½. 1.29

Houghton's, street floor

Say "Merry Christmas" this way

16-rib umbrellas

3.95

Fine grade—16-rib frame

The Christmas gift umbrella has evolved to the height of smartness—made of beautiful imported fabrics, many all silks, choose in navy, brown, green, black and white—novelty weaves—and all rainproof. These have 16 rib frame, wooden shank gilt frames —smart handles.

Houghton's, street floor

This luxurious Christmas gift would delight any woman

Linen lunch cloth sets with six or twelve napkins

Regular price 5.99 3.49 set

Imported pure linen cloths in white or solid pastels with pastel border—deep hem and hemstitched cloths, sizes 54x54, 54x69 and 54x70. These come in sets with six or twelve napkins. Boxed.

Houghton's, street floor

The most enchanting of Christmas gifts

Women's pure satin gowns

Usually 8.98 and $10 5.98

Such beauties! What excited acclamations of joy will greet these on Christmas morn—intricately cut gowns in the new fashion with deep low cut back—trimmed elaborately in imported laces at top and hem—long satin sash. In peach satin.

Houghton's, second floor

FOR HIM: these comfy

Tweedroy slippers

79c

He'd never dream they cost so little!

The way to man's heart is very often your consideration of his comfort! These are the coziest slippers imaginable! Made of new soft fabric that looks like fine quality corduroy with printed tweed patterns. In shades of brown or gray. Sizes 6 to 11. Soles are leather—heels with rubber lift.

Houghton's, second floor

Say "Merry Christmas" scent-imentily!

Hudnut Gift sets

1.65 to 6.50

Popular Hudnut toiletries for presentation to your dearest friends—complete sets in beautiful gift boxes.

Gorgeous Coty sets

$1 to 4.75

For men and women, sets containing exquisite toiletries perfumed with the intriguing Coty odeurs—all in lovely gift boxes.

Yardley's Gift sets

75c to 3.50

Complete sets for men, women and Baby—the delightful Yardley toiletries—scented with the famous Yardley Old English lavender perfume.

Bourjois Gift packages

1.65 to 7.50

Sentimentally these are Christmas gifts de luxe—complete sets fragrant with Evening in Paris or Springtime in Paris.

Houghton's, street floor

Superior decorative quality

Damask drapes

2.98 pr.

A beautiful gift for home

They are of rich damask made of rayon woven with cotton, the rayon gives a high lustrous effect, the cotton endures long wear. These are tailored with three pinch pleats—each drape lined in sturdy cotton satine. Tie-backs and hooks included. Each side 25 in. by 2 1-3 yds. long. Colors: rust, red, gold, green, blue or rose.

Houghton's, fourth floor

DON'T FORGET TO GET YOUR LEGAL STAMPS . . . THEY'RE YOUR EXTRA SAVINGS

NRA WILL BRING BOOM, SAYS SEN. LEWIS

Los Angeles, Dec. 15 (U8)—Fairly bristling with confidence, Senator James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois, veteran and picturesque statesman, brought with him to Los Angeles an enthusiastic affirmation of faith in President Roosevelt's policies.

The beloved "J. Ham" of American politics, at ease in his hotel quarters, alternated denunciation of "financial manipulators" with approbation of the administration's reconstruction efforts.

Prosperity, he promised, is imminent.

And, he declared, the Pacific Coast, California particularly, will be the first part of the country to experience the benefits resulting from reduction of the gold content of the dollar.

NATIONS CAN BUY

"Mexico, China, Japan, and Russia," he said, "now can proceed to purchase in normal quantity from the United States, and naturally those countries will apply their buying power primarily to California and its sister states of the Pacific slope.

"Though the administration's policy is not to the profit of money speculators it is peculiarly beneficial to legitimate business, insofar as it brings about an immense increase in foreign trade."

Senator Lewis assailed President Henry I. Harriman of the United States Chamber of Commerce "and others who howl about inflation."

"There never has been any inflation," he asserted. "There has been, of course, the suggestion of increasing the currency to get it back to where it was before financial manipulators sent it to foreign countries.

DANGERS KNOWN

"President Roosevelt," he added, "has carefully considered every phase of every proposition suggestive of inflation. From personal conference, I know he is conscious of the dangers therein.

"While approving a proper increase of currency to meet business demands, the President will not propose in a message to the Congress any inflation of the United States dollar in any sense that could weaken its value in America or lessen its business strength abroad."

Senator Lewis is in Los Angeles on a speaking tour sponsored by the NRA. He is, he said, charged with the duties of dispelling false impressions and of giving the public a clear idea of what is being done toward reconstruction.

"At the conclusion of my tour," he said, "I shall go to San Simeon to pay my respects to that great American, William Randolph Hearst, for whom I have the highest admiration."

Toes Swing Cupid's Pen

Believe it or not, Paul Desmuke, extreme left, signed with his left foot in applying to Registrar James J. Mulvey for a license to wed Miss Mae Dixon. At the prospective bridegroom's side is Miss Dixon, while on her left are Registrar Mulvey and secretary, Miss Betty Kiley. The important event will be consummated when the legal five-day interim has expired.

Armless Man's Toes Swing Pen for Wedding License

Marriage intentions were filed, late Thursday, by Paul Desmuke, 37, armless Texan from San Antonio, and Miss Mae Dixon, 30, who gave Corinth, Miss., as her home.

City Registrar James J. Mulvey had misgivings about obtaining the prospective bridegroom's signature, but Desmuke relieved a tense situation by removing his left shoe, plucking a fountain pen from his pocket, and signing on the dotted line.

"All armless people are left-footed," he explained, as he reached for a blotter with his toes.

"We've been planning to do this since soon after we started working together at the World's Fair," confided Miss Dixon, "but somehow or other we just didn't seem able to get to it until just now."

The applicants are identified with the Ripley "Believe It or Not" odditorium at Horticultural Hall. Demonstrating what can be accomplished without arms, Desmuke does a daily turn of shaving himself and lighting a cigar. As a climax he tosses knives at the bride-to-be, as she stands against a pine board.

"I learned that stunt when I doubled for Lon Chaney in his movie, 'The Unknown,'" Desmuke explained.

Before leaving the registrar's office, the applicants were informed that they would have to comply with the statutory requirement and wait five days before consummating the big event.

"Oh yes," spoke up Desmuke, "I used to be a judge down in Bexar County, Texas, and I keep up on such things. All we ask is that you keep it out of the papers until the wedding is over. We don't want a lot of foolishness."

Inquiry at the Ripley Odditorium revealed that friends of the couple are planning to give them a real ceremony, with Miss Elizabeth Thomas of Camden, S. C., famous for her wealth of hair (seven feet in length), as bridesmaid. Raymond Willis, "the mechanical man," is being groomed as best man.

"If this thing has to happen," remarked Cassius Miller, the odditorium manager, "we might as well make the most of it."

From 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. Saturday, a school children's matinee will be held at the Ripley Odditorium in Horticultural Hall. During the two-hour period the admission will be 10 cents for boys and girls aged 12 years and under. Adults will be admitted from 11 a. m. to 11 p. m., Saturday, for the usual 40-cent fee. Sunday's continuous performances will start at 2 p. m.

Sale of McCormick Furnishings Set

Chicago, Dec. 15 (US)—Luxurious household furnishings of the late Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick will be offered at public sale, beginning Jan. 15, it has been announced.

A part will go on sale at the town house at 1000 Lake Shore Drive and another part, later, at Villa Turicum, the summer estate in Lake Forest.

The magnificent furnishings and the famous objects of art will be on exhibit commencing Jan. 10. The sale will continue until everything is sold.

The New York sale, which will dispose of jewelry and silverware, will run from Jan. 2 to Jan. 6.

Students to Visit Westwood Scouts

Scotland at Westwood, outdoor headquarters for all Boy Scouts in the Greater Boston area, will play host this week-end.

The occasion is the annual night camping session for members of the class in "Elements and Principles of Scoutmastership." Attendance is required and the trip is "on" regardless of weather conditions.

Do you need some ready cash? Surely. Everyone does. The jewelers listed daily in the miscellaneous columns are ready to give you cash for your old gold, dental gold, watches or old silver.

WASHINGTON Jewelry Co.

RADIO Sensation!

FRIDAY & SATURDAY!

NO AERIAL NO GROUND NEEDED | ANY CURRENT A.C.-D.C. | DYNA SPEAKER | R.C.A. TUBES | SWEETEST TONE, GREATEST VOLUME!

The PERSONAL Gift.....

. . that the recipient may enjoy in the privacy of HIS or HER room.

. . Amazing new radio that needs NO antenna or ground! Any current —anywhere—Just plug in —and hear America's finest programs. Regular price $29.75.

$16.48

Only 48¢ a Week

EASY TERMS!

WASHINGTON Jewelry Co.

365 WASHINGTON ST. —Near Bromfield St.

503 WASHINGTON ST. —Near Temple Pl.

Mail Orders Filled—Send 1st Payment

OPEN EVENINGS

NRA WE DO OUR PART

FIRST NATIONAL STORES INC.

NRA WE DO OUR PART

FACE of RUMP

Boneless PRIME BEEF

Selected from CORN-FED STEERS

AT FIRST NATIONAL MARTS

18c lb

Every roast of beef or, in fact, any meat purchase at your First National Market is guaranteed to be of the finest quality. If you are not entirely satisfied your money will cheerfully be refunded.

THE outlook for Christmas Turkeys indicate that the quality will be excellent. We advise our customers to leave their orders now and we absolutely guarantee complete satisfaction or your money will be cheerfully refunded. Leave Your Turkey Order NOW

RIB ROAST DELICIOUS, JUICY PRIME HEAVY CORN FED STEER BEEF LB 18c

CHUCK ROAST BONELESS OVEN OR POT ROAST — ALL BEST CUTS HEAVY STEER BEEF LB 18c

Sirloin ROAST BONELESS PRIME HEAVY CORN FED STEER BEEF ALL JUICY, TENDER CUTS LB 32c

LAMB FORES TENDER FINE FLAVOR — BONED AND ROLLED IF DESIRED LB 10c

LAMB LEGS GENUINE SPRING QUALITY — LIGHT TASTY TENDER MEAT LB 18c

SHOULDERS FRESH — LEAN — A NICE PORK ROAST— MAKES AN ECONOMICAL MEAL LB 10c

Fancy Brisket MILDLY CURED CORNED BEEF — NOT SALTY OR WASTEFUL LB 19c

Fish Department Specials

HALIBUT FANCY SLICED LB 25c

SWORDFISH SLICED LB 29c

OYSTERS FOR STEWING PINT 23c

CALIFORNIA ORANGES 2 DOZEN MED. SIZE 39c — 2 DOZEN SM. SIZE 33c

Fresh Fruits and Vegetables

Apples FANCY MacINTOSH 4 LBS 17c

Spinach LARGE LEAVES 3 LBS 19c

Carrots CALIFORNIA 2 Bunches 13c

Celery WHITE CRISP 2 Bunches 25c

PRICES FOR BOSTON AND VICINITY

FANCY BROOKSIDE CREAMERY ROLLS - SPECIAL WEEK-END PRICE

BUTTER WHOLE MILK VARIETY — SPECIAL LOW PRICE 2 LBS 45c

CHEESE 2 LBS 37c

FINAST BREAD FLOUR OR OLD HOMESTEAD PASTRY FLOUR

FLOUR LARGE 24½ LB BAG 89c

PILLSBURY'S FLOUR lge 24½ lb bag $1.05

Lucky Strike - Camel - Chesterfield - Old Gold pkg 10c

Cigarettes Ctn 10 Pkgs 99c

STRAWBERRY • RASPBERRY • BLACKBERRY • CHERRY • APRICOT • PINEAPPLE

Pure Preserves MIRABEL 2 1 LB JARS 35c

Van Camp's Milk 3 TALL TINS 17c

Libby's CORNED BEEF 2 12 oz TINS 29c

Shoulders SMOKED MILD — LEAN LB 10c

Tomato Catsup FINAST 2 14 oz BOTS 25c

Steak Salmon FINAST RED IN RICH OIL No ½ TIN 19c

Beardsley's Shredded Codfish Delicious served hot creamed on toast 2 PKGS 25c

Choice Peas Tender Sweet Sifted 3 No 1 TINS 25c

Richmond Peas Sweet Sifted Garden Variety 2 No 2 TINS 29c

Crystaline Salt Free Running 2 2 lb ctns 13c

Kre-Mel Pudding Easy To Prepare 3 pkgs 10c

Shredded Wheat 2 pkgs 23c

Uneeda Biscuits N.B.C. 4 pkgs 17c

Brown Edge Wafers N.B.C. lb bulk 29c

Molasses Chips Chocolate Coated lb box 29c

Milco Malt Johnson's - Free picture book 1 lb tin 39c

Peanut Chew Touraine lb 19c

Ralston Breakfast Cereal pkg 23c

Lucky Strike Cigarettes pkg 10c

CRACKED WHEAT BREAD SPECIAL PRICE THIS WEEK — THE NEW BREAD SENSATION LGE 20 oz LOAF 8c

COCOANUT AND CHERRY BAR CAKES A Week-End Special Fresh From Our Ovens EACH 19c

Serve Waffles and Maple Syrup

Makes Waffles Quicker And Easier

Bisquick 2½ LB PKG 33c

100% Pure Vermont Sap Syrup

Maple Syrup ½ PT JAR 21c

ICEBERG SCARE FOR CREW OF BYRD SHIP

Universal Service Special Wireless

S. S. Jacob Ruppert, Enroute to Antarctic, Dec. 15—The thick fog which encircled the flagship of the second Byrd Antarctic expedition yesterday had thinned into a haze.

We are making full speed on a southeasterly course and the 24 hour run at noon was 240 miles. We were 115 miles northeast of the Antipodes Islands. As we move south the days grow longer and colder.

This Thursday will be 48 hours long. At 5 o'clock this morning we recrossed the 180th meridian, the international dateline, and snapped the day we lost December 3, so it will be Thursday all day tomorrow as well.

The full energies of the crew are directed toward preparing for the impending struggle with the pack. You have the feeling of a warship being cleared for action. The decks are naked of cargo. The supply officer broke out the first cold weather clothing. A number of men tried out their clothes. The dogs then went frantic. Either the dogs mistook them for an exciting breed of Siberian Malmute or got a scent of the polar regions.

Admiral Byrd issued strict orders for conservation of food and clothing. We're entering the great one-shop area of the world, he said, and whatever is wasted or lost can't be replaced. Down here waste is a felony.

Careful steps were taken to safeguard against encountering stray icebergs. There was one scare. In a brief time water temperature dropped from 58 degrees to 50 and the bridge telegraphed first slow and then half speed. Eyes strained into the gloom. Suddenly a bell set up a strident clamoring and upon the bridge the telegraph was swung to full speed astern. The whole ship shuddered, then up from the engine room came a homeric laugh. In the engine room an inexperienced hand had struck eight bells and a vagrant wind had so carried the sound to the bridge that it had sounded like the iceberg alarm from the foc'sle head.

HOCKEY HEADS START PROBE

Continued From First Page

was learned that the Leafs' wing had spent a "fair" night although he is still partly under the influence of opiates. He showed no serious symptoms of shock as a result of the operation, it was said. His vitality and splendid physical condition are standing him in good stead.

Bailey is suffering from a small fracture as well as a brain hemorrhage or some other form of cranial bleeding.

WIFE VISITS HIM

Mrs. Mabel Bailey, wife of the stricken player, who, with their daughter, Joan, 3, rushed here yesterday from their home in Bracebridge, Ont., visited the hospital for half an hour today with Connie Smythe, manager of the Toronto team.

"I am greatly encouraged by the doctor's reports," she said on leaving. "My husband is comfortable, but because he is still under the influence of opiates, I could not speak with him.

"However, I am greatly reassured by my visit. And I have every confidence in Dr. Munro and the hospital officers." Then, with a glance at her little girl, she said:

"I have made no plans for Christmas. I only want him to get well."

Smythe had less to say as he left Bailey's room.

"The reports are encouraging. Bailey has a fighting chance. I'm going to the University Club now and will issue bulletins at two-hour intervals later in the day, if possible."

Agile Officer Captures Quarry

Special Officer George P. Dane of the Roxbury Crossing Station is a leaper of parts. He leaped from a second-story window to the ground, leaped a nine-foot fence and leaped on a man charged with keeping and exposing liquor. The fugitive gave his name as William Badgett, 19, of Hammond ter., Roxbury.

STATE PROBES GLENDON DEATH

Continued From First Page

dissatisfaction with reports that both had refused to answer police questions in connection with the case.

Smith, early today, told the Boston Evening American:

"The matter of Richard J. Glendon's death was brought to the attention of our office late last night by friends of the victim. I am informed the medical examiner has declared his death was due to accidental gunshot wounds.

"However, other circumstances in the case, which have been brought to my attention, warrant an exhaustive investigation.

"State Detective Bradford will question all residents of Chatham who might know something concerning Glendon's movements prior to his leaving on the hunting trip from which he failed to return.

"I am informed that he left a note which police thus far have been unable to read. Also that his wife has refused to answer questions put to her by police regarding his movements. I shall insist that we receive the note or are told its contents, and both the wife and his father answer our questions. I am not satisfied that death was accidental."

In connection with the note, it was reported here last night that it had been destroyed. Both Mrs. Glendon and the dead coach's father deny the existence of any note. Police Chief Everett Eldridge, however, declared yesterday that the search for the victim's body started after his father had come from his room with a note, crying:

"He's done it. We've got to keep looking now until we find him."

Glendon's body is in an undertaking parlor in Dennisport. It will be examined again today by Dr. Keene, although he has declared he will announce a finding of accidental death.

Doctor Sees Danger in Gayety at 40

Disease is more apt to level its shafts at gay livers who are more than 40 than against persons who lead the simple life, according to Dr. Robert Buck of Tufts Medical College.

Speaking before the Women's Business and Professional Club at Pilgrim Hall, he said the elixir of youth consists in a simple diet, quiet life and a happy mind.

Negro Admits Boys' Slaying at Halifax

Halifax, Dec. 15—Royal Canadian Mounted Police have arrested Daniel P. Sampson, of Halifax, and accused him of slaying two boys, Bramwell, 10, and Edward, 12, Heffernan, whose bodies were found beside a railway track five months ago.

Police said the 49-year old Negro laborer confessed. They declined to discuss the motive.

Boy Shoots Brother in Playing With Gun

Springfield, Dec. 15—A six-year-old boy shot his nine-year-old brother last night when a revolver with which they were playing accidentally discharged. Police said Jerry Sarno had a narrow escape from death as his brother held the revolver close to his cheek and pulled the trigger. The bullet perforated Jerry's left ear.

TODAY

Continued From First Page

body "dies," does the soul start on its long journey, and then come back, in case of sudden recovery, or does it wait a definite time before leaving to make sure?

Non-believers in immortality say, "There is no soul." When the body dies what you call the soul dies with it. If the body returns to life, the soul lives on. It's like the power that keeps an automobile going. When the automobile is junked the power is junked.

But those gentlemen don't know.

Colonel Shutts, of Miami, editor and newspaper owner, making a speech on success, said this, worth remembering:

"One very important ingredient of success is a good, wideawake, persistent, tireless enemy.

"One enemy is worth 20 friends, in promoting success. An enemy to an ambitious man is like the rhinoceros bird to the rhinoceros. When the enemy comes the rhinoceros bird tells about it. When a successful man is making mistakes the enemy immediately calls attention and warns the man.

"Friends praise you, pointing out good things you do. You know all about that. Your enemies attack you, point out your mistakes. Get for yourself a first-class enemy, cultivate him as an enemy, and when you achieve success, thank him."

Twenty-two members of Italy's Senate yesterday swore "allegiance to their country," but omitted from their oath the usual pledge of loyalty to King Victor Emmanuel, while Premier Mussolini looked on. The present King will probably not be disturbed, but many Italians believe that he will have no successor.

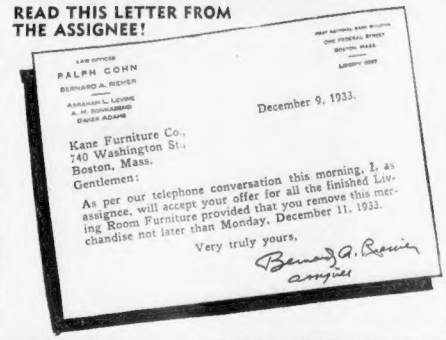
Italy may decide to do without a King, but gratitude to the royal house that has served Italy so faithfully will long survive among patriotic Italians.

Copyright 1933 Kings Features, Syndicate, Inc.

HUNTINGTON AVE.
FIREPROOF CONSTRUCTION
STORAGE
HOUSEHOLDERS' FURNITURE AND OTHER GOODS
MONTHLY RATES
Boston Storage Warehouse Co
Phone KEN. 8050 or COM. 1326
Edw. L. Wingate, Gen. Mgr.

DON'T BUY A LIVING ROOM SUITE BEFORE YOU SEE THESE!

READ THIS LETTER FROM THE ASSIGNEE!



LAW OFFICES
RALPH COHN
BERNARD A. RICHER
ASSOCIATES
ABRAHAM L. LEVINE
A. M. BONNARENO
BAKER ADAMS

FIRST NATIONAL BANK BUILDING
ONE FEDERAL STREET
BOSTON, MASS.
LIBERTY 0557

December 9, 1933.

Kane Furniture Co.,
740 Washington St.,
Boston, Mass.
Gentlemen:

As per our telephone conversation this morning, I, as assignee, will accept your offer for all the finished Living Room Furniture provided that you remove this merchandise not later than Monday, December 11, 1933.

Very truly yours,
Bernard A. Richer
assignee

Sold Out To KANE'S!

A Great Purchase and Sale of High Grade

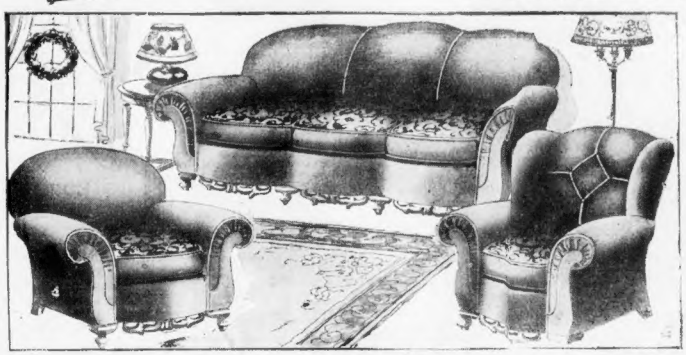
LIVING ROOM SUITES

Which We Bought From the Assignee!

YOU SAVE $40 to $100!

Friday and Saturday -- 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

And, in order to make this a Sale of Living Room Furniture that will be talked about for years to come, we are also including many items from our regular stock reduced especially for this sale!



12-PIECE LIVING ROOM OUTFIT!

Upholstered ALL OVER in MOHAIR and WORSTED!

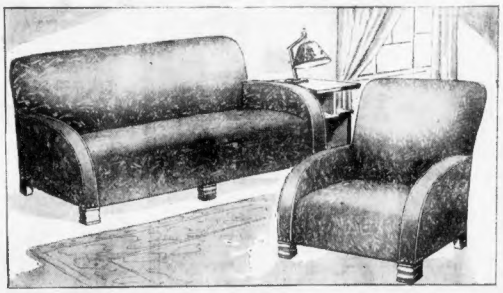
Can you think of a finer Xmas gift for the home than a new living room outfit! Beautiful pieces! Sofa, Club Chair and "Bunny" Chair, beautifully upholstered in Mohair and Wool! And all these "extras" besides! Occasional Table, End Table, Floor Lamp and Shade, Bridge Lamp and Shade, Pair of Book Ends and Throw Rug. 12 Pieces complete.

$69 $5 DOWN

6-Piece English Lounge Chair Group!

Beautifully upholstered English Lounge Chair together with Bridge Lamp and Shade, Book Trough End Table and Pair of Book Ends. 6 Pieces.

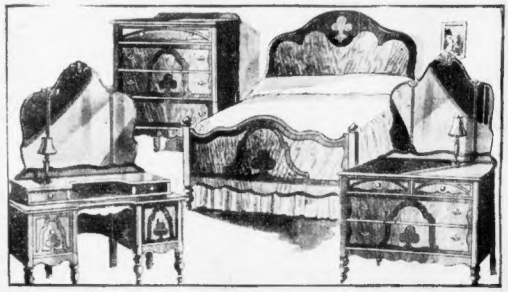
$16.75 80c WEEKLY



Beautiful 2-Piece Modernistic Living Room Suite!

Handsomely upholstered Sofa and Easy Chair. One of the greatest values we've ever offered! Just in time for Xmas comes this sensational Sale by which we are able to offer the greatest Living Room Values in our entire career!

$45 $5 DOWN



12-Piece Lovely Bedroom Outfit

Bed, Chest of Drawers and your choice of Dresser or Vanity. Made of Handsome Walnut Veneers and Gumwood. And all these "extras" are included, too! Spring, Mattress, Pair of Pillows, Pair of Boudoir Lamps, Bed Light and 2 Pictures. 12 Pieces.

If Both Dresser and Vanity Are Wanted, $19.95 Extra

$69 $5 DOWN

OTHER EXCEPTIONAL LIVING ROOM BARGAINS!

Our Regular $150 3 Piece London Club Style Living Room Suite . . NOW $79
Our Regular $175 3 Piece English Lounge Style Living Room Suite NOW $95
Our Regular $200 3 Piece Hollywood Style Living Room Suite . . . NOW $119

And Many Other Sensational Bargains Too Numerous to List Here!

Triple Studio Couch

Use it as a Sofa by day and as a full size bed or a separate pair of twin beds at night. Complete with mattress and pillows . . . . . $13.95 60c WEEKLY

Gov. Winthrop Desk

Mahogany veneers and gumwood. A fine reproduction of this beautiful Colonial piece of furniture. Special

$14.95 50c WEEKLY

SALE OF TOYS!

Doll Carriage SPECIAL $1.49

Rocking Horse SPECIAL $1.49

Child's Rocker SPECIAL 98c

Wal. Veneered Cedar Chest

Window seat style. We have a marvelous line of cedar chests to select from. Chest pictured above is a special offering at . . . . . $13.95 50c WEEKLY

CABINET RADIO

Beautiful Highboy Cabinet—Complete with all TUBES.

$19.95 80c WEEKLY

KANE'S
740 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON
Shop at the Nearest KANE Store

NYDE PARK 1295 River St. | MALDEN 9 Dartmouth St. | CAMBRIDGE 900 Mass. Ave. | FRAMINGHAM 64 Irving St. | WALTHAM 390 Moody St. | TAUNTON 24 Winthrop St. | QUINCY 1546 Hancock St.

SAVE AT KANE'S—NEW ENGLAND'S LARGEST FURNITURE INSTITUTION

MILLIONS FOR JEWISH AID

Transfer of Jews in Germany to the United States, and plans for a new drive for a $10,000,000 fund were indicated by James Waterman Wise, son of Rabbi Stephen S. Wise and editor of Opinion, at a meeting of the women's division of the Boston section, American Jewish Congress at Temple Israel meeting house, Brookline.

Wise, who recently returned from the London conference, said getting the Jews out of Germany will be one of the major issues of the world drive to be made for the help of sufferers in that country. He said room must be made in America for a goodly number of them.

The Troubles of a Modern "Messiah." A Revealing Article On the Lives of These Modern Holy Men, in The American Weekly, the Magazine Distributed with the Dec. 17 Boston Sunday Advertiser.

"Rev. Leggat" on Register Gives Ship Puzzle

The Rev. H. C. Leggat of Quincy, listed among those sailing tonight on the liner Britannic, is not the Rev. Hugh C. Leggat, who resigned his pastorate at the Hough's Neck Congregational Church six weeks ago.

He made this declaration in person at his home in Manet ave., and expressed complete bewilderment over the whole affair. Steamship officials also are perplexed, pointing to the fact that the name is listed and that there is no other clergyman of that name in the section.

The Rev. Leggat declared he talked with a friend in the steamship business about two months ago, and had inquired about rates and other matters concerning a visit to his native Scotland some day.

However, he has no intention of sailing at present. He also intimated the matter was of no importance to him.

The listing of the name among those sailing tonight, however, has caused considerable interest among the parishioners of the church. His resignation is not effective until January 1.

He stated last night that he had resigned because the church was unable to pay him, due to the heavy drain on its funds for welfare purposes.

Mayor Curley's Exit Depicted in Skit

Highlights of the recent Boston mayoralty campaign were depicted in a skit "Jimmy Doesn't Live Here Any More," that featured the second annual gridiron dinner of the young Democrats of Boston, held in Meganstett Tea Room at T wharf with 150 members and guests in attendance.

Mayor Curley and the eight candidates were included in the cast of characters.

STATE POLICE'S NEW RECORD

Members of the State patrol were receiving high praise today for establishing what is believed to be a country-wide record, with 4766 convictions out of 5271 arrests in the past three months.

According to Public Safety Commissioner Daniel Needham, the number of convictions is larger than ever before, and show the troopers are as efficient outside as in the cities.

The convictions resulted in imposition of fines totaling $40,047.20, which will be turned over to cities and towns where the arrests were made.

Million Dollar Span Planned

Turners Falls, Mass., Dec. 15—The league selectmen have displayed plans for a million dollar bridge to span the Connecticut river at the site of the Turners Falls Power Co. They said they would seek a $300,000 federal grant and loan.

121,250 ON CWA JOBS IN STATE

With 121,250 persons having been given jobs as the Massachusetts quota, the civil works board has finished its purpose in this state. It has asked permission from Washington, however, to increase the Bay State quota by 25,000 and this authorization is awaited now.

The original quota of jobs assigned to this state was 97,000.

The board made such rapid progress toward that goal that the administration in Washington added nearly 25,000 more jobs. These were authorized by the local board in less than four days and tentative approval was given to projects entailing jobs for about 10,000 more. Only word from Washington increasing the quota is holding up orders for cities and towns to add to their forces on civil works jobs.

WOMEN TO GET JOBS

Efforts to get 10,000 women on jobs in this program has not been completed, but tentative approval was given to women's projects for the employment of 4000 women. Chairman Joseph W. Bartlett said there will be 10,000 women put to work within the next few days, regardless of what the final quota is.

Chairman Bartlett said the members of the board are hopeful that Harry L. Hopkins, federal relief administrator, will give permission for the raising of the quota another 25,000. They are confident they can authorize enough new projects from the cities and towns to get that number of men and women to work within the next four days.

APPROVAL NEEDED

Under the original plan, all projects must be approved now, and no change has been made in that plan, but unofficial word from Washington indicated that if the man called for in the projects can be put to work within a few days, they will come under the regulations.

It was ruled by the board that from now on, all men put to work on civil works projects must be taken from the re-employment agencies rather than from the welfare rolls of the cities and towns. Heretofore, the men were taken equally from the re-employment service and the welfare lists. Word of the ruling was sent last night to civil works administrators in all the cities and towns of the state.

Truck Driver's Hand Mangled in Jam

Neil Bradley, 33, of Waterbury, Ct., was recovering at Cambridge City Hospital today after an emergency operation to save his right hand, mangled in the transmission mechanism of his truck in Kendall sq. last night.

Bradley was forced to wait 45 minutes while mechanics and firemen worked to extricate him. He was fixing the air brakes when the accident occurred.

Lottery Causes Divorce Action

Paris, Dec. 15—Lottery leads to divorce, or at least such was the grounds for divorce offered by a Frenchman here following the first Paris draw.

The man, a government clerk, bought a lottery ticket for 100 francs. When he got an offer for it at 150 francs his wife made him sell it.

The ticket won and the neighbor who bought it was 50,000 francs to the good. The original purchaser went home instead of going to work, kicked the door open and shouted at his wife:

"Idiot! Imbecile! You made me sell my ticket for a measley fifty francs! I'm through." And he slammed the door and rushed to the divorce court.

Mushroom Growers Obtain Federal Aid

Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 15—The Mushroom Grower's Co-operative Association was the first organization of its kind in Pennsylvania to be granted a loan from the Federal Farm Credit Administration.

Last month the association made applications and was granted a loan by the Baltimore branch of the Federal Farm Credit Service.

The loan was granted for a period of ten years to enable the co-operative association to liquidate its mortgage indebtedness to a Kenneth sq. bank, and thus release a considerable sum of cash for the bank's local business use.

Horned Rooster Rules Barnyard

Walterville, Ore., Dec. 15—The Clarence Potter barnyard is presided over by a horned rooster. A two-horned growth appeared on the fowl's comb when it was a month old and has grown in size with the rooster.

The points jutting out from the comb are of the same color as the comb, about a quarter of an inch in diameter and extend about one inch in length.

Canaries, Goldfish Lost in Reading Fire

An overheated stove was said by officials today to have caused a fire in the hay and grain store of L. M. Johnson at Haven and Linden sts., Reading, in which a number of canaries and goldfish, procured for the Christmas trade, perished. Damage in the blaze was estimated at $5000.

Dance by Bay State Associates Set

The second annual dance of the Bay State Associates will be held tomorrow evening at the Elizabeth Peabody House.

Frank Bodanowicz, chairman, is assisted by Herbert Hessel, Ben Flaxman, Ruby Kaplan, Ted Black, Al Drukman, Walter Balkiecz, Richard and Harold Perlmutter.

Man's Frozen Body Found

South Deerfield, Dec. 15—The body of Adam Lasecznik, 50, frozen and covered with snow, has been found along the Connecticut river, near Sunderland bridge. Medical Examiner H. G. Stetson said death was due to heart disease.

Turn to the classified page today and select the rental ad that appeals to you. Then go to R. H. White Company and consult with Barbara Holmes. She will save you both time and money.

Five Acquitted in Ford Hall Riot

Five men seized by police during the rioting outside Ford Hall when Prof. Friedrich Schoenemann attempted to speak on the Nazi regime in Germany, were found guilty of sauntering and loitering by Judge Carr in Municipal court. They were all found not guilty of inciting a riot.

ECCO ECONOMY GROCERY STORES NRA

Boneless CHUCK ROAST FOR OVEN OR POT ROAST

CUT FROM HEAVY STEER BEEF LB. 16¢

• OTHER DELICIOUS ROASTS •

Prime Rib lb. 18¢
Beef Shoulder lb. 18¢
Boneless Sirloin lb. 33¢

• • SEA FOOD • •

Swordfish Sliced lb. 29¢
Smelts Fancy lb. 17¢

LAMB Genuine Spring LEGS lb. 18¢ — DRES lb. 10¢
HAMS ECCO or WILSON CERTIFIED Vole or Self lb. 16¢
FRESH HAMS Eastn Whole or Half lb. 15¢
FANCY BRISKET CORNED BEEF lb. 19¢
SHOULDERS SMOKED—At All Eco Stores FRESH—At Eco Markets lb. 10¢

BUTTER Countryside Roll Special Low Price 2 lbs. 45¢
MILK VAN CAMP'S EVAPORATED 3 Tall Cans 17¢
FLOUR BREAD or PASTRY 24½ lb. bag 89¢ — PILLSBURY or ECCO SPECIAL 24½ lb. bag $1.05
CIGARETTES Luckies, Chesterfields, Camels, Old Golds—pkg. 10c carton of 200 99¢

Pea Beans California 2 1-lb. pkgs. 15c — Michigan 5 lbs. 19c
Ecco Preserves Pure All Flavors 2 1 lb. jars 35c
Salada Tea Red Label ½ lb. pkg. 41c
Lovely Jell All Flavors 6 pkgs. 25c
Shaker Salt Or Ecco 2 pkgs. 15c
Cream Lunch Sunshine lb. pkg. 19c
Lucky Strikes Carton of 200 99c — pkg. 10c

Borden's Cream Cheese 2 pkgs. 15c
Force Cereal Flakes 2 pkgs. 25c
Pure Cod Liver Oil pint bot. 35c
Hecker's Farina pkg. 14c
Ivory Flakes lge. pkg. 21c
Camay Soap 5 cakes 25c

Ivory Soap Medium Size 4 cakes 19c
Baker's Cocoa For Breakfast ½ lb. can 10c
Peaches Sliced or Halves Ecco Fancy 2 No. 2½ cans 29c — Green Lima 2 No. 2½ cans 25c
Supersuds Beads of Soap 3 pkgs. 21c
Clorox Bleaches, Cleans and Disinfects 2 bots. 27c
Sunbrite Cleanser 2 cans 9c
Ecco Mayonnaise 2 pint jars or 1 quart jar 37c

Pure Honey 4 oz. jar 9c
La Touraine Coffee lb. tin 29c
Ovaltine can 39c
Campfire Marshmallows lb. 21c
S. S. Sugar Cookies lb. 17c
Peroxide of Hydrogen bottle 9c

JELLO or ROYAL DESSERTS All Flavors 5 pkgs. 25¢

• • FRESH FRUITS and VEGETABLES • •
Florida Grapefruit LARGE 3 for 19¢ MEDIUM 4 for 19¢
Oranges Juicy Florida large doz. 25¢ — 2 medium dozen 35¢
Green Peas Fresh 2 lbs. 19¢
Tangerines Florida Good Size 2 dozen 25¢

This Is National Cheese Week!
MILD CHEESE 2 lbs. 37¢

Medicated! Ingredients of Vicks VapoRub in Convenient Candy Form
VICKS COUGH DROP

Joyce Bros. Xmas Sale

OFFERS SPECIAL VALUES AT GREAT SAVINGS

You Don't Need Ready Cash To Shop Here

— OPEN A CHARGE ACCOUNT —

Pay in small divided amounts as you earn—It costs no more

GIFT IDEAS

HOSIERY Pure silk, full fashioned, chiffon and service weight 88c. 98c.

UNDERWEAR Slips! Gowns! Panties! Dancettes! Finest lingerie in silk, taffeta, rayon and dulray 69c. to 3.50

SCARFS Scotch plaids and Roman stripes, silk and wool 1.10 and 2.00

BAGS Genuine leather in the newest styles and colors 2.95 to 5.00

UMBRELLAS Attractive new models with fancy handles Gloria 2.39 Silk, 3.29 to 5.95

• CHARGE YOUR GIFTS •

TIES Stripes, checks, Persians. New patterns, finely tailored 59c. 95c. 1.50

SHIRTS Broadcloth in white and colors with soft or laundered collars and cuffs 1.50 1.79 1.95

HOSE Checks, plaids, stripes 3 pair for 1.00

PAJAMAS Coat, pullover and lounge models. fine broadcloth 1.00 to 1.95

BATHROBES All wool flannel . . . . . 7.95 Silk lounging robes . . . 9.95

SCARFS All silk and rayon-and-silk. Stripes, Persian and plain 1.50 to 3.95

• CHARGE YOUR GIFTS •

Fur Trimmed COATS DRAMATIC VALUES

For Thrifty Buyers

Fabrics, Furs and Feshions you'd never dream of finding at such a breath-taking low price

CHARGE YOUR PURCHASE

19.95 others to 59.50

SPECIAL SALE OF DRESSES

New, fresh stock at a price that should induce you to make yourself a present of at least one. Wools, sheers, failles, crepes, in the most popular styles and colors.

6.95 regularly 8.95

• OPEN A CHARGE ACCOUNT •

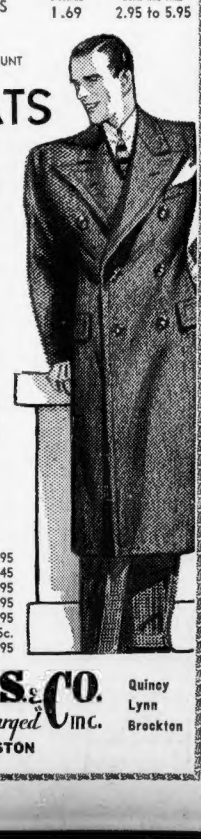
and for the girls

	(ages 2-6)	(ages 7-16)
COATS	3.95 to 9.95	8.95 to 16.50
DRESSES	cottons 1.69	wools and silks 2.95 to 5.95

OPEN A CHARGE ACCOUNT for one of these

O'COATS

Fine, heavy, burly coats in the popular models, colors and weaves. Exceptional values at this price.



24.50

SUITS

A new low price for Alden Park Suits. All pure worsted fabrics in the wanted patterns and shades.

21.95

and for the boys

Overcoats 7.95
Zipper Jackets 4.45
Wool 4-piece Suits . . 7.95
Juvenile Eton Suits . . 5.95
Juvenile Knit Suits . . 3.95
Shirts 89c. Hose 35c.
Cowboy Suits 4.95

Cambridge Malden Somerville

JOYCE BROS. & CO. INC.

Have Your Purchases Charged

Quincy Lynn Brockton

38 SUMMER ST., BOSTON (NEXT TO KENNEDY'S)

WIFE BLAMES MATE'S THEFTS ON NARCOTIC

Sacramento, Cal., Dec 15 (U S) Clutching her 10-month-old baby to her breast, a pretty, 20-year-old girl-mother sobbed out in police here a tragic story of how her husband, crazed with narcotics, forced her to help him on a career of crime.

The girl, a former nurse, was arrested here yesterday. She is Mrs. Ruth Sorahan, an attractive wisp of a blonde.

Her husband, Phillip Sorahan, is under arrest in San Jose for burglaries.

"Phillip was a good husband until he started to use marihuana," the girl sobbed. "We were happily married, and both looked forward eagerly to the birth of our first child.

"Then some one got him started smoking marihuana. Over-night he changed. He lost his job, and started to steal to get money to buy dope.

"He would beat me until I fainted from pain.

"He threatened to kill me if I didn't help him dispose of the things he stole. I would take them to the pawn shop. Phillip would go into insane rages when I failed to get what he thought was a good price for the things."

War on Chicago Dope Ring Planned

Chicago, Dec. 15—With the determination to smash the "dope" peddling rings in Chicago and adjacent states in the most determined drive in recent years, Mrs. Elizabeth Raza, head of the local narcotic bureau, today was en route to Washington.

She will confer with both treasury officials and Atty.-Gen. Homer S. Cummings on an extensive plan of co-operation that will insure speedy prosecutions.

Curt Maynard Invitation Ends Talk

Collector of the Port Joseph A Maynard is now suffering but he reached the limit of his patience when a bum of conversation almost drowned out his voice in an address at the annual banquet of the Traffic Club of New England at the Copley-Plaza.

Interrupting his speech, Maynard said:

"I know some of the boys don't approve these stories now that repeal of prohibition has come about, and don't care to extend proper courtesy to a speaker. I suggest that they come before the microphone and try it themselves."

There was no further trouble.

HEARST STOCK DIVIDENDS IN MAILS

San Francisco, Dec. 15—The vast army of stockholders in Hearst Consolidated Publications, Inc., living in every state in the union and 16 American possessions and foreign countries, are receiving today their regular Christmas dividend on Hearst 7 per cent class "A" cumulative preferred shares.

This dividend is the fourth disbursement made this year and the fourteenth consecutive quarterly payment since the original public offering of Hearst shares in July.

STRONG EARNING POWER

Dividends for the entire year were fully earned by an ample margin during the first three-quarters of 1933, reflecting the strong earning power of Hearst properties, dated in spite of most drastic depression conditions.

Net earnings for the 12 months ending December 31, 1933, according to present estimates, will equal the previous year's profits.

Twelve seasoned and successful publishing enterprises, spanning the nation in advertising and circulation, compose the corporate structure of Hearst Consolidated Publications, Inc., and insure the tremendous earning power of that company.

PUBLIC CONFIDENCE

This group includes the American Weekly Magazine, with the largest circulation of any publication in the world; the New York Journal with the greatest evening circulation of any newspaper in the United States; the San Francisco Examiner, parent newspaper of the Hearst organization; the 93-year-old Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph, Los Angeles Examiner, Detroit Times, Chicago Evening American, Los Angeles Herald-Express, San Francisco Call-Bulletin, Seattle Post-Intelligencer, Oakland Post-Enquirer and American Newsprint Corporation.

These properties have a background of a half century of successful operation and public confidence.

There are more than 40,000 stockholders in Hearst Consolidated Publications, Inc., who have invested in this security because of its outstanding record, especially during the depression years.

BONDS RETIRED

The Hearst organization in its entirety has made payment during 1933 of $10,833,041.25 for the retirement of current bond maturities, bond interest and dividends on the seven per cent Class "A" preferred shares. This showing is indicative of the strength and prominence of the Hearst organization in meeting all financial obligations.

Rare Operation for Heart Ailment Is Success

Recently a patient entered the Robinson Memorial Hospital, an institution affiliated with the Boston University School of Medicine, suffering from aneurism, a heart disease which is considered peculiarly incurable. Ten days later he was minus his thyroid gland but cured.

The man was evidently dying but an examination by Lt. William D. Reid professor of cardiology and visiting physician at the School of Medicine showed a slight chance for recovery. The patient was to undergo a delicate operation for removal of his thyroid gland.

The patient was willing to take the chance. With the use of a new technique which was performed by Dr. Evans Barton [illegible] Memorial [illegible] The operation was [illegible] to perform [illegible] Massachusetts Memorial Hospitals and each of the [illegible] successful.

A section of [illegible] was removed from the [illegible] the [illegible] and [illegible] the [illegible] pressure and relieved the blood pressure by giving the heart less work to do.

GOVERNOR FOR UNITED POLICE

[illegible] by the State Chamber of Commerce [illegible] Massachusetts [illegible] of New [illegible] [illegible] time [illegible] [illegible] report of the [illegible] governor [illegible] thoroughly in favor [illegible] police [illegible] Metropolitan Boston [illegible] of the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

'beacon hill'

By Betty Alden

THREE OF THE MOST prominent debutantes of the winter will be honored tonight at a dance at the Hotel Somerset by Mrs. Richard Ely Danielson, assisted by Mrs. John S. Lawrence of Topsfield, mother of Miss Isabel and Mrs. Chatfield-Taylor Whitman, mother of Miss Nancy Whitman. Miss Dorothy West, daughter of Mr and Mrs. George S. West of Chestnut Hill, will be the third bud to be honored . . .

Many Yale men will attend the dance with Richard Ely Danielson, Jr., who is a student at Yale . . . there will be no ushers, as the affair will be informal and there will be no receiving line . . .

ISABEL LAWRENCE

Mrs. Danielson will have as her house guests over the week-end Miss Louise Auchincloss and Miss Beatrice Isham of New York . . . Mrs. James Greenway, Jr., of Wellesley, the former Helen Scott, will entertain her sister-in-law, Miss Ann Greenway, and Mrs. Charles S. Bird will have as her guest Mlle Antoinette Latchowska of Paris . . .

Mrs. Appleton King and her small son sailed two weeks ago for Europe to spend the winter on the Italian Riviera and southern France.

The first skiing party of the season will take the snow-train for New Hampshire hills this week-end . . . among those who are always on hand at these merry parties are Faith Donaldson, Betty Dumaine, Eleanor Gibson, Caroline Hunnewell, and their escorts . . .

Bon Ton Wracks Brains for Charity

IT'S THE TALK OF THE TON . . Boston's Bon-Ton, of course! The new word puzzle-book originated by William Howell Reed [illegible] city of Tufts College and sold for the benefit of North End Union House Center in Roxbury, of which Mr Arthur Lyman and Miss Louise Hunnewell of Wellesley are prominent [illegible] . . .

These new word puzzles which have become the craze since cross-word went out of fashion are guaranteed to increase the vocabulary and stimulate the brain . . . or what have you! Many puzzle parties are being given in the ultra-conservative Beacon Hill [illegible] word puzzle is still considered "gambling" and the books make not only an attractive shift from the conventional Christmas [illegible] but assist this 50-year old settlement house at John Eliot square where boys and young men are taught self-government self-respect and self-reliance President Conant please note!

Debs Exude Personality

WE ARE BEGINNING TO FIND a few debutantes with personality in our travels around town . . . thus far we have not seen anyone to beat Camilla Alsop, who dresses smartly, wears a becoming bob and has a warm, natural manner which is magnetic . . .

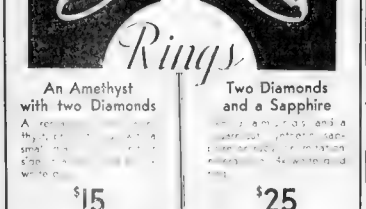
Martha Rogerson looks like a Gibson Girl with fluffy hair worn long with a knot at the nape of her slender neck and [illegible] intelligent eyes . . she was decidedly attractive in a gray-green wool dress as she sold odds and ends at the Animal Fair at the Copley-Plaza yesterday afternoon . . .

Camilla Alsop

Marjorie English has the gracious charm of her mother and we hear is very popular with the swans . . .

Mrs. Edith W Clark was mistress of the day at the M. S. P. C. A. and conducted one of the prettiest fairs we have been to in many seasons in the State Suite of the Copley . . . many useful and amusing articles were on sale. We glimpsed Mrs. William Morrill of Gloucester and her lovely daughter, Ann, selling their wares with the assistance of a snoozy bulldog who went through the audience with a tin can tied to his neck to gather in the coins . . . and very proud was he of his job.

Pretty, dark-eyed Joanne Palfrey was a serious and efficient little salesgirl and Nancy Ayer was intrigued to purchase a pan of fudge from her . . . We saw Jane Donald, Lois Swann, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Swann of New York, Nancy Moller, Laura Robbins and Eleanor Eustis taking their turn as salesgirls . . .



Rings

An Amethyst with two Diamonds

$15

Two Diamonds and a Sapphire

$25

Smith Patterson Co.
Diamond Merchants
Jewelers & Silversmiths
at the Corner of SUMMER & ARCH Sts. Boston

TEACHERS WILL PRESIDE AT SALE OF VETERANS' HANDIWO

DEBUTANTES ASSIST AT HUMANE SOCIETY SALE CANDY TABLE

Three of the young members of society whose formal introduction was high spots of the social season now in full swing, conducted the candy table at the annual sale of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals at the Copley-Plaza yesterday. From [illegible] came Nancy Moller daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moller and Eleanor Eustis daughter of Mrs. Frederick A. Eustis. Both are provisional members of the Vincent Club. Miss Eustis was introduced at a dance at the Milton Club in October. They assisted Laura Robbins, daughter of Mrs. Chandler Robbins, of Weston. She made her formal bow in June at a tea dance and is on the provisional list of the Vincent Club. Boston American Photo

NANCY MOLLER

LAURA ROBBINS

ELEANOR EUSTIS

Society's interest in their pets is not confined to sports events. The Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals traces its growth as an essential municipal organization to the continued support of the public in general and the social elect. And the interest of Beacon Hill is not confined to monetary subscriptions or verbal praise, for the younger set are carrying on the work of their elders

Junior League Set to Sell Greens

Always a delightful part of the holiday [illegible] the annual sale of festive greens which Junior League girls direct. The Little House of South Boston benefits from the proceeds derived from the house campaign which these girls will conduct this year on December 20 and 21 on Commonwealth ave Marlboro and Beacon sts, and [illegible] Ida st.

Mrs. [illegible] C. Parsons, chairman, urges that fresh holly [illegible] being sent from the Mayflower especially for this sale. Assisting Mrs. Parsons are Mrs. Louise Batchelder, Miss Nancy Brigham, Miss Mary Curtis, Miss Martha Wigglesworth, Miss Ruth Lyman, Mrs. Thomas Gray, Jr., Mrs. Morris F. LaCroix, Mrs. Stephen Paine and Miss Mary Curtis 2d.

Winter Sport Off

Dudley Wolfe has sailed for Germany to spend the winter at the so-smart ski-club in the mountains of a smart resort . . he had better watch his step on the top of them thar hills! Mrs. Hitler will get him if he don't watch out.

Mrs. William Faversham of Concord and Mrs. William K[illegible] two enterprising young matrons have careered toward paint trays, lampshades and [illegible] they tell us that their animal silhouettes are irresistible [illegible] the silhouettes of the charming ladies, the black and white [illegible] they cut out with a scissors.

Mrs. Grey Lockwood and her son, Rhoden, aunt and cousin of the talented Katherine Cornell, Graham Grey, have taken [illegible] ment at the old mansion [illegible] The Ludlow, for the winter.

Mrs. Ira Rich K[illegible] charmed again with her [illegible] slides on the Historic [illegible] tumes . . . Mrs. Richard Hooker and Miss Molly Harding of Concord appeared in the pictures in the costumes [illegible] "Little Women" last year.

Bridge was enjoyed and a fine [illegible] on show, not to mention an auction of several very [illegible] baskets of goodies . . . Miss Mildred G. Saunders won the HAM which was put up on chance. From now on it will be just one Christmas after another for the good of those who will inherit the Kingdom of Heaven.

Sale at League

A PENNY SALE will be held next Tuesday evening at the League House, 3 Arlington street, Boston, in aid of the Dominican Nuns of the Perpetual Rosary of West Springfield.

In Switzerland

Until February 1st Mr. and Mrs. Walter Haley and her husband, Dr. Walter Haley, will be in Switzerland on their honeymoon. Mrs. Haley was the former Yolande Arnold, 60½ Cambridge st., Boston. (Charlotte Crosby.)

Engagement of Miss Gardner Announced

Mr. and Mrs. George Peabody Gardner, Jr., of "Green Hill" Brookline, are announcing today the engagement of their daughter, Katherine Peabody Gardner, to Parmely W. Herrick, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Parmely W Herrick of Cleveland, O., and grandson of the late Ambassador Myron T. Herrick.

Miss Gardner was presented to society at a dance at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel last December and is a member of the Vincent Club and Junior League. After preparing at Miss Hall's School in Pittsfield, she studied in Paris for one winter.

Mr. Herrick entered Harvard, where he is now a senior, from St. Paul's School. He holds membership in the Stylus Club, Hasty Pudding, D. K. E., the Institute of 1770 and the A. D. Club. The marriage will probably take place next June following his graduation from college.

Miss Gardner's younger sister, Miss Isabella Stewart Gardner, will be introduced to society at a dance at the Ritz-Carleton on Dec. 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Herrick are arriving in Boston today to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gardner, Jr., for the week-end.

College Girls Aid Debuts

The college debutantes are returning to their homes this week-end for the Christmas holidays and will join their sister debs in two weeks of festivities. Several of them have postponed their formal presentation until these gay crowded vacation days, and the first to join the ranks of the buds already "out" will be Miss Eunice Usher, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abbot Payson Usher of Fletcher rd., Belmont, will entertain at a tea in her honor tomorrow afternoon. Miss Usher is a student at Wellesley College, having first attended Miss May's School and the Buckingham School in Cambridge.

Miss Elizabeth Langenberg, a deb of last season who will head the pourers at this debut, will have as her assistants Miss Betty Butcher, Miss Eleanor Bosson and Miss Charlotte Bouton, all of whom are making their bow to society on Monday evening at a dance at the home of Miss Butcher's parents. Others sharing the honor of pouring will be Miss Katherine Baker, Miss Mary Jane Dewey, Miss Ann Mason Hodges, Miss Alice Woodman, Miss Ruth Williams, Miss Barbara Eaton, Miss Hope Howell, Miss Jane Hyde, Miss Margaret Kellogg, Miss Eleanor Park, Miss Mary Payson Clark, Miss Eileen Williams and Miss Janet Sawyer.

'the social whirl'

With Dorothy Whipple Fry

MANY AND VARIED ARE THE DIVERSIONS for the intelligentsia. "Ever the Twain," the Harvard dramatic play, despite the swirling snow of last night, attracted a large and distinguished audience. Incidentally, the play was well done by the united thespians of Radcliffe and Harvard. The ocean liner scene was roundly applauded and we were amazed to discover how the old rule, "Thou shalt not turn thy back upon the audience," was shattered and to advantage. Never have we seen so many effects achieved by the backs of the actors. The unique device of a double audience was novel.

Among those enjoying the play was Miss Louise Inches in black velvet and a white ermine evening coat. With her that charming lady, Mrs. C. Nichols Greene, whose beautiful house on Chestnut st is open to the select on many occasions . . . Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Rand, the master having dramatic ability himself were interested . . . Mrs. James R. Torbert and her charming daughter, Miss Anne, enjoyed the play and were joined by one of the cast after the performance. Anne wore a wine red, semi-formal frock, her mother a flowered taffeta. Patroness Mrs. Gorham Brooks wore black velvet, embellished with a string of pearls . . . Mrs. Roger I. Lee, the former Ella Lyman, was distinguished in a black rough crepe evening frock, and a sumptuous wrap.

Mrs. Henry S. Grew

Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Grew, somehow or other, it didn't seem natural to see the Grews at an amateur theatrical. Their metier is the Harvard track meet. If Mr. Grew has ever missed one, he'll have to tell us about it . . . Mr. and Mrs. Robert Terry chatting with Mr. Le Baron Parker. Mrs. Terry as always scintillating and animated and such a dainty little blonde! Her tiny black peaked hat and smartly cut black carved coat over a wine red dress created an attractive ensemble . . . Evelyn Wetherbee, one of this season's debs, escorted by David Scannell, of Harvard . . . Mariette Cox in a midnight blue crepe chatting with George Lauriet . . . Connie Kimpton animated and attractive in a dusky rose semi-formal with a tall dark escort who seemed to be vastly more interested in Connie than in the play.

Affairs Listed by Charity Club

The members of the Woman's Charity Club have scheduled an active mid-winter season. On Thursday morning, December 21 the regular meeting of the club will be held at the Hotel Vendome. The principal speaker will be Mrs. Janie Gordon Weltman.

On Tuesday, January 2 at 3 p. m the Julia K. Dwyer Circle will celebrate its 25th anniversary at the Jamaica Plain home of Mrs. Benjamin A. Currier. Mrs. Rodney R. Jarvis is chairman of the anniversary program.

A Saturday night supper and card party is being arranged for Jan. 13 by Mrs. Archie L. Whittemore. The supper will be served at the Brightwelmstone Club in Allston. Mrs. Edgar P. Hay will be in charge.

Mrs. Grace A. Cooper is chairman of the visiting committee which is planning a bridge party at the Saleda Tea Co. on January 18.

Contributions for the Christmas party for the nurses of the hospital will be received by Mrs. Arthur B. Flint, treasurer of the Woman's Charity Club, at the Thursday meeting.

Club Leader to Assist at Tea Table

BOSTON TEACHERS AND their friends will be guests of the Disabled Ex-Servicemen's Exchange on Boylston st., tomorrow, from 3 to 6 p. m., when the work from disabled men of 28 states will be on sale. Founded by Mrs. Clarence Edwards, in 1922, the shop has grown by leaps and bounds and is now national in its scope.

Miss Katherine W Ross, president of the Boston Teachers' Club, will preside at the tea table. The following directors will assist Mrs. Lars Anderson, Mrs. Timothee Adomowski, Mrs. Charles Royce Butler, Mrs. Carroll Swan, Miss Edith Tichnor and Mrs. Corabelle Francis.

Mrs. James J. Kelley of Payson Park, Belmont, is in charge of the arrangements for the tea.

Promote Relief Fund

AMONG THE PROMINENT members of Mrs. Palfrey's advisory committee for the campaign for the Emergency Relief of 1934 are such women as Mrs. Maurice Curran, Mrs. James J. Phelan, Mrs. Frederick W Mansfield, Mrs. Edward C. Donnelly, Mrs. J. W. Farley, Mrs. C. G. Flynn and Mrs. Joseph B. Ely, who know the business of giving and realize the seriousness of the year to come. The campaign is so well organized that it is believed it will go over in record time.

Mrs. Edward C. Donnelly

Hostess to Alumnae

THE DECEMBER BRIDGE of Emmanuel League will be held in the college auditorium on Tuesday, with Miss Elizabeth Monamee as hostess for the day. Co-hostesses will have the assistance of president, Mrs. James W. Carr, who has appointed Mrs. Edward J. O'Brien of Jamaica Plain, Mrs. Edward W Pond, of Wollaston, and Mrs. Dennis J. McCarthy, of Cambridge, to serve on the committee.

Kilmer Club Lecture

"THE MADONNA IN THE ARTS" is the subject of the lecture of Mrs. Annette Driscoll on Monday evening, when the Joyce Kilmer Literary Club meet for their annual election of officers. Mrs. Driscoll will illustrate her talk with stereopticon views. A double quartet of male voices from St. Luke's Church, Waverly, will sing Christmas music.

Yule Party Monday

THE COMMONWEALTH COUNTRY CLUB, Chestnut Hill, will be the scene of a delightful Christmas party on Monday afternoon, with Mrs. Alex R. Keltie and Mrs. Charles E. Nurnan directing the luncheon. Serving with them are Mrs. Willard B. Freeman, Mrs. Harry H. Germain, Mrs. Marshall B. Hall, Mrs. O. Glenn Hopper, Mrs. J. W. Kennedy and Mrs. Frank J. Schumann.

They must be GOOD to wear the MELORIPE LABEL!

LADY, you've never eaten bananas at their best unless you've tried MELORIPES. Every hand is uniformly good and chock full of flavor. Bananas cost but a few cents...and what do you buy? Quick energy materials...to keep the body at work. Minerals to build red blood and combat acidity. Predigested fruit sugars and a long list of vitamins —to help correct digestive troubles and otherwise safeguard your health. Put MELORIPES on your market list today. For delicious new recipes, write MELORIPE FRUIT COMPANY BOSTON, at Long Wharf.

Never put bananas in the refrigerator

WHEN EVERY CENT MUST BE WISELY SPENT — MELORIPE — BUY THIS BLUE LABELED BANANA

MELORIPE BANANAS — GROWN BY UNITED FRUIT CO.

A man isn't poor if he can still laugh.—Raymond Hitchcock.

This Is Life

—By Robert E. Rogers—

IF THERE were only a Pulitzer prize for the best literary criticism of the year, the 1933 award would have to be given to a New York jurist, John M. Woolsey, a federal district judge. He has just given James Joyce's "Ulysses" a clean bill of health, primarily allowing it to be brought into the country through the United States customs, but, secondarily, allowing it to be published, unexpurgated, by an American publisher.

This decision does not, I suppose, absolutely nullify any possible later action by local meddlers, such as John Sumner's vice prevention society in New York or the Watch and Ward in Boston, but the tone of the opinion is so strong and decided that it cannot help exercising a predominant influence in any later discussion that may arise.

For the past 10 or 12 years, as you know, "Ulysses" has had to be published (in English) in Paris, and could not be admitted to England or America. Customers smuggled it in at their own risk, often paying book stores as high as $50 for a copy, with the risk of having it seized. At the same time the book has been used by teachers of English literature all over the United States as the perfect example of the "novel of the future," one college at least has used it for collateral reading, and no serious discussion of the modern novel is possible without full reference to it. In fact, the necessity to have some knowledge of "Ulysses" has been so clear that a book has been published in this country, telling the story in detail, analyzing its method and symbolism and giving copious but discreet quotations. Meanwhile, it was almost completely unobtainable.

Plenty of Lower Grade

THE VALUE of Judge Woolsey's decision lies in his analysis of the method and language of the book in relation to the existing statutes on the immoral and obscene. Judge Woolsey cuts the ground from under many of the contentions of the censorious. He insists, for instance, that the book must be taken as a whole, not judged on particular pages and paragraphs—a favorite device of prosecutors in such cases

He admits that the book may be "emetic" to some, but that now here does it tend to be "aphrodisiac." In that he upholds the contentions of most thoughtful critics of literature, that an obscene or immoral book is one which treats sex in such a glamorous and fascinating way as to stimulate the imagination of the average reader, particularly of the adolescent. In other words, the kind of book which is almost never bothered, the elementary sex story, manufactured for Hollywood screening, the kind which high school boys and girls can procure pretty much at a few cents a day at circulating libraries

In contrast to this, "Ulysses" is not only strictly literature for adults, but for intellectual adults with patience and capacity for "deep" reading. The book is almost as long as "Anthony Adverse." It is unbelievably long-winded and difficult in its style. Much of it is hazy and oblique in its telling, more of it is almost unintelligible except by hard and patient reading, and the rest of it is totally unintelligible. None of it is calculated to appeal to persons who want a quick and easy "sexy" thrill, or they certainly would give it up as a bad job after a few pages.

Strong, but Not Luring

WHAT IS "Ulysses," then? It is the account of one day in the life of Leopold Bloom, a Dublin advertising agent of the lower middle class. It follows him from his rising and breakfast, to a funeral, to his business duties, to lunch in a noisy cafe, to a lying-in hospital, to a drunken party in a low joint and back home. It ends with the wakeful musings of Mrs. Bloom, one of the magnificent studies of uncontrolled reverie in all literature

In all this one sees life through the eyes, brain and memory of this average man. Actuality is a shadowy and flickering background for the stream of his random musings. The more complex group his reverie the more difficult it is to follow. Joyce is a great philologist, a student and creator of words. In one chapter he writes successive sections in the literary period of English, beginning with the language of Chaucer, coming down through the Elizabethan, the eighteenth century to the present day.

In one chapter he attempts in words to set before you the mad inconsecutiveness of a drunken delirium. Add to this the task of keeping in mind the correspondences between Joyce's Ulysses and Homer's Ulysses, chapter by chapter, and you will realize that in this huge and often wearying book you have no hammock literature

Judge Woolsey admits that the book is frequently gross, vulgar, dirty, full of words not usually heard in polite society but known by everybody, but he pays high tribute to Joyce for the sincerity of his purpose, his honesty of attitude and the integrity of his method.

Furthermore—and here is the crux of his opinion—the judge declares that the book must be tested, not as to its effect on juveniles or adolescents, or on people whose imaginations are particularly susceptible of being inflamed, such as professional vivisectors, but on the "average" reader, on him whom the French call "l'homme moyen sensuel," the average sensual man.

It is undoubtedly strong meat for sensitive people, but it is not of a nature to seduce the imagination of the average normal person.

I suspect that this decision, the latest of many similar decisions, is also the last. I doubt if others will be needed. This suffices.

Resolution

I shall no longer reach my arms to you
As once in folly I was wont to do,
Crediting one with fortitude for two.
Though I go shelterless, my heart unfed,
You will not hear me cry aloud in dread;
I walk companioned by a word unsaid.
I shall not pray for solace, Tempest-blown,
I shall not falter, facing the Unknown,
Am I not strong enough to walk alone?

Sydney King Russell.

Picture Periods

—By Carolyn Wells—

AMONG my earliest recollections of Art for Art's sake were two chromos, "Wide Awake" and "Fast Asleep," which were given as premiums with a weekly paper called "The Christian Union." I can see them now, the model being a dark-haired child with a very blue dress and white apron and a daisy chain round her neck. As you have perhaps divined, in one picture the little maid was awake and smiling, in the other asleep.

These pictures swept the country. One could enter no home without seeing them on the wall. They were universally admired and beloved by the whole nation. They were followed later by "The Dinner" and "The Nap," in which were depicted a chubby-faced boy, eating his dinner, and then falling asleep with his head on the table. These had but small vogue, so often the case with sequels.

* * *

THE next work of art that I remember was entitled "Wait for Me." This showed a small girl, her school books on the ground beside her, while she refastened her garter She aroused my deep sympathy and I often wondered if her dog did wait for her and how they could have been so cruel as to go off and leave her in her dire predicament. I hated them, whoever they were, and I hoped they missed their lessons that day

Then, on a visit to my aunt, I saw the emotional "Rock of Ages." It was my introduction to real tragedy in art and I gazed on the drowning woman, carefully draped 'round the great stone cross until my screaming tears rivaled the dashing waves in volume. Landseer came next and I was taught to admire the "Stag at Bay" and "The Monarch of the Glen." But these and Rosa Bonheur's "Horse Fair" satisfied my natural history complex and I turned back to humanity.

The "Huguenot Lovers" and "Alone at Last" frightened me a little, for they were in advance of my experience, but "Breaking Home Ties" and the "Soul's Awakening" seemed to me the last word in emotional disturbance

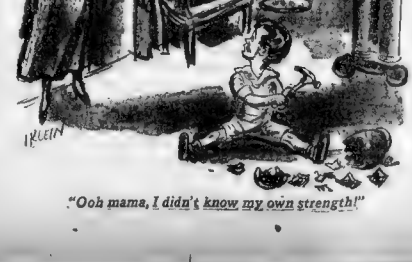
* * *

THEN all these things were swept away and replaced by etchings in pure white wooden frames. The more horizontal and less vertical measurement these pictures showed the better. They usually represented a stretch of beach and horizon, with a hut or a boat somewhere around. Only the signed ones were considered au fait and the signature must be entirely illegible.

* * *

THEN these were sent to the attic, to be succeeded by photographic reproductions of classic masterpieces. The Copley prints from Boston held off, followed by the Perry pictures At first, everyone must have the "Mona Lisa" and the "Prophets" and the "Coliseum"—then, as these became backneyed, public approval veered to "Sir Galahad" and the youthful "St. John." Whistler's "Mother" and "Baby Stuart" were favorites. These pictures, it was outlined must be framed in narrow, dark wood, any other framing being anathema.

Pictures mark every period. And now I have a young friend, a millionaire, who has collected one hundred and fifty thousand picture postcards. These are destined for the Metropolitan Museum of Arts and, as they are from every quarter of the globe, it is no unimportant historical gift.



"Ooh mama, I didn't know my own strength!"

The Perennial Kipling

—By Rebecca West—

LONDON.—There is much less intercommunication in this world than one would have expected, considering the physical means of communication — the automobiles and the railroad cars and the steamships and the aeroplanes — and considering the mental means of communication. Every now and then one gets hold of figures regarding book sales which make one feel that the community consists of a number of closed groups sitting alongside each other like a lot of seed people.

Who, for example, is steadily the best seller among English writers, year in, year out? Rudyard Kipling. Consider the muscle that means. Long before the war it was realized by everybody with a palate for literature, not that Rudyard Kipling wasn't any good—only fools would deny that he had a superb natural equipment—but that he was unlikely to fulfill his promise.

There was some trouble—whether it was that he lost his physical vitality, or whether it was that his picturesqueness and brilliance were not pegged down by sufficiently serious intellectual life—and he obviously became a flimsy writer

Furthermore, during the war and after it history unkindly tilted off the globe very nearly every grain of soil in which Mr Kipling's political and social ideas were growing.

Added to the count against him is the fact that nowadays his work is either good but too recondite for any but a few to see the recent charming little book on France or is a feeble imitation of popular idols.

It is true that the great Tory papers still praise him loyally; but they do not do this to any extent that would seem likely to counterbalance the anti-Kipling influence they must involuntarily exert by the admissions they indirectly but incessantly make that Mr. Kipling's way of writing and ideas have proved invalid. Yet there is no disputing the fact that a vast number of people rush to buy every new Kipling book.

* * *

Still Has Following

THERE are other far more fantastic examples. It seems to me extraordinary that the poetical works of Frances Ridley Havergal should still sell. She was a devout lady born about a hundred years ago, who had that fecundity of pen which is characteristic of inspiration or the total lack of it, the constant flow which comes at ke from the spring or the dripping faucet. She was responsible for one of the most terrible of Victorian baby poems, an anecdote named "Bonnie Wee Eric" about a child who went about the house saying it wished to die, and who, when it had fooled them into picking up the cue and asking why he wanted to do what they'd been plied with effusive approbation, "Eric, you would like to die, for me know where me going!"

But for the most part such point was beyond her, and most of her versified in phrases dull as porridge that it is the quiet evening time, the sun is in the west, and earth enrobed in purple glow awaits her nightly rest. Yet a portion of people go right on quietly buying her. This seems to me the strangest phenomenon, considering that since her day an infinity of better religious poetry has been written, by Francis Thompson and Mrs. Meynell and Chesterton and John Tabb and Gerald Manley Hopkins and an infinity of others. I have suggested it if one cannot stand the pace one can go back to the old and read George Herbert and Traherne and Vaughan; and almost every printed word on any subject suggests in precept that the way Frances Ridley Havergal wrote was the wrong one.

* * *

Live In the Past

THERE must be a proportion of the population which suffers from a time lag. They can adapt themselves to the present sufficiently for the purpose of doing their daily job, but for the rest they live in the past. All they get of contact with literature is by laying hold of various names they remember hearing in their childhood. I don't think you would find that the people who buy Kipling or Frances Ridley Havergal buy much else. This odd block of population probably counts for a good deal in politics, acting steadily in resistance to anything new, but settling down to anything in the long run. Not unsound, but not logical.

Tomorrow:

G. K. CHESTERTON J. P. McEVOY
JAMES M. CAIN BRUNO LESSING
CHARLES HANSON TOWNE

Independent Features Syndicate

"Ah third's de motion!"

A Number of Things

—By Charles Hanson Towne—

A READING of Frank H. Simonds' little book "America Faces the Next War" (Harper & Bros.) does not bring peace to one's mind. For here is an authority on international relations who views world politics with a clear eye, a prophet who has proved his right to prophesy He does not mince his words. He calmly and dispassionately analyzes conditions, both at home and abroad, and while his findings may not please you, they will set you to thinking It is not pleasant, but it is important, to read lines like these.

In the light of the still recent experience of Geneva and in view of the unmistakable fact that Europe is on the threshold of another general war, the American people have the right and the duty to ask of their Government what the policy of the United States is to be. Nor does the need for a considered policy in the face of the next war seem less compelling when it is recalled that America was dragged into the last by the absence of any such policy. At the very least the history of 1914-17 must demonstrate that between neutrality and belligerency there is no halfway station for any country in a world at war, and that the desire for the glory of the peacemaker may easily make a nation a participant in a struggle it cannot prevent."

Mr. Simonds goes on to say that it is also well to recall that the German denunciation of the "crime of Versailles" was not merely based upon those clauses which required the cession of German provinces, payment of reparations, submission to unilateral disarmament. On the contrary, the most ambitious venture in statesmanship of the German Republic was the Austro-German tariff union, which was everywhere identified as a decisive step toward the Anschluss. Similarly, the initial campaign of Adolf Hitler was directed, not against the Polish Corridor but the Austrian Republic

He wishes to know who can seriously argue that European nationalisms have surrendered to a new spirit of internationalism. On the contrary, the rise of Hitler, the reasons which explain his rise, the repercussion German events have had all over the Continent, these circumstances together constitute definitive proof that in Europe the spirit of 1933 is indistinguishable from that of 1914. Physically, nations are perhaps incapable as yet of resorting to war; politically, however, they have without exception committed themselves to territorial programs which are mutually irreconcilable.

* * *

AFTER reading such grim words, it is a relief to turn to a volume of poetry by the Irish Dr. Oliver St. John Gogarty, whose "Selected Poems" has been issued by Macmillan. This Dublin singer knows, as Wordsworth knew, that "the world is too much with us." He can say of the moon

O born before our birth began!
Through all your blanched and listening vales,
Far from the echoing shores of man,
As of, may sing—what nightingales!"

And it is important to say something like that in these hours of strain and stress for us all. He longs for "the strivers to leave the Strife, now, after Caesar, skulk in Rome."

* * *

"SAILOR, BEWARE!" the bawdy comedy which is such a huge success in New York, has been brought out by Farrar & Rinehart, and the lines sparkle on the printed page almost as brightly as when they are heard in the theatre. There is no denying the play's cleverness, with its authentic reproduction of the talk of common seamen down in the Canal Zone. If you can't see this farce, by all means read it.

To One Who Lost

Beauty you lost: but not for beauty's sake
Did you go down, defeated, to the dead.
There is a citadel you could not take,
A table at whose board you broke no bread.

Eleanor Alletta Chaffee.

Our Myriad Selves

—By Ben Ray Redman—

IN THE COURSE of G. J. Renier's new and admirable life of Oscar Wilde, which I have just been reading, the author remarks that there is a startling divergence of opinion regarding Wilde's personal charm and conversational powers and he continues: "From these contradictory declarations of those who knew him well we must conclude that his personality was not always the same level. He must have possessed, at only natural, have had his good days and his bad days."

That is one way of putting it. But it seems to me even more pertinent to remark that he had his good and his bad and his indifferent people, people who struck a spark in him, people who dankly smothered his personality in the wet blankets of their own natures, and people who were incapable of evoking from him any response whatsoever. It is true of every one of us. If we are not all things to all men, we are at least many things.

Each of us has as many personalities as he has friends and acquaintances, for each of us has a separate and individual existence in the mind of every person who knows us. And no two of these existences can be precisely identical The greatest of wits does not go through life without convincing at least a few of his fellows that he is the most incorrigible of bores; no man was ever so tolerant but that some person or provocation could reduce him to a passion of intolerance, and the keenest intelligence is no guarantee that a man will never play the fool.

* * *

SO EVERY one of us, willy nilly exists in the plural number. To begin with, there is the self that the self knows or thinks it does, and then, scattered over the surface of the earth, often forgotten by the original self even unknown to it, there are the fragmentary and often mutually contradictory shadow selves that inhabit the minds of others

It is just as well that we know as little as we do regarding these shadow selves of ours, for if we knew more we should certainly be astonished and we might be fatally disheartened. Meeting many of them face to face we would exclaim at their unfamiliarity; we would be appalled at the phantoms masquerading under our names in other minds. But if our friends and acquaintances were really honest with us each would say of his own version of us "Here you see yourself as you are; this is the true you, and no other."

Terrifying as the thought is a heedless word or gesture is enough to call one of these shadow selves into existence.

* * *

IN THE case of a great or famous man these contradictory selves are a plague to all conscientious biographers They are at the root of endless confusion, argument and bewilderment. For as we live during our lifetime, so do we survive death in the minds of our surviving friends, and so long as the last person who knew us is still alive the last of our shadow selves is not dead

Wilde has been mentioned. The late D. H. Lawrence furnishes an even more striking example. The Lawrence that Lawrence knew died at Nice in 1930. But the husband that Frieda Lawrence knew is still alive in her mind, and so, too, are the very different men who are known as D. H. Lawrence to the minds of Middleton Murry, Catherine Carswell, Aldous Huxley, Mabel Dodge Luhan, his other more or less intimate friends, and his more or less distant acquaintances. The result is a mass of conflicting evidence regarding Lawrence in the shape of biographies, reminiscences and anecdotes. "I knew him well and this is what he was like," cries one friend. "Not at all, he was like this," insists another. "You are both wrong," protests a third.

And all the while the simple truth is that each of these friends knew a different man because each only knew the Lawrence of his own creation, only the Lawrence he had himself called forth, only the Lawrence he had been capable of understanding and appreciating!

Contents of this page copyrighted, 1933, for the Boston Evening American

Vagabondia

—By Bruno Lessing—

ROME.—In Rome you must do as the Romans do. I want to tell you what one Roman I hired decidedly, how a new office woman I had hired bumped into a donkey cart. It happened that a young woman with a baby was on the seat of the cart beside her husband. What I didn't tell you is one of those things that a man never likes to tell—is that, when all the fuss and excitement of car and cart drove on, I smiled at the young woman and she smiled back. You know how it is. Old stuff. I'm not getting fresh, but I have a way with me when the girls get. (Yes, I heard you. Fain Mrs., sitting beside me, sniffed.

The morning I got a letter. The bump had dislocated the axle of the cart. It had broken a spring. (I didn't know the cart had a spring.) The donkey's knees had been bruised. The owner depended upon the donkey and the cart for his livelihood, and owing to the bump, had been unable to work for three days. Wasn't even sure that he could live at all. His wife was prostrated by shock. Was I willing to pay for all this damage?

I sent back the scent of the insurance company to which I have been paying premiums for four years. He gave a snort and said I "Forget it!" This evening I learned that he had settled the claim for $2. And he finds that his company has been robbed. I serve with him. I think that we swells who have autos should be penalized. If the damage had amounted to $100 I would have gotten square with that donkey-cart guy by giving him the car

* * *

Goat Butts In

RAN down to Nettuno this morning to visit Petey, my dog. To my disgust he didn't seem a bit glad to see me. Just gave me one slobber over the face—which he does to everyone—and then walked away and sat facing the door. Romagnolf, who is taking care of him, explained that Petey was waiting for someone to open the door so that he could run out. The children, he explained, had a pet goat and Petey and the goat were great friends. Whenever anyone opened the door he would make a bee line for his pal. So I opened the door and followed Petey into the field. I don't know how a goat shows his happiness, but Petey's stumpy tail was hitting a hundred a minute. The goat lowered his head and rubbed his horns gently against Petey's side. Petey stood perfectly still and liked it. Then, suddenly, he saw movement in the goat and butted the goat and they both scampered off across the field. I had a quiet little fit. "He learned it from the goat," explained Romey. Well, Petey, you're certainly an apt pupil

* * *

Ideas Go Deep

I'VE got a new ambition. I want to be on the spot when they unearth a new statue or temple or other relic of ancient Rome. The work of excavation is going on all the time. The soil is removed with the utmost care in order not to damage any object that may come to light. The moment the workmen strike a "find" all work is suspended until one of the inspectors of the archaeological department arrives. If you promised to telephone me next time anything turns up

There are still layers upon layers of earth that have gathered in the course of the centuries which have not been explored. It is a question of time, patience and money. For all that anyone knows they may, some day, come upon evidence of a civilization dating much further back than that of the Romans or the Etruscans. Mother Earth is a faithful and jealous guardian of her treasury, but she yields them readily to those who toil in her realm. Anyway, I'm looking forward to a big thrill some day. Maybe a workman will come across the little "pinkey" of a statue of some good old goddess

* * *

Argues Four Ways

HAD an interesting chat with Silvio Levet, the chap who runs the Grand Hotel in Rome. He's thirty-three years old. His record shows how ambitious hotel men take their profession in Europe and what experience they need to rise to the top. He speaks Italian, English, French, German, Spanish and Portuguese fluently. I'll vouch for four of them because I tried to get him to reduce his rates and he explained in English, French, Italian and German that the law didn't permit him to reduce rates, started by studying commercial law and social science and obtained his degree. He was assistant to the owner of a hotel in Nimes, France, then at the Palace Hotel in Madrid, Spain. He became reception clerk at Claridge's in London. After that he worked, in succession, in Zurich, Aix-les-Bains, Cannes Baden-Baden, Ostend and Venice. Now he's in control of the biggest hotel in Rome

* * *

A Lot to Cover

I'M STILL in a sort of daze about Rome I mean from the writing standpoint. There's too much to write about. If I write about one thing I miss another as it bobs up I'm afraid it'll be something of a jumble. I have been trying to work out a plan whereby these articles will fit consecutively into a complete picture.

You see, wherever you ramble here you stumble into some relic of the past that has an interesting story (or, maybe five hundred interesting stories) connected with it. If you're a conscientious and painstaking guy like me you just make notes and say that you'll write about them in their turn.

In the meanwhile also, life goes on and new things happen. Those old philosophers and historians devoted many years to study and research before they sat down to their typewriters—or tablet and stylus—and put it on the record. I'd like to do that, too. But I want someone else to ask the cashier to send me my pay check.

WOMAN OF 74 ASKS BASKET ON BIRTHDAY

The day before Christmas will be her birthday. She will be 74 years old.

She would prefer a basket of gifts instead. Not that Christmas means anything to her, she might even go hungry on Christmas for the Boston Evening American Christmas Basket Fund.

Hundreds of persons need so much when they are 74 years old. There are times, even when you hate to see them come around. They're apt to bring too much laughter. Thoughts of kindly ones of friends dead or forgotten. Thoughts of years when you weren't alone and weary and poor.

"I am an elderly woman," the letter says, "without work or money, and I am asking you please to send me a basket of food for my Christmas dinner. I'll be especially grateful because on my birthday is on Dec. 24th. My age is 74, but I can still work and would if I could find a job. I am a widow and a citizen."

The letter comes from a South End address. The family name is signed in one that has been there more than once in Massachusetts history.

But women of that age don't like to live with the fact that they need a little assistance from the Boston Evening American Christmas Basket Fund. They are proud, the Goodfellows who work every year know.

But that is why every Boston Christmas means that someone in the neighborhood, if times are hard, will receive a basket from the Boston Evening American Christmas Basket Fund.

Not only will the entire staff show off all Boston's leading theatres be on hand, but the complete floor shows and revues of the city's finest night clubs will be presented, including Joe Rines and his Cocoanut Hotel orchestra with Dick Webster and his revue, Benny Weeks, with the Cocoanut Grove orchestra and revue, Hal's Rainbow Room Tempters and Hal's Mardi Gras show and the American House revue with Leo Hannon and his Musical Belhops.

Through the courtesy of Manager Lou Levee of Loew's Orpheum theater Billy Glason, the "Nice Character," together with Lee and Cranston, Inc., comedy and entertainers and other star acts, will appear during the evening.

Elm Lewis State, Manager Harry Asher serving, Carl Moore and his Pierrakarion Orchestra and Alice O'Leary, popular songstress, will be from the Scollay Square Park. Bowdoin Howard and Daisy Cowen said that their gang of stage chefs will be on hand.

Other similar acts will include Val and Ernie Stanton, famous comedians now appearing at the Metropolitan, Hunt and Strum's

"NICK PARKYAKAKAS"

ALICE O'LEARY

BILLY GLASON

In the gala array of stars who will appear at the big benefit show at the Metropolitan next Wednesday are "Nick Parkyakakas," of radio fame, who is making his first public appearance; Billy Glason, former Boston newsboy and now a vaudeville headliner, and Alice O'Leary, radio favorite. They as well as other entertainers are donating their talent.

Stars of Stage and Radio Aid Basket Fund

Radio's most popular burlesque entertainer, Nick Parkyakakas will make his first public appearance next Wednesday at midnight at the Metropolitan Theater when a midnight show of 100 acts of vaudeville entertainment, including Boston's most famous radio and stage headliners and radio favorites, will be presented in aid of the Boston Evening American Christmas Basket Fund.

Late Donations to Basket Fund

Previously acknowledged	$1,433.18
A Milton "American" Subscriber	1.00
Boston Lodge, No. 10, B.P.O. Elks	25.00
Milk Wagon Drivers Union Local, No. 380	10.00
R. E. A.	3.00
Municipal Clerks Association Welfare Fund	5.00
Sue and Brownie Soule, South Weymouth	1.00
St. Stephen's Church	5.00
Mrs. Donald Fitzpatrick	5.00
For a basket	1.00
J. P. C., Lynn	6.00
Samuel W. Wimpy	5.00
Member of the Rosicrucian Order	10.00
An Unknown	1.00
M. B. P., Framingham	1.00
Joseph Finnegan	5.00
Ace Art Co. of Reading	1.00

CHURCH RUINS HELP NEEDY

Even in ruins a church may help the poor. Public safety and charity were merged in a single enterprise in Malden today when a contractor began tearing down the front and west walls of the First Congregational Church, left standing in the ruins of Tuesday night's $125,000 fire. Officials feared the walls would collapse and ordered them torn down. Owners of the property offered any of the unburned wood to the poor for fuel. Frank A. McLean, contractor, offered to truck it to the home of any needy family.

Santa Will Visit All C. C. C. Camps

Christmas will be more than merry Dec 25 to the men in the C. C. C. camps of New England. Officials at the First Corps Area headquarters have opened bids on scores of articles which will be distributed to the 27,000 men, including skates, skis, hockey sticks, packs and games of various kinds.

CUT ROOSEVELT YULE TREE

Albany, N. Y. Dec 15 (INS)—President Roosevelt is going to have a Christmas tree from his own state Conservation Commissioner Osborne announced today.

A 25-foot tree, cut in the state's game refuge in Rensselaer county, has been shipped to the White House.

There will be a number of Christmas trees in the White House this year, but it is understood that the home state tree will occupy the place of honor, Osborne said.

Teachers to Visit Disabled Veterans

The Boston School Teachers and their friends will be entertained at tea at the Disabled Ex-Servicemen's Exchange, 353 Boylston st., from 3 to 6 p. m. tomorrow. Miss Katherine W. Ross, President of the Boston Teachers club will pour. The Exchange serves as a clearing house for handcraft articles made by men disabled in the World War.

Dance on Monday to Aid Basket Fund

Monday is the night and Morey Pearl's Tent Ballroom in Huntington ave. is the place where a special dance will be given by the Boston Evening American Christmas Basket Fund.

Added attractions for this occasion are now being planned by Morey Pearl who is responsible for the dance the second annual Christmas Basket Fund dance. He is donating the ballroom and the services of his broadcasting orchestra. The fund will receive the entire proceeds. The regular admission prices, 60 cents for men and 40 cents for women, will be charged.

The Most Appealing Gift of All

SPECIAL $150

RING ILLUSTRATED

Diamond Rings

Exceptional values in fine diamonds set in latest style mountings, $100 to $750.

Open Evenings Until Xmas

E. B. Horn Co.

Established 1870

429 WASHINGTON STREET BOSTON

CHENEY'S RELIABLE REMEDIES

Cheney's Drug Store has been established nearly a century and today is selling more medicinal preparations—drugs and herbs than any time in its history. Good old-fashioned methods, giving people what they want at honest prices, has built our business to what it is today.

MUSTARD

Draws out pain and inflammation from stiff joints—Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lame Back, etc. The best way to use it is

CHENEY'S White Mustard Oil Liniment

"A RED HOT LINIMENT"

25c A bottle By Mail 35c

PURE ASPIRIN

100 Tablets 35c By Mail, 10c Extra

U. S. P. STANDARD

There is no purer tablet made than Cheney's. Keep a 100 in the house for all sorts of pains—prevents colds, etc.

Milk of Magnesia 59c a quart At the Store

Keeps the system normally alkaline, neutralizes stomach acids. You cannot buy a purer quality than Cheney's.

LIVER SALTS

The Ideal Saline Laxative Hepatic Stimulant, Uric Acid Solvent and Anti Rheumatic. A Wonderful prophylactic to the Urinary System

35c a Pkg. 40c by Mail

"Don't Forget Kitty" CHENEY'S CATNIP

Keeps kitty happy—healthy and hearty—

10c a Bag

Cheney's Good Tonic 75c Per Mail 85c

"Bottled Sunshine," Wine of Cod Liver Oil (extractives), with Malt. A marvelous tonic to take, when attacked by man's worst enemy, the common cold. A rich tonic that fortifies the system against grippe, influenza, bronchitis, pneumonia.

G. S. Cheney Co. Herb Specialist for Nearly a Century

13 UNION ST. BOSTON, MASS.

"BOYS SEEK WORK

"I'm a mother of nine children," a South Boston woman writes. "My oldest boy worked hard for all when he had a job, but he hasn't been able to get anything for more than three years. An other boy has been loafing two years, trying all the time for a job. I never asked help of anybody before, but we need it now.

"I am asking now for a Christmas basket for our family, if you can spare one. We had nothing for Thanksgiving. We're hoping that you won't forget."

Well the Mother of Nine needn't worry about the Christmas Basket going. Her letter and hundreds of other letters like it aren't the kind that can be forgotten.

But there is also room for a lot of others. Working with food, coal and fuel companies for the stove, with address and good wishes from you.

DONATIONS NEEDED

That's where the Boston Evening American Goodfellows have their innings. That's where they can help with whatever sort of contributions they wish to make or are able to make. Money helps. Food helps. Clothing helps. Interest helps.

And the time is getting short.

"Two years ago," writes a woman from Roxbury, "we took two children, recommended by your paper, into our home for the Christmas holiday. We had plenty then and were willing to share it. Now I have to send in a plea myself.

"Can you assist us. We had almost nothing for Christmas last year and this Thanksgiving just past found us without even the necessities of life. There are three in our family and we need all kinds of clothes. FOOD, though, is most important of all."

That woman helped others when she could. Now, Goodfellows, it's up to you.

There is no lack of evidence of the need that is facing you. The mailman brings testimony enough, ranging from the tear-wet scrawls of tiny fingers to the shaky script of folks who have known Christmases when it was. And what the mailman brings is less than the half of the knocking and the welfare agencies and sympathetic neighbors are reporting too.

Better Buy Now follows Your Christmas will be better if it is merry too. Boys and girls and men and women are counting on you. Don't disappoint them. If you never grow up at all.

Need any more appealing? Then pay a call sometime soon on the Christmas Basket Editor Hedlund at the Boston Evening American. Here are all of them:

Advertisement

STOP THAT COLD

THE FIRST DAY!

A cold once rooted is a cold of danger! Trust to no makeshift methods. A cold, being an internal infection, calls for internal treatment. A cold is no cold for a COLD remedy and not a preparation good for a number of other things as well.

Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine is what a cold requires. It is expressly a cold remedy. It is internal and direct—and it does the four things necessary. It opens the bowels, combats the cold germs and fever in the system, relieves the headache and gripey feeling and tones and fortifies the entire system. Anything less than that is inviting trouble. Get Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine at any druggist. 30c and 50c. Ask for it by the full name and accept no substitute on any pretext.

CROFT ALE

THE NAME THAT MARKS THE RETURN OF HONESTLY BREWED NEW ENGLAND ALE

WALTER J. CROFT MAINTAINS A TRADITION

To New Englanders whose memories go back to the fine ales of former years, one name almost invariably ranks first—Sterling Ale—brewed at the old Highland Spring Brewery at Roxbury Crossing.

In a very real sense Sterling Ale was "New England's own." Due largely to the brewing genius of Mr. Walter J. Croft—who for thirty years was associated with the Highland Spring Brewery—Sterling Ale had that appetizing, nut-brown color, delightful aroma and well-rounded flavor that discriminating New Englanders demanded.

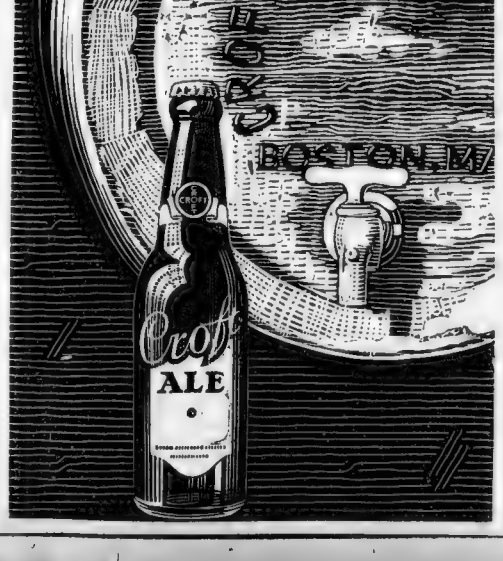
Early this year—in anticipation of complete Prohibition Repeal—plans were made again to utilize Mr. Croft's brewing skill in the production of a choice ale.

And so, today, New England's Ale is back—honestly brewed in the same old Highland Spring Brewery now owned and operated by a new company which Mr. Croft and his associates have organized.

It is called Croft Ale—but brewed by the same brewmaster—and possessing the same full-bodied flavor and traditional strength so many of you recall.

Your first glass of Croft Ale—properly aged, rich and mellow—will enable you to understand why Mr. Croft insisted on waiting until Repeal permitted him to offer you "ale that is ale." He had a tradition to maintain.

On tap or in bottles. Croft Brewing Company, New Heath, Terrace and Parker Streets, Boston, Mass. GARrison 2430.



CURLEY WARNS OF CITY NEEDS AT CAPITAL

Washington, Dec. 15—Many municipalities face bankruptcy unless the federal government grants them loans, said Mayor James M. Curley, of Boston here today for a conference on proposed federal financing of cities.

Mayor Curley, former president of the Mayors Assn of the United States, came here on special invitation of its executive committee to confer at the Mayflower hotel with government officials.

Present were Jesse Jones, chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corp; Eugene Black, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board; acting Treasury Secretary Morgenthau and other federal officials with several mayors. Discussing the conference, Mayor Curley said:

"Unless some agency can be set up by the federal government and make loans to cities up to 50 per cent, in anticipation of tax warrants, I am afraid many municipalities in the country will have to go into bankruptcy.

"The banks are only permitted under the law to loan up to 40 per cent of their capitalization on tax anticipated warrants and that has placed the cities in an embarrassing financial condition.

"If the agency we are urging can be set up and loans made direct to cities in anticipation of tax warrants at a nominal rate of interest, you can readily appreciate the savings of what it will mean to the taxpayers."

Fingerprints as New Clues in Death

Rockport, Dec 15—New clues to the murder of Mrs. Augusta Johnson consisting of finger prints on a dish and on a white flower container, were being investigated by police today. The dish has been found in the home of a man who has been under surveillance, and the container was on a table inside the pantry window of the Johnson home.

Childs to Speak at Malden Dinner

Former Mayor Edwin O. Childs, of Newton, will be guest speaker at the annual "crow supper" of the Malden Deliberative Assembly at Malden Club Hall, Washington st., that city, tomorrow night. Henry W. Nunn will act as toastmaster L. place of Rep. William H. Doyle, who has been called to Washington on business

John F., Cold, 'Burns' New Haven Up

John F Fitzgerald the New Haven railroad and cold cars were the causes of a letter today that had none of the Xmas cheer in it. The ex-mayor wrote the New Haven, in substance, this:

"On my last trip to Washington, I had to wear my overcoat as far as Providence. There was absolutely no heat in the car. I have heard the same complaint from others since.

"Boston and Washington are first-class cities. The New Haven is supposed to be a first-class railroad. The Federal Express is supposed to be a first-class train. These conditions demand first-class service from first-class equipment, and this the traveling public is not getting."

The ex-mayor, in his sick room at the Hotel Bellevue, where he is nursing a heavy cold, was asked if he closed the letter, "Yours very affectionately." He did not. It was "Yours very indignantly."

U.S. CREDIT O.K. SAYS COOLIDGE

Fitchburg, Dec 15—This will be a "talk-fest" congress, with little done and no reason for the nation to fear uncontrolled inflation, U. S. Senator Marcus A. Coolidge said today, leaving his home here for Washington.

"President Roosevelt's gold purchasing program," Senator Coolidge said, 'has accomplished exactly its intended object. The American dollar is now on equal terms with foreign currency in international exchange.

"I consider myself among the soundest of the sound money senators. Nevertheless, I have no worry about a 'cheapened' dollar.

"By the time Congress reconvenes, I am convinced the country at large will feel that government credit is secure. Anti-Roosevelt propaganda is dying out."

J. L. HOBSON'S WIFE IN RENO STOPS HIS AUTO AND DIES

Mrs. Helen Hobson, wife of John L. Hobson, treasurer of the St. Croix Paper Co., of 246 Washington st., is in Reno seeking a divorce on the grounds of cruelty, it was revealed today.

Hobson, who lives at 512 Beacon st., said the action of his wife was no surprise, but refused to enlarge on the statement.

Leominster, Dec. 15—Alexander Fontaine, 61, furniture store proprietor, died today of heart failure at the wheel of his car. He stopped the machine in the midst of traffic on Water st., a block from his place of business.

Fontaine, formerly of Fitchburg had ben in business in Leominster for many years. He is survived by his widow, Mrs Velma Fontaine, and two sons, Hector and Arthur Fontaine, both of Leominster. He was a member of the Leominster lodge of Elks, attended St. Cecilia's church, and was active in Chamber of Commerce affairs.

New York Taxi Radios Out

New York, Dec. 15 (US)—Police Commissioner James S. Bolan has put a ban on radio sets in taxicabs.

Bolan found the music distracted the drivers and increased the noise in the streets, and issued the order banning radios effective next Wednesday. It was Bolan who gave the taxicab drivers permission to equip their cabs with radios last September.

Malden Liquor Sale Licenses Are Set

Malden's license commission, at its meeting last night, set the following license fees: Clubs $200; druggists $900; wines and malt beverages $500 when drunk on premises and $300 for package sales only; alcoholic liquors to be drunk on premises $800 and for package sale $600

Anti-Coughlin Debaters Win

The Fulton Debating Society of Boston College went on record as opposed to the methods of Rev Charles E. Coughlin, radio priest, following a debate. On the question: "Resolved: that the Rev Charles E. Coughlin is justified in his actions," the negative side was awarded the decision.

Harrow Master Promoted

London, Dec. 15—Cyril Norwood, headmaster of the famous Harrow public school, has been elected president of St. John's College, Oxford University. He will assume the post next summer

Beauty Holds Secret in Gay Dentist's Slaying

Pasadena, Cal., Dec 15 (INS)—The mystery of the murder of Dr Leonard Siever, 46, "Don Juan dentist" deepened today.

An assailant, believed by detectives to have been prompted by jealousy, shot and killed the handsome bachelor dentist during a blinding rainstorm Tuesday night.

Many beautiful women have been questioned in an effort to learn a possible clue to the motive for the crime.

The women, many socially prominent averred they were merely patients or friends of the dentist.

Today detectives learned from a person whose identity they kept secret, that a dazzling young brunette had held an excited whispered conversation with the dentist less than an hour before he went to his death.

The brunette, detectives declare, holds the dramatic secret of the killing. She may, the officers said, have attempted to warn Dr. Siever of a revenge plot against him.

Detectives revealed that among the many women questioned was a startlingly beautiful young actress whose husband was reported to have quarreled recently with Dr. Siever.

B. C. Seniors to Give Yule Dance Tonight

Seniors at the Boston University College of Liberal Arts will hold a Christmas supper dance in the Sheraton Room of the Copley-Plaza from 9 to 1 o'clock tonight. Doris Calderwood of Saugus and Rose Glass of Peabody will have charge. Dr. and Mrs. Wayland F. Vaughan and Mr. and Mrs. Judson R. Butler, of the faculty, will be patrons and patronesses.

Read the miscellaneous for sale columns of the Boston American and Sunday Advertiser daily for Boston's best bargains and patronize these advertisers for best results.

BRITISHER SEES 'HIDEOUS' WAR

New Haven Ct., Dec. 15—Ralph D. Blumenfeld, editor of the London Daily Express and London Evening Standard today forecast "a hideous war in Europe unless a moral alliance is formed between the Anglo Saxon countries."

Blumenfeld, who delivered the second of the Francis Bergen memorial lectures at Yale University, said the war would be waged with poison gas and disease germs and that it would be "one that civilization cannot withstand."

Cary Grant Improves

London, Dec 15 (INS)—Cary Grant, young British actor and Hollywood screen star, was progressing favorably today following a minor operation in a London nursing home.

WIDOWER, 72, TO TAKE WIFE, 74

A Cape Cod romance between an elderly couple will culminate in their wedding tomorrow in the West Newton Congregational Church, with the Rev. Boynton Merrill officiating.

They are Mrs Sarah Colby Schaffer, 74, of 197 Washington st., Newton and Cavalier H Robbins, 72 of Eastham, descendant of that town's first settler. Mrs. Schaffer is a widow and the bridegroom-to be a widower.

They met when the widow visited at Eastham, and was assisted off the station agent, Robbins

7 Below at Burlington

Burlington, Vt., Dec. 15—The mercury dropped to 7 below zero in Burlington, a new low record for the season. Temperatures have been below zero throughout the day, a mark of 1 below being the highest to be recorded.

CHRISTMAS TRIPS
Go First Class at less than Third Class Rates
ONLY GREYHOUND SERVES ALL AMERICA
Greyhound fares are lower than ever. Round trip fares are lower than one way fares. Ask for the Greyhound Family Fare folder and plan your trip. FIRST CLASS coaches, Terminal Arc Restaurants stop-overs and return privileges
Greyhound Bus Terminal
3 Providence Pl.
Tr. COMmonwealth 3100
GREYHOUND lines
Harlan Holmes gives her dress a cord of introduction from the bureau to the agents of person offering the cord.

Three Generations of Christmas Shoppers have made Osgood's Their Headquarters for Dependable Gifts

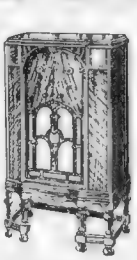
The C.E. OSGOOD EST. 1874

END TABLE . . . In mahogany finish. Indispensable for its practical usefulness. Attractively styled. $1.85

100-PIECE DINNER SET . . . with complete service for 12 persons. Pastel rose pattern. Platinum trimmed scalloped edges.. $18.95

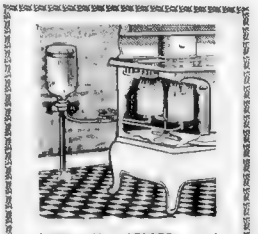
PRISCILLA SEWING CABINET . . . in walnut finish. A gift that will surely carry your message of good cheer..... $6.95

TWO-PIECE UPHOLSTERED SUITE . . . which happily combines those elements which are so essential to a comfortable, well-attired living room . . . in-built web construction and moss filling; smart, correct design and meticulous attention to tailoring. The set is available in a choice of tapestry covers and is nail studded along the base to give it extra character. $89



ATWATER KENT RADIO . . . a 7-tube model which combines all outstanding technical features with the finest modern cabinet design. It excels in fidelity of reproduction; full undistorted volume, extreme sensitivity and sharp, accurate tuning, and brings in fire, police and airplane calls. Complete with tubes $69.50

FLORENCE RADIANT HEATER . . . a quality product with the capacity to heat 2500 cubic feet of space (equivalent to one large room or two smaller connecting rooms)..... $23.50



RANGE OIL BURNERS . . . of most reliable manufacture and at prices within range of every income. A gift of one will make this holiday, above all others, a Merry Christmas for mother, wife, sister or daughter.

$14.50 to $39.50

CROSLEY RADIO (DUAL-SIX) AC and DC . . . outstanding in tone quality and in distance-getting ability. Permits fire and police call reception. Complete with 6 tubes $31.50

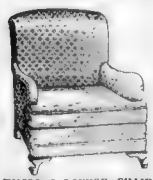
We also carry Philco, Zenith and Emerson radios.

MARTHA WASHINGTON SEWING CABINET . . . of solid walnut or mahogany. Always an appropriate gift because of its practical utility..... $15.95

CEDAR CHEST . . . in decorated walnut veneer on cedar... $10.75

OTHER CEDAR CHESTS . . . ranging in price up to..... $47.00

COLONIAL TYPE LAMP . . . of many uses. Complete with maple base, hob-nail glass fount and reinforced parchment paper shade with Colonial silhouette decoration..... $1.99



ENGLISH LOUNGE CHAIR . . . with web construction and moss filled cushions for exceeding comfort. Smartly tailored in your choice of covers. $22.50

COLONIAL TYPE DESK . . . of walnut and gumwood. It's a style which lends itself to the ensemble idea in creating a charming setting..... $19.50

LIBERAL CREDIT TERMS ARRANGED. NO INTEREST OR CARRYING CHARGES.

BOTH STORES OPEN SATURDAY UNTIL 9 P.M. OTHER EVES. BY APPOINTMENT

The C. E. Osgood Co.

744 Washington St., Boston

Roxbury Store, 2141 Washington St.

Win Guest Tickets

to See OTTO KRUGER, UNA MERKEL' BEN LYON, ISABEL JEWELL and ROSCOE KARNS in "The Women In His Life"

A Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Picture

A POWERFUL, GRIPPING DRAMA OF THE RAPID-PULSE LIFE OF TODAY—WOVEN FROM ACTUAL NEWSPAPER HEADLINES THAT HAVE SCREAMED THEIR STORY FROM THE FRONT PAGES OF NEW YORK'S NEWSPAPERS IN TALL BLACK LETTERS.

NOW at Loew's State

Here's How! Among the ads in today's Classified Ad Section there are answers to the five questions below. All you have to do is to find the ads containing these answers, write the number and the answers on a slip of paper, and mail immediately to the "Hidden Question Editor," Classified Department, Boston American, or Boston Sunday Advertiser, 5 Winthrop Sq., Boston, Mass.

The first TEN correct answers received will each receive two COMPLIMENTARY TICKETS to Loew's State Theatre. Names of those winning awards will be published in the Classified Ad Section and tickets mailed to Winners.

You need not be a subscriber to the Boston American or Boston Sunday Advertiser in order to participate; copies may be consulted at the Public Library or at the office of the newspaper, 5 Winthrop Square.

TODAY'S QUESTIONS:

1. What concern has the license number 57?
2. Where can you get free rent until February first?
3. Where can you buy panel trucks for as low as $50?
4. What firm pays cash for coupons and trading stamps?
5. How can you get to Hartford for $2?

Turn to the Classified Section of Today's Paper for the Announcement of Wednesday's Movie Ticket Winners

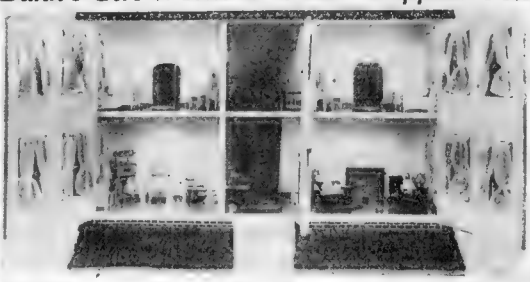
FARMERS' USE OF STREETS SCORED

City Councillor-elect Robert Gardiner Wilson, Jr., of Dorchester, advocated a change in the law granting free use of Boston streets in the market district to farmers living more than eight miles from the city, at the annual meeting of the Boston branch of the National League of Commission Merchants.

Wilson complained that at the present time farmers from Hyde Park and West Roxbury could not leave their trucks in South Market st. because the law provided it could be used only by farmers outside the 8-mile radius.

He pointed out that Boston taxpayers had spent $10,000,000 for the East Boston subway tunnel and millions more for widening Dock sq. and nearby streets and that it was unfair to turn this space over to non-residents.

Bank's Girl Workers Cheer Crippled Tots



More Christmas cheer for 700 children at the Massachusetts Hospital School for Crippled and Deformed Children, at Canton, will be possible through efforts of girls employed at the First National Bank. This beautiful doll house of eight rooms, built through the Firnabank Club, will go to the school in a few days.

It is now on display on the banking floor of the First National Bank. It is New England Colonial type and one-tenth of full sized house. It is mounted on wheels and can be taken from bed to bed so that those too crippled to walk may see and enjoy. Mrs. Edna M. Park is chairman of the Christmas Party committee.

CLOSE ELECTION STIRS MALDEN

[illegible] part of the nine on [illegible] Malden carried by the narrow margin of two votes in Tuesday's [illegible] has become the main topic in that city. Temperance advocates have taken up the cudgel in behalf of annual elections. Malden voted for license on both referenda and temperance advocates are therefore urging against [illegible] sections with a view to [illegible] against continuing [illegible] for more than one year.

Under provisions of the biennial referenda [illegible] next two years if [illegible] wet, or two years if one [illegible] referenda prevails or one year if [illegible] defeated. Likewise if the [illegible] carried the license period will be for two years instead of one year.

What could be more welcomed on Christmas for that boy of yours than a certificate for a course of study. Here's a really useful gift. Don't forget to read the classified Ads. in next Sunday's Advertiser for the details.

Famous Old Medford Rum to Be Distilled Again

Manufacture of Medford Rum, the real Old Medford Rum will once more be an industry in Medford it became known today.

The property which once housed the old distilling apparatus has been acquired up by a corporation, identity of which is now a secret, but which is to file papers for incorporation at the State House soon.

The old Medford distillery building no longer exists. That structure, a one-story brick building was for some years used as garage after manufacture of Medford most famous product was discontinued about 1865. There it was torn down and a modern theater was built on the site.

When manufacture of Medford rum was discontinued, the trade name was never disposed of and it remained in the Lawrence family.

Medford's leading family, Daniel Lawrence founded the business which rose to fame although in 1715 John Hull had started the manufacture of small quantities of cordials and built the first distillery. In 1767 the second distillery was built, of brick imported from England.

In 1777 Medford rum was first sold by the barrel. From 1777 until 1825 there were many distilleries but in 1830 Daniel Lawrence, afterwards Daniel Lawrence & Sons, acquired the other distilling rights and combined the business.

MELROSE FILLS RUM PETITION

Sufficient signatures to the petition asking Melrose aldermen to order a special election for action on the license question have been received, sponsors of the petition stated today, and the petitions will be filed with the aldermen tomorrow.

Melrose only city in the state to vote dry at the repeal election in April, may, if the petition to the aldermen is acted upon favorably, be called upon again to vote wet or dry.

Mulloney Faces Trial in March

The trial of Daniel C. Mulloney, president of the closed Federal National Bank, and 17 others indicted for alleged irregularities in connection with the affairs of the bank and its affiliates will be held in Federal Court early next March, it was announced today.

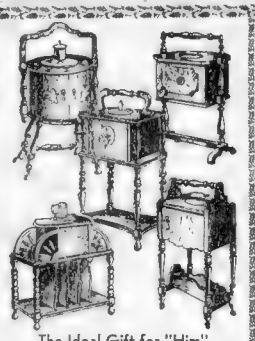
Stores Will Cash Closed Bank Checks

Boston retail stores will cash all checks issued to depositors of closed banks from those institutions as a convenience to the public the Boston Retail Trade Board announced today. The usual requirements of personal identification will be observed, it was stated.

Hotel Biltmore GRILL ROOM
DINE AND DANCE
IN THE HEART OF THE THEATRICAL DISTRICT
EAT WHAT YOU WANT
DRINK WHAT YOU WANT
NO MINIMUM—NO COVER
McLaffery's Irish Minstrels
25-31 Essex St.
SPECIAL SUNDAY DINNER

PRACTICAL GIFTS at MOLLER'S

NRA NRA



The Ideal Gift for "Him"

A Smoking Stand

A smoking stand is always doubly appreciated—it appeals to the man and it also serves the home so well! Here you will find a large selection of the latest styles and finishes. Smokers priced from

95c to $25

MARTHA WASHINGTON SEWING CABINET

$14.95

Genuine authentic 7-sided Martha Washington reproduction in choice of solid Mahogany or solid Walnut. Dainty fluted legs. Invisible cabinet hinges.

Sewing Cabinets up to $24.50

Duncan Phyfe Table

$19.75

A Table that is as useful as it is attractive. Top veneered with genuine Mahogany on hardwoods. Duncan Phyfe base with brass ferrules. Handy utility drawer. Measures 38x46" when opened. Will comfortably seat eight persons.

RADIO

The Gift That Keeps on Giving

Atwater Kent (shown at top) Model 427, complete with tubes $69.50

Crosley Dual Five (shown at right) complete with tubes $38.00

Stewart-Warner (shown at left) complete with tubes..... $59.50

Radios priced from $26 to $149.50

All Our Radios Sold on Easy Credit Terms

Make Christmas Joys Long-Lived

. . . and Christmas givers long-remembered! Shall we tell you how? Give furniture this year . . . the gift that comes so close to one's most intimate life. Think how grandma will love a Martha Washington sewing cabinet. Think how mother will appreciate a new chair for the living room . . . and dad a new smoker. Such gifts are not expensive, but they are more welcome than any other.

Lounge Chair

$17.95

Upholstered all over with fine quality, long-wearing fabrics. Web bottom, good quality spring construction and welted spring edge assure lasting comfort.

Solid Maple Lamps

No. 1 Student's Lamp $2.95

No. 2 Bridge Lamp $2.65

No. 3 Junior Lamp $4.95

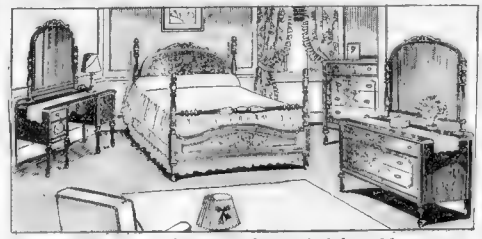
A very acceptable Christmas gift. The Lamps illustrated are constructed of solid Maple. Each has adjustable shade.

Book Trough End Table

$1.95

Sturdily constructed and attractively finished to resemble mahogany. A handy article for those stray books.

No Mail or Telephone Orders!



Smartly Designed Suite of Butt Walnut Veneers

Here is a suite that will give to your Bedroom beauty and charm. The spacious Dresser and Chest have large drawers, each of which is fully dustproof. The Dresser has large swinging mirror. Suite is constructed of butt Walnut veneers over sturdy cabinet woods. The handsome poster Bed may be purchased in full or twin sizes.

$95

For Dresser, Chest and Bed

Vanity may be purchased at small additional charge

STORE OPEN MONDAY, THURSDAY and SATURDAY EVENINGS

This AMERICAN ORIENTAL for Xmas

$26.95

9'x12' or 8'3"x10'6"

Make this a long-remembered Christmas—give yourself one of these luxurious seamless rugs . . . you'll enjoy it for years. Every one of these richly colored rugs are fringed and woven through to the back.

9'x12' or 8'3"x10'6" Mothproof Rug Cushion, $3.95

Over the bridge to

Moller's

"A Little Trip That Leads to Big Savings"
485 Massachusetts Ave., at Central Sq., Cambridge
LOWELL STORE—31 Middle St.

Purchases for Future Delivery Stored Free!

Forty-Six Years of Liberal Credit Service

See Your Home Through Others' Eyes

This Christmas season will be distinguished by entertaining at home and the wise hostess will learn to see her home through the eyes of those who visit it. A visit to this store will pay rich dividends in ideas for fixing up your home for the holiday season, in real value and in lasting satisfaction.

Special Liberal Credit Terms prevail during the Christmas season.

Colonial Salem Chest

$28.95

Beautiful Colonial reproduction Salem Chest. Your choice of mahogany veneers (combined with other fine cabinet woods) or solid maple. Well built inner construction, including dust-proofing and center drawer guides. An exceptional value!

Solid Maple Butterfly End Table

$5.75

An occasional table that can be used for numerous purposes. Strongly constructed of solid maple, excellently finished. Our stock contains a large variety of tables of every description.

Magazine Rack

$1.19

An inexpensive Christmas Gift! Nicely designed and sturdily constructed. Beautifully finished on hardwood. A handy article to hold those stray magazines.

Free Delivery Anywhere in New England

The Ideal Gift for the Home

A Cedar Chest!

Here is a gift which will bring happiness to any woman's heart because it is so distinctly a gift for her and her home. Our stock features the nationally advertised Lane chests.

$10.95 to $49.50

Gov. Winthrop Desk

An Authentic Colonial Reproduction

Serpentine design, well finished in mahogany veneers combined with other fine cabinet woods. Width 31 inches. Claw and ball legs, antique brass drawer pulls and roomy, nicely fitted interior are noteworthy details.

$24.95

Occasional Table

$5.95

The top of this table is veneered with very fine figured Burled Walnut, and has scalloped edges. The fluting of the edge adds much to its smart appearance. An exceptional value, specially priced.

Gifts For the Children

Child's Rockers, in a great variety of styles, priced from $1.65 to $4.25.

Child's Doll Carriages, the very newest types, priced from $3.75 to $18.50.

Child's Desk and Chair, as shown, $6.95. Other Child's Desks up to $18.95.

See our extensive assortment of these Gifts for the Children right on our main floor.

FIRST WITH LATEST NEWS

BOSTON AMERICAN

NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST EVENING NEWSPAPER

BOSTON, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 15 193

GREATER BOSTON NEWS

20 COMMUNITIES BATTLE FOR CHEAPER LIGHT AND GAS

FOUR MILLIONS FOR EXCHANGE DEPOSITORS

Rush Will Only Delay Distribution, Says Announcement

Beginning next Monday depositors in the savings department of the Exchange Trust Co. will receive a total of $4,118,812.79 as a result of the reorganization of the closed bank.

Announcement of the distribution was made by Thomas W. Murray, president of the Union Savings Bank, and Henry H. Pierce, supervisor of liquidations in the State Banking Department.

RUSH FEARED

In connection with the distribution a plea was made to the depositors to refrain from rushing to the bank on Monday. With some 40,000 depositors to be considered the amount of detail work will be tremendous, it was pointed out.

It was also explained that delay of a day or two would aid in handling the business and would prevent the necessity of keeping persons standing in line. Depositors were also urged, unless they were in urgent need, to delay withdrawing deposits until after Christmas as a further aid in the matter.

The distribution of the funds is made possible through arrangements with the Union Savings Bank, which is taking over the principal assets of the closed bank.

BASIS OF PAYMENT

Payments to depositors will be made on the following basis: Payment in full on accounts under $50.01; Payment of $50 on accounts between $50.01 and $100.01; Payment of 50 per cent on accounts of more than $100.01.

The Union Savings Bank has opened a temporary branch for handling the business in the former quarters of the Exchange Trust Co. in Washington st. Banking hours will be from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. daily, except Saturday, when they will be from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m.

DEDHAM GROUP GIVEN $50,000

The $50,000 estate of Fred H. Day, Norwood manufacturer, will go to the Dedham Historical Society after certain provisions are carried out, according to the terms of the document which was allowed in Dedham Probate Court.

Miss Florence D. Reynolds, of Brookline, a cousin, is cut off without a cent. Each household servant is to receive $250 and three-quarters of Day's stocks and bonds are to be placed in trust, with three-quarters of the income paid to Miss Nellie Keefe, of Dedham, who served him as housekeeper.

The income from the remaining quarter is to be paid to Mr. and Mrs. Irving Field, of Five Islands, Me., during their lives.

POLICE OUSTER APPEAL NEAR

The appeal of Mayor John H. Burke, of Medford, from a Malden court decision ordering the reinstatement of Sergt. John C. McGrath to the police department there will be heard Tuesday by Judge William C. Wait in Supreme court.

Mayor Burke removed McGrath from the department following the disclosure of the secret marriage of the latter and Miss Claire Annette Murphy. McGrath took the matter to court and his plea for reinstatement was sustained there.

The mayor appealed and will apply for a writ of certiorari in an effort to have the case reopened for a hearing by the full bench of the Supreme court.

Rum Store Manager is Robbed of $100

Two gunmen, who held up the manager of a liquor store in Washington st. at Roxbury, and escaped with $100, were being sought by police today.

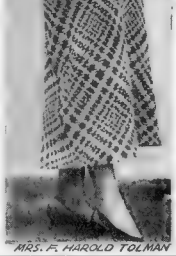
Victor Alberti, manager, told police he was alone in the store when the pair entered. They forced him to the back of the store and made him hand over the money to them, he declared.

Officer Suspended for Intoxication

Patrolman Stephen K. Mahoney of the D st. station today started a 20-day suspension and will be required to perform 210 hours of punishment duty on his return as a result of his being found guilty of being intoxicated while in uniform and on duty.

Charming Mothers of Beautiful Debs

MRS. JOHN S. LAWRENCE



MRS. F. HAROLD TOLMAN

MRS. GEORGE S. WEST

It is a notable fact in Boston society that beauty is not only an assured attribute for the majority of young social folk, but that New England beauty is durable, and with the accompaniment of charm and grace, the span of attractiveness extends through many years. Pictured above are Mrs. John S. Lawrence, Mrs. F. Harold Tolman and Mrs. George S. West, all of whom have beautiful daughters among this year a debutante group.

Debs Reflect Chic Charm of Comely Mothers

Although a great deal of attention is devoted this season of the year to the debutantes whose beauty and chic are the general subjects of discussion, there is very much in evidence the grace and charm of the mothers of these scintillating buds.

Although it is a fact that the frocks worn morning, noon and evening by the debutantes monopolize the wordage of the society columns, there is, in Boston society at least, a sound purpose in calling attention to the unusual charm, spirit and social grace of many of the mothers of Boston's debutantes.

Mrs. F. Harold Tolman, mother of popular Virginia who was recently introduced to society at a tea dansant at the Algonquin Club, seems at first glance to be an elder sister of Virginia. Mrs. Tolman is petite and blonde and has a splendid flare for smart apparel.

Mrs. John S. Lawrence is a horsewoman in her own right, though her daughter, blonde and blue-eyed Isabelle, is one of the most attractive debs introduced this season. Mrs. George Saltonstall West, whose eldest daughter, Dorothy, was presented this year, is a diminutive beauty, also very active as a horsewoman.

Other women of social prominence in Boston who rival their daughters in attractiveness are Mrs. Walter H. Byron, mother of the beautiful Sally and Betsy Byron; Mrs. George Peabody Gardner, mother of Isabelle and Kitty; Mrs. John Gorman Palfrey, mother of the tennis stars, and Mrs. Chatfield Whitman, whose daughter, Nancy, is among the most beautiful girls in Boston society.

These lovely mothers are but a few of the beautiful women of mature years whose social interests at the moment are concerned with their young, interesting and vivacious daughters.

HEALEY PROBES CWA CHARGES

A statement was awaited today from Congressman Arthur D. Healey, of Somerville, following his investigation of complaints against William Bowers, federal employment agent for the CWA in Everett.

After interviewing Bowers, whose method of distributing jobs is under fire, Healey talked with Everett city officials and unemployed and said he would announce later any action to be taken.

Bowers declares he is not going to be influenced in his selection of persons for CWA employment by anyone.

"I will deal with each case on its merits," he said.

Final Day to Pay Boston Taxes

Today is the last day of grace for Boston taxpayers, if they wish to escape the 8 per cent interest charge for overdue 1933 taxes in excess of $300. The interest penalty becomes effective at midnight.

City Collector William M. McMorrow again pointed out today that the collector's office on the second floor of City Hall Annex would remain open until midnight, if necessary, to receive payments.

Officers Praised for Reviving Man

Police Comm. Huitman commended five officers of the Brighton station for reviving a man who had attempted suicide by gas Nov. 14. They are Patrolmen Richard F. Finn, Albert E. LeRose, Harold E. Swanson, Elmer L. J. Hamlet and Andrew J. Maguire

WIVES BLAMED FOR LOSSES TO 'HEALER'

Woman Wielded Knife in Tilt Over 'Nazarene,' Mate Says

Further revelations regarding the God-like qualities allegedly claimed by Nicolo Colantonio of Providence, "The Nazarene" were expected today when his trial is resumed in Suffolk Superior court.

Colangelo and Vincent Rossell, of Providence and Roxbury, known as "St. Peter" are charged with conspiracy to steal from two Boston men who claim to have paid them money as healers.

According to Nicholas Nazuti who with Francisco Colantoni is making the complaints, Rossell told him Colangelo was God and could cure anything

Nazuti said his wife also testified to the God-like character of the Providence man to which the husband rejoined that he, Nazuti was more God-like because he brought in $30 weekly.

Mrs. Nazuti lost her temper and substituted a butcher knife for cold logic in the ensuing argument, he said, with a fruity ended in a separation Nazuti testified he protected himself from the knife so successfully his wife had him arrested for assault

Nazuti and Colantoni testified their wives induced them to take the women to a house in Roxbury, where they met the "healer." Nazuti said he paid "The Nazarene" $200 and Colantonio paid $5 as evidence of faith

Yule Mail to Europe Closes Today

Christmas mail from Boston to Europe will be stayed unless it is mailed before 8 p. m. today, according to announcement of Boston postoffice officials.

Holiday mail for Europe will be sent to New York and placed aboard the steamship Ile de France, which sails from that city tomorrow for Plymouth and Le Havre.

Young Jewish Folk Give Party Sunday

What promises to be one of the most joyous Chanukah and Kiddies Party, will take place Sunday afternoon, at the headquarters of the West End Young Men's and Women's Hebrew Association, 47 Mt. Vernon st., Beacon Hill.

The affair has been conducted for 17 years. The program consists of the lighting of the Menorah by "Grandad" Samuel Meirick, and a playlet in which a number of children will take part. Entertainment will be furnished and a picture gathering will join in the singing of "America" and the Hebrew song, "Hatikvoh."

B. U. Professor to Direct Festival

For the first time in 17 years, Prof. H. Augustine Smith, director of fine arts in religion at the Boston University School of Religious Education and Social Service, will leave Dec. 24 his teaching duties for a Sabbatical respite. He will take his family to Daytona Beach, Fla., where he will become festival director for the Daytona Forum and Assembly, returning to Boston in April.

As director of the Florida organization, professor Smith will conduct a series of choral festivals and pageants, which has been a yearly affair for the last 20 years.

N. H. to Buy Hampton River Toll Bridge

Concord, N. H., Dec. 15—Governor John G. Winant and the council have authorized the purchase of the Hampton River (toll) bridge between Hampton Beach and Salisbury Beach.

GIRL STILL MUM ON JUMP

Still refusing to explain, Miss Mildred Yore, former Back Bay cigarette girl and beauty prize winner, lay at death's door early today, in City Hospital, where she was taken after leaping from a window of the Oliver building.

Police Inspector John F. McCarthy made another futile attempt to obtain information from her.

Previously Mrs. Charles J. Cullen of Oakton ave., Dorchester, whose husband was with Miss Yore when she jumped, had made an unsuccessful attempt to see the girl, who is suffering from broken legs, a dislocated hip and other injuries.

Cullen told police he and the girl had been on a drinking party, which ended when they went to his office to get more money. He said Miss Yore was opening the safe when she suddenly climbed to the window and jumped.

Services in Dedham for Chief Fogerty

Funeral services were held today for Deputy Chief James R. Fogerty of the Dedham fire department with a solemn requiem high mass at St. Mary's Church. A detail of Dedham policemen and firemen acted as escort. He had been a member of the Dedham fire department for 40 years and had served as deputy chief during the past 12 years.

Providing a future occupation for that girl of yours is a real Christmas thought. Learn how easy a task it is by reading the classified Ads. in next Sunday's Advertiser.

PRISON PROBE RESULTS FROM RESIGNATION

Secrecy Ordered by Ely in Investigation at Norfolk

The Foxboro barracks of the State police as scheduled to be the scene today of an investigation which may not be of a character pleasant to taxpayers of Massachusetts.

For Auditor Francis X. Hurley, who is conducting an investigation of the Commonwealth's six penal institutions, is to question Thomas Bowne, who resigned suddenly yesterday afternoon as assistant superintendent of the Norfolk prison colony.

SECRECY ORDERED

Because, he says, of orders from Gov. Ely, Auditor Hurley will not make public the results of the investigation. Furthermore the remainder of the investigation will be conducted in secret, the governor having ordered all channels of information closed to the press.

Bowne, who resigned to make a race of Connecticut rejoined that he, executive planning committee of that state, was preparing to leave at once, when Hurley went into action.

He complained to Commissioner of Correction Frederick T. Dillon, who communicated with Supt Thomas A. Gill at Norfolk.

WELCOMES PROBE

Bowne offered no objections when asked to remain for questioning, although both he and Gill said they had no previous knowledge they were to be interrogated.

"Mr. Bowne is perfectly willing to be questioned by Mr. Hurley," said Supt. Gill. "His record is clear. He has accepted the survey job in Connecticut, and, as he has a perfect right to do, is going to take it. That's all there is to it."

HAMLEN HEADS RED CROSS

Succeeding James Jackson, resigned, Joseph B. Hamlen is the new chairman of the board of directors of the Boston Metropolitan Chapter of the Red Cross.

Hamlen, who served for two years during the war with the National Red Cross at Washington, was elected at a directors' meeting at the chapter headquarters, 347 Commonwealth ave. He is general secretary of the Harvard Alumni Association and president of the Harvard Alumni Bulletin.

Russia of Today Shown on Screen

An interesting and comprehensive picture of the Russia of today was presented to a large audience at Symphony Hall by Julien Bryan, lecturer, who utilizes 15,000 feet of film and interpretative remarks to deliver his message.

The film was not confined to city life but presented views of peasants in the fields, workers in factories and a variety of governmental and civic activities.

Suit to End Razing of Trees Planned at Medford

Petitions to have the courts issue an injunction against alleged wholesale destruction of shade trees in Medford, where cutting was made one of the major CWA projects, will be filed in superior court late today, these petitions bearing scores of signatures of Medford residents.

Former State Treasurer Fred J. Burrell is leading the legal battle to protect Medford's famous shade trees. The petitions set forth that under the statutes, trees on the public streets cannot be removed until they have been posted and a public hearing held upon the necessity of such removal

Hundreds of shade trees, the petitions declare, have been cut down and many hundreds more will be cut down to give employment to civil works program employes, unless the court will grant an injunction

Citizens are also planning to prosecute for damages

According to James J. Gillis, street commissioner and tree warden, no trees have been cut down excepting those which were a danger to pedestrians, or were dead.

Fights Charges

Mrs. Anna L. Crane, of Newton, will take the stand today to refute her husband's charges that she drank to excess, abused him and threatened to poison him. (Boston American photo.)

B. U. Class Aims at Loan Record

Students throughout Boston University are trying to equal the feat of 100 per cent record made by the girls of the Sargent School of Physical education, a university department. The girls contributed at least one dime each to the Loan Fund Drive

According to the loan fund sponsor, Prof. Warren T. Powell director of student counselling and religious activities, the student loan fund, created two years ago through similar donations of the ten cent pieces, has been able to satisfy the demand for financial assistance which existing conditions thrust upon it

Cigarette Causes North End Blaze

A carelessly dropped cigarette was said by fire officials today to have caused the blaze which did $2000 damage in the third and fourth stories of a building in Hanover st., North End, last night. Traffic was halted for almost an hour while firemen battled the flames. Two tailor shops in the building suffered considerable damage.

STATE UTILITIES BOARD IGNORED IN DEMANDS

Framingham Leading Way to Lower Rates After Citing Profits

By JOHN T. LAMBERT

The Worcester Gas Light Co. has given all the people of Framingham a whopping big reduction in their gas rates.

And thereby hangs a tale.

The public has become economy-minded and rate-minded

Some 20 cities and towns of Massachusetts have constituted special public-utility committees to agitate the matter of lower rates for electricity, gas and telephones.

The people of Framingham decided not to bother with the State Department of Public Utilities. The process of getting rate relief there is too long, arduous, expensive and problematical

They went to the companies direct—New England Telephone & Telegraph and Worcester Gas Light and now they are going to take on the Edison

"Bring in your books," said the Framingham committee to N. E. T. & T. "show us your income and expenses, and tell us what you can do AND WHAT YOU WILL DO IN THE MATTER OF LOWER RATES."

FIGURES DAZZLING

The Framingham committee says it has not had much luck with the 'phone officials. They have gotten a mass of figures that tell of income and outgo for New England as a whole. They have examined statistics on depreciation and obsolescence that are not comprehended, to them

"We are not interested in the world at-large; we're interested in Framingham only," said the committee. "Tell us how many phones you have here, how much property you devote to the use of Framingham, what income you get out of us and what your expenses are for doing business with us."

The Framingham committee says that as near as it can figure out, on its own estimates, the 'phone company derives $200,000 a year and its local expenses are $100,000. But these figures, it admits, are mostly guesswork. Unless the phone company comes through, the committee will ask the incoming Legislature to compel public utilities to file annual returns "that won't take a Philadelphia lawyer to fathom."

HEARING WAIVED

More success was had with the gas company, which came next. The committee flung a mass of its own figures at President Gaudiano and, it claims, he waived the hearing and promised to announce a cut in 30 days that would satisfy the most obdurate customer.

The present rate is $1.80 per 1000 cubic feet.

The Framingham committee has gone in for a comparison of the rates between private utilities and public-owned utilities. And they claim to have found in favor of the latter.

Braintree has a public plant. It sold its people last year 13,000,000 kilowatt hours of electricity for which it charged them $300,000 and netted a profit of $50,000. Edison of Boston sold the people of Framingham 10,000,000 horsepower, for which it charged them $500,000 Less power, more cost.

The Framingham consumers paid Worcester Gas $161,000 last year for 85,000 cubic feet of gas. In Westfield, the governor's home town, where they have a municipally owned plant, the people consumed 85,000 cubic feet, for which they were charged $130,000

RATES COMPARED

Framingham finds there are no public plants in this state, claiming lower rates than the private companies.

A result of the present agitation is that all the communities which have concerned themselves with utility rates, to the extent of designating local investigating committees, may be a merger of their interests and a joint appeal to the state.

The Framingham committee consists of Chairman Charles Foster, of the selectmen, Town Counsel Clarence Hallinan, Charles Stewart, Schuyler Low Nourse, Harold A. Long, John Jordan and Francis Wignot. Three of them are identified with the Dennison Manufacturing Co., of world-wide fame. Long was twice Democratic candidate for governor.

His Tile Superior, Plaintiff Claims

Hearing will be resumed in Suffolk Superior court today on the petition of Elias Galucci who seeks to compel the Boston Transit Commission to award the contract to his company for the tiling of the new Dix Boston vehicular tunnel. Galucci said tests which he made showed his tile was superior to that of the company which was given the contract.

SKIPPY---Say Ah!

THE DOCTOR'S A NICE MAN, BUT HE CERTAINLY DOESN'T KNOW HOW TO WEAR A MONOCLE.
WELL, IN THE FIRST PLACE IT'S TOO BIG FOR HIS EYE, SO HE WEARS IT UP IN THE MIDDLE OF HIS FOREHEAD.
-WITH A GARTER AROUND TO HOLD IT ON.
By PERCY CROSBY
Percy L. Crosby, Great Britain rights reserved © 1933, King Features Syndicate, Inc.
12-15

HOLLYWOOD IN GAY YULETIDE EXPECTANCY

Hollywood, Dec. 15 (AP).—Film stars and their families, for the most part, will spend Christmas near the scene of their many of them making their Christmas decorations outdoors.

For unique number, especially those from the New York stage, this outdoor Christmas tree fad is something new.

Barbara Stanwyck is planning one of the happiest Christmas observances of her life. Her 22 months old son Tom, is old enough to appreciate the season and the plans of Miss Stanwyck and her husband, Frank Fay, have been made with him in mind.

The Joe E. Browns will observe their 15th wedding anniversary on Christmas Eve and plan a family reunion for Christmas Day.

Ruby Keeler and Al Jolson probably will spend Christmas at Palm Springs, where a number of other movie folk will be present.

The Cooperrons will observe her birthday on Christmas Eve. She and her husband, Gaston Brent, plan to spend the day quietly, at home.

Kay Francis, given a new long-term contract by Warner Bros., will spend the holidays with her husband, Kenneth McKenna, in their recently completed home.

Recovering from an appendicitis operation, Joan Bondell was stay at home with her husband, George Barnes, and her parents.

There will be a family reunion at the home of Dolores Del Rio, her sister and father coming in time for the Christmas observance from the latter's home in Mexico City.

Ben Piazza will fly to Phoenix, Ariz., in the hope of spending the holidays there with her husband, Harmon O. Nelson, New Yorker. If Nelson's success in making the trip, Miss Joyce says she will have the honor of the parents of her life.

Edmund Lowe and his wife, Lilyan Tashman, will spend the day at their Malibu Beach home.

POSTAL WORK FOR JOBLESS

Six temporary postal stations have been set up in 12 Boston unemployed men will be put to work, probably Monday, to take care of the Christmas mailing rush, according to Postmaster William E. Hurley.

The new stations are in Charlestown, Arlington, the Back Bay, Cambridge, Newton and Dorchester.

Employment of the 200 men, all heads of families, is only waits for the rush to begin, Hurley said. The men are already chosen and bonded, and it was announced that early in May will help to put them to work.

Barred Policemen Will Take Tests

On a reversed ruling, three Boston policemen will be permitted to take the examination for promotion to sergeant tomorrow, although originally notified they were barred. They are Patrolmen Francis T. Coull and John J. Callahan of the detective bureau, and William J. Barry of Mattapan station, whose papers were questioned in the recent enrolled examination.

No. 248---First Prize Tested Recipes

Five Dollar Prize Winner for Friday

MISS MARIANNE H. ROGERS
Box 31, North Amherst, Mass.

BOSTON TESTED AMERICAN

LIMA BEAN CHEESE PATTIES

2 cups cooked lima beans
1 tablespoon chopped onion
1 cup grated American cheese
1 tablespoon melted butter
1 tablespoon flour
Salt and pepper
2 eggs
Fine cracker crumbs

Drain all liquor from the beans, mash them and add the chopped onion, grated cheese, butter, flour and seasonings to taste. Heat in a skillet over a low flame, stirring constantly. Add the beaten egg yolks and cook slowly for five minutes. When cool form into patties or cutlets. Dip them in the slightly beaten egg whites, roll in crumbs and fry on both sides until brown. Garnish the platter with parsley and serve the patties with broiled bacon.

—Clip Here and Save—

This week is National Cheese Week. With cheese in our thoughts and on our tables we are going to ask you to send us your favorite cheese recipe for the prizes this week to Dec. 16.

Every day the Boston Evening American awards $10 in cash for the six outstanding recipes sent to Martha Lee. If you have a favorite recipe—one that you are exceptionally fond of—send it to Martha Lee's Recipes, Boston American, P. O. Box 2087, Boston.

Each day there is a first cash prize of $5 and five other awards of $1. Prizes will be paid only on recipes that are published. You may submit one or more new recipes every day if you wish.

A special award of $25 in cash prizes is offered by Martha Lee for recipes sent to her for her page in the Boston Sunday Advertiser. Every Sunday a first prize of $10 is offered. Then there will be two $5 prizes and five $1 awards. If you wish to compete for the Sunday prizes, send your recipe to Martha Lee's Recipes, Boston Sunday Advertiser, P. O Box, 2087, Boston.

FIVE PRIZES OF ONE DOLLAR EACH

MRS NELLIE R KIRBY
28 Shennen st., Quincy, Mass.
CHILALY

1 cup [illegible] grated onion 1 finely chopped green pepper and 1 tbsp. minced celery in 3 tablespoons of butter until soft but do not brown. Add 4 tablespoons tomato juice and 1 cup water and 1 1/2 cups tomatoes and a teaspoon chili and after a minute salt to smooth. Let all simmer 5 minutes and strain, then add salt and pepper to taste. Now add 2 cups grated cheese and stir constantly until cheese is melted. Add one beaten egg stir vigorously for a few minutes and serve at once with toasted crackers or toast.

MRS E A WINTERS
48 Stowe rd., Mattapan, Mass.
NUT AND CHEESE LOAF

1/2 American cheese (run through [illegible])
1 cup English walnuts or chopped peanuts
1 cup bread crumbs
1 cup milk
2 tbsps. onion chopped
1 tbsp. butter
Juice of 1/2 lemon
Salt, pepper and Paprika to taste
Mix the butter and the onion and cook about 2 minutes, and cheese to remaining ingredients. Put in a shallow baking dish and brown in a moderate oven.

MRS LORIN HAYDEN
36 Tufts st., Cambridge, Mass.
DELIZIA

[illegible] spaghetti
1 cup minced onion
1 clove garlic minced
2 cups skinless green pepper
1 tbsp. salt
1 tbsp. sugar
1 can peeled tomatoes
1/2 tsp. salt
Few grains pepper
1 tbsp. meat juice
3/4 cup grated cheese
2 cups cooked ham
1/2 lb. parmesan

Cook spaghetti as usual in boiling salted water. Fry onion, garlic and pepper gently in oil. Add tomatoes and seasonings and when hot stir in the cheese. Add spaghetti, ham and meat and mix well with a cup of hot water. Simmer 15 minutes. Serve with additional grated cheese

MRS. IDA L. GOLDBERG
8 Osborne rd., Brighton, Mass
CHEESE BALLS

1/2 pressed cheese
1 egg
Pinch of salt
2 tsp. to taste
Frying fat of flour

Mash cheese with fork until very fine and lumps are gone. Add egg, salt and pepper. Mix well and make into balls the size of a walnut. Roll in flour and fry in deep fat until brown.

A JOSEPHINE ANDREWS
38 East Newton st., Boston, Mass.
ITALIAN CABBAGE WITH BACON

[illegible]

SANE AUTO RACE PLEA GAINS

Los Angeles, Dec. 15—"Automobile racing isn't a sport; it's a disgrace. If it can't be stopped completely then it should be made safe."

Adding to the storm of public protest caused by the deaths and injury of automobile race drivers, H. W. Keiler, vice-president of the Automobile Club of Southern California, appealed today for support of the movement against what has been termed "licensed murder and suicide" on the speedways.

"These young men go out and risk life and limb to provide thrills for a morbid crowd," said Keiler. "I don't believe the automobile was ever intended for such vicious use. Certainly, the move to diminish the danger of death at the races—if not to put a stop to them entirely—should receive the support of every right minded citizen."

Relaxation Big Problem in Desert

Means of relaxation was the greatest problem in the Gobi Desert, Roy Chapman Andrews, leader of five Asiatic expeditions for the American Museum of Natural History, told an audience at the University Club. In an illustrated lecture, he said taming small animals as pets was the chief pastime.

Insane Scientist Plotted Kidnap of Theater Heir

Seattle, Dec. 15 (AP)—Detective Capt. Luke B. May said today a plot to kidnap John Von Herbert, son and heir of a Seattle theater multimillionaire, was conceived by a brilliant scientist deranged by years of lonely research, was worried $5000.

The scientist, he said, is "J. B. Logan, a well-known man living in this city, who was arrested with Ed Brown by Sheriff W. E. Faulkner of Snohomish County before the alleged kidnap plan could be carried out.

May, a criminologist and scientist, said "Logan's" cabin contained a fine scientific library.

"Logan has a towering intellect which has been undermined by years of solitary toil—writing a monumental scientific work," said May. "I believe him to be a case of brain fag—a brilliant mind overburdened to the breaking point.

"He has worked for 13 years among his books and papers, writing a treatise on the atomic composition of the ether which permeates empty space. He said his decision to kidnap young von Herbert came after his mind was upset by the recent San Jose kidnaping and lynching.

Prosecutor Robert M. Burgunder, King County, said the most serious charge he could bring against the two men would be conspiracy to kidnap.

Lasell Glee Club to Sing Cantata

The Lasell Junior College Glee Club will sing the cantata "Child Jesus" Sunday evening at the college. There will be pictures arranged by Miss Norma Keller of the Art Department.

Lois Andrews, Rumford, Me., is student director of the club and the soloists will include Betty J. Allenbaugh, Akron, O.; Katherine Argersinger, Waban; Betty Maitland, Thompson, Conn.; Mary J. Selby, Simsbury, Conn.; Lillian Thrasher, Providence, R. I.; Dorothy Fuller, Medford Hillside; Hildreth Weigold, Torrington, Conn.; Nina Williams, Wauregan, Conn.

Chanukah Festival in Roxbury Monday

The Roxbury Zionist District will hold its third annual Chanukah festival and dance at the Temple Mishkan Tefila, Elm Hill ave., Roxbury, Monday evening.

$3 TO NEW YORK
Finest Coaches on the Road
Leave 309 Tremont St., at Broadway, Daily
9 A. M.—1 P. M.—10 P. M.—12 Midnight
Tickets Sold All Day HANcock 7307
HUB MOTOR COACH LINE, Inc.
Take TREMONT ST. SUBWAY CAR at Park St. and Get Off at BROADWAY

Atty. Francis Rafter Reported Better

Doctors at the J. B. Thomas Hospital, Peabody, reported today that Atty. Francis E. Rafter, associate counsel for Mrs. Jessie B. Costello during her recent murder trial, was recovering from the nervous breakdown he suffered in New York.

It was said the breakdown was caused by his refusal to take a rest after he had completed his work on the Costello case.

Punchboard Thief Sought in Brockton

Brockton, Dec. 15—Police are seeking a sneak thief armed with a punchboard, who has been looting local homes while getting housekeepers to take a chance on prizes which never materialized. In each house the youth asked for a drink of water, picking up any loose articles of value while whoever answered the door went for the drink.

Announcing the Opening of DOLAN'S INC.
1653 BLUE HILL AVE.
MATTAPAN SQUARE
With a Complete Line of Imported and Domestic WINES — LIQUORS
ALES — BEER
Also a Select Line of S. S. PIERCE CO. Imported and Domestic WINES — LIQUORS Delivery Service
Tel. BLUehills 4200

Copyright, 1933, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company

It takes Healthy Nerves

FOR JAFFEE TO BE THE WORLD'S CHAMPION SKATER

IRVING JAFFEE

(At Right)—Again Jaffee makes a thrilling finish as he speeds to victory! Winner of 1,000 medals and trophies, including three Olympic Skating Championships, Jaffee has brought the highest skating honors to the U.S.A. Asked recently if he was a steady smoker, Jaffee said, "Yes—but that goes for Camels only. I have to keep my wind, you know, and healthy nerves."

Steady Smokers turn to Camels

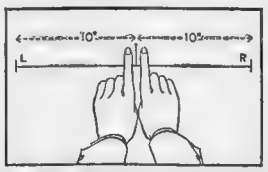
You've often seen his name and picture in the papers—Jaffee, the city-bred boy from the U.S.A. who beat the best Olympic skaters that Europe had to offer, and became the skating champion of the world! Speaking of speed skating and cigarettes, Jaffee says: "It takes healthy nerves and plenty of wind to be an Olympic skating champion. I find that Camels, because of their costlier tobaccos, are mild and likable in taste. And, what is even more important to a champion athlete, they never upset the nerves."

Change to Camels and note the difference in your nerves...in the pleasure you get from smoking! Camels are milder...have a better taste. They never upset your nerves. Begin today!

IT IS MORE FUN TO KNOW

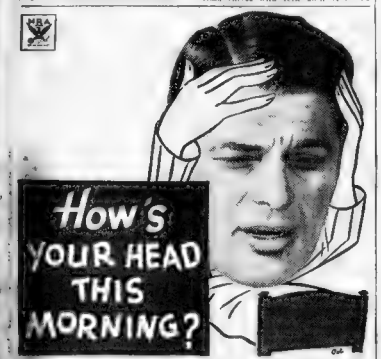
Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand. Camel pays millions more—for your enjoyment.

HOW ARE YOUR NERVES?
TRY THIS TEST



Draw a line twenty inches long on the edge of a newspaper. Stick a straight pin in the exact center. Place a forefinger on either side of the pin. Close your eyes...try to measure off quickly the distances by moving both hands at the same time. Have a watcher stop you when you reach the edge. See if both your fingers have moved the same distance. Most people try this at least six times before both hands come out evenly.

Frank Crilley (Camel smoker), famous deep-sea diver, completed the test on his second try.



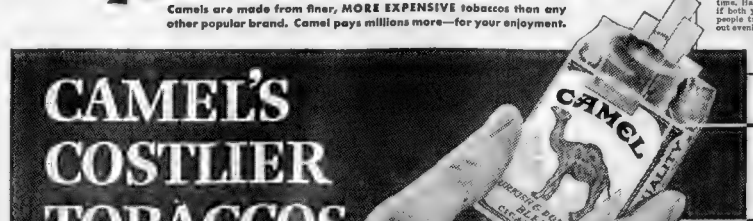
Rise and Shine ... Regardless

As soon as you are out of bed—swish up two teaspoons of Sal Hepatica in a full glass of water and drink it down. Within an hour your intestinal tract will be emptied of clogging waste and poisons.

Almost immediately you'll feel better—clear-headed, fit and fresh to tackle the day's work.

And take Sal Hepatica—the mineral salt laxative—any time you feel out-of-sorts, logy, headachey due to clogged intestines. Be sure to get a bottle today.

SAL HEPATICA
TO START YOUR DAY FIT AND CLEAR-HEADED



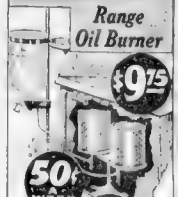
CAMEL'S COSTLIER TOBACCOS

NEVER GET ON YOUR NERVES

NEVER TIRE YOUR TASTE

SCIENCE OF LIVING -:- By Dr. R. S. Copeland -:- THAT GIRL FROM N. Y. -:- By Allene Corliss

NO MORE COAL DRUDGERY with a Range Oil Burner



$9.75

50¢ A WEEK

EVERY BURNER APPROVED BY STATE FIRE MARSHAL

OTHER BURNERS UP TO $34.95

AMERICAN SUPPLY CO.
801 and 803 Washington St.
NEAR HOLLIS ST.
Open Saturday Evening Until 9 P. M.

Turn to the classified page today and select the rental or that appeals to you. Then go to R. H. White Company and consult with Barbara Roberts. She will save you both time and money.

Sickness and Colds Develop in Rooms Lacking Pure Air and Sunshine

EVERYONE IS interested in how to prevent colds. Yet few take one simple precaution necessary to guard against this common af- fection. I re- fer to the im- portance of proper ventil- ation as a means of pro- tection against colds.

Contrary to the belief held by our forefathers and many persons of this genera- tion, fresh air and even night air, is not detrimental to health and does not cause disease. In fact it can be truthfully stated that in winter poor ventilation of homes, public buildings and conveyances with curtains and street cars is the most common factor in producing colds and other respiratory diseases.

This is contrary to the prevalence of the common cold during the winter months. I am sorry to say that windows and doors which are always kept open during the summer months are shut as soon as the weather becomes cold. This increases the danger of exposure to germs that are capable of causing coughs, colds and other disabling infections.

Dr. Copeland

Bear in mind that disease is rarely if ever caused by cold air. It is more frequently the result of lack of fresh air. Fresh air is necessary for good health.

Proper ventilation is a simple measure of guarding against disease. An elaborate method of ventilation is not necessary to insure fresh air. All that is necessary is to provide a continuous stream of fresh air. This is readily accomplished by window ventilation. Keep the windows open a bit at top and bottom.

Avoid drafts by using screens. Keep the doors closed when the windows are opened. Though I advise that you keep the windows open I do not mean that you should submit to chilling or excessive cold. The temperature of the room should be about seventy degrees Fahrenheit.

(Copyright, 1933, Distributed by Universal Service.)

Scientists Learn About Children! Recent Investigations Reveal What They Like, Dislike and Are Afraid Of. See The American Weekly, the Magazine Distributed with the Dec. 17 Boston Sunday Advertiser.

(Copyright, 1933, by the Boston Evening American)

Can't Fool the Bankers

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER

Just discovered that professor Warren is the man who dials the numbers on the gold bid.

Every day the professor pulls the statistics out of his thinking cap. He has it put up to thirty-four dollars an ounce. And that ain't hay.

Nobody knows how Europe knows the daily price before we do. That's just as easy as smelling what the neighbors are cooking for dinner.

They say the Europeans are backward in grabbing our jokes. But they ain't slow in seeing a decimal point.

Our smartest men in Washington are not going to fool foreign financiers. Those boys are born with gold chisels in their mouths.

Jerry Finds New Charm in Eden but Bemoans Loss of Heir in Tragedy

Continued From Yesterday

"But then," Eden pointed out with a nice reasonableness, "you would be 10 years older and I should probably have missed you completely." Which argument, Jerry had to admit, had its points.

[illegible] was quietly jubilant about [illegible] ing. She was [illegible] to the State Legislature in the fall as the first step in a long and important political career. A career which was launched modestly enough as Jefferson and end a number of years later in Washington. His great-grandfather had died a United States Senator. His own grandfather could have made a similar boast. It was up to Jerry to prove that old adage true, to show his mettle, to make up for the [illegible] up certain [illegible] approach [illegible] with [illegible] and [illegible] it [illegible] [illegible] to make [illegible] [illegible] mind. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

DON'T FORGET A CELLOPHANE UMBRELLA -:- HOW MUCH BLAME DOES WIDOW SHARE?

Gay New Accessories That Will Go to Sea Very Jauntily

(Authentic last minute fashions from New York—the style center of America)

By Victoria Gaines

NOW THAT YOU have all your cruise clothes ready—sports frocks, beach suits and evening gowns—you'd probably like to know about those last-minute trifles that will complete your cruise wardrobe.

About the newest and neatest sea-going [illegible] were seen are those [illegible] "crazy caps" in every possible color and shape—peaked "clown" caps, perky cockscomb hats and mortarboard berets. In white or pastel colors to go with your costumes, plus a pair of crocheted gloves to match, you're completely outfitted down to your toes.

If you [illegible] a jaunty dance act, even carnival [illegible] can choose a diamond bar of white or [illegible] [illegible] more [illegible] [illegible] light [illegible] the

TO KEEP CURLS IN PLACE

And while we're on the subject of headgear, don't forget to take a dinner hat or two. They're not strictly cruise fashions, of course, but they'll keep your carefully curled coiffure from being ruined by the sea-breezes.

Getting down to the ground about cruise accessories, the smartest sports shoes that go to sea are of fabrics—linens, waffle-woven cloths and meshed materials. These come in white or natural color, and are giving the classic brown-and-white or black-and-white leather shoe a swift race for popularity. They're usually in oxford style, with built-up leather heels.

GAY BEACH SANDALS

Beach sandals, too, are the last word in lightness—one new model being made of linen strappings with a cork-and-leather sole and wooden heel.

Odds and ends include gayly striped handkerchiefs sometimes matching the lining of the purse—aptly named "neck cuddlers," silk crepe scarfs in pastel colors to wear with your bouclé suits—bizarre beach jewelry of brightly painted wood—and a brand-new beach umbrella of cellophane, designed to distribute the sun's rays evenly for an all-over tan.

No Ring Is Needed

By MRS. BEECKMAN

DEAR MRS. BEECKMAN:

Is it proper for a girl to announce her engagement before she gets her ring? I would like to announce mine next month at a dinner party, very informal, but I won't be able to have my ring.

Would it be best just to have betrothal cards printed and mail them to my friends? What could I say when they ask to see my ring? My fiance has not been working steady and it's just impossible for me to have a ring now, but I would like to announce my engagement. Will you tell me what I should do?

STEADY READER.

If you and your fiance wish to announce your engagement, do so, by all means, and never mind the insignificant fact that you haven't received an engagement ring. After all, the ring is not a bit important, and don't be the least self-conscious about not having it. If any of your friends is so indelicate as to ask to see your ring, don't mind that, either. Be quite frank about it and say "I haven't an engagement ring . . . yet. Maybe I'll have one later, and maybe not. Anyway, Bill and I are engaged!" And say that fact so buoyantly that a mere engagement ring will seem like the trifle it is, compared to the "sacred fact" of your engagement.

And be comforted too by the fact that many girls nowadays pass up having an engagement ring, preferring to have a jeweled band for a wedding ring, and wearing only the one ring.

Don't have betrothal cards . . . they aren't in good taste and they aren't necessary. They are now used by people who know what they're doing. Really, you will tell your relatives and friends about your engagement . . . when you can announce definitely just what kind of month it is to be. Then write little notes about the happy news to those who don't live near enough to be told. Then there won't be the dinner to announce the engagement to dozens of people, which your mother and father insist upon in the newspaper form. Notice of your engagement. This is the simple and easy way of informing all of your friends.

Hot Bread for a Chilly Day Breakfast

By Martha Lee

From Martha Lee's Friday Morning Broadcast Over Station WAAB

HOT BREADS and cold mornings are [illegible] a certain amount of [illegible] [illegible] the combined [illegible] of hot coffee and warm bread [illegible] the chilled [illegible]

BRAN MUFFINS

1 cup sifted flour
3 tbsps. sugar
1 egg, well beaten
3 tbsps. melted butter or other shortening
½ cup milk
3½ tsps. baking powder
¼ tsp. salt
1 cup whole bran

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, sugar, and salt, and sift again. Pour milk over whole bran. Add egg and butter to bran mixture. Add flour, beating as little as possible. Bake in greased muffin pans in hot oven (425 deg. F.) 25 minutes, or until done. Makes 8 muffins. If desired, sour milk may be used instead of sweet by adding ¼ teaspoon soda and using ½ teaspoon less baking powder.

CORN MUFFINS

1¼ cups sifted flour
2 tablespoons sugar
2 eggs, well beaten
1 cup milk
3 tsps. baking powder
¾ tsp. salt
⅝ cup yellow corn meal
4 tbsps. melted butter or other shortening

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, sugar and salt, and sift again. Add corn meal and mix well. Combine eggs, milk and shortening; add to flour, stirring only enough to dampen all flour. Bake in greased muffin pans in hot oven (425 deg. F.) 25 minutes, or until done. Makes 12 muffins.

QUICK COFFEE CAKE

2 cups sifted cake flour
3 tsps. baking powder
¾ tsp. salt
6 tbsps. sugar
5 tbsps. butter
1 egg, well beaten
1-3 cup milk
1½ tbsps. melted butter
4 tbsp. sugar
1 tbsp. flour
½ tsp. cinnamon

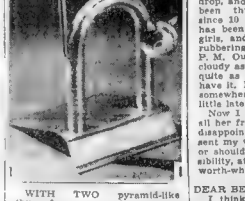
Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt, and sugar, and sift again. Cut in shortening. Combine egg and milk; add to flour mixture all at once, stirring carefully at first, then vigorously until mixture is well blended. Turn into greased 9-inch layer pan, spreading dough evenly. Brush top with melted butter. Sprinkle with mixture of sugar, flour, and cinnamon. Bake with mixture of sugar, flour, and cinnamon. Bake in hot oven (400 deg. F) 25 to 30 minutes.

POPOVERS

2 cups flour
½ tsp. salt
2 eggs
2 cups milk
2 tbsps. melted fat

Beat eggs slightly. Sift flour and salt, and add alternately with milk to eggs. Add melted fat. Beat with egg beater until smooth and full of bubbles. Fill hot greased cast aluminum or iron gempans or glass or earthenware custard cups, 2-3 full of popover batter. Place immediately in a hot oven, of 450 deg. F., and bake for 20 minutes. Then lower temperature to 350 deg. F., and bake for 15 minutes longer.

Nice Kitty!



WITH TWO pyramid-like things for ears, round circles for eyes and a tail like a pipestem, doesn't this doorstep kitty still manage to get across a lot of expression and personality in the look he seems to cast your way?

He's bright chromium, and will continue forevermore to arch his back and stand with feline equanimity, the closing of many doors in his face. Nice gift for people who dote on getting something to trim up their little homes. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request, if you wish to know where the chromium door stop may be purchased.

Tomorrow's Menu

BREAKFAST
Grapefruit
Bacon Curls
Fried Mush
Butter Syrup
Coffee Milk

LUNCH
Asparagus Tips on Toast with Egg Sauce
Bread and Butter
Chocolate Cup Cakes
Tea Milk

DINNER
Baked Half Ham, Honey Raisin Sauce
Mashed Sweet Potatoes
Cauliflower Cheese Sauce
Rolls and Butter
Baked Apples Coffee

For Fireside Hospitality

The hostess gown at the right is velvet, cut to fit like a second skin, but softened by the hip pockets, a neckline of fur and many buttons down the front. Centre, a lace and satin robe, more of the tea gown type; lower left, another velvet model that takes a tip from Russia with a collar and frogs.

By Prunella Wood

NOW that no one has to rush out of the home to find a setting for legal cups that cheer when spiked with a bit of Bacardi rum, women will take the vogue for the hostess gown even more seriously. And it is a European custom—sometimes Spanish and sometimes not which has been sneaking up on our good-looking Belle Brummels for several years.

Although the original conception of the costumes was very likely levelled at women of utter leisure, who had hours to change their clothes as the social clock creeps round them day by day, it is really a much greater boon to the busy feminine executive who rushes in from offices at twilight, and wants to relax as fast as possible for purely sociable hours.

For the really clever hostess gown slips on over a minimum of underpinning and can be adjusted to perfect picturesqueness in a jiffy. Any smart girl could get out of her business garb, under a shower and into something seductively feminine in velvet or silk, built on these gracious tea-gown lines, in twenty minutes by the clock.

• • •

A BRUSH through her permanent, a quick wipe away of old makeup and on with the new, and she could receive the Prince of Wales with aplomb and chic. And now that the speakeasy dais has its nose out of joint, one of these hasty toilettes is all that a woman needs to make for the pre-prandial hour.

She can dress again if she decides to go on to some place in the public eye, and by that time she will probably feel up to it, for a few calm hours after the hurly-burly of the day are all that any balanced girl needs to make the sap spring up.

Pandora Tells You

DEAR PANDORA:

Just what is the correct proportion of fun and work in a happy married life?

I know that's a big question, but here's how it affects me. We have been married less than a year, and everything is rosy, but there is one weed in the garden, so to speak. It's this. I had the idea that my wife would spend a great deal of the time in the house fixing it up, et cetera, and would meet me when I came home at night. Sort of cottage-gate-gingham-dress reception, you know . . . like you read so much about.

But instead, after a long day's work, I arrive home ready to drop, and find that my wife has been through the housework since 10 o'clock in the morning, has been out to lunch with the girls, and that they've all been rubbering at bridge for the whole P. M. Our small apartment looks cloudy as a smoking car, and not quite as homelike as I'd like to have it. Either that, or she's out somewhere and will be home a little later.

Now I realize that these aren't all her friends do, but I am rather disappointed. Am I wrong to resent my wife having a little fun, or should she take more responsibility, at least to find something worth-while?

BEWILDERED

DEAR BEWILDERED

I think you're right any way you look at it, but don't go too far in trying to solve the problem. If she's got the wrong [illegible] to pass in having a good time, the least she can do is to give in to you when you show up on the horizon. And it would be an excellent thing for her to find some sort of work or study that interests her. She'll soon get tired of flitting around anyway, unless she's a born flipperty-gibbet. And having no responsibilities is the easiest way to get into trouble there is.

Now don't let your male ego make you dictatorial about the thing, or you'll spoil it all, but find something she would really like to do.

PANDORA.

Daily Suggestion for Self-Improvement

Watch your voice. Is it musical and pleasant? As someone aptly said, "Speech at its best is spoken song." Remember that whenever you are tempted to talk in harsh, rasping tones, [illegible] ened by rubbing with a cloth on which has been sprinkled a little olive oil.

• • •

When cream seems too thin to be whipped, place it in a bowl of cold water for a few minutes. Then place in a bowl of hot water for a few minutes, and again in a bowl of cold water. It will then whip like magic.

Keep Plants Cool

House plants will not thrive if the temperature of the room in which they live is too hot. Between 65 and 70 degrees is an average, healthy heat for them.

Snake plants and different varieties of the popular cactaceous plants do not require much water. The soil should be barely damp and once a week is often enough to water them.

A thorough sprinkling of the leaves of some of the flowering plants keep them bright and green. Ferns should be put under a gentle shower once a week.

• • •

Equal parts of household ammonia and water will remove oil stains from clothing.

• • •

Try fastening an ordinary window window shade on a spring roller to the edge of that open shelf. A slight jerk will pull it up quickly, and it will stay in place better than one cloth.

• • •

Brush upper crust of pies with milk, and the result will be a nicely browned pie.

• • •

Radishes may be cut the [illegible] of mushrooms, fried in bacon and lard, and served with [illegible] steak. They cannot be distinguished from the real mushrooms by the uninitiated.

• • •

Mahogany furniture that has a cloudy appearance may be brightened by rubbing with a cloth on which has been sprinkled a little olive oil.

Advertisement

AVOID THE DANGER OF CONSTIPATION

Delicious Cereal Overcomes This Condition Safely and Pleasantly

The first signs of constipation may be headaches, tired feelings, sallow complexions, sleeplessness, loss of appetite. If neglected, constipation may seriously impair health.

Today, you can banish constipation by simply eating a delicious cereal. Laboratory tests show that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to further aid regular habits. ALL-BRAN is also a good source of iron for the blood.

This "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is gentle in action similar to leafy vegetables. Within the body, it forms a soft mass, and gently clears out the intestinal wastes.

Two tablespoonfuls daily will overcome most types of common constipation. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Enjoy ALL-BRAN as a cereal, or use in cooking. Appetising recipes on the red-and-green package. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Satin Skin From Oil Lotion

By Therese Deschamps

WINTER IS the time for luxury bathing . . . especially if you are feeling tired and a bit sorry for yourself because you're not spending the cold months in a warmer climate.

Just before dinner or that very important party is an ideal time for a leisurely, refreshing tub. It's as restful after a long, hard day at the office as those pleasant afternoon siestas Spanish senoritas indulge in. So few of us have that much time.

A fat little bar of your favorite bath soap, a tub full of warm—not hot—water, some fragrant bath salts, dusting powder and bath oil . . . and you're all set.

• • •

A quick scrubbing, a few precious minutes to relax in the warm, scented water . . . then a cool rinse and you're ready for a brief rub-down with a warm, fleecy bath towel. Next a fluff of dusting powder and on go your fresh stockings and clean lingerie.

Try this next time you feel simply dead tired before you even start out for an evening's gayety . . . and I guarantee you'll be happier and have a pleasanter time.

You MUST be clean to be daintily feminine. That means a daily rubbing—one of those scrub-the-hind-your-ears-with-plenty-of-soap ones, too.

• • •

Do you ever feel tempted to omit your daily bath in cold weather because your whole body, or perhaps only your arms and legs are chapped, and feel dry and scaly? No need for that, even if you have excessively dry skin. I have the very suggestion to help you.

You'll be glad to hear about a marvelous "Egyptian Lotus Bath Lotion" you can make at home. It's grand for that troublesome type skin. Put a little on your body after your bath . . . and your skin will feel soft and smooth as satin! All roughness and chapping goes.

Ancient Egyptian beauties knew the value of oil in keeping their skins young and lovely. But this modern after-bathing lotion has their crude ointments and oils beat a mile!

If you'd like to make this lovely, fragrant lotion at home, write for directions to Therese Deschamps, Boston Evening American, 5 Winthrop sq., Boston. Don't forget to enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope, please.

Beauty Queries and Answers

Attractive Lashes

Question: Will vaseline make my eyelashes grow?—N. C., Dorchester.

Answer: It's often recommended for that purpose. There are also some grand eyelash growers on the market, put out by reliable cosmetic manufacturers.

• • •

Hand Stains

Question: How can I remove stains from my hands after I pare fruit and vegetables?—C. C., North Adams.

Answer: That's easy. Tomato juice is an old favorite. You might try rubbing half a lemon over your hands.

Pointing Road to Proper Care Might Lessen Number of Widows

By Marguerite Mooers Marshall

"WHY IS IT," the woman we know best has sighed so often, "that the Nicest American Husband will do everything in the world for his wife if she is sick—and NOTHING in the world to maintain or to regain his own health! I can't make him take care of himself when he is well—and when he is ill he won't let me or anybody else take care of him!"

Now is the winter of her discontent come on this and many another devoted wife, who can never persuade her mate to keep his feet dry or to stay at home when he has a cold. All she can do is worry herself sick over the risk of his serious sickness. No—there's one other thing she can do, the sooner the better. She can read aloud to him, con expression, Dr. Clarence W. Lieb's too painfully truthful article in Good Housekeeping entitled, "We Have Too Many Widows."

REASONS FOR SURPLUS

We have, indeed, as life insurance mortality tables prove. And Dr. Lieb sums up the reason for the widow surplus in the following pointed paragraphs:

"A man considers it effeminate to be ill. In consequence he does not take care of acute major symptoms and thus nip disease in the bud. But if a member of his family has a temperature or indigestion, he will send for a physician immediately and in a businesslike way to see to it that all medical orders are meticulously carried out.

"Nervous women patients have frequently told me that the chief cause of their own health impairment was due to constant worry over their husband's utter indifference to his personal health matters. A mother of young children complained bitterly the other day that, from the day her husband, who was twice her own age, took out a life insurance policy a year previous, he had neglected all his customary health practices. The man who ignores all the opportunities of a solicitous wife, as well as the admonitions of his medical adviser, is an inconsiderate husband and a difficult patient."

THE RECKLESS FIFTIES

And when he is likely to be another victim of the reckless fifties. "Every year," as Walter B. Pitkin has pointed out in his dynamic book, "More Power to You," more people above fifty years of age die of degenerative diseases, such as heart failure, cancer, nephritis, and bursting blood vessels.

"Every year more neurotics, more neurasthenia, more chronic worriers! . . . Those who grow tired try to relax but cannot. In their effort, they resort to all sorts of forced-draught methods of resting — a crazy contradiction, of course. They smoke heavy cigars all day. They gulp highballs from morn till eve. They play golf until they drop. But all to no avail. The end comes as ordained."

Gifts for Dad and Mother

By V. G.

Sometimes some precious gadget or other will please a man as much as a woman. Such as a gold or silver pocket knife thoughtfully fitted out with a corkscrew in honor of repeal. Or a monogramed belt buckle, also of silver or gold. Or a combination pen and pencil set.

Then there's a really stunning tie-and-muffler set to match. It's made of the finest cashmere, in black, brown, blue or mixtures—and is so handsome that it broke down all our good resolutions to give Dad anything but ties for Christmas.

But what will probably go straight to his sentimental old heart — and what we consider the prize present for everybody's Dad—is a tiny watch charm of gold or silver in the shape of a locket.

This contains a likeness of any beloved face, engraved on the inside of the locket cover — a beautiful and imperishable gift that any man would cherish. Mother's, Daughter's or the first grandchild's picture may be reproduced from any photograph by this method.

FOR YOUR MOTHER

We've always felt that Santa never did do right by Mother—not as she deserves, anyway. Because Father's idea of an ideal Christmas gift is likely to be a swell new washing machine, and Brother's wildest flight of imagination is apt to end in a set of saucepans. So it's up to the gals of the family to remember that Mother is a woman, too, and likes lovely, feminine fripperies as well as the next one. Not that a feminine gift necessarily means a silly, frivolous one—here are some gifts that are gracious and dignified without being dull.

A petit point bag that she could wear with her afternoon or evening costumes would probably send her into a seventh heaven of delight. These are beautifully worked in floral design and come with elaborate gold frames.

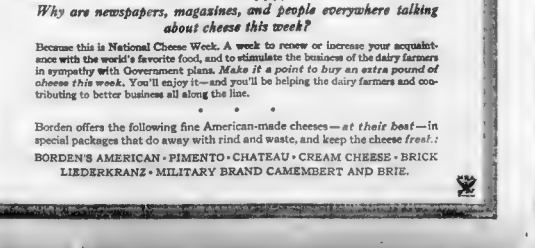
A marcasite pin worked out in her personal monogram would be a thoughtful touch—so would one of the very new brooches composed of two clips that come apart at will, and can be worn as either clips or pins. These come in rhinestones set with synthetic rubies, emeralds or sapphires. And a strand of coral, amber or crystal beads is always acceptable.

Bright Bathrooms

A good housekeeper takes pride in keeping her bathroom shining and immaculate. If towel racks are conveniently arranged so that everyone in the family has his or her own rack—it is much easier to keep order and peace when the bathroom is shared.

Tubs and bowls should be polished each and every day with a gentle cleanser and mirrors should be kept bright. Clean guest towels should hang to the right of the wash stand and at least three fresh ones should be arranged daily for use. There should be no taboo about using these towels and they should be of practical size.

Do you know the Answers?



How many kinds of cheese are there?
Counting the cheeses of all countries, there are between eight and nine hundred varieties.

Is cheese digestible?
It certainly is. That's why so many doctors recommend Cream Cheese for babies.

Is there a wide variety available in America?
Yes—a choice of the finest cheeses in the world is waiting for you at your grocer's.

What is the best thing about cheese?
Its goodness, of course. That's what makes it the king of foods. And any dietician will tell you that it's also a rich source of protein and fat as well as vitamins and minerals.

What are the most popular cheeses in this country?
American, Brick, Domestic Swiss, Limburger, Pimento, and Cream Cheese.

Is cheese a good "buy"?
Yes—pound for pound it is among the cheapest protein foods that can be bought. And there's practically no waste.

Why are newspapers, magazines, and people everywhere talking about cheese this week?

Because this is National Cheese Week. A week to renew or increase your acquaintance with the world's favorite food, and to stimulate the business of the dairy farmers in sympathy with Government plans. Make it a point to buy an extra pound of cheese this week. You'll enjoy it—and you'll be helping the dairy farmers and contributing to better business all along the line.

• • •

Borden offers the following fine American-made cheeses—at their best—in special packages that do away with rind and waste, and keep the cheese fresh.:

BORDEN'S AMERICAN • PIMENTO • CHATEAU • CREAM CHEESE • BRICK
LIEDERKRANZ • MILITARY BRAND CAMEMBERT AND BRIE.

GEORGE 10 TO 9 CHOICE OVER SAVOLDI TONIGHT

BOSTON, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1934

BOSTON AMERICAN SPORTS
NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST EVENING

Sports Parade

Savoldi to Exhibit His Refined Tortures On Ed Don George

Agony Artists In Title Opera At Garden Tonight

By AUSTEN LAKE

We are hearing that Joe Savoldi, who is matched with Ed Don George at the Boston Garden tonight for a cash prize and certain titles, is a gentleman-wrestler whose estate is in the upper set of apemen, although his record of family rows and divorces scores with the lower level of the trade. I think this estimate is based on the fact that Savoldi was by way of studying at Notre Dame a few years back, though I have never observed that a near-degree, or even a sheepskin, entitles a man to class prerogatives and I hold that, though a man's predatory instincts may be polished by a college education they are basically the same spiritual quarts.

In any case a man, even one who wears a bit of alphabet after his name, like A. B., M. A. or M. D., sacrifices the privileges of class when he joins the wrestling circuses and hires his body at a price to perform mayhem on his fellows. So Savoldi, who has a ready smile and might have been an ornament to some profession, has entered a sort of social twilight, wherein he is legitimate game for editorial snowballing or hooting from the rabble who pays his freight.

A GORILLA WITH A SHEEPSKIN

That, at least, was the attitude of Harry Cornsweet, the old Brown University Iron Man and summa cum laude scholar, who last year burned his wrestling trunks and cork slippers and said, with a quiver of scorn in his voice, "I am returning to life, after a sojourn below moral sea levels," though he did not phrase it quite that way. "I'm getting out of this lousy racket," were his exact words. Yet, after going home to Cleveland to rewin his soul, I hear that Harry sold himself into some local promoter's bondage and went back to sinking his head in the flabby, moist middles of Bulgarians, Asiatics and college men.

Savoldi Adds New Lustre to Mat Science

But this is getting me nowhere. What I mean to say is that Savoldi, originally an incubator baby who could be cradelled on the palm of a hand, who lived in rural Italy till the age of 12, and who became an All-America ball-bearing fullback for Notre Dame, has contributed something new and noble to the science of wrestling. He has invented a kick in the stomach, which is guaranteed to nauseate the receiver and maybe tear his internal plumbing loose. This is entirely original and a more mischievous device than the head-butt, or flying tackle, created by Gus Sonnenberg, who is wrestling a minor part on tonight's opera. Because, in the so-called drop kick hold, the user takes no risk of making a wild pitch and sailing on through the ropes in a swan dive to land on the sharp edges of ringside chairs or go skull-crusing over the concrete floor.

All you do is to take careful aim between your opponent's ears, jerk your body off the floor and plunge your feet into your rival's abdomen up to the top of your socks. If applied properly it will produce a musical, liquid gurgle like stomping in leaky galoshes or dropping a hot pie, and will bring a lovely glaze over your opponent's eyeballs or maybe burst them in their sockets like ripe grapes. The less enlightened states do not permit Savoldi to use the drop kick, which they foolishly say is no wrestling hold and merely a piece of barroom barbarity. But Boston, which is laughingly called the Athens of America, and sometimes the Hub of the Universe, will let you slay a man, provided there are plush ropes around him or ice underneath and a couple of saw-dust effigies for referees.

* * *

Michigan Will Keep Its Championship

Well, this adds to the stark, living drama of sport-reporting and enables us to weave it into a breathing, human document so that we will sit on our hams under the ring aprons and tell you how this or that tallowy giant has scaled the ramparts of glory by winding somebody's legs in a corkscrew curl or by putting a permanent wave in his spine. But, of course, not all is torture that makes agonized faces, and most of it is as good-natured as a night among the gnomes, because you would not expect a lot of bosom classmates who often share each other's box lunches on barnstorming trips to do more bodily harm than their contract calls for, and, sometimes when a wrestler bleeds, I have suspected that he has merely pulled a zipper on an old incision or released a concealed blood capsule.

So many confusing things happen. As once when Dick, or maybe it was Jack, Jones of Texas bounced the base of his head with what we like to call a dull, sickening thud, on the canvas at Mechanics Hall during a match with Dick Shikat, the German. We newsmen shuddered gently, shut our portables, took sweet, cooling drafts from our hip flasks and went downstairs to watch his writhings. They were convincing writhings, in which he flexed his steaming muscles in a series of tremors and quakes. He lay in a dingy cellar room, dank with a fetid smell of old body odors, and there were flecks of foam on his lips. So we were not surprised when a ring surgeon ordered him to the Peter Bent Brigham for observation. Only, that same evening when I called on Dick Shikat with some forgotten mission I was mortified to find Jones, blooming with health, breaking bread in the latter's hotel quarters And he wrestled a very hearty match the next night in Holyoke.

At prices scaling from 55 cents to $2.20, you will get your money's worth of suffering tonight even though some of the boys may be damaged only 50 cents worth at one time. But there is always the chance that you will hit the jackpot and see Savoldi kick the Chestnut stuffing out of Ed Don George. The governor of Michigan, Mr. Bill Comstock, has made it plain that he does not care who shreds who, because Savoldi is a native of Three Oaks and George a graduate from Ann Arbor. Me and the governor.

Ed Don George, wrestling champion of the world, all ready and waiting for "Jumping Joe" Savoldi of Notre Dame. Savoldi and George wrangle in the Garden tonight for the cauliflowerdom crown and there's likely to be more damage done than in those hockey matches there, if that's possible. The Boston Evening American Christmas Basket Fund will benefit from the carnival. (Boston American staff photo.)

Challenger Sure Kick Will Win in Garden Bout

By JACK CONWAY

"Jumping" Joe Savoldi will make a mighty effort to rile to the world's heavyweight wrestling championship and a Notre Dame drop kick when he clashes with Ed Don George in a finish bout, best two falls out of three at the Boston Garden tonight, as a Christmas Fund show of the Boston Evening American.

Savoldi is the most sensational wrestler to step into the ring during the past two years. His most important triumph was a victory over Jim Londos "Jumping" Joe used a body hold rather than his famous kick, to pin Londos This surprise attack crashed through the famous Londos defense

'We'll Have Real Club,' Says Mickey Cochrane

Detroit, Dec. 15 (INS)—Detroit today had its first look at Mickey Cochrane as manager of the Detroit Tigers, and the former Philadelphia star catcher who came here in one of the most sensational shakeups in major league history, expressed himself as pleased with the result of two days of management of a big league ball club.

Besieged by newspapermen and photographers in his hotel last night, Cochrane was soon made to feel at home. He donned a Tiger uniform to please photographers and spoke freely of his team's chances in the 1934 race.

"I don't want to make any wild claims," Cochrane said, "but I am satisfied we will have a ball club here in Detroit that will please the public and myself. I have looked our players over carefully and I am sure we have the makings of a fine team. I am planning on a ball club here my first year. We want a good team at once. This idea of building for the future is not so hot. The future never comes for so many no-called 'comers.'

"A pennant won this year is better than one that may be won a few years ahead," Mickey continued. "I play for the game we are engaged in and don't want to put off a winning streak until tomorrow, next week, or next year."

Cochrane will leave for his home in the East this afternoon to spend the holidays. Immediately after the first of the year he will return to Detroit to find a home and will move here permanently in February.

NELSON QUITS HARVARD POST

Selection of a new backfield coach to replace Nils "Swede" Nelson, today confronted Harvard's head football coach, Eddie Casey, and Bill Bingham, director of athletics. Nelson resigned the job he held under Casey for three years to devote all his time to a cotton concern

Charles Bradford, who with his twin brother, Eddie, coached the Crimson ends, also was resigning.

However, Wesley Fesler, former Ohio star, will be back next fall as will Johnny Donovan. Fesler probably will concentrate all his efforts on the ends next fall.

If Savoldi wins from George, he will only have to eliminate Jim Browning to have a clear claim to the world's heavyweight champion- [illegible] to meet Londos. [illegible]

GEORGE 10-9 CHOICE

George rules a 10 to 9 favorite in the betting. The speculative element has gone from the edge that was [illegible] to the champs.

George and Savoldi are supported by [illegible] mat card [illegible] a wrestling show in the [illegible] of the city.

Cowboy Sparks of Oklahoma and Farmer Joe Malcewicz of Utica, N. Y. will clash in the semifinal, which will go to a finish with one fall deciding the winner.

Gus Sonnenberg, former world's champion, will battle Lynn Holzworth of Syracuse, N. Y.

Leo Numa, who gave George three terrific battles, will appear against Hal Hamberg of San Francisco.

Casey Kazanjian of Stanford will oppose Hank Oswald of Oregon. The colorful Ernie Dusek, who

Continued on Page 23, Column 6

Garden Program

MAIN BOUT

(Best Two Falls in Three—For the World's Championship)

Ed Don George, Java, N. Y. (champion), vs. Joe Savoldi, Notre Dame (challenger).

SEMIFINAL

Joe Malcewicz, Utica, N. Y., vs. Charley Strack, Oklahoma.

PRELIMINARIES

Gus Sonnenberg, Dartmouth, vs. Elmer Holzworth, Syracuse, N.Y.

Earl McCready, Oklahoma, vs. Dick Raines, N. Y. A. C.

Leo Numa, Univ. of Washington, vs. Hal Rumberg, San Francisco.

Vic Christie, Los Angeles, vs. Jack Wagner, Providence.

Ernie Dusek, New York, vs. Buck Weaver, Chicago

Casey Kazanjian, Stanford, vs. Hank Oswald, Oregon.

(First bout at 8:15—Main bout as near 10 p. m. as possible.)

Smythe Devotes All to Aid 'Ace' in Struggle

By WALTER KILEY

Sympathy and understanding, rarely displayed openly by the medical and sports profession, play a big part in molding together the thin strand of life on which hangs suspended the fate of Irvin "Ace" Bailey, Toronto Maple Leaf hockey star.

Today the "Ace" lies in critical condition in a City Hospital bed A serious skull operation gave him his only chance for recovery and the next 36 hours will tell the story

Provided he lives, Bailey will owe a debt of gratitude to Dr Martin Crotty, Bruins' team physician and his own Maple Leafs' manager, Connie Smythe.

For the pair, hardened veterans in the game of give and take, have battled side by side through endless hours denying themselves sleep and partaking of only snatches of food

We have come to look on the man of medicine as beyond the [illegible] person inured to the sorrows caused by sickness and pain and death

But if it were his only son, Dr Crotty could have done no more than he has for the injured Toronto player, exerting his utmost powers to keep alive the tiny spark of life and fanning it to flame with every art known to the medical science.

NOW NEAR COLLAPSE

Today Dr. Crotty is himself on the verge of collapse. He has spent his entire energy on the 'Ace,' trying to win back a life that at several moments looked to be departed.

Smythe has been best known for his managerial shuffly. He has often rated the limelight for his heated exchanges and animosities with Art Ross, Bruins' manager. Thus he has come to be recognized as hard, with a heart of steel.

But Mr. Smythe of today is a far different man than from Manager Smythe of a day or two ago. He has suffered through every moment since his "Ace" was injured. He abandoned his Toronto players, allowing them to shift for themselves, has forgotten about hockey and has devoted himself to the care of Bailey and his star's travel worn and heart-sick wife, Mrs. Gladys Bailey.

No expense or effort has been too great for him to bear. He stood by and intends to remain at the bedside of his teammate just as long as the slightest danger exists

ALWAYS AT SIDE

With an old gray cap pulled down over his eyes this pair was lost in the shuffle at the Garden ringside on Tuesday night and he hasn't had a moment to buy a new one—he has been a constant attendant at the player's bedside the faithful consoler of Mrs. Bailey and her bulwark against the well-wishing friends and admirers.

Down into the dark caverns of the City Hospital X-ray room up in the elevator with partly consumed cigar, speaking words of cheer and hope, bringing a wan, but gallant smile to the pain wrecked face, into the privat ward and then back again to the operating room an hour or more later Smythe was a father, a nurse, a counsellor and a manager all in one.

FORGETS OWN TROUBLES

He was completely forgetful of his own immediate troubles his arrest caused by an alleged punch, as he attempted to clear his way through a dense crowd which beset him as he made his way to Bailey's dressing room after the Garden accident

He met Mrs Bailey as she arrived by train brought her to her husband's sickroom to care of little Joan, three-year-old daughter, accompanied the wife to City Hospital and never once left her side for the three gruelling hours in which Bailey's life hung in the balance of Dr. Munroe's keen surgical instruments

All those long moments, he tended her comforted her, talked with reporters assigned to the story gave out official releases, opened and answered countless telegrams from all over United States and Canada pounded Mrs Bailey with a light afternoon repast of toast and milk and then when the operation was completed and the news of a successful operation told, escorted her to the home of a friend where she could spend the night in peaceful security.

COIN CHOKES UP

Jack Conway flipped his famous Magic Coin high in the air. The Coin struck the floor, hopped around a bit, then rolled into a crack in the floor.

It wasn't either heads or tails.

Which caused Jack to decide that it is impossible to pick a winner of the world's heavyweight mat bout between Ed Don George and "Jumping" Joe Savoldi at the Garden tonight.

The affair is a toss-up

So write your own ticket, and prove what a great picker you are.

Mat Results

At Toronto—Jim Browning, 230, Tacoma, Wn., defeated Rudy Dusek, 214, Omaha, two out of three falls.

At Camden, N. J.—Joe Savoldi, Three Oaks, Mich., defeated the Masked Marvel, two straight falls.

At Detroit—George Zaharias, 217, Colorado, threw Pat O'Shocker, 205, Salt Lake City, 43:00.

At New York—Emil Dusek, Omaha, and Bert Rubi, Hungary, drew. Vic Christie, Cal., and Ben Lindberg, Chicago, drew. Al Giesler, Hartford, Conn., threw Andy Brown, N. Y., in 19:32. Joe Bonomo, Chicago, gained Al Kelley, Boston, in 14:12. Bruno Gerrasini, Italy, tossed Will Rossa, Minn., in 8:46.

HOLIDAY WRAPPED
BOX OF 25
TOTEM CIGARS
GENEROUS PROPORTION OF FINE HAVANA
FULL PERFECTO SIZE
TOTEM
ALL LONG LEAF TOBACCO
SPECIAL CHRISTMAS VALUE

SWEEPING BRAVES TRADES HELD UP IN FOUR-WAY BARGAIN

CUBS, PIRATES CARDS CHECK INFIELD BUY

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 15—The standing record for baseball conferences in these or any previous sessions of the major leagues was completely shattered here this afternoon by the gathering in Judge Emil Fuchs, owner of the Boston Braves and Manager Bill McKechnie of the Tribesmen.

At the time the record for outside conferences was smashed, no less than a dozen representatives of four National League clubs were packed into a miniature room adjoining the suite of the Cub headquarters in the Palmer House Hotel.

Throughout the progression of this conference, which started at 11 this morning, the baseball powers representing Chicago, St. Louis, Pittsburgh and Cincinnati failed to budge an inch in their stand of support.

And that was the reason that a whole carload of interested baseball players would have resulted that would have existed in proportions to the sensational disposal by Connie Mack of five of his most noted players, Grove, Walberg, Rhyne, Cochrane and Earnshaw.

RADICAL DEALS PLANNED

Judge Fuchs and McKechnie, who had previously held separate conferences with the Cubs as well as with Pittsburgh and St. Louis had let it be known early in the big leagues sessions here at the Palmer House that they were ready to engage in a series of radical deals in case they could be convinced that such maneuvers would benefit the Tribesmen.

Hence it was with an air of expectancy that when the Braves cornered Mickey Cochrane and his boss, Judge Ruppert, tired and somewhat dispirited both were married questions, answering with a note of hopelessness in their voice of a definite no to the bid bonanza unplished.

At one stage of the day's idle in the confined quarters of the Cub suite it was reported that a deal was in the air wherein the Cubs would give up Lon Warneke and Pitcher Pat Malone and Ken Oberfeld to Boston would dispose of Dave Whitehead and Pitcher Ed Brandt. St Louis would produce Catchers Gordon Hinkle or Ruddy Lewis along with the sturdy left hander, Bill Hallahan, while the Pittsburgh contribution to the general jackpot would be Catcher Tom Padden and First Baseman Gus Suhr.

With all this baseball talent put up for trading it appears there would have been a complicated shifting of talent in a four-way deal. The Braves would have ended up with Pitcher Pat Malone and Outfielder Cuyler.

As for the Cubs, their crying need is for a catcher and a first baseman. Indications are that they might get Padden and First Baseman Suhr from Pittsburgh. The other two clubs in the deal and the Cards would then shuffle around such talented help as Ed Brandt, Lefty Hallahan and Pinkey Whitney, and the young catchers, Hinkle and Lewis.

SOX STILL BUYING

With the crack-up of the proposed conference, which threatened simultaneously with the first act of the winter meeting, the Boston Red Sox, busiest in the trading marts in this years gathering, again popped into the picture waiting that inevitable checkbook of Owner Tom Yawkey. Having corralled some of the best major league talent in deals with St. Louis, where they got Carl Reynolds, and with Philadelphia, where they acquired Grove, Walberg and Rhyne, the Red Sox today became known as bidders for the services of Catcher Gus Mancuso, property of the St. Louis Cardinals who played last year in the International League. The deal went into the discard during the conference in which the Cubs took part may eventually land Mancuso as the wing of the Red Sox Yawkey-Collins-Harris triumvirate. Manager Harris sees Hinkle as a promising new catcher who would be valuable as a relief man for Catcher Rick Ferrell.

Red Birds Purchase Johnny Hodapp

Columbus, O., Dec. 15 (AP)—Purchase of Johnny Hodapp, veteran baseball player, from the Cleveland International League team was announced today by Branch Rickey, president of the Columbus Red Birds.

Hodapp was released to Rochester several weeks ago by the Boston Red Sox. He was traded to the Sox last season by the Cleveland Indians.

Duke Dutkowski Bought by Hawks

Chicago, Dec. 15 (AP)—Louis (Duke) Dutkowski, veteran defenseman recently released by the New York Rangers, today was purchased by the Chicago Black Hawks of the National Hockey League from the Syracuse International League club.

Dutkowski played with the Hawks in 1930. He was brought back to help out during the absence of Art Coulter, who is on the injury list.

Awards for Brown Athletes

Providence, R. I., Dec. 15 (AP)—Seventy-two awards were granted to Brown athletes for work in four fall sports by the Brown Athletic Council tonight. The list includes 19 football letters, 12 soccer letters, 25 freshmen numerals in football, 18 freshmen numerals in soccer, and three letters to managers.

Waltz Me Around Again, Jimmy, Says Sister Grace

Miss Madden and her brother, Jimmy, are billed to give a pair skating exhibition as a feature of the Skaters' Frolic, ice fete tomorrow evening at the Boston Arena.

BILLIARD CHAMP BOWS TO PONZI

Chicago, Dec. 15 (AP)—Erich Tabercal, veteran Swedish New York cue wielder, was virtually eliminated from the world's 18.2 balk line billiard championship tournament here tonight when Andrew Ponzi, a dark horse from Greenfield of New York, defeated the champion Swede in Philadelphia Jack's home town in the fifth block of a match to 125 to 70 victory. The winning margin was Ponzi's third decision, bowing Tabercal, in the battle of Chicago, 125 to 31, in 27 innings.

George Kelly, Philadelphia, and Bennie Allen of Kansas City were scheduled to open the program today, with Greenleaf and James Caras of Wilmington, Del., the 1932 runner-up, meeting in the second match.

The standings:

Player	W.	L.	High Run	Gen. Av.	Inns.
Andrew Ponzi	3	0	51	.714	70
Erich Rudolph	4	1	50	.571	70
Lucien Caras	4	1	41	.571	70
George Kelly	4	2	38	.500	70
William Almond	3	2	38	.429	70
Frank Taberski	3	3	31	.333	101
Ralph Greenleaf	2	3	43	.286	98
Faustino Natalis	2	4	36	.250	124
Garnet Reinick	1	4	45	.200	124
Allen	1	4	35	.200	98

Marblehead Gets Miami Grid Bid

Marblehead high announced last night the signing of a two-year football contract to play Elliott Bash of Miami, Fla., on the home and home basis. Elliott Bash will visit Marblehead on Dec. 3 of next year. Marblehead returning the compliment in 1935.

The contract was made by Coach Charley McInness and approved by the school committee yesterday. At first there was some question about the financial end, but Thomas McNulty of Marblehead agreed to underwrite the deficit.

Ruth Throws Party for N. Y. Writers

New York, Dec. 15 (INS)—Babe Ruth, that home run party, is throwing a party for the sports writers Sunday night.

The Babe today informed the typewriter hitters that the "first ball would be thrown out at 7 p. m." But he didn't say whether it would be high or low.

Grace and Speed on Ice at Arena Carnival

By BILL CONNELL

New England's greatest ice carnival is slated for tomorrow evening when the annual Skaters' Frolic goes on at the Boston Arena.

Champions among the fancy skaters, skaters whose novelty work will thrill and amuse the crowd, speed skaters, girls striving for the Queen of the Frolic nomination, and general skating for fun attending are included on the excellent program.

There won't be a dull moment from start to finish. The card has been arranged so that every minute, from the beginning in costume, starting at 8 p. m. until midnight, the Frolic features continue from 8 to 10:30 p. m. From then until midnight the fans may enjoy the general skating session.

Solo skating exhibitions are listed for Roger Turner, U. S. men's single fancy skating champion; James L. Madden, Harvard senior, runnerup in the solo championship of the world; George E. B. Hill, who with Miss Maribel Vinson, won the pair skating title of the U. S.

FAIR SKATERS GALORE

Pair skaters include the teams of James L. Madden and his sister, Miss Grace E. Madden, and Miss Polly Blodgett, national novice champion; Miss Suzanne Davis, several times runnerup in the U. S. title meeting.

Crowning of the Queen of the Frolic is another highlight event. The Queen will be selected by a special board of judges, and will be presented with a fur jacquette, donated by Scott Furriers, 411 Washington st., Boston.

BEST COSTUME PRIZE

The best costumed man will be given a fine shoe-skate combination donated by the South End Hardware Co., 1095 Washington st., Boston. The best costumed girl will win a scarf, pair of silk stockings and pair of gloves donated by Emerson's, 35 Temple pl.

Altogether, one of the most brilliant ice carnivals ever presented in Boston. The Frolic itself is attractive, and so are the popular-priced tickets. Which are 40 cents each, 75 cents each, and $1.01 each for boxes.

Tickets may be purchased today at the Boston Arena, or at the Christmas Basket Fund headquarters, 294 Devonshire st., near Summer st.

TODAY'S RACE SCRATCHES

AT CHARLES TOWN

1—Royal Rose, Inflier, Say Nay, Sun Mate, Baby Chick.
2—Bonnabo, Bubbling Out, Birch Dixon, Airway.
3—Campconning, Golden Princess.
4—Taffy Jr., Calgary Bay.
5—Ella, Canteret, S. S. Curtman, Jodger.
7—Our Jewell.

AT EPSOM DOWNS

1—Eighty Twenty, Old Bill, Craigon, Bronx Park, Country Tom, Ocean Flight.
2—Dewsbury.
3—Regius, Portia, Dallas, Citrus.
4—Indian Lore, Finger Wave, Beech Tree.

AT JEFFERSON PARK

1—Portorest, Bad News, Memphina, Baledora, Margarita, Al Sayre.
2—Pass Inver, Laura Dugger, Black Hawk, Mary McCarthy, Frazer Dunwoody, Sonny Boy.
3—Rattler Lou, Mauette M., The Nile, Mandeville, Irineo, Gold Mint.
4—Fusion Pride, Lucky Luke, Gallar, Screamin' Pride, Moonspitter, Abel Lair.
5—Barney Section, Burnside, Starbrook.
6—First Regiment, Miss Adele, Aunt Ida Zed, Gen. Campbell, Big Stone, Dingy, Observation, Athena, Suffolk, Miss Graham.
7—Star Play, Hazele, Buzzy Boo, Sechs Ballet, River, My Betty.

McAdoo Five Plays Dillons Tonight

The McAdoo A. A. will meet the Dillon Athletic five at Odd Fellows Hall, No. Cambridge, this evening. The Dillon Club has in its lineup such stars as Sullivan, Knox, Stankunas, Plausky and Frisoli while the McAdoo five includes Conlon, Crowley, A. Pearson, Harrington and Murphy.

American Stars Planning Trip to Japan Next Fall

Tokio, Dec. 15 (INS)—Negotiations for a second invasion of Japan by an all-star team of American big leaguers baseball players were under way here today.

Frank "Lefty" O'Doul, New York Giants' star, was in Tokio conferring with interested parties concerning formation of professional teams, hitherto banned in Japan because of objections by college authorities.

The Tokio newspaper Yomiuri was said to be planned to sponsor the games in the fall of next year after the close of the regular American season.

O'Doul declared Connie Mack Jr., was negotiating with Jimmy Foxx, Chuck Klein, Carl Hubbell, Dizzy Dean and 15 other aces of the American game to induce them to make the far-Eastern trip next fall.

HITLER BUILDS HUGE STADIUM

Berlin, Dec. 15 (INS)—Adolf Hitler has taken personal charge of the Olympic games to be held in Germany in 1936.

On a pronouncement today the German Chancellor gives his consent to the building of the finest Olympic stadium in the world.

Hitler made no mention of race or creed and the Ministry of Propaganda advised it was without authority to say whether the pronouncement was issued in order to lift the athletic ban on German Jews, as demanded by the American Amateur Athletic Union.

New York, Dec. 15 (INS)—Avery Brundage, president of the A. A. U., today had taken under advisement a copy of a letter from Hans von Tschammer-Osten, Reich sports director, which denied any German ban on Jewish athletes. The letter said:

"Neither the Reich government nor I have as yet issued any statement regarding the barring of Jewish athletes from turn and sports organizations.

"Neither the Reich government nor I have prohibited the open participation of Jewish athletic organizations in athletic exercises.

"If I should be notified that individual athletic bodies have in any way issued proclamations in opposition to the statements issued above, I shall make it my business to follow up each individual case and see to it that such actions be retracted."

Tech Icemen in Tilt With Brown

The ambitious Technology hockey team which has shown considerable scrap under the Owen regime, journeys to Providence tonight to open the schedule of the Brown ice septet.

The Beavers are playing their fourth game within 10 days, but are the favorites to down the Brown six on the form shown in the the Tech win over B. U. and the showings against Harvard and Princeton.

A freshman game, scheduled as a preliminary to the varsity engagement, has been postponed at the request of the Brown A. A.

Harvard, Beavers in Tank Meet

The Harvard freshman swimming team entertains the M. I. T. freshmen, as its opening opponent in the Harvard pool, tomorrow afternoon. The meet will be held at 3:30.

Coach Bob Muir has entered Fitz Haskett, G. A. Dodge, P. W. Sears and S. Hutchinson, in the 50-yard free style; J. Colony in the added sprinter in the 100. These five were also named as the Crimson relay team.

CANZONERI 2-1 FAVORITE

New York, Dec. 15 (AP)—Heavily favored in the betting, Tony Canzoneri hoped to ruin the American debut of Cleto Locatelli in Madison Square Garden tonight and win the right to meet Barney Ross, lightweight champion, for the third time.

The Italian holder of the European lightweight title comes here highly recommended, but Canzoneri rules a 2 to 1 favorite for their 10-round battle.

Locatelli has beaten Bep Van Klaveren, Jackie Kid Berg and Pete Nebo abroad, but his handlers seem to be asking a bit too much of him to make his first start in this country against a fighter of Canzoneri's ability.

The winner probably will be matched with Ross for the title late in the indoor season or outdoors in May. Ross won the crown by outpointing Canzoneri in a savage duel and retained it against Tony in another encounter.

New Boston Net League Formed

A special meeting of every public court tennis club in Greater Boston will be held at the home of Edward L. Weisberg, 234 Callandar st., Dorchester, Monday evening, at 8:00, for the purpose of organizing a Greater Boston Tennis League.

The following clubs have been invited to attend: Franklin Field Tennis Club, Ashmont Tennis Club, City Point Tennis Club, Churchill Tennis Club and Savin Hill Tennis Club, all of Dorchester; Boston Tennis Club of Cambridge, Ferry-way Tennis Club and Onteora Tennis Club of Malden, Thompson Club and Lynn Junior Council Club of Lynn, Cabot Tennis Club of Newton, Faxon Girls' Tennis Club of Quincy, Bal-Roc Tennis Club of Boston, Paul Revere Tennis Club of Revere, Fallon Field Tennis Club of Roslindale and the Newton Boat Club of Newton.

8 Grid Games on Purple '34 Slate

Worcester, Dec. 15 (INS)—Eight games, possibly nine today were scheduled for the 1934 football team at Holy Cross, with Colgate and Temple, newcomers to the list replacing Detroit and Springfield, played this year.

Unlike other years, the Purple will face its ancient rival, Boston College, without a "breather." The game is slated for November 24, the same week that Harvard plays Yale at New Haven.

September 29 is open. The schedule lists game with Providence College, Catholic University, Harvard at Cambridge, Colgate, Temple at Philadelphia, Manhattan at New York, Brown at Providence, and Boston College at Newton.

Morrison Faces Fast Field in Court Tilt

Long Beach, Cal., Dec. 15 (AP)—Fred Morrison, Pasadena, Cal., professional, faced the most impressive field of opponents in the history of the California open golf championship today as he set out to defend his title over the Lakewood Country Club course.

An indication of what Morrison was up against was given yesterday when Ben Coltrin, San Francisco pro, shot a sparkling 68 in under par, to win with Cliff Baker, Portland, Ore., the amateur-pro preliminary.

28 Varsity Letters Awarded at Yale

New Haven, Ct., Dec. 15 (INS)—Varsity "Y's" were awarded 28 members of the Yale football squad by the board of control of the Athletic Association last night.

Although he was unable to play in either the Harvard or Princeton games, Lonny Goodyear of Buffalo, N. Y., substitute center who received a broken arm in practice for the Harvard game, was among those to receive the major award.

Arlington Boy Wins Lafayette 'L'

Easton, Pa., Dec. 15—Harry E. A. Wright, Arlington, Mass., will be among the lettermen of the Lafayette College varsity football team to attend the annual football dinner at the Pomfret Club here tonight played halfback and won his letter this year. He is a member of the senior class and the Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

Schaffner Named Mass. State Captain

Amherst, Mass., Dec. 15 (INS)—The 1934 football captain at Mass. State is Paul V. Schaffner of Dover, a guard. Lou Bush, this year's captain, and high scorer last year, has been presented with the Allan Leon Pond memorial medal for all-around excellence in athletics.

Columbia's 'Our Gang' Is No Stanford Comedy

By BILL CORUM

New York, Dec. 15.

Mayor John P. O'Brien,
City Hall,
New York City.

Dear Mayor O'Brien—As one 105th st. neighbor to another, I am taking the liberty of calling to your attention the fact that the Columbia University football team will leave New York city for the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Cal., from the Penn station at 3:40 p. m., next Tuesday. This is the first New York city team ever to be invited to the coast for this game, and I'm sure Columbia is, as a school, an institution of which you and every good New Yorker is proud.

Besides the campus is right up in our neighborhood on Broadway and we boys around the corner have got to stick together. So I thought you might want to pop over to the Penn station that afternoon to wave the boys good-bye. They are a fine set of lads, your honor, and it might interest you to know that they are not only the best team Columbia has produced in recent times but that they also have the highest scholastic standing of any team that ever wore the Blue and White.

FIORELLO THROUGH TACKLE

Everybody in this city knows how sincerely and conscientiously you have played the game in City Hall. But the time is at hand when you have got to drop that leather jerkin called the budget even though it breaks your heart. Let Fiorello pick it up and try to run with it. They called his signal, didn't they?

So mark the budget "red but not dicked by O'Brien" and put it in a pigeon-hole and come up to see the boys off Tuesday. This is a case of New York against the, from a football standpoint, cocky Far West, and we need your support. If the boys are in a blowing mood you might even want to bring the police department band along and wait the Lions wegward to the strains of "The Sidewalks of New York."

ON CIVIC PRIDE

It is bromide in other cities that New York city has no civic pride. A little civic pride won't hurt us, your honor, and as I have said this is a unique experience in the history of sports in our town. It may never happen again.

And when on New Year's Day, when there will be no afternoon papers, you tune in your radio and hear the announcer say:

"Montgomery just slipped around end for 8 yards to Stanford's one-foot line," you can rub your hands and say: "Ah, my boys are going pretty good out there today, I tell you."

Make it if you can, your honor, and let me know in advance whether you'll be able to, won't you? I want to see that the boys get a little pre-train practice in that "Rah, Rah, Rah, O'Brien" business. It'll do your heart good and make you feel 10 years young, and those years count on the down side of the field. Yours sincerely —Bill Corum.

And now because he seems to want to, I'll let Pat Sheridan ask me a couple of questions

Q—Do you rate Columbia over Fordham and why?

A—Columbia and Fordham would have made an interesting football game. But Fordham lost its chance for Rose Bowl consideration by losing to two Pacific Coast teams.

Q—Do you honestly believe Columbia has any chance of taking Stanford?

A—I have not seen Stanford, but I believe Columbia would have given any team I saw this year a hard fight. Army, Harvard, St. Marys, Oregon State, Notre Dame, and so on. On the worst day it had all year and practically spotting it to a touchdown on the kick-off, Columbia was defeated by the only unbeaten, untied team of consequence in the country, 20 to 0.

ANK NAVY

Later that team Princeton and Columbia played Navy a week apart. Columbia had by far the easier time winning and it was also a defeat by the only unbeaten, untied team of consequence in the country, 20 to 0.

ANK NAVY

Later that team Princeton and Columbia played Navy a week apart. Columbia had by far the easier time winning and it was also the opensus of the Navy. I'm told afterward that it was the better football team on those two days and dates. Coach Rip Miller, of Navy, also called it a better team than Pittsburgh, having played both.

Columbia has lost three games in three years. Once in four years against the likes of Princeton, Dartmouth, Brown, Syracuse, Cornell, it has been beaten by a top-heavy score. The figures and smart coaches and officials, who have been really watching 'em play and not guessing, call the Lions a good football team, sir. Okay, Pat?

NORTHCOTT IS FINED $25

Montreal, Dec. 15 (INS)—Larry Northcott, left wing of the Montreal Maroons, will have to pay a $25 fine for attempting to attack a goal umpire in a fracas between the Maroons and the Red Wings in Detroit Sunday night.

Frank Patrick, director of the National Hockey League, meted out the fine last night.

McCarron Dorchester Ace

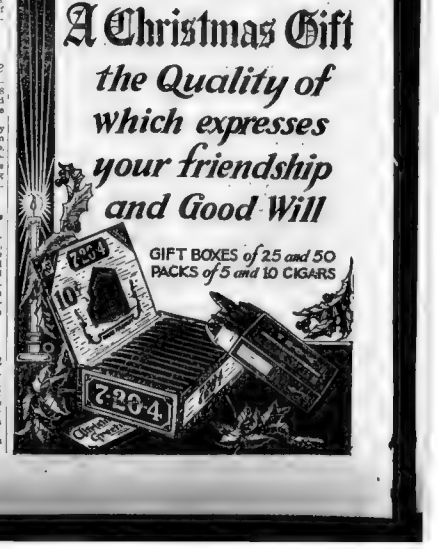
The leading performer in the field events at Dorchester is Capt. George McCarron, member of the Regimental high jump last winter. Other promising men are Jim Larkin, Tarlousky, Kubilicki and Liederman.

SARNOFF Gift Suggestions

SARNOFF HATS... $2.85
HOLBROOK HATS.. 3.45
NECKWEAR ..... .55
Tailored SHIRTS.... 1.29
Smart MUFFLERS ... 1.00
HOSIERY 3 pair for.. 1.00

SHOES ON SALE
$2.69 and $3.29

SARNOFF-IRVING
353 Washington St. 608 Washington St.
2331 Washington St. 102 Hanover St.



SHORE FATE UP AS N. H. L. INVESTIGATION STARTS HERE TODAY

SMYTHE, BRUIN CONFER WITH PRES. CALDER

By BILL GRIMES

President Frank Calder and Managing Director Frank Patrick arrived here this morning from Montreal to investigate the recent Bruin-Maple game.

Eddie Shore will doubtless be interviewed by Calder and Patrick, as Con Smythe will welcome an opportunity to tell his story to the league officials.

"Ace" Bailey is resting as comfortably as could be expected at the Neuro surgical department of the City Hospital. After a consultation with Mrs. Bailey, Drs. Donald Munroe and Martin F. Crotty took numerous X-ray pictures and "Ace" was then taken to the operating room. The operation lasted two and one-half hours.

Dr. Munroe operated. He removed the blood clot from under the skull, relieving the pressure. The next 36 hours will tell the story and, according to Dr. Munroe's statement, "it is not too unusual a case."

MRS. BAILEY BRAVE

In company with Manager Conn Smythe, Mrs. Bailey remained in the hospital during the operation, but her three-year-old daughter, Joan, stayed with friends in the Back Bay. Mrs. Bailey has held up bravely under the ordeal, but Smythe is in a highly nervous condition, although he is trying to put on a brave front.

Conn Smythe is human. He has been through some serious experiences since he took over the old St. Pat's club, which he changed to the Maple Leafs. Charlie Concher received a punctured kidney late in his first season in professional hockey, necessitating a serious and delicate operation. Then, Capt. "Happy" Day was laid low and had to undergo an operation. Now it is "Ace" Bailey.

"ACE" ORIGINAL LEAF

Bailey and Day were members of the original St. Mary's Leafs. They both played amateur hockey for Conn Smythe and Frank Selke Four years ago, "Happy" Day was "Ace" Bailey's best man and last spring Conn Smythe enacted the same role at Day's wedding.

"Ace" Bailey went to Toronto, from his home in Bracebridge, Ont., which is about 180 miles north, in the spring of 1922 as a lacrosse player.

According to Frank Selke, "Ace" was just a country boy, with bulldog toed shoes, a brown vest and a straw suitcase. At the close of the lacrosse season, "Ace" expressed a desire to play hockey with the St. Mary's club, which was under Selke's management. He stated that he was a defense man and as St. Mary's was looking for a player to team up with Hal Frost, the former Boston Tiger left winger, Coach Selke agreed to give him a tryout.

"Ace" was not so hot on the defense but he was a fast skater and packed a wicked shot, and Burke, who was regular right wing, was so impressed with Bailey's ability to carry the puck and shot, that he asked Selke to shift him back to the defense and move "Ace" up on the right wing. At that time, Eddie Burke was subbing for his brother Frank but the change proposed by Frank kept the former Cub on the second line.

CAME ALONG FAST

Frank Burke's offer to relinquish his regular berth for a defensive position was the making of "Ace" Bailey, who within a year was the rating right winger in the amateur ranks of Ontario. He was taken up to St. Pat's by Charlie Querrie and from the start he was a standout among the professionals and some years ago he led the N. H. L. in scoring.

During the off season, Bailey is a salesman for the City Council and last summer, while "Happy" Day was honeymooning in Europe, "Ace" managed the Maple Leaf Soft Ball team in their benefit games.

Chamberlain famous for fine Hats now sponsors equally famous
NECKWEAR
for a Men's Gift . . .
65c and up
in all those new fabrics and patterns he proudly chooses for himself. In attractive gift boxes.
Men's Gloves $2.25-$3.25
Mufflers.....from $1.95
GIFT CERTIFICATES
197 Tremont St., Little Bldg.
311 Washington St., at Milk

Tad's Favorite Indoor Sports

OH, MOTHER, LOOK - MRS. DUNKS HAS DIFFERENT NAMES ON ALL HER FORKS AN SPOONS AN' THINGS - HOTEL ASTOR, MONQUINS, TAIT'S - BLACKSTONE, JACKS, CAVANAUGHS, WINTERS OH, ISN'T THAT A LOVELY IDEA
OH, I MEANT TO ASK YOU - HAVE YOU SEEN THAT NEW SHOW THE CAMELS THIRST? OH, DEAR - DEAR - DONT MISS IT
NO - I HAVENT - LESTER AND I HAVE BEEN OUT SO MUCH LATELY PLAYING THAT CHINESE PINOCHLE WE HAVENT HAD TIME - REALLY..
MOTHER TRYING TO COVER UP
INDOOR SPORTS
TRYING TO COVER UP YOUR KIDS CHATTER AS YOU ARE ABOUT TO PACK IN AT A NEIGHBOR'S HOUSE

© King Features Syndicate, Inc., Great Britain rights reserved.

'H' HOOP FIVE FACES GREEN

Encouraged by the showing of his charges in their opening game of the season against Boston University, Coach Wes Fesler will take a dozen Harvard basketball players to Hanover tomorrow morning. There they will face Dartmouth in Harvard's introductory game to the Eastern Intercollegiate League.

The men selected to make the trip to Hanover are John Adzigian, D. B. Bates, Richard Boys, George Comfort, Richard C. Ernst, Capt. Joseph Ferrier, R. G. Fletcher, J. C. Grady, Sam Greeley, Will Henderson, F. W. Jones, E. W. Merry, Manager A. T. Collier will be in charge of the trip.

Fesler will undoubtedly depend upon the same lineup of Grady and Merry, forwards; Boys, center; Comfort and Capt. Ferrier, guards, which defeated B. U. Dartmouth, a year ago one of the strongest teams in the loop, has already this season defeated the Crimson. Independents, a group of Harvard grads who had taken the measure of the varsity in an exhibition prior to the opening of the season.

Harvard Mat Team Picked for Tech

Following final eliminations, Coach Gallagher selected his Harvard wrestling varsity which will oppose the Tech Engineers in the opening meet of the season at the Harvard Indoor Athletic Building tomorrow afternoon.

The selections placed Keeler in the 118-pound class; Frankel in the 126-pound class; McGranahan, 135; Farley, 145; Kimball, 155; Emory, 165; Ames, 175, and Barrows, heavyweight. Frankel Emory Ames and Barrows are veterans. McGranahan is a former freshman captain and champion.

Tech Five Wins

Technology's hoop team, showing surprising strength, defeated a strong alumni team, 40 to 35, last night at the Hangar gym in the opening game of the season for the Cardinal and Gray.

Hockey Standings

NATIONAL LEAGUE
LAST NIGHT'S RESULTS
Boston 5, Americans 4
Canadiens 2, Toronto 0.
Rangers 4, Ottawa 3.
Chicago 6, Detroit 0

AMERICAN DIVISION

	W	L	T	Pts.	Goals For	Goals Ag'st
Detroit	8	5	1	17	33	30
Chicago	7	6	1	15	30	19
BOSTON	7	7	0	14	38	33
Rangers	5	5	1	11	19	26

CANADIAN DIVISION

	W	L	T	Pts	Goals For	Goals Ag'st
Toronto	10	2	1	21	50	32
Canadiens	7	6	1	15	28	24
Ottawa	5	6	1	11	26	28
Montreal	5	6	1	11	27	36
Americans	3	8	1	7	27	46

Fight Results

At Muskegon, Mich.—Ruben Ednacot, 145, Muskegon, outpointed Rocky Shaw, 147, Chicago (10); Andy Esposito, 125, Chicago, outpointed Tony Gerna, 132, Waukegan, (10); Pete Petrosky, 132, Waukegan, outpointed Kid Thompson, Flint (8); Johnny Shepard, 132, Muskegon, outpointed Louis Halama, 132, Toledo (8); Eddie Gretzel, 178, Muskegon, knocked out Dave Bunyon, 190, Detroit (2).

At Rochester, Minn.—Ray Smaglick, 145, Winona, Minn., outpointed Walter Cobb, 142, San Francisco (8); Sid Ridley, 146, Charles City, Iowa, outpointed Young Ranchero, 148, Sioux City (8).

At Dallas—Willard Brown, 142, Dallas, outpointed Jimmie Reed, 145, Erie, Pa. (10); Baby Collins, 125, El Paso, Tex., outpointed Jimmie Lacaze, 131, New Orleans.

At Tacoma, Wash.—Filmer "Baby" Brown, 125, St. Paul, outpointed "Speedy" Espita, 128½, Los Angeles (8).

At Peru, Ind.—Ruey (Kid) Baker, 119, Indianapolis, and Sonsbery Magnoni, 120½, Cincinnati, drew (10); "Tiger Kid" Walker, 121, Thornwall, outpointed Gene Lewis, 142½, Kokomo (8).

At Reno, Nev.—Calif.—Henry Armstrong, 128, Los Angeles, stopped Gene Espinosa, 131, Philippines (7).

Passing the Puck

By BILL GRIMES

One of the most pleasing features of the Bruins' 5 to 4 overtime victory over the Americans last night in New York was that three of the Boston goals were made by Art Chapman and Lionel Hitchman, who had failed to score in any of the previous games. "Chappie" came through with two tallies the second of which brought the Rossmen through a winner.

The Bruins-Americans game was played under the newly proposed rules, which allows players to enter the attacking zones before the puck. The new code reduced the whistles and evidently opened up the game for a total of nine goals was scored.

And do not overlook the fact that Harry Oliver had a profitable night, picking up three assists, and that Capt. Marty Barry scored right in among the highest scorers with two goals.

Apparently Myles Lane, who was brought up from the Cubs for a try out, did not score, but he did draw two penalties, while filling in on the defense.

As was expected, the Maple Leafs were shut out by Lea Canadiens in Montreal, 2 to 0. The Leafs did not have their minds on their work, with "Ace" Bailey lingering between life and death. Just before the Leafs went to the Forum, Frank Selke received a telephone message from here which announced that "Ace" had come through the operation successfully but that it would be 48 hours before he was out of danger.

The Ottawa Senators lost their first game since they were defeated by the Bruins here two days before Thanksgiving. The Senators rallied in the last period but fell one goal shy of tieing the score.

Howie Morenz and Aurel Joliat did the scoring for Les Canadiens. Morenz got off to a slow start this season but he is now rounding into form and will be the same old effective and sensational Howie from now on.

One of the first telegrams received by "Ace" Bailey came from Frank Burke, Toronto, brother of the former Cub who is now playing with Americans. "Ace" and Frank played amateur hockey with the old St. Mary's Club of the Queen City under Frank Selke.

Neither Mike Rodden nor George Mallison called a penalty in the Maple Leaf-Canadiens game. Although the Leafs were beaten, they are still leading the Canadian Division by five points.

Conn Smythe would appreciate it if the Boston fans would make allowances for some of the statements he is alleged to have made since the Ace" Bailey-Eddie Shore incident. Smythe is unusually high strung. He pops off at the slightest provocation but it is all over in a second. Under the strain of the Bailey case, Conn has been at his wits end and at times did not know what he was saying. Understand, Conn Smythe is one hundred per cent and it is most regrettable that the Boston public does not know him as he really is, a great fellow and a real sportsman.

Mrs. "Ace" Bailey is a most courageous little woman Although the strain from the worry and long train ride was noticeable, Mrs. Bailey was calm and brave as she stepped off the train. "How is Ace," Conn?" "Not so good," replied the Maple Leaf manager. "But your presence will brace him." That was all and off they went to the hospital.

During her stay here, Mrs. Bailey will live with a friend but will spend most of her days at the City Hospital with "Ace."

Decision on Salem Coast Trip Today

The final decision whether or not the Salem High School football team would leave tomorrow afternoon to engage the Urban High School at Los Angeles in a postseason game was to be made today at a special conference of the school committee, called by Mayor George C. Bates.

The conference resulted from a hitch in the original plans which called for the game at the Los Angeles Coliseum on December 23rd, but another game is scheduled for that date on that gridiron. There was a possibility that the committee would grant permission to the Salem team to play the following day, Sunday the 24th.

The Los Angeles team notified Salem of the change in plans and suggested the one-day postponement of the game. The team from the "Witch City" would include 17 players. Plans also were afoot to raise money through subscription with which to send an additional six substitutes.

Ithaca Leaves Monday

Ithaca N. Y., Dec. 15 (INS)—The Ithaca High School eleven will leave for Lakeland, Fla., Monday to play under floodlights Thursday evening, Dec. 21.

Lakeland is Florida champion. Ithaca will practice Tuesday on Catholic University campus, Washington, and at Lakeland Wednesday.

TAP'S TIPS

THEN THERE'S THE CHAP WHO HIRED AN ALL-AMERICA PLAYER TO DO HIS XMAS SHOPPING FOR HIM
AH! I SEE A BARGAIN
650
UNCOMMON GOLD'S THE EFFECT

Other Sport News on Page 24

MAT TITLE GO AT GARDEN

Continued from Page 21

wrestled a draw with Sonnenberg in Philadelphia the other night, to oppose "Buck" Weaver of Chicago while Vic Christie of Los Angeles will sweep into action against Jack Wagner of Providence.

It is the show of shows and is expected to attract a capacity crowd.

This amazing card is being offered at popular prices of 55 cents $1.10, $1.65 and $2.20.

The Christmas Basket Fund of the Boston Evening American will receive 12½ per cent of the receipts.

The possibility of Savoldi hitting Georges title is what has caused the show to attract so much attention. Don has classed with all comers since he was successful in regaining his championship by defeating Ernest DeGlane but he has not opposed a wrestler of Savoldi's standing.

Other than DeGlane, who George defeated in a return bout, most of his opponents have lacked experience. Numa is a splendid athlete and punishes his rivals with his famous toe hold from behind. Leo however, needs another year of wrestling against first class opposition before he will be ready for an opponent with as much class as George.

George has been underrated by the average fan. I believe there is always a tendency on the part of the public to fail to give proper credit to an unpopular little holder. For some unknown reason George has never caught the fancy of Hub Jaws Public. As a result most folks have underrated him. They fail to consider that Don has beaten Lewis, Sonnenberg, DeGlane and other great wrestlers.

I look for a furious match tonight. George will be fighting battling with his back against the well known wall, Savoldi striving to become a champion.

Savoldi will be able to open up and take chances. He will have everything to gain, and very little to lose tonight.

George, on the other hand, will enter the ring with the mental strain that always goes with defending a championship. He also knows the crowd will be rooting for his defeat, and if he permits this fact to get under his skin he will find himself in a great deal of trouble.

A Savoldi victory might even cause Notre Dame students and graduates to forget about the collapse of their football team prior to its startling come back against the Army.

Pro Grid Magnates Meet in Chicago

Chicago, Dec. 15 (INS)—Club owners of the National Professional Football League met today to discuss proposed rule changes designed to make the game more spectacular. An earlier closing date for 1934 also will be debated.

A Welcome Gift
OVERLAND
CIGARS
Perfectos and Londres
Boxes of 10, 25 and 50
Christmas Wrapped
S. S. PIERCE CO.
Copley Square—Coolidge Corner
125 Brookline Avenue

Sport Results
COLLEGE BASKETBALL
Mass. Institute of Technology 33, Northeastern 19.
Dartmouth 36, Yale 27.
HOCKEY
Princeton 3, Nichols 1.
SCHOOL HOCKEY
Lexington 6, Marlboro 1.
New Hampton 8, Concord J. H. C. 0.

Houston Mutuels
For Thursday, Dec. 14
Three Fairs . . . $7.00
Five Fairs . . . 11.50
Seven Fairs . . . 17.50
Barbara Hooper gives her patrons extra information from her private telegraph agency or person attending the races.

175 on Dorchester Track
Coach Phil Pendergast of Dorchester High has a squad of 175 candidates at [illegible] on the passing mast. [illegible] every afternoon.

Western Auto Stores
MILLION DOLLAR SALE
ALL STORES OPEN 8 A. M. TO 9 P. M.
Mail Orders Add 10 c for Handling, Etc.
More Than 3000 Items at Unusually Low Prices
Large, complete stocks. Brand new and backed by our 24 years established guarantee of . . . .
"Satisfaction or Money Back"
Christmas Gifts
Unusually Low Prices
A small deposit now will hold any article until Christmas
Quality Guaranteed "Satisfaction or Money Back"
Electric Lighter 59c
Hinge Mirror 64c
Chrome Finish Micro Horn 72c
Mirror Clock $1.20
Trumpet Horns PAIR $3.75
Autos $5.85 and $8.95
Wagons 95c
Velocipedes $1.98 to $8.95
"The Tiny" Model $7.35
De Luxe Scooter $2.10
"Tot-B-Ke" $1.89
Roller Skates 99c to $1.48
Western Flyer Bicycles
EXTRAORDINARY VALUES $21.95 to $29.95
EASY PAYMENTS
AIR CUSHION BALLOON TIRES
'Western Flyer' DeLuxe $33.75
Auto Clock $2.75
Wind Wings $1.98
Auto Radio $31.95 Cash
Mantel Radio $11.95
Generators
Wizard Batteries & Wearwell Tires
NOW AS LOW AS $2.89 and old Battery
13-PLATE SIZES $2.89 TO $7.35
15-PLATE SIZES $5.55 TO $8.25
Definite Service Guarantee
Mounted Free
Unusual Values
With Wearwell Cord and Balloon Tires
$3.60 SIZE 29x4.40-21
MOUNTED FREE
Door and Window Weatherstrip 24c
Ignition Coils $1.12 $1.98
Emergency Tire Chains As low as 15c
Hot Water Heaters
With Hi-Speed Electric Motor $4.29
Thermostat (if needed) extra, as low as 95c
Hot Air Heaters for All Cars
FORD 98c TO $2.65
CHEV. $1.98 TO $2.38
OTHER CARS $2.68 & $3.19
Glycerine Anti-Freeze 89c
Alcohol 49c
Windshield Electric Defroster
FOUR SIZES 19c
Boston 130 Brookline Ave. (Drive In Service) 125 Federal St.
Cambridge 688 Mass. Ave. Central Sq.
Quincy 1536 Hancock St. (Ample Parking Space)
OUR PRICE POLICY
If You Can Buy It for Less Elsewhere—Return It Unused and We Will Refund Your Money or the Difference

MR. BOSTON

By JACK CONWAY

I HAVE BEEN [illegible] from an "inside source that Ernie Carnera and Max Baer are already matched for a 15-round heavyweight championship boxing bout at the Garden Bowl in Long Island, N. Y. The show will be staged next June.

Baer insisted upon the opportunity to battle Carnera, and Jack Dempsey would not stand in the way. The way things are now shaping up Dempsey will be one of Baer's managers when the latter's match with Carnera is agreed to.

Dempsey, my friend, is a keen judge of a man, particularly of the promotion possibilities of the contenders. Baer owns The New Yorker, and is confident of beating Carnera. Jack Dempsey is personally backing Baer, and has announced that if Carnera wins he will put up $50,000 to bet on Max.

Mr. Boston

Baer Is Confident

Baer is HONESTLY confident that he can defeat Carnera. [illegible] Max Schmeling [illegible] Max knows what he is talking about. Baer is confident that he can [illegible] the giant Italian. He is confident that he can [illegible] Carnera against the ropes, [illegible] knocked, [illegible] get around to [illegible].

Baer broke up the [illegible] powerful, [illegible] Max Schmeling [illegible] night [illegible] Max [illegible] time he worked [illegible] more [illegible] Baer [illegible] Max [illegible] Baer [illegible] to win the heavyweight championship.

If Baer does [illegible] he will be an even greater [illegible] the movies than he is [illegible].

Fuller Against Canzoneri

SAMMY FULLER, North End lightweight, [illegible] Canzoneri on January 17. Fuller defeated Ca[illegible] easy [illegible] at the Boston Garden when Tony held the lightweight championship. It was an even tougher match and as a result Fuller didn't get the title.

The winner of the Carnera-Baer [illegible] will [illegible] a bout with Barney Ross. The latter is [illegible] Billy Petrolle in New York on January 10 at a proposed [illegible] which is being staged for the [illegible] Garden. Ross is supposed [illegible] Petrolle, and [illegible] Baer [illegible] Carnera.

Atlantic City Bout

I know FOR the [illegible] Max Schmeling, Tommy Loughran is [illegible] Either Al Ettore or Phil [illegible] Atlantic City has the edge. The huge audience at Atlantic City [illegible] thousands of visitors [illegible] there are [illegible] Loughran is an Atlantic City [illegible] Ettore is a [illegible] Atlantic City [illegible] will [illegible] Max [illegible] Loughran [illegible] for the match. Max is [illegible] Atlantic City [illegible] trip from New York [illegible] and [illegible].

If [illegible] Max [illegible] Loughran [illegible] Max [illegible] the shoulder [illegible] Loughran [illegible].

* * *

WALTER McNEIL, German [illegible] who recently stopped Scott Pea[illegible] going to get a bout with Ray Impellitteri [illegible] York [illegible] Impellitteri [illegible] a good showing against Tommy Loughran and would have won if the referee had not [illegible] Loughran [illegible] around [illegible].

Baer broke up the [illegible] powerful, [illegible] Max Schmeling [illegible] night [illegible] Max [illegible] time he worked [illegible] more [illegible] Baer [illegible] Max [illegible] Baer [illegible] to win the heavyweight championship.

If Baer does [illegible] he will be an even greater [illegible] the movies than he is [illegible].

Other Sport News on Pages 21, 22, 23

Mary Pickford Found Love Long Before Time Set by Griffith

This is the fourth episode in the dramatic life story of Mary Pickford, whose divorce suit against Douglas Fairbanks has created a world-wide sensation. Earlier chapters told of Mary's childhood, the beginning of her stage and film career, and her first meeting with Owen Moore.

By MARJORIE DRISCOLL

Hollywood, Dec. 14— When Mary Pickford, under the watchful eye of D. W. Griffith, rehearsed for her first movie love scene her collaborator was Owen Moore.

Could any writer of scenarios invent a situation more ironic than that?

Mary had met him, of course, [illegible] as she had [illegible] the rest of the Biograph players, when, 15 years old, she began her film career. And fate sent him strolling past at that particular moment when Griffith, needing some one to play opposite the unsophisticated youngster while he showed her how to make screen love, caught sight of Moore.

Griffith smiled approvingly when the blushing Mary and the embarrassed Moore had finished their scene.

"After ten years more of life and rehearsal, you should be able to do a love scene very well," he told Mary.

But when the ten years had ended Mary was to have had even more experience of life and love than even the astute Griffith could see. She was to know romance with the handsome young actor on whose shoulder she buried her face that day—and the climbing of that romance.

FIRST RAISE HIT $100

This was all in the future during the eighteen months that Mary played with Biograph. Much more exciting to her just then was the stupendous fact that her salary was steadily raised from $40 a week to the amazing figure of $100 — a huge salary for those days.

Fifty or ten dollars loomed large when the movies were young. Mary Pickford smiles now when she remembers that once a difference of $5 kept her from going with Essanay.

George K. Spoor offered her $45 a week. Her mother, always eager to protect Mary's interests, held out for $50.

Mary didn't get the job.

"We didn't get much money but we had a lot of fun, those movie pioneers, a lot of fun and a lot of work. All the elaborate set-up of authors, adapters, dialogue writers, stage directors, assistant directors and what not was still unknown. Stories got written, bought, borrowed or invented, somehow. They were adapted as they went along. With talkies still undreamed of, dialogue, of course, didn't matter.

ALL COACHING SILENT

"If the heroine, while gazing soulfully into the hero's eyes, were actually scolding him violently for stepping on her toe, the audience — except a few lip-readers — never knew the difference.

"Audiences may have guessed but they apparently did not care, that while the lovely heroine was picking up the fatal letter, shrinking from the dire news it contained, raising her eyes to heaven and fixing to the scene of the hero the direction on the sidelines was telling her:

"'Now pick it up—look at it—clasp your hands—turn your head this way—let your lips tremble . . .'

"In their off moments, actors turned authors. Mary Pickford wrote scenarios, contriving them to fit the available players and the backgrounds at hand. She wrote "The Awakening" and played in it with Arthur Johnson, and other film stars in which also, James Kirkwood, Billy Quirk, Mae Marsh, Claire McDowell, Alice Joyce and he rest of them appeared.

"Of one of her fellow players, Mary was deeply envious.

"Because Lillian Gish had a blonde fairness that photographed with ethereal loveliness, she was often cast as the heroine, since the early movies followed the lead of the drama in being true to 'types.'

LILLIAN GISH IN LEAD

"When the Biograph company filmed a Western, Lillian was usually cast as the beautiful daughter of the rancher, who was kidnaped by outlaws, rescued by bold cowboys and pursued by Indians.

But Mary, because her hazel eyes photographed dark, had to be an Indian!

"Not that Mary minded being an Indian, but she did hate having to smear her face with bolamenta—a most uncomfortable mixture of reddish brown clay and water. She remembers that bolamenta 'ate.'

"After eighteen months with Biograph, Mary went to the Independent Motion Picture Company, lured by the almost unheard of salary of $175 a week, but after nine months she returned to Biograph, feeling that this company and Griffith's direction offered a better opportunity.

"Next came a brief return to the stage, when Belasco persuaded her to take the part of Juliet, the blind girl, in "A Good Little Devil," and she played it for one season at the Republic theater in New York.

"In the spring of 1913, she made a film version of this drama for Famous Players, and from then on her rise in the movie world was steady and rapid.

$4000 A WEEK—PLUS

"In 1913, the 22-year-old girl became vice-president of the Mary Pickford Famous Players Company, with a salary of $2000 a week and 50 per cent of the profits. A year later her salary was doubled.

"All the time Teer mother, who had followed her famous daughter in using the name of Pickford—all the family became Pickfords when Mary had established the name—was Mary's business manager, adviser and constant companion.

"Again and again Mary paid tribute to her mother's devotion, and Mrs. Pickford recognized the intimacy of the association when, in her will, she left the bulk of her estate to Mary because of her daughter's 'most unusual generosity.'

"Mary's association with famous players resulted in a long list of pictures in which she became world famous for her portrayal of child or youthful roles. Her long golden curls were known and copied all over the world.

"Among the pictures she made at that time were "Caprice" "Tess of the Storm Country," "Hearts Adrift," "Such a Little Queen," "Fanchon the Cricket," "Cinderella," "Mistress Nell," "Dawn of a Tomorrow," "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," "Poor Little Rich Girl," "The Girl of Yesterday," "Poor Little Peppina," "Madame Butterfly"—a departure from her usual roles—"The Foundling," "Hulda from Holland" and "Less Than the Dust."

ALL HER OWN WAY

By 1916, she reached a new position of authority, being allowed to choose her stories and cast, and was ranked among the highest paid film stars.

Photoplays she made at that time included "Pollyanna," "The Poor Little Rich Girl," "Romance of the Redwoods," "The Little American," "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," "Little Princess," Stella Maris, Amarilla of Clothes Line Alley," "M'Lisa," "Captain Kidd, Jr." and "Johanna Enlists."

On Armistice Day, November 11, 1918, she became an independent producer, making pictures for release through First National. They included "Daddy Long Legs," "The Hoodlum" and "Heart of the Hills."

Early in 1918, she, with Douglas Fairbanks, Charlie Chaplin and D. W. Griffith organized United Artists Corporation for which she made "Pollyanna," "Suds," "The Love Light," "Through the Back Door," "Little Lord Fauntleroy," "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall," "Little Annie Rooney," "Sparrows" and "My Best Girl."

In "Sparrows" she was a clerk in a five-and-ten-cent store. In "My Best Girl" she caught "Local Color" behind the counter of a Los Angeles store. With her curls [illegible] and her horn-rimmed glasses on her nose, she made a valiant attempt to disguise herself as a clerk and actually made several sales before some movie fan penetrated the masquerade. After that, her counter was the focal point of an excited crowd until she gave it up and fled.

FIRST BOBBED HAIR

In 1920 Mary's film career passed two important milestones. She played her first really grown-up role in "Suds in Society," for which she bobbed her hair, and she made, with the same film, her first talking picture.

The hair-bobbing created a world-wide furor. Thousands of film fans mourned the departure of the famous curls, and thousands of others wrote that they liked her with the new style. It was only a medium bob, after all; short enough to be fashionable and long enough to tuck up.

In recent years Mary has made only a few pictures, notable "Kiki" and "Secrets."

These years when her career was moving rapidly forward, were eventful ones for Mary. When she was not busy at the studio, she was filling the multitudinous duties of one who had now become the outstanding feminine star of the films.

And she had been married, divorced and remarried.

(TOMORROW — The story of Mary's marriage to Owen Moore, with whom she had practiced love scenes, years of unhappiness, separation, and at last, divorce after nine years.)

Six Stage Acts at Orpheum

"Day of Reckoning," starring Richard Dix, opens at Loew's Orpheum today. In the cast also are Marie Evans, Conway Tearle, Una Merkel, Stuart Erwin, Isobel Jewell and Raymond Hurst. The picture was directed by Charles Brabin.

Headlining the six acts of vaudeville are Ruth Miles and Eddie Kover in a dance presentation, "Modernistic Rhythm." Bobby Jarvis & Company are next in "The New Manager." Eddie Dean and George Tynes, Joe Kelso & Company with Maurice Kelly and Jimmy Arthur and Maxime, "The Cuban Wonder."

Mystery Film and Comedy Are Shown

By HARLEIGH SCHULTZ

"From Headquarters," mystery film featured at the Paramount and Uptown, goes all its predecessors one better on daring, and commits one of its murders in police headquarters itself. From that, you may gather, this picture is concocted with the usual skill of experts at fooling the guessing abilities of an audience as to the guilty parties, and tosses in a dash of novelty for an extra thrill or two.

* * *

For a change there is George Raft doing a Sherlock Holmes instead of merely making love. He goes into high as a detective after his former sweetheart is linked up with the slaying of a Broadway playboy through the findings of the latter's initial on a blood-stained kerchief. The complications are many, and suspicion lodges upon a number of the characters; but lovers of this type of movie will not mind the heaviness of dramatic structure, for the piece affords ample chance to pick and choose among the seemingly guilty folk, with the wonted surprise at the finish.

* * *

Determined Detective

Through all the ramifications of a couple of gory crimes, Mr. Raft takes himself very seriously. Plainly, he is out to get his man. He would never admit that his real motive might be to clear his former girl friend. Grimly onward he goes, and as his reward he has everything his own way at the finish. Margaret Lindsay is the heroine of the romantic angle to the plot, only fair in performance this time; and the comedy relief lies on the able shoulders of Hugh Herbert and Eugene Pallette.

Suspense is nicely maintained by Wilhelm Dieterle's direction.

* * *

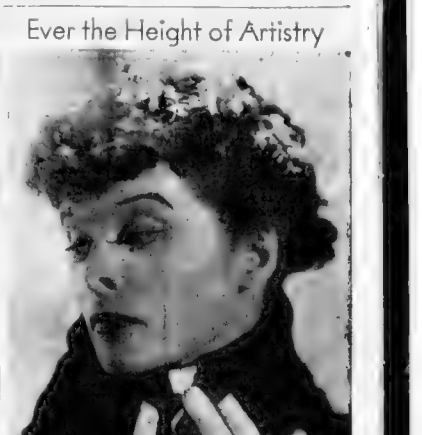
Much more enjoyable for the general audience is the competition picture, "Jimmy and Sally," with Jimmy Dunn of course but minus the Sally Eilers, for whom this was intended in her place is seen Claire Trevor, and for merit must be said that she gives the hero a fast run for the honors. In fact, she sometimes in the course of the merry little plot, excels him.

* * *

Dunn is a publicity gentleman whose ideas include staging a circus wherein elephants and canaries are given equal prominence. This fizzle, which sent Jimmy to join the ranks of the unemployed. After the life is a merry round of press agentry, romance and zany happenings.

Thank to the giant Dunn takes in his acting, along with the assistance of Miss Trevor, the film is very enjoyable. Moreover, James Tinling has lent a clever direction, so that the pace is swift, as becomes a farcical theme like this.

Ever the Height of Artistry



Katharine Hepburn, brilliant in "Little Women," which tomorrow enters its fourth week at RKO B. F. Keith's. Already it has registered itself as one of the most popular of all sound pictures.

Youth Soloist Russia Viewed on Screen

By HARRIS MORGAN

Leonard Shure, the young American pianist, will be the soloist at the next concert of the Mondas evening series by the Boston Symphony Orchestra to be given in Symphony Hall next Monday at 8:15. Mr. Shure will appear with the orchestra in the First Concerto of Brahms in D minor.

Dr. Serge Koussevitsky will also present Beethoven's Leonore Overture No 3; Debussy's Nocturnes "Clouds" and "Festivals," and the second suite from Ravel's ballet, "Daphnis and Chloe."

Leonard Shure, after appearing as a prodigy in this country, went to Europe in 1925 at the age of 13 to study with Artur Schnabel. He has recently given notable recitals in Germany and has just returned to this country.

'Bargain Night' at Bowdoin

To the Bowdoin Sq. Theater yesterday came a new bill of six vaudeville acts, and also a picture show of merit. "The Invisible Man" is the most thrilling film ever shown at the Bowdoin. The cast has Claude Rains, Gloria Stuart and Dudley Digges. The companion picture is "Love Honor and Oh! Baby," with slim Sommerville and Zasu Pitts.

The vaudeville presents Betty Wheeler Trio in Gliding Around; Berk and Red Harriman and Evans, dancers; Wilkins and Wilkins, comedians; Baldwin and Bristol in "Great Men of the Past," and Art Spaulding, music master. Every Friday is bargain night, with extra acts.

Evening American on the Air
THE GLOBETROTTER

of the Boston American and Hearst Metrotone News

A complete radio daily newspaper—60 minutes of news, markets, fashions, features, sports and special entertainment.

213 M.—Station WAAB—1416 Kil.

11:00-11:15 A. M.—FEATURE PERIOD
Monday, Wednesday Friday—Martha Lee Homemaking Class
1:00-1:15 P. M.—PEACH EDITION OF THE AIR.
Stock Market, Motion Pictures, News Flashes.
3:30- 3:15 P. M.—SEVEN STAR EDITION OF THE AIR
7:00- 7:15 P. M.—SEVEN O'CLOCK EDITION OF THE AIR
News Flashes, Features.

Friday, December 15

6:15 P. M.
WAAB—Bobby Benson
WNAC—Fischer's Orchestra
WBZ—Joe and Ruteese.
WHDH—Gossipers

6:30 P. M.
WAAB—Tito Guizar, Songs
WNAC—Detectives Black and Blue
WEEI—Sports Review
WEEI—News. Ralph Nylund.
WLEY—Song Program.

6:45 P. M.
WAAB—Parenteau's Orchestra.
WNAC—Ranny Weeks' music.
WBZ—Lowell Thomas topics
WEEI—Young Folks and Mine.

7:00 P. M.
WAAB—American Globetrotter; Ed Young, Yankee Philosopher
WNAC—Myrt and Marge
WBZ—Amos 'n' Andy
WEEI—Jesters.

7:15 P. M.
WAAB—Fischer's Orchestra
WNAC—Just Plain Bill
WBZ—Mysterious Island.
WEEI—After Dinner Revue
WLEY—Edna Lavery, songs.

7:30 P. M.
WAAB—Positively Mr. W. E. Hurley
WNAC—Music on the Air
WBZ—Potash and Perlmutter
WEEI—Circus Days.
WLEY—Piano.

7:45 P. M.
WAAB—Pugh's Orchestra
WNAC—Sonia Carter, news.
WBZ—Morton Bowe, songs
WEEI—Risk of the Goldbergs.

8:00 P. M.
WAAB—Chemical Society talk.
WNAC—Happy Bakers.
WBZ—Chronicleers.
WEEI—Bourdon concert.
WLEY—Varsity Players.

8:15 P. M.
WAAB—Violin recital
WNAC—Edwin C. Hill, news.

8:30 P. M.
WAAB—"As I See It."
WNAC—March of Time
WBZ—Dangerous Paradise.

8:45 P. M.
WAAB—Modern Minstrel
WBZ—Red Davis, drama
WLEY—Classical Moods.

9:00 P. M.
WAAB—Connors' Orchestra
WNAC—Philadelphia Orchestra.
WBZ—Phil Harris' Orchestra.
WEEI—Waltz Time.
Abe Lyman's Band, Frank Munn songs

9:15 P. M.
WAAB—Organ
WNAC—Threads of Happiness

9:30 P. M.
WAAB—La Paradis Band
WNAC—Football Show
WBZ—Musical program
Fred Bakers, Neil Sisters, Boy Singers, Marcia Ann Gates, Harry McNaughton
WEEI—Fox Fur Trappers

9:45 P. M.
WAAB—News.

10:00 P. M.
WAAB—Bittel's Orchestra
WNAC—Olsen and Johnson.
WBZ—Jack Denny.
WEEI—First Nighter

10:30 P. M.
WAAB—News.
WNAC—"The Greek Orator."
WBZ—Rines' Orchestra.
WEEI—Lum and Abner.

10:45 P. M.
WAAB—Gladys Rice Recital.
WNAC—News.
WBZ—News.

11:00 P. M.
WNAC—Huston Ray's Orchestra
WBZ—Sports talk.
WEEI—Musical news.

11:15 P. M.
WAAB—Boswell Sisters.
WBZ—Kay Fayre, songs.
WEEI—Scotti's Orchestra.

11:30 P. M.
WNAC—Isham Jones' music.
WBZ—Ebbins' Orchestra
WEEI—Denny's Orchestra.

12 MID.
WNAC—Little's Orchestra.
WBZ—Calloway's Orchestra.
WEEI—Ted Weems' Orchestra.

Emerson
UNIVERSAL COMPACT RADIO
Give an Emerson radio for Christmas. Ideal for home, office or travel. The finest compact radio made, with extraordinary power and tone. See the wide range of models today, some priced as low as $19.95.
Model 31 Short and Long Wave 5-Tube Super-heterodyne AC-DC Complete $35.
Model 250. Short and Long Wave 5-Tube Super-heterodyne, AC-DC. Complete. $33
EMERSON
MICKEY MOUSE
Model 420. 4-tube. AC-DC "The Handful of Radio That Plays Anywhere." Complete, $19.95
Model 30 Short and Long Wave 5-Tube Super-heterodyne AC-DC Complete. $50
The newest and cutest thing in radio. A 4-tube Emerson with Mickey Mouse on the front. Complete with tubes and aerial, $25.
FREE Mickey Mouse Buttons. Get your button from one of the dealers listed below.

ON SALE AT THE FOLLOWING DEALERS:

Boston
Arcadon Bros, Inc., 44 Portland St
Boston Hill Battery & Tire Co, 2-8 Cambridge St
Ben's Radio Shop, 397 Tremont St
Berco Radio Co., 65 Stanhope St
Berman Radio Co., 57 Stuart St
Berman Radio Co., 216 Tremont St
Boston Music Co., 116 Boylston St
Clark & Mills Elec. Co., 75 Newbury St
Cooper Elec. Supply Co., 1199 Washington St.
Dewey Radio Dist. Co., 346 Summer St.
Economy Inc., 1215 Mass. Ave.
Gotham & Silvester Co., 50 Boylston St
Interstate Elec. Co., 63 Mass. Ave.
Kay Jewelry Co., 701 Washington St
L. Marks & Co., 25 Tremont St
Mass. Gas & Elec. Lt. Supply Co., 192 Bolton St
Monopolitan Distributing Co. Inc., 1040 Commonwealth Ave.
National Supply Co., 50 Portland St
New Cycle & Radio Co., 500 Washington St
Perry & Radio Co., 20 Beattie St
R. Cycle & Radio Co., 18 Stuart St
Service & Cross, Inc., 204 Mass. Ave.
Shepard Co., 111 Washington St
Shepard Motor Co., Commonwealth Ave. at Mass. Ave.
Super Elec. Supply Co., 187 Franklin St.
Super Elec. Supply Co., 166 Brookline St.
T. Battery Co., Gift Shop, 335 Tremont St.
Tower Lighting Fix. Co., Inc., 130 Portland St
Tremont & Sons Co., 167 Boylston St
Tremont & Sons, 38 Charles St
Tri-City & Appliance Co., 31 High St
Union Elec. Supply Co., 81 High St.
Washington Elec. Supply Co., 24 Stuart St
Weatherbolt Radio Co., 26 Pinckney St.
World Radio Corp., 82 Summer St
Zone Electric Supply Co., 9 Portland St.

Suburban Dealers
ARLINGTON—Farrington Radio Co., 866 Mass. Ave.
BEDFORD—Farrington Radio
BROCKTON—Kay Jewelry Co., 198 Main St
BROOKLINE—J. S. McKenna, 1416 Beacon St.
BROOKLINE—Radio Engineering Serv. Co., 1042 Beacon St.
BROOKLINE—Union Elec. Supply Co., 1199 Washington St.
CAMBRIDGE—Clark & Mills Elec Co., 75A Beattie St.
CAMBRIDGE—F. M. F. Elec. Supply Co., 1314 Mass. Ave.
CAMBRIDGE—Interstate Elec. Co. 659 Mass. Ave.
CAMBRIDGE—J. McKenna, 7 Beattie
CHELSEA—Frost Radio Co., 9 Hillside
DORCHESTER—Geo. F. Cahill & Co., 1 Stanwood St
DORCHESTER—J. Pratt, 200 Dudley St
FRAMINGHAM—Henry Duncan Corp., 435 Main St
GLOUCESTER—Gloucester Electric Co., 3 Main St
LYNN—Arcadon Bros., Inc., 38 Spring St
LYNN—Electrical Merchandising Co., 55 Central Ave.
LYNN—Henry W. Curtis, Inc., 56 Andrew St
LYNN—Kay Jewelry Co., 966 Tales St
LYNN—Liberty Battery Co., 158 Liberty St
MALDEN—Henry Duncan Corp., 204 Pleasant St
MALDEN—Hoffman Auto Supply, 229 Pleasant St
MALDEN—Malden Electric Co., Pleasant St
MELROSE—Henry Duncan Corp., 861 Main St.
MELROSE HIGHLANDS—Henry Duncan Corp., 637 Franklin St
NEWTON CENTER—Skelton & Son, Langley Rd.
NEWTONVILLE—Garden City Radio Co., 1042 Beacon St.
PEABODY—J. S. Murphy & Son
PEABODY—Peabody Cycle Auto Supply Co., Foster St.
PEABODY—Sesson Oil Co.
QUINCY—Chas. E. Hamilton, Hennessey Airport
QUINCY—Kay Jewelry Co. 1366 Hancock St
QUINCY—National Supply Co., 1384 Hancock St
QUINCY—Robinson Home Utilities 1384 Hancock St
READING—Henry Duncan Corp., 308 Main St
REVERE—Suburban Gas & Electric Co. 158 Beach St
REVERE—Feldman Radio Serv., 4 Bloe Hill Ave.
SALEM—Kay Jewelry Co., 207 Essex St
SALEM—Murphy Hardware Co. Washington St
SAUGUS—Liberty Radio Service Co. 20 New Derby St
SAUGUS—Electric Light Co., Washington St.
SOMERVILLE—Somerville Radio Co., 378 Somerville Ave
SOUTH BOSTON—W. Mehlman Co., 118 Dorchester St.
WAKEFIELD—Henry Duncan Corp., Main St.
WALTHAM—Kay Jewelry Co., 816 Moody St.
WATERTOWN—Mass. Gas & Elec. Supply Co., 11 Main St
WINCHESTER—Henry Duncan Corp., 5 Mt. Vernon St.
WOBURN—Henry Duncan Corp., 805 Main St.

TONIGHT . . 6:45 . . WAAB
ZOEL PARENTEAU AND HIS ORCHESTRA
SPONSORED BY WORCESTER SALT CO.

Today at YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD THEATER

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY — PORTER 4500 HARVARD SQ — MAURICE CHEVALIER in "The Way to Love" BETTE DAVIS in "Bureau of Missing Persons"
HOLLYWOOD — CHAS. 1300 — Lovella Young "MIDNIGHT MARY" Kathryn Crawford "SKYWAY"
THOMPSON SQUARE THEATRES — Jessie Royce Landis "PAGAN LOVE" BEST SELLER — Warner Baxter "King of Wild Horses"
EGLESTON SQUARE
THE EGLESTON — 1 Washington St. at Eggleston Sq. — "PILGRIMAGE" Greater Than "Cavalcade" Farley Granger in "Hoodlum Shooter" Balcony
HYDE PARK
EVERETT SQ. HYDE PARK — Eve. Only Night Jean Harlow-Lee Tracy "BOMBSHELL" Sally Blane Walter Ford "HOUSE OF TERROR"
MALDEN
CAMDEN — MALDEN 2600 — PAUL MUNI "World Changes" W. C. Fields Alice Brady "THE IN & OUT" Starts Sat. "Only Yesterday"
MALDEN — MAL. 2330 — Slim Summerville Joan Blondell "GOLD DIGGERS" Adolphe Menjou "MADAME WOMAN IN PARIS"
MALDEN
STRAND — MALDEN — Tel. Malden 4343 — Beth Chatterton in "FEMALE" RICHARD DIX "ACE OF ACES" CHARLESTOWN
REVERE
BOULEVARD and REVERE — "Saturday's Millions" Robert Young-Lillie Hymes" Donald Cook-Peggy Shannon "Fury of the Jungle"
DISTRICT
AT THE HUMBOLDT — JANET GAYNOR—WARNER BAXTER "Daddy, the Next Best Thing" SPENCER TRACY "SHANGHAI MADNESS"
SOMERVILLE
CAPITOL — HALF A BLOCK SQ. — WILL ROGERS as DR. BULL "Worst Woman in Paris" Starts Sun. Blondie "Dumbbells"
TEELE SQ. SOMERVILLE BROADWAY — Eve. 10c-20c — Warner Baxter Ralph Bellamy "PADDY, the Next Best Thing" Preston Foster
SOUTH END
NATIONAL — Mat. 10c Continuous — 12:30 to 11:00 — Warner Baxter Ralph Bellamy "PADDY, the Next Best Thing" Preston Foster THE DEVIL'S MATE"
WATCH THIS DIRECTORY PATRONIZE YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD THEATRE

"Napoleon" Role Awaits Completion of New

CHARLIE CHAPLIN TALKIE -:- BRIGHT THEATRICAL SEASON

Peeks Over Horizon With Advent of New Year

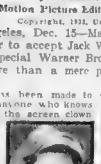
Famed Comic Ponders Offer to Realize Ambitions of Film Lifetime

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
Motion Picture Editor Universal Service

Copyright, 1933, Universal Service, Inc.

Los Angeles, Dec. 15—Maybe Charlie Chaplin won't see his way clear to accept Jack Warner's offer to play Napoleon in the big special Warner Brothers are contemplating. But, there is more than a mere possibility that Charlie may do Napoleon.

The offer has been made to him . . . and anyone who knows the secret yen the screen clown has always had to play the little Corsican wouldn't be surprised to hear that Charlie has said "yes."



In case Mr. Chaplin does consent to play "Napoleon," another play of equal importance will be selected for Edward G. Robinson. The Napoleon play Louella O. Parsons won't be made until Chaplin finishes his own comedy, which goes into production the first of the year. Charlie sings a song in his own production . . . the first time his voice will be heard on the screen.

• • •

Ginger Regrets Snap

Whether it's to be Ginger Rogers or some more dignified montker doesn't matter, as far as we can see, a flinkers darn. Ginger has been getting by and plenty. Now she goes dignified on us and wants a name that is less frivolous. It's all right by us. Think of Ginger Rogers hoyden of the screen, music, comedy, and stage, selected for the role in "Decisase" created by the magnificent Ethel Barrymore on the stage. It's the truth Diana Wynyard won't play it but Ginger probably will, and here's a break . . . Kenneth MacGowan associate producer on "Little Women," will do the same job for "Decisase."

• • •

For "Operator 13"

Maybe I shouldn't tell but you know how it is when you hear something. Paul Robeson, our finest colored actor, is being sought by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer to play in "Operator 13." Marion Davies' next picture. Marion's most recent number, "Going Hollywood," rated raves in the local trade papers and plenty of the same thing from those who saw it at the Fox Wilshire at a special preview. One of our fans writes in to ask if we noticed that Bing Crosby—who has a bit opposite Miss Davies in "Going Hollywood" has an Edwin Booth profile.

• • •

Bickford British, But—

I would not like to say that Charles Bickford has gone British but he certainly returns enthusiastic over the opportunities in England. Charlie went to England to make a picture and he says that London at the moment is flowing with milk and honey, to use a common every day expression, with plenty of the good old do re mi. All the British producers want is American stars and they will pay the price. But Charlie, being a red blooded one hundred per cent American, sort-a likes Hollywood and so he is back on Universal contract. He will play an engineer in "The Tunnel Man," an original story by Barclay Morse, which Junior Laemmle bought for him.

• • •

Gossip in Hollywood

The little green visor Greta Garbo wears underneath her beret is not to shade her eyes, but to act as a disguise. Seems the Garbo is having some dental work done and 15 minutes before she appears in the green visor the dentist is instructed to clear his waiting room. If that isn't possible, the other less important patients are shunted into another room so that the Garbo may not be annoyed by the waiting herd. Great to be important.

• • •

Certainly there should be a job for Kate Price in Hollywood. Kate is a grand trouper and in the days when she was a headliner with John Bunny and Flora Finch there were plenty of jobs for her. Now Kate is down and out. She is in the desert and she would like to come back and play in a picture. Some of the producers who are casting pictures every day should be able to find a spot for her. Why give jobs to new comers who never did anything for the movies while old time troupers like Kate, who helped put the movies where they are, need work?

• • •

Hollywood Snapshots

The real Gibson hairdress being brought back by KATHRYN CARVER MENJOU; PAULETTE GODDARD and ROSE DAVIES appearing at a recent dinner party with a typical 1890 hairdress and very becoming, too; CARMEN PANTAGES CONSIDINE deciding in spite of opposing votes to name her baby ERIN; JOAN BASS, daughter of former GOVERNOR BASS of NEW HAMPSHIRE, and MRS. DOROTHY WORKMAN GATES, nationally known tennis professional, visiting MARION DAVIES for a weekend at Santa Monica; ESTELLE TAYLOR sick; CARMEL MYERS in her role in "Show Boat"; BETTY COMPSON and IRVING WEINBERG on westbound train; The FRANK BORZAGES leaving a large number of friends; MARY BRIAN there with ROSS COLUMBO, looks like another BRIAN heartbeat; Glimpsed doing Christmas shopping—JANET GAYNOR and MARGARET LINDSAY in toy department; BILLIE BURKE, too, too beautiful all in grey, in china department; JOAN CRAWFORD and FANCHOT TONE buying many knickknacks.

Stagers Solve Crime Among the Blossoms

Before bidding adieu temporarily the Stagers at the Peabody Playhouse are presenting "The Crime at Blossom," one of the sprightliest mystery dramas to have fallen to the lot of any stage group. When the curtain rings down on this opus the managerial staff will seek larger and more centrally located quarters.

Movie Clock

RKO-BOSTON—"If I Were Free"; a. m., 10:23; p. m., 1:36, 4:49, 7:35, 10:49.

STATE—"The Women" & "His Life"; p. m., 1:10, 3:20, 5:30, 7:45, 9:55.

SCOLLAY—"Duck Soup"; a. m., 11:35; p. m., 3, 6:30, 9:40.

TREMONT—"Those Thirty Years"; a. m., 11; p. m., 12:43, 2:22, 4:03, 5:44, 7:25, 9:06.

MAJESTIC—"The Road to Ruin"; a. m., 9:26; p. m., 1:20, 3:30, 5:40, 7:30, 9:40.

RKO-KEITH'S—"Little Women"; a. m., 9:45, 11:45; p. m., 1:45, 3:45, 5:45, 7:45, 9:45.

BOWDOIN SQ.—"The Invisible Man"; a. m., 9; p. m., 12:37, 4:36, 8:35.

METROPOLITAN—"My Lips Betray"; a. m., 11; p. m., 1:50, 4:45, 7:35, 10:20.

FENWAY—"Jimmy and Sally"; p. m., 1:45, 4:48, 7:25, 10:01.

MODERN—"Duck Soup" a. m., 9, 11:30; p. m., 2:05, 4:45, 7:15, 9:50.

HOWARD—"I am a Fugitive"; p. m., 12:30, 6:24.

LOEW'S ORPHEUM—"Day of Reckoning"; a. m., 11; p. m., 1:50, 4:45, 7:35, 10:20.

GAIETY—"I Loved a Woman"; a. m., 9:30; p. m., 1:05, 5:06, 9:10.

UPTOWN—"Man Who Played God"; p. m., 1, 4:52, 7:07, 10:13.

TRIANGLE—"From Headquarters"; a. m., 9, 11:45; p. m., 2:16, 4:49, 7:22, 9:55.

WASHINGTON ST. OLYMPIA—"My Weakness"; a. m., 10:45, p. m., 1:25, 4:07, 6:49, 9:31.

"Happy Days" Here Again

For its burlesque attraction Monday, the Old Howard will have the Happy Days' company, with the well known Harry Steppe as chief comedian. The new cover to Boston is Johanna Sale, expert dancer. Mickey Mc Kee, Dorothy Ahearn, Ruth Johnson, Johnny Cook, Marie Lamar and Mae Moore are other stars. The troupe's full present row dancing numbers and new songs as well.

In addition, the Old Howard will offer a continuous bill of mixed vaudeville and pictures.

The musical performance comes on Friday night.

Theater Guild Subsidiary Looms as Newcomers to Crowded Rialto

By GEORGE HOLLAND

Although this column's first New Year's resolution will have to do with restraint in optimism about the state of the local legitimate theater, it seems from this early angle that the New Year holds high promise. Four of the six downtown playhouses will be invested with shows when New Year's comes around, and a fifth, the Wilbur, will be the probable headquarters of the Theater Group, a sort of junior varsity organization born of the success of the Theater Guild.

There is no advance copy assuring us that this latest probability is a certainty, but some prominent artistic souls drawn from society ems holding meetings, and more than half a thousand subscriptions, I am told, have been solicited for the support of a Theater Group policy here.

It was this organization which gave New York the play, "The Barretts of Wimpole Street," and Helen Hayes her first real chance. It is the Theater Guild that is the present bone of contention with regards Boston, a meeting was held Sunday at the Wilbur, and Alexander Kirkland, who is playing in New York in Men in White, gave a talk. We should hear some more of the immediate plans soon.

News arrives today telling of Raymond Moore's proposal to bring a new play called Whatever Possessed Her, to the Hollis or Colonial. The Shubert will be decided upon which elements at the Cape as the management owner of the Cape Playhouse at Dennis.

The subject of this play is the operation of a summer theater, and of that Mr. Moore should know enough to separate the incredible from the likely. A woman with a full quota of eccentrics is the operator of the particular summer theater the playwright take about, and Hilda Spong a very able actress, plays the lead. Arthur Byrom, who directs "All Good Americans," is staging "Whatever Possessed Her." Otto Hulett, Roland Drew, Percy Kilbride, Stapleton Kent, Flora Campbell, Fred Stewart, Joseph Allen, and Gordon Richards are in the cast.

The theater is not announced in the opening herald. But by elimination it would either the Hollis or the Colonial. The Shubert will be occupied that week of January 1 with "Bitter Sweet," the Noel Coward operetta. Eugene O'Neill's play "Days Without End" will hold the stage of the Plymouth, although Philip Moeller, directing for the Theater Guild, has decided that the O'Neill play will have its world premiere on December 27, Wednesday, instead of on Christmas night.

In spite of the postponement, "Days Without End" will end its engagement after 10 days playing. Or so it is believed now. It is interesting to note that Mr. O'Neill describes his newest work as "a modern miracle play." His "Ah, Wilderness," current at the Guild Theater, New York, is frankly and amply "a comedy."

Third Concert by Chardons

By MOSES SMITH

The Chardon String Quartet playing the third program in its complete cycle of Beethoven quartets, reached last night the first two of the three quartets of opus 59, which were dedicated to Count Rasoumoffsky.

The dedication was more than superficial, for Beethoven actually employed Russian themes. In the first of last night's quartets—the F major — the final movement is based on a lively Russian theme. The scherzo of the other, in E minor, has in its trio the same folk-tune which Moussorgsky employed in the coronation music of "Boris." The difference in treatment, needless to say, is enormous.

The Chardons played with vigor and spirit, usually in excellent ensemble, with phrases clearly marked. Occasionally, indeed, the phrases were too emphatically attacked, so that a weak beat became accented and the metre altered. Nor did the adagio of the E minor seem sufficiently articulate from their bows. Here is music of tremendous depth and power, and one felt, somehow, that the Chardons were uncomfortable in its presence.

Just for Today

To the Uptown screen, today only, there come two superior photoplays, first of that theaters revival series. George Arliss will be seen in "Man Who Played God" and Ann Harding and Leslie Howard in "Animal Kingdom."

Holiday Treat; Pigs 'n' All

"Morning Varieties," a new aggregation of vaudeville entertainment, will be featured on Symphony Hall stage last December 30, at 11 a. m. Arthur Fiedler and his Symphonians, Hans Wiener and his group of dancers will add the new feature to the entertainment which will continue with the movie feature on screen. The Three Little Pigs," the orchestral part of the program will include the Overture to Mignon Tchaikowsky's "Nutcracker Suite Handel's Largo and "The Flight of the Bumble Bee" by Rimsky-Korsakov.

The orchestra will accompany the group of dancers in Strauss' Waltz "Wine Women and Song" and in a fairy pantomime, "The Princess and the Frog King." Hans Wiener will interpret "Circus" as a solo number, and Otto Ashermann and Nina Dale a Ballet Grotesque based on Schubert's "Moment Musicale."

Souvenirs will be distributed to the youngest member of the audience. "Pop" prices will prevail.

End of Record Run in Sight

Announcement was made by the management of RKO B. F. Keith's today that the long run of "Little Women" will be brought to an end a week from tonight. Already the film has set up new box office attendance, and held-over records.

This picture is the "miracle" of the season for showmen, for it has focused their attention upon the fact that public taste is now decisively swung back to motion picture fundamentals of entertainment. It is something of a "miracle," too that an old-fashioned book as the Louisa May Alcott classic should have become one of the greatest of all the talkies.

Evelyn Brent Stars

That talented lady of stage and screen, Evelyn Brent, tops the fortnight program for tonight at the Modern and Shawmut theaters in Dorchester and Roxbury, respectively. With her appears Harry Fox star of musical comedy and vaude. In the two will be a troupe of performers.

There will be additional features on the bill at both houses. Tomorrow night Miss Brent and company will appear at the Wollaston Theater.

Elegant Runs This Title

On Monday the Minskys bring an entirely new show to the Park "Ella Gant from the Ritz" is the title of this newest offering.

Because of their success, Jone O'Donnell, Ann Norton and Louise Phelps will be retained with the new show. In the cast will also be seen Mae Dix, Mel Baxter, Sylvia Lavour and Ina Thomas. There will be 20 scenes in two acts and crimes and scenic surroundings will be lavish. Many new songs are included.

Continuous shows are given from 9 30 o'clock in the forenoon until 8 p. m. In the evening, beginning at 8 20 o'clock, all seats are reserved. Special midnight shows are presented each Friday at 11 30 p. m.

"Eight Long Years of Misery. Unusual Tragic Experience of a Young Girl Chained by a Half-Mad Wretch in an Iron Tank. See The American Weekly, the Magazine Distributed with the Dec. 17 Boston Sunday Advertiser."

Amusements

★ ★ ★ ★ ★
100
STAGE STARS
at the Monster Benefit Performance in aid of Boston American
XMAS BASKET FUND
Midnite, Wed., Dec. 20
AT THE Metropolitan Theatre
★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Amusements

ANOTHER WORLD BEATING SENSATION!
The Theatrical Event of the Century
ON STAGE
COMPLETE INTACT
Now!
the STUDENT PRINCE
Cast of 62
Chorus of 48
SIGMUND ROMBERG'S Romantic Musical Hit!
THE RECORD SMASHING 2.00 SHOW
No Advance in Prices!
Or Most Variety Original Production Original Music
The Same Sensation That Ran for 30 weeks in Boston 76 weeks in New York 45 weeks in Chicago
On account of Mr. Shubert's Illness Last Week's Attraction
IRENE DUNNE in IF I WERE FREE with CLIVE BROOK NILS ASTHER
Keith Boston

Amusements

STATE DAPHEUM LOEWS
SUNDAY Vaudeville FIVE BIG ACTS
Today A "Good" Woman Ruined Him! A "Bad" Woman Saved Him!
"THE WOMEN IN HIS LIFE"
with OTTO KRUGER
Ben Lyon—Una Merkel
Isabel Jewell
ONE MORE DAY
Sammy Lusk & Harry Fink
Today First Boston Showing
Richard DIX
in 'Day of Reckoning' with Madge Evans-Conway Tearle
Stuart Erwin
Loew's Vaudeville
TOPPED BY Ruth MILES & Eddie KOVER
Bobby JARVIS & CO.
Deas & Tynes
Added Attraction
BILLY GLASON
Silver Acts
OUR GANG COMEDY
Children Under 12 Years 10c
All Seats 25c

Amusements

RKO KEITH'S 4th AND POSITIVELY LAST WEEK
Thousands Are Seeing It Again and Again!
Katharine HEPBURN in
RKO Radio Picture
"LITTLE WOMEN"
By LOUISA MAY ALCOTT
NOTE
Will not be shown elsewhere in Greater Boston this year!
DON'T DARE MISS IT!
A TICKET TO "LITTLE WOMEN" IS A XMAS GIFT ONE WILL LONG REMEMBER

Amusements

UPTOWN Mat. From 1 P.M. Washington at Boylston HUB-1336
New Reduced Prices 1000 Seats 35c
Bringing Back the Best of Yesterday
REVIVAL WEEK
14 Outstanding Hits — Each Day
Starting Today—Tomorrow
MR. GEORGE ARLISS
"THE MAN WHO PLAYED GOD"
Tomorrow
"ANIMAL KINGDOM"
with Ann Harding—Leslie Howard
SPECIAL NEW ONLY
KATHARINE HEPBURN in "BILL OF DIVORCEMENT" and "DR. JEKYLL-MR. HYDE" with FREDRIC MARCH WATCH DAILY PAPERS FOR FOLLOWING FIVE

DARK BURLESQUE
BOSTON'S NEWEST WHEEZERY
"HER BOMBS FROM HYE"
50c MAT. DAILY, GIRLS
2 CONTINUOUS SHOWS, 2 P. M. & 8 P. M.
2 P. M. 25c and 35c to 8:00
EVES. 8 p. m. 50c to $1.00
RESERVED.....35c to $1.00

TODAY
RIPLEY'S ORIGINAL
"BELIEVE IT OR NOT"
ODDITORIUM
DIRECT FROM WORLD'S FAIR
25 HUMAN ODDITIES
200 WAX WORKS & CURIOSITIES
HORTICULTURAL HALL
CONTINUOUS PERFORMANCES DAILY
After 1 P. M. Admission 25c
Boston American Christmas Basket Fund

MAJESTIC BEGINS 2 P.M.-11 P.M.
DEFIANTLY DARING
ROAD TO RUIN
POPULAR PRICES
NO ONE UNDER 16 ADMITTED

PLYMOUTH — LAST 3 TIMES
TREMENDOUS HIT
'ONE SUNDAY AFTERNOON'
With Original N. Y. Cast
Direction of Leo Bulgakow

SHUBERT — LAST 3 TIMES
CONRAD NAGEL
in person, in the first and smiling comedy
"THE FIRST APPLE"
With IRENE PURCELL

NEW GAYETY
EDWARD ROBINSON "LOVED A WOMAN"
5 VAUDEVILLE ACTS 5
BUCK JONES "The THRILL HUNTER"

BOWDOIN SQ. VAUDEVILLE
"INVISIBLE MAN" CLAUDE RAINS GLEN & STUART "LOVE, HONOR AND OH! BABY" Tommyville Film Doc—Hollywood Frolic, "Five Chefs" Daily Yesterday's TWILIGHT BARGAIN NIGHT—EXTRA ACTS

THE OLD HOWARD
TONY SHUCCO In Person
MANHATTAN NIGHTS Burlesque
MIDNIGHT SHOW EVERY FRIDAY AT 11:30 P.M.

PEABODY PLAYHOUSE
Tonite 8 P. M.—50c to $1.25
The Stagers Offer
"A CRIME AT BLOSSOMS"
327 Charles St. A Comedy Drama
Eop. 3777 Dist. Tel. 230

Other Theatre Ads and News on Page 24.

Amusements

METROPOLITAN
The Flaming Personality, The Picture of The Hour
Lilian HARVEY
'MY LIPS BETRAY'
JOHN BOLES
EL BRENDEL
STAGE "REVELRY"
Gay, Exciting Revue of Song and Dance with
Val & Ernie Stanton
Billy Farrell & Dad
Bee Hastings Alena & Evans
Metropolitan Ensemble
FREE DANCING
Fabien SEVITZKY conducting 'Poet and Peasant' overture

LAST DAY! DUCK SOUP—CARNIVAL LADY
Tomorrow—The Story of a Mother Who Never Had a Child!
DOROTHEA WIECK CRADLE SONG
A 10 MARY CARLISLE Sweetheart of Sigma Chi
MODERN

PARAMOUNT—FENWAY
RKO BRENT MARGARET LIND-SAY FRANCIS MCDONALD
JAMES DUNN-CLAIRE TREVOR "JIMMY AND SALLY" SCOLLAY
FOUR MARX BROTHERS "DUCK SOUP"
BOSTON'S BEST VAUDEVILLE

PARAMOUNT PUBLIX NEIGHBORHOOD THEATRES

ALLSTON
ONLY BOSTON THEATRE SHOWING
CAPITOL MAE WEST I'm No Angel
Also
Sally Eilers in "WALLS OF GOLD"
"Tom," "RIGHT FLIGHT" and "FEMALE"

BRIGHTON CENTER
EGYPTIAN 3TA3800 Today Tonight
Walter Huston Fred Astaire Gordon
"East of 8th Ave."
Peggy Shannon Sidney Blackmer
"DELUGE"

CAMBRIDGE
CENTRAL UNIV 0872 Mat. 2 Eve. 8
HARVARD KIRKLAND 0700
Johnny Marvin-Barrymore Hank Hoppe-Clark Gable
"NIGHT FLIGHT"
Helen Twelvetrees Ralph Bellamy
"BEFORE DAWN"
Desert Drum-Dorothy Wilson
ESTHER RALSTON in "MAYOR OF HELL" TONITE—No Advance in Prices
Lew Ayres-Madge Evans
"Ladies Must Love"
Buck Jones-Greta Nissen
"Unknown Valley"

CHELSEA
OLYMPIA Mat. 2:15 Eve. 7:30
Jimmy Durante-Jack Pearl
"MEET THE BARON"
Norman Foster Sally Eilers
"WALLS OF GOLD"

DORCHESTER
CODMAN 2nd Mat. 2:30 Eve. 7:30
Jack Pearl-Jimmy Durante
"MEET THE BARON"
Countess Dacourt
"ATTEN TENSHUN"
Sat. "I'm No Angel"

EVERETT
FIELDS Mat. 2:30 Eve. 7:30
Jack Holt
"DOCTOR BULL"
Adolph Menjou-Bonita Granville
"The World Moves On" Fairbanks Jr.
Edmund Lowe-Claudette Colbert and Stage Band Lowell
MORTON Mat. 2:30 Eve. 7:30
Ralph Bellamy
"DOCTOR BULL"
John Barrymore-Helen Hayes
"NIGHT FLIGHT"
Lew Ayres-Lilian Harvey
"MY WEAKNESS"
FREE PARKING

JAMAICA PLAIN
JAMAICA Mat. 2:30 Eve. 7:30
Stage Show Tonight
Bobby Jarvis Fox
"BUREAU OF MISSING PERSONS"
ADOLPHE MENJOU
BEBE DANIELS
MATTAPAN SQ.
ORIENTAL BLU 1200 Mat. 2:30 Eve. 7:30
Helen HAYES ROBT. MONTGOMERY
"NIGHT FLIGHT"
Billie Burke-Kay Francis
"BY WHOSE HAND"

NEWTON
PARAMOUNT Mat. 2:15 Eve. 7:30
CONSTANCE BENNETT
"After Tonight"
Allan Jones
"STILLE AND GUM"
Com. Sen. "I'm No Angel"

ROSLINDALE
RIALTO Mat. 2:30 Eve. 7:30
Betty Boyd-Lenny Stone
Ralph Bellamy-Ann Dvorak
"DOCTOR BULL"
ADOLPHE MENJOU
BEBE DANIELS
Sat. Night Vaudeville

ROXBURY
RIVOLI Mat. 2:30 Eve. 7:30
Lilian Harvey-Lew Ayres
"My Weakness"
6 GREAT STARS
"NIGHT FLIGHT"

SOMERVILLE
SHAWMUT Mat. 2:15 Eve. 7:30
Jack Holt-Evelyn Brent
"DOCTOR BULL"
Sen. Mat. Today—Acts—3
"BUREAU OF MISSING PERSONS"
Bebe Daniels-Ben Lyon
Another Chapter "Tarzan"

SOMERVILLE
STRAND Mat. 2:30 Eve. 7:30
"Story of the Future" and "Big Executive"
RICHARD DIX RICHARD BENNETT
"BIG EXECUTIVE"
Wm. Gargan-Francis Dee
"HEADLINE SHOOTER"

WEST ROXBURY
GRANADA Mat. 2:30 Eve. 7:30
Lilian Harvey-Lew Ayres
"MY WEAKNESS"
Jack Holt-Constance Cummings
"THE WRECKER"
FREE PARKING Tom. Paul Muni "World Changes"

WATCH THIS DIRECTORY
PATRONIZE YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD THEATRE

LATEST MARKETS
STATE ST. COMMENT STOCKS AND BONDS
COMMODITY EXCHANGES

BOSTON AMERICAN
"NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST" EVENING NEWSPAPER

26 FRIDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1933

BUSINESS NEWS
LEWIS HANEY B. C. FORBES FRANK H. MELOON
SPECTATOR'S COMMENT

ATLAS TACK TO ACT ON GIVING 3 FOR 1

Mass Industrial Is First to Reverse Recent Order

By FRANK H. MELOON, Financial Editor, Boston American

The trend of recent months for corporations listin... on the New York stock ex... has been ... dend... her... the ... "Coolidge ... to re... State ... a par... sec...

Secretary D. B. Robbins of Atlas ... meeting of the ... directors ... consider ... the capital ... and a change from ... a stated ... The meeting ... set for 11 ... at the Ma... factured ... Co. New York. Atlas now ... 150,000 shar... Under the ... these would ... increase ... 450,000 ... three ... shares distributed in exchange for ... the present ... a split-up ... holders ... recommendat... for taking ... to notice.

Henry P. Kendall

President Henry P. Kendall of the Kendall Co. and Foxboro ... have been ... Boston ... he knew ... black. ... Pacific M... coal mention ... volume ... mill, and ... year with a ... $1,500,000 and $1,700,... liberal reserves. ... port an operating ... over $4,000,000 ... ing 306,123 ...

Arlington Mills, largest independent woolen ... in New England ... show a total $800,000 ... charges for the first ... Nov. 30, the equivalent ... share on the capital ... of 97,000 shares of ... the first year in which ... has operated ... 1926. Some State Street ... dends for ... ton in the ...

New building contracts awarded in New England ... Dec. 12 were the ... weeks. They ... cording to figur... day by F. W. ... weekly average ... is $2,287,650.

Am. Power & Light Balance $8,129,949

New York, Dec. 15—Statement of ... Associated ... American ... Light ... Subsidiar... Oct. 31 ... $8,129,950 ... American ... 12 ... months ... ended ... Oct. 31 ... shows a ... $2,000,000 ... $4,850,... $1,000,000 ... $2,000,000 ... $1,000,000 ... $1,000,000 ... $1

STOCKS STEADY, WITH TRADING PACE QUIET

New York, Dec. 15—Important shares moved on an even keel in quiet trading on the New York Stock Exchange today. In the second period numerous industrials, rails and utilities were virtually unchanged from previous closing prices.

Santa Fe gained a point. General Motors, Auburn, U. S. Steelning, Case, Union Pacific, New York Central, U. S. Rubber, American Tobacco B, Consolidated Gas and American Can ruled steady to a shade higher.

American Telephone and Allied Chemical eased under fractional. Call money renewed at 1 per cent.

The bond market showed stronger tone and substantial company bonds in demand. Buying in the federal group was stimulated by the failure of the RFC to increase its gold price despite increased inflationary talk.

Cotton, grains and silver were al higher.

Value of the dollar was 63.80 cents based on the London price of gold and the price for sterling in New York and 63.73 cents based on the New York quotation for French francs. These values compare with a value of 60.77 cents as indicated by the RFC gold price.

Sales in noon approximated 450,-90 shares.

Losses of a point or so were general in the first hour. Trading was light. Absence of liquidation interference continued to move against the trend, advancing 3 points. Auburn Auto was a point higher and Pullman gained a major fraction.

American Sugar, Corn Products and Owens Bottle were down more than a point. U. S. Steel slipped back a minor fraction. Industrial Rayon and McIntyre Porcupine were moderately lower.

Losses of a point or so appeared for such issues as Central Aguirre, Atlantic Refining, Amerada, Columbian Carbon, Consolidated Cigar and Freeport Texas.

Sales to 11 a. m. approximated 270,000 shares.

Announcement at the White House that the Administration has in mind no change in monetary policy and that stabilization predictions were "all wrong" definitely applied countenance which had been going the rounds regarding likelihood of a currency agreement with Great Britain and France.

It also served notice that by continuing gold purchases Washington was not yet through with its gold dollar depreciation, even though the Treasury this morning maintained its gold quotation at the now familiar $34.01 an ounce.

Foreign exchanges continued their advance. Sterling was at the new high to $5.15, and French francs rose .04 cent to 6.18 cents.

Federal Reserve statement reflected seasonal influences in money markets. The system bought nearly $50,000,000 in bankers' acceptances, bringing total bill purchases for the past five weeks to $109,-000,000.

Anaconda Puts Men at Work in Butte

Anaconda Copper Mining Co. has put a substantial crew of men to work on the upper levels of its Mountain Con and Green Mountain mines in Butte to prepare these workings for production of mine ores as quickly as possible.

Crude Rubber Steady

New York, Dec. 15—Crude rubber futures today were steady, unchanged to 4 higher. Dec., 8.60 bid; Jan., 8.73; March, 8.99-9.00; May, 9.22-26.

Boston Stocks

	High	Low	12:30 Chg
Am Can	97½	97¾	97¾ — ⅜
Am For Pwr	9½	9½	9½ — ⅛
Am For Pwr Pf	55¾	55¾	55¾ — ¼
Am Tel	115¾	114¾	115 — ¾
Am Woolen	13¾	13¾	13¾
Anaconda	6⅝	6⅝	6⅝ — ⅛
Anaconda	14¾	14½	14¼
Beth Steel	36⅜	36⅛	36⅜ — ⅛
Bigelow-San	24½	24½	24½ — ½
Bos Elev	57½	57½	57½
B & M pr pf	28	28	28
Brown Co pf	5	5	5 + ½
Chrysler	52¾	52¼	52¼ — ¾
Cities Service	2	2	2
Col Gas	12¾	12½	12½ — ⅛
Comwith So	1⅜	1⅛	1⅛ — ⅛
Con Gas	38¾	38¼	38¼ — ⅜
Con Gas A	8¾	8¾	8¾ — ⅛
Curtiss W	2⅜	2½	2½ + ⅛
E G&F A pr	46	46	46 — 2
Edison	125½	124	124 — ½
Elec B & S	13⅛	13⅛	13⅛ — ⅛
Employ Grp	7¾	7¾	7¾ + ⅛
Fajardo Sug	56¾	56¾	56¾ — ¼
Gen Capital	19¾	19¼	19¼ + ⅛
Georgian pf	2	2	2
Gen Elec	20¼	20	20 + ⅛
Gen Foods	36	36	36 — ⅛
Gen Motors	34¾	34¼	34¼ + ⅛
Gorham C pf	8¼	8¼	8¼
Gillette	9¾	9¾	9¾ — ⅛
Goodyear	36¾	35⅝	35⅞ — ⅛
Hudson Mot	14¾	14¾	14¾
Int Hyd Elec	5⅝	5⅝	5⅝ — ⅛
Int Tel	14¾	14¾	14¾
Jennesch Cp	20¾	20¾	20¾ — ⅛
Mergenthaler	22¾	22¾	22¾ + ⅛
Mohawk	3¾	3	3 — ⅛
Nipissing	2¼	2¼	2¼ — ⅛
No American	15¾	15¼	15¼ — ⅜
North Butte	38c	38c	38c + 6c
Pacific Mills	29	28	28
Penn R R	30¾	30⅝	30⅝ — ⅛
Quincy	1¾	1⅝	1⅝ — ⅛
Radio Cor	7⅞	7⅞	7⅞ — ⅛
Std Brands	23¼	23	23 — ⅛
Swift & Co	14¾	14¼	14¼ — ⅜
Swift Intl	28	28	28 — 1⅛
Torrington	26	26	26
Un Aircraft	33¾	32¾	32¾ — ⅜
Un Carbide	47¾	47¼	47¼ + ⅜
Un Corp	5¼	5⅛	5⅛
Un G & Imp	15¼	15¼	15¼ — ⅛
Un Shoe	60¾	59¾	60 — ¼
U S Smelt	9	9	9
U S Steel	47¾	47¼	47¼ — ⅜
Venezuela-Mex	6⅜	6⅛	6⅛
Warren Bros	10⅜	10⅛	10⅛ — ⅛
Westinghouse	40¼	39¾	39¾ — ⅜

Yesterday's sales 1,556,175
Week ago 1,335,170
Year ago 1,178,982

1933 1933 Stk. Net
High Low No. Sales Open High Low 12:30 Chg

—A—

13¾	3		Adams Exp	100	8½	8½	8½
71	39	1,500	Adams Rx pf	100	70	70	70
12½	8½		Address-gram	200	8	8	8	— ¼
11⅝	5¾	60	Affiliated Prod	400	6¾	6¾	6¾	— ¼
112	47	3,750	Air Reduction	300	101	101½	101	101⅛ — ⅜
33	11⅛	750	Alaska Jun	1300	22¼	22¼	22	— ¼
8½	7		Allenhany Cr	100	3¾	3¾	3¾
21⅝	1		Allen A Co pf	100	6¾	6¾	6¾	?
152	70¼	6	Allied Ch & D	1400	150	150½	149½	— ½
8¾	6		Allied Leather	100	6½	6½	6½
71	39		Amal Leather	100	39¾	39¾	39¾
47¾	18½	2	Amal Sug	100	25¾	25¾	25¾	— ¼
6	2		Amerada Corp	1400	23¾	23¾	23¾	— ¼
16¾	7		Am Beet Sug	100	9½	9¾	9½	— ⅛
12	9½	60	Am B S Pr	200	9¾	9¾	9¾	— ⅛
134	49¼	4	American Can	1600	97¾	98	97¾	97¾ — ¼
134	112	7	Am Can pf	100	124¾	124¾	124¾	124¾
39¾	6⅛		Am C & F	1600	28	29⅝	25⅝	26¼
8¾	6		Am C & F pf	100	8¾	8¾	8¾	8¾
69¾	13		Am Com Alcoh	2300	52½	53⅜	52½	53⅛ + ⅜
8	6		Am Ex Tit	100	4⅜	4⅜	4⅜	4⅜ + ⅛
19¾	3¾		Am F Pwr	100	5¾	5¾	5¾	5¾
21½	4¾	1	Am Hawaiian	100	19	19	19	19 + ⅛
4¾	1¾		Am H & L	100	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛ + ⅛
42¼	29	2,40	Am H Prod	100	28½	29¾	29¼	29¾
17⅜	3¾		Am Ice	200	7	7	7	7 — ⅛
15⅝	4¼		Am Internat	100	8	8	8	8
63	17¾		Am Loco pf	400	51	51	49	49 — 1
23	4¾		Am Metals	2400	19	19	18⅞	19
19⅞	9		Am Rad & S	100	6⅝	6⅝	6⅝	6⅝ — ⅛
35	9	1,25	A P&L fnen	200	14¼	14¾	13¾	14⅛ — ⅜
41¼	9½	1,50	A P&L fnen pf	400	15¾	16	15¾	16⅛ — ⅛
19	4¾		Am Radiator	2600	15	15	14½	14¾ — ⅛
51⅞	5¾		Am Rolling M	1100	15⅝	15⅞	15⅛	15⅜ — ⅛
6	2		Am Shin & C	100	4	4	4	4
59⅜	16¾		Am Smelting	2600	44¾	44¾	43⅜	44½ + ⅜
73	20½		Am Smelt Sef	100	65½	65½	63¼	65¼
27	4¾		Am Steel Fdy	100	21¾	21¾	21¼	21¼ — ⅜
74	21½	2	Am Sugar Ref	200	51½	51½	51	51 — 1⅛
8⅜	4		Am Sumatra	200	16¾	16¾	16½	16½ — ⅛
134¾	86½	9	Am Tel & Tel	2500	115⅝	117¼	114½	114⅝ — ⅜
90¾	40	5	Am Tobacco	500	70	70	70
98¾	58	5	Am Tob B	1100	70	70¾	70¼	70⅜ + ⅛
120	102¾	4	Am Tob pf	100	108¾	108¾	108¾	108¾ — ⅜
43½	10⅜	1	Am Water W	1900	19½	19½	19	19¼ — ⅛
31¾	8		Am W W & El	100	25	25	25	25
17	3½		Am Woolen	400	13¾	13¾	13¾	13¾ — ⅛
67¾	22¾		Am Woolen pf	1100	65⅝	65⅝	63½	63½ — ⅜
20¾	7¾		Am Z & L	100	9¾	9¾	9¾	9¾ — ⅛
22	3¾		Ans Conner	100	14¼	14⅜	14¼	14⅜ — ⅛
90¾	43⅛	6,50	Anchor Cap cv	1400	89½	89½	89½	89½ — ⅜
7¾	1⅞		Anchor Cap pf	100	7¾	7¾	7¾	7¾
39	3		Ans Conner	100	14¼	14⅜	14¼	14⅜ — ⅛
20	3½		Anchor Cap cv	1400	89½	89½	89½	89½ — ⅜
61½	8		Anchor Cap pf	100	7¾	7¾	7¾	7¾
61½	6¾	.50	Ansco Corp	100	6¾	6¾	6¾	6¾
19¾	24⅝		Ansco D G 1 pf	100	20¾	50⅜	50¾	20¾
61½	4,80		Associated Oil	1000	28½	28½	28½	28½
43¾	7¾		Atch T&S F	1500	55¾	57	55¼	57 + 1¼
119¾	21⅜	4,80	Atch T&S F pf	700	75	75	75	75
59	16½		Atl Coast L	200	40¾	41	40¾	40¾ — ¼
32½	12⅜	1	Atl Ref	2200	28⅞	28⅞	28½	28⅜ — ⅜
32¾	8		Atlas Pow	400	29	29	28	28 — ⅛
33¾	⅛		Atlas Tack	2600	33⅝	33¾	33	33⅜ — ⅛
64¾	31	2	Auburn Auto	10200	57	59¼	57	58¾ + 1⅛
39¾	13	1	Austin Nic pf	100	39½	39½	39½	39½
16⅜	5½		Aviation Del	1300	7¾	7¾	7½	7⅝ + ⅛

—B—

17⅜	3½		Baldwin Loco	1500	12½	12½	12½	— ⅛
37¾	8¼		Balf & Ariz	1300	22½	23	22½	— ¼
59¾	9¾		Balt & O pf	200	25	25	25	— 1½
41¼	20	2	Bangor & Ar	300	29½	30¾	29½	30¾
11	3		Barnsdall Cp	300	5¾	5¾	5¾	— ⅛
27	3		Beatrice Cr	300	10¾	10¾	10¾	— ⅛
12½	3½		Beld Mem	100	9	9	9
101¼	62½	5,86	Beth N R pf	100	94½	94¼	94¼	94¼ + ⅛
21¼	6⅛		Bendix Avia	1200	16⅝	16⅝	16⅜	16⅜ — ⅜
25¾	4¼	1,50	Bendix Int'l	100	14	14	14	— ⅛
33¾	9	1	Best & Co	500	28¾	28¾	28¾	28¾
49¾	10⅛		Beth Steel	2500	36⅝	36¾	36½	36½ — ⅛
8¾	3¾		Bth Bl Hom	200	6¾	6¾	6¾	6¾
19¼	3½		Blaw Knox	500	11½	11¾	11½	11⅝ — ⅛
55⅝	9½	2	Bohn Alum	600	53¾	54¾	54¾	54¾ — ⅛
29¾	10	1,60	Borden Co	400	22	22	21¾	21¾ — ⅛
21⅝	5½	.25	Bore Warner	300	20	20¼	20	20¼
14⅝	2¾		Briggs Mfg	400	10¾	10¾	10¾	10⅞ — ⅛
19¾	2¾		Brockway Mot	100	3½	3½	3½	3½
9¾	3½		Bklyn Queens	100	5⅝	5¾	5⅝	5⅝ — ⅛
89½	61	5	Bklyn Un Gas	100	65	65	65	65
24¾	7		Bnswyck-B Co	200	7¾	7¾	7¾	7¾
39	3		B Erie Cem pf	100	11½	11½	11½	11½ — ⅛
9⅞	⅜		Budd Mfg	600	6¼	6¼	6	6¼ + ⅛
3	1		Budd Mfg pf	70	20⅜	20⅜	20¼	20½ + ⅛
7¾	2		Budd Wheel	100	4	4	4	4
13¼	2½		Bullard Co	100	8¾	8¾	8¾	8¾ — ⅛
20⅞	6½	.40	Burro A Mac	100	16½	16¾	16½	16¾
8¾	3		Bush Term	200	6¾	6¾	6¾	6¾
4¼	⅛		Butte C & Z	200	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛ — ⅛

—C—

34⅜	7¾		Calif Packing	100	20¾	20¾	20¾	20¾ — ⅜
1¾	⅜		Calle Z & L	100	⅜	⅜	⅜	⅜
41½	7½	1	Can Dr G A	100	27¾	27¾	27¾	27¾ — ⅛
22⅞	7½		Can Pacific	2400	13¼	13¼	13¼	13¼ + ⅛
20¾	6	1	Cannon M Co	200	19	19	19	19
103½	30½		Cans Th Ma	1300	72½	72½	71¾	72 + ⅜
89¾	45		Case Th M pf	500	89¾	89¾	89¾	89¾ — ⅛
29¾	8½	.12	Caterpillar T	100	25	25	25	25 — ⅛
58⅜	46½		Celanese	2000	44	44	42¾	43¼ — ⅜
6¾	2		Celotex pf		6	6	6	6
41	14	1,50	Cent Aguir A	100	30	30	30	30 — 1½
44¾	5½		Cerro De Pa	2000	54¾	55¾	54½	55¼ + ⅜
24¾	2,80		Chas & Co	900	29¾	30¼	29½	30 — ⅛
6	½		Chi & E I	600	1	1	1	1
11⅝	1⅛		C M & St P	300	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
18¼	1½		C M & St P pf	200	8¼	8¼	8¼	8¼ — ⅛
16¼	⅞		Chi & Northw	300	8¼	8¾	8	8 — ⅛
34¾	1¼		Chi & Northw pf	100	14	14	14	14
12⅜	2½		Chi Pneumat	100	7¾	7¾	7¾	7¾
21⅜	2½		CRI & P 6non pf	100	3⅞	3⅞	3⅞	3⅞ — ⅛
10½	2¾		Childs Co cv	200	7¾	7¾	7¾	7¾
53⅜	7¾	1e	Chrysler Mot	10100	52⅜	52¾	51¾	52¾ + ⅛
4⅜	1½	2	Cities S & Pub	300	2	2	2	2
41¼	10		Cities Service	3500	2¼	2¼	2	2
105	73½	6	Coca-Cola	100	101½	101½	101½	101½
7¾	3		Colgate Palm	200	10¾	10¾	10¾	10¾ — ⅛
5¾	2		Collins & Aik	300	10¾	10¾	10¾	10¾ — ⅛
54	13		Col Fuel&I pf	20	14	14	14	14 — ¼
42¾	12½		Colo & So 1 pf	100	22¾	22¾	22¾	22¾
11⅞	2½	2	Comm Cred	1800	6¼	6¼	6¼	6¼ — ⅛
28⅜	9	.50h	Col Gas & El	9500	12½	12½	12	12⅛ — ⅛
19	4		Comm Credit	1800	17¾	17¾	17¾	17½ — ⅛
9¾	3½		Comm Invest Tr	1700	35⅞	36⅛	35⅝	36⅛ + ⅛
43½	16	2	Com'l Inv Tr	1700	35⅞	36⅛	35⅝	36⅛ + ⅛
83	17¾		Comm Solvents	9100	22¾	23⅜	22¾	23¼ + ⅛
27	4⅞		Con Aircraft	1700	24½	24½	24¼	24½ + ⅜
74	21½	2	Conn Ry & Lt pf	100	70	70	70	70
64½	36¾	3	Consol Gas	4700	38¾	38¾	38¼	38¾
8¾	8¼	5	Consol Gas pf	1000	8⅜	8⅜	8⅜	8⅜
15¾	5		Consol Oil	2700	11¼	11¼	11	11¼ + ⅛
10¾	1¾		Container A	100	7½	7½	7½	7½
10¾	5		Cont Bak A	100	8½	8½	8½	8½
78⅜	38½	2,50	Cont'l Can	1800	77¾	77¾	77¼	77¼ — ¼
36½	10½	1,20	Cont'l Insur	600	27	27	24	24
4	1		Cont'l Motors	300	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
19¾	4¾		Continental O	2700	18½	18½	18¼	18½ + ⅛
90¾	45¾	34	Corn Products	300	78	78	76½	76½ — 1⅛
29¾	7	2,25h	Corn Pr Wheat	300	28¾	28¾	28½	28½ — ⅜
7¾	2¾		Coty Inc		4	4	4	4
6¾	2		Crown Ck & S	200	24	24	24	24 + ⅛
38½	14¾	2,70	Crown Zell pf	100	56	56	56	56
7	2		Crown Zellerb	200	4¼	4¼	4¼	4¼
3¾	1		Crucible St pf	100	44	44	44	44
4¾	⅞		Cub Am Sug	300	4	4	4	4
59¾	20¾	2,50	Cudahy Pack	100	39½	39½	39½	39½ + ¼
15¾	5		Curtis Publish	1000	10¾	10¾	10¾	10¾ — ⅛
68	30		Curtis Pub pf	1800	47½	48	47½	48 + ⅜
4¾	1⅜		Curtiss Wright	2300	2⅛	2⅜	2⅛	2⅜ + ⅛

—D—

4¾	1⅜		Debenham Sec	20	2½	2½	2½	2½
49	5¾		Deere & Co	1200	22¾	24¼	21¾	23¾ — 1¾
18¾	6¾	.20	Deere & Co pf	300	17⅞	18	17⅞	18 + ⅛
28¾	8		Dels & Hud	600	51½	51½	51½	51½ — ⅜
46	17⅛		Del Lack & W	2200	26⅝	26⅝	25½	26
19¾	2		Den Rio Gr pf	300	5¾	5¾	5¾	5¾ — ⅛
2¾	1	1,25h	Detroit Mines	1200	2¾	2¾	2¾	2¾ — ⅛
181¼	10¼	.75	Douglas Aircft	100	14½	14¾	14¼	14½ — ¼
10¾	2½		Dresser B	600	7	7	7	7 + ⅛
93¾	32½	2,75h	Dumont Del	4600	92½	97½	91¼	91¼ + ⅛

—E—

69¾	46	3	Eastman Kod	100	82¾	82¾	82¾	82¾
16	⅛	.20	Easton Mfg C	500	14¾	14¾	14	— ¼
21⅞	7		Elec Auto Lit	600	19¾	19¾	19	19¼ — ⅛
8¼	1		Electric Boat	300	4¼	4½	4¼	4¼
3½	⅛		Elec & Mus	500	3½	⅜	⅜	3½
7¾	1¾		Elec Pw & Lt	500	2¾	2¾	2¾	2¾ — ⅛
36½	7¾		El Pdl 7 pf	700	10¼	10¼	9¾	9¾ — ⅛
21¾	6		Emp Pub Sv pf	100	14½	14½	14½	14½
47¾	13¾		Emp P S pf ww	300	15	15	15	15
25¾	3¾		Erie R R	100	15¾	15¾	15¾	15¾
23¼	2½		Erie R R 2 pf	100	13¼	13¼	13¼	13¼
7¾	2½		Eureka Vac	100	7¼	7¼	7¼	7¼
10	⅜		Evans Prod C	100	8¼	8½	8¼	8¼ — ⅛

—F—

42½	19		Fair Morse pf	50	37½	37½	35¾	37 — 1
11¾	⅝		Fed Motor	300	7	7	7
38	10¼	1,20	Fed Pft F 1st	300	24	24	24	24
31⅜	4¾	.40	Fire P & S	300	20½	20½	20¼	20½ — ⅛
70¾	43	2,50	First Nat St	700	55½	55½	55¼	55½ — ⅛
15	6½		Food Mach C	100	12¾	12¾	12½	12½ — ⅛
26	6¾		Foster Wheel	100	15	15	14¾	14¾ — ⅛
26¼	13¾	.95	Fourth N Ia	300	19½	19½	19½	19½ — ⅛
19	12		Fox Film A	300	14½	14½	14½	14½ — ⅛
49¾	16½	2	Freeport Tex	4700	46	46	45	45½ — 1½
21	9		Fuller B pf	50	16	16	16	16

—G—

20⅞	6½		Gamewell Co	10	11½	11½	11½	11½
23¾	4¾		Gen A Corp Cs	2500	24¼	24¾	24¼	24¾ + ⅛
27	4¾		Gen Asphalt	2500	17	17	17	17
10¾	2¾		Gen Baking	1600	13	13	13
10¾	2½		Gen Bronze	100	2¾	2¾	2¾
46	6⅜		Gen Cable pf	300	16	16½	16	16½
13¾	6		Gen Ch pf A	50	34	34	34	34
30¼	10½	.40	Gen Electric	7500	20¾	20¾	19¾	20 + ⅛
12⅜	10⅛	.60	Gen Elec ww	2800	11½	11½	11⅜	11⅜ — ⅛
39¾	21		Gen Foods	100	36	36¼	36	36¼
53	24½	2,40	Gen Itsl Edi	100	52¾	52¾	52¾	52¾
106½	92½	6	Gen Mills pf	800	101¼	101¼	101	101 — ⅛
35¾	8		Gen Motors	18500	34¾	35¾	34½	34¾ + ⅛
3¾	1		Gen Outd A	50	3¾	3¾	3¾	3¾
24	4¾		Gen O A A	200	10	10	10	10
21¾	6		Gen Pub Sv	200	2¾	2¾	2¾	2¾ — ⅛
3¾	2		Gen Realty	700	2	2	2	2
3¾	1		Gen Refrac	100	2	2	2	2
29¼	15	1,05	Gen Theatre	2600	19⅝	19⅝	19⅝	19⅝
7¾	¾		Gimbel Bros	15.0	5¾	5¾	5¾	5¾ — ⅛
25¾	2¾		Gildden Co	400	6¾	6¾	6¾	6¾ — ⅛
16	3		Ginbel Inc	500	6⅜	6⅜	6⅜	6⅜
65¾	1⅜		Goodrich Rub	100	14	14	14	14
14	3		Goodyr T & R pf	2500	65½	66	65½	66
66¼	27½	2	G T & R 1 pf	100	66	66	66	66
5¾	3¾		Gotham SilkH	800	5	5	5	5 — ⅛
10¾	3¾		Grand Rapids	200	4¾	4¾	4¾	4¾ — ⅛
13¾	3¾		Grant (H A)	200	4¾	4¾	4¾	4¾ — ⅛
16¾	5¼		Gt N O etfs	1500	10¾	11	10¾	11 — ⅛
33¾	4¾		Gt Nor pf	600	21½	21½	21¼	21¼
14¾	2,40		Gt Wa Sug	2500	35	35¼	34¾	35 — ¼
11⅞	1⅞		Gulf Sulph	400	7¾	7¾	7¾	7¾

—H—

9½	1⅛		Hahn Dpt Str	1200	5⅛	5¼	5⅛	5¼ — ⅛
38½	9		Hahn D Str pf	100	26	26	26	26
7¾	1⅞	10	Hat Corp Am	300	3¾	3¾	3½	3½ + ⅛
97¾	44	3	Hazel Atlas G	500	52	52	51	50½ — ⅜
72	25½	3	Hershey Choc	200	51	51	50½	50½
24¾	3		Holland Fur	100	5¾	5¾	5¾	5¾
10¾	4		Houdaille H B	100	6¾	6¾	6¾	6¾
28	8½		Houston Oil	100	24¾	24¾	24¾	24¾ — ⅛
21¾	5¾		Houston Oil pf	100	21	21	21	21
15¾	3¾		Howe Sound	200	32½	32½	32½	32½ + ⅛
1⅜	6½		Hudson & Man	200	6½	9	4
14¾	3¾		Hupp Motors	200	4	4	4

—I—

50¾	8½		Illinois Cent	4500	32½	32¾	31½	32 — ½
15¾	4		Indian Ref	200	3¾	3¾	3½	3½ + ⅛
65	24	4	Indust Haven	1500	81	81	80½	81 — ½
14¾	1¼	.15	Insuraco Sh	100	1¼	1¼	1¼	1¼
11⅜	4¾		Interborn R Tr	200	10¾	11	10¾	11
27½	5		Int Ac Ch P pf	200	12¾	12¾	12½	12½
175¾	75¾	6	Int Harvester	300	146¾	146¾	146¾	146¾ — 1½
10¾	2¾	.20	Inter Carr Ltd	200	6	6	6	6
40	6¾		Internat Cem	100	32¾	33¼	32¾	33¼ + ⅜
46	13¾	60	Int Harvester	100	41¾	41¾	41¾	42¼ + ⅜
119¾	80	7	Int Harvest pf	200	116

Sound Bridge Technique

by JOSEPHINE CULBERTSON

Sir Guy Domville of London is one of the strongest Contract players in England. He has played as a member of two teams representing England in International competition and his judgment as to Dummy and defensive play is very fine. Hence in judging the hand below, which was played in a rubber game at Crockford's Club, London, Sir Guy, in remarking that the hand illustrates many points of bad play, states no less than the truth. The bidding, too, was most peculiar, particularly West's failure, with the six-card suit, to keep the bidding open for his partner, who had made the first bid. The final contract of three no-trump is not at all unreasonable.

East, Dealer.

Neither side vulnerable.

	North
	♠ A 10 9 8
	♡ A Q 9 6
	♢ K Q 9 6
	♣ A Q J 4 3
♠ Q 10 9 5 4 3		♠ A 7
♡ 10 6 3		♡ K J 9 4 2
♢ 5	West	♢ A J 10 7 3
♣ 10 9 7 2		♣ K
	South
	♠ A K 8 6
	♡ 5
	♢ 8 5 4 2
	♣ 8 6 5

The bidding:

East	South	West	North
2 ♠	Double	Pass	3 ♠
3 ♡	Pass	Pass	3 NT
Pass	Pass	Pass

The bidding:

While the Opening lead of the spade Knave would have taken away any chance North had of making the contract, East cannot be condemned for deciding to open his fourth-best heart. He apparently has entries in diamonds and possibly one in clubs and this may be able to establish one of his long suits in time to defeat the contract.

North won this trick with the Queen, and not wishing to use one of Dummy's spade honors for the club finesse, he played the Ace of clubs, and luckily dropped the King. He now could have formed a very good picture of East's holding, which quite probably included five hearts, five diamonds, and, as the club King was a marked singleton, two spades. If this was correct, West, then, could hold no diamonds and had a maximum of three hearts. Since North wanted to establish but one trick more to insure his contract, being able to count on four clubs, two spades and two hearts, he was able to refrain from the diamond trick at once. Instead, however, North set up his club suit, and West, in his hand with the Ten of clubs, returned a heart. Thus East and West won each, one diamond and three heart tricks, defeating the contract.

It is unnecessary to say that Sir Guy Domville did not play the Dummy, but in forwarding the hand remarked that he held the South cards.

Copyright, 1933, for the Boston Evening American.

Perky Dress for Girls

By MARIAN MARTIN

The smart younger set is wearing adorable little cotton frocks that are every bit as captivating as Big Sister's. Nothing could be more lovable than this one, with its chic front panel detailed in points, perky sleeves and youthful collar—and the Sew Chart gives with the pattern will prove that nothing could be easier to make. Bloomers to match are included with the pattern. Practical for school and play and unbelievably inexpensive, too.

Pattern 9832 may be ordered only in sizes 4, 6, 8, 10, and 12. Size 6 requires 2⅜ yards 36-inch fabric and ¼ yard contrasting.

Send 15 cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for each Marian Martin pattern. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, the style number and size of each pattern.

Send your order to Boston Evening American Pattern Department, 232 W. 18th st., New York, N. Y.

PATTERN 9832

Read Today's Classified BARGAINS

ANNOUNCEMENTS

NOTICES

IN BOARD OF STREET COMMISSIONERS OF THE CITY OF BOSTON, December 14, 1933.—ORDERED: That due notice be given that the Board is of the opinion that, in said city, public improvements should be made, consisting of the laying out and construction of the following-named streets as public highways; Ben View avenue, East Boston district, from Orient avenue to Tower street; Bayswater street, East Boston district, from Bayswater street to St. Andrew road; Larch street, Brighton, from Kenrick street to South Crescent; Wood avenue, Roslindale, Hyde Park district, from Wood avenue to Blake street, the name of Marquess street or some other distinctive name; Hatherton road, Hyde Park district, from Ralston road to Blake street, with the name of Tasmina avenue or some other distinctive name; Shirley road, Hyde Park district, from Hatherton road to Ralston road; Ivy with the name of Shubert street or some other distinctive name; Ivy road, Hyde Park district, from Hatherton road to Ralston road, with the name of Shubert street or some other distinctive name; Dorchester district, from River street to Dorchester district, from River street to Dorchester district, from Tokio street to Dorchester district, from River West Roxbury district, from Willard street to Bellevue street, with the name of Cardillo street or some other distinctive name; Bellevue street, West Roxbury district, from LaGrange street to Dent street, with the name of Cardillo street or some other distinctive name; Dent street, West Roxbury district, from Bellevue street to LaGrange street; Fenton street, Dorchester district, from Dorchester street to Duncan street; substantially as shown on plans in the office of the Board, that it intends to pass orders for making said improvements on the 16th day of January, o'clock A.M., of December 28, 1933, and the office of the Board, this Municipal Annex, as the time and place for public hearings in the matters. By order of the GLYNN, JOHN O'CALLAGHAN, CHARLES A. DONAHUE, Commissioners. A true copy of an order passed by said Board on said date. Attest: COLO NELIUS A. REARDON, Secretary. 15 15 16 19

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

CATALDO—In Roslindale, Dec. 13, Giovannina (nee Murro), beloved wife of Carmine Cataldo. Funeral from her late residence, 24 St. Rose St., Roslindale, Saturday, Dec. 16, at 8 a. m. Solemn requiem high mass at the Sacred Heart Church in Roslindale at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited.

DOYLE—In South Boston, Dec. 13, John J., beloved husband of Bridget (McCarthy) Doyle. Funeral from his late home, 264 E St., Saturday, Dec. 16, at 8:15 a. m. Solemn high mass of requiem at Church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends respectfully invited.

GUSTAFSON—In Concord, Dec. 13, Andrew Gustafson, beloved husband of Augusta (Johnson) Gustafson. Formerly of Arlington. Services at Bergiund's Funeral Home, 1658 Mass. ave., Arlington, Saturday, Dec. 16, at 2 o'clock. Relatives and friends are invited.

HULKE—In East Boston, Dec. 13, Martha A., wife of Benjamin Hulke, Sr. Funeral services at the chapel of her late residence, 429 Saratoga St., East Boston, on Saturday, Dec. 16, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends are invited to attend.

LYNCH—In Dorchester, Dec. 13, John B. Lynch, son of the late John B. and Ellen A. (Bresnahan) Lynch and brother of Thomas F. Lynch. Funeral from his late home, 42 Fresno st., Saturday, Dec. 16, at 8:15 a. m. Solemn high mass at St. Brendan's Church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends respectfully invited.

MOORE—In Brookline, Dec. 12, Joseph T., beloved husband of Alice M. Moore. Funeral services at the Keenan Funeral Home, 896 Beacon St., Friday, Dec. 15, at 2 p. m.

MURPHY—Roxbury, Dec. 14, Nellie F. Murphy (nee Drew), beloved wife of Dennis Murphy, mother of Mrs. Rose Lee, late residence, 48 Yeoman St., Saturday, Dec. 16, at 8:30 a. m. Requiem mass at St. Patrick's Church at 9:00. Relatives and friends invited to attend. Interment at New Calvary Cemetery.

SWILLINGS—At Marshfield, Dec. 16, Gardner Bowen, husband of Mabelle Perry and William, in his 57th year. Funeral services at his late residence, Ocean st., Marshfield, Saturday, Dec. 16, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends invited.

MONUMENTS

MONUMENT $74 DELIVERED LETTERED. We can match prices. All kinds granite. Memorial Granite Co. 153 Roxbury St., Quincy. Quin.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Graham Funeral Service 1778 WASHINGTON ST. Special Funeral $125

NON SECTARIAN Special Funeral Motor Coach $314 Services available Anywhere in New England.

CHAS. A. ROLLINS MORTICIAN Late Linscott East Boston, 309 Meridian St. E.B. 0083

John F. O'Brien & Son Funeral Directors 180 Broadway St. So. Boston

JOSEPH RUSSO & SON Funeral Directors, Embalmers 30 Green St. Chp. 7444

FRED'K A. MAGRATH, Funeral Director, 64 Meridian St., East Boston 0910, W.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

J. S. WATERMAN & SONS SINCE 1853 FUNERAL SERVICE Local and Suburban

FLORISTS

Penn The Florist 124 TREMONT ST. BOSTON LIB. 4311

LOST AND FOUND

$100 REWARD

For full wealth for coat lost at Hingham, Dec. 8. No questions. Days call Porter 2500, evenings West Newton 1405.

BLACK muff rug lost—Tel. Bankbook No. 8513 in pocket. Needham 1686.

BLACK WALLET lost, N. Y. car registration, license, currency, Sat., Boston-Cambridge, reward. C. E. Morrow, M. J. T. Dorm. Cambridge. Porter 5300.

DOG lost—Male Airedale on Beacon Hill Dec. 14, white with shaggy coat, faint tan markings. Call Mr. Voorhis. Lafayette 8045.

FOUND—Fox Terrier, spaniel and Mongrel Dog. Call Mike Jones, Lib. 4000.

GREAT DANE Lost—Male, fawn colored, black markings, reward. Ass. 9063.

HUNTING dog lost, white with brown spots on body. Reward. Charlestown 2358.

LOST—2 diamond rings and Waltham watch tied in handkerchief, between Allston-Watertown, Reward. Mid. 3660-M.

LOST your dog? Phone Animal Rescue League, 51 Carver St., Boston, Han. 0150.

PIN Lost—Platinum, carnation, shaped studded with small diamonds, Rew. Com. 1010.

SCOTCH TERRIER lost, black, shaggy; name "Sandy"; reward. Glazier, 3 Agremont Rd., Brighton. Aspinwall 9614.

WATCH LOST—Lady's Waltham wrist watch, bracelet attached, between South Boston and Forest Hills. Reward. South Boston 2800.

WESTON radio set analyzer lost in polished oak case; reward, Porter 0100.

SPECIAL NOTICES

BROWN'S Trusses and Camphorated Spongeosa Plasters. 3 Brown & Son, 386 Atlantic ave., Boston.

BROADWAY Lite Poultry Co. From killed turkeys, 19c. Alive 21c. 1 Broadway, Som.

25 Xmas cards complete with name, $2. Mrs. Fuller Statlonery, 184 South Bldg., Lib. 4316.

PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

Gibbs, Dean & Co. Accountants, Auditors 1 Beacon St., Boston. Capitol 3228

BEAUTY AIDS

PERMANENT $1.00 DEEP WAVE—LASTING HIGHLIGHT AND GUARANTEED. 2 Worth St. Bet. 730, Lib. 6285

STUDLEY BEAUTY PARLOR

Frederic Wave, Croquignole Ends, $4-$5; White Henna Rinse, $1.50-$2.00; Wave Shingle Parts, $2; Finger Waves, 25c-50c. Marcel 25c-50c, Manicure, $ shampoo, 50c. 1 Whitehead, 123 Tremont St., Boston, Room 303. Tel. Bra. 7800.

ELECTRIC NEEDLE SPECIALIST HAIR Or hairs' tacer permanently removed. Mollis Rapport Physiatric reformer. Mollis Rapport 125 Tremont St., Boston. Rm. 310. Han. 7286

HAIR cut or permanently for a specialty. 50c Harry's Beauty Salon, 453 Wash. St., Rom 817. DEV. 3660-M.

SHAMPOO—Finger wave dries in 15 min. Permanents done, $2.50 up. Complete Annette, 5 Winter St., Rm. 910. Dev. 7265.

BEAUTY INSTRUCTION

Studley Beauty Culture School 126 Tremont St., Boston, Mass. Room 303. Lib. 4316 Thorough training in every branch. Simplified method in scientific hair cutting and permanent waving. Large following for students' practice. Day and evening classes. $2.50 per week for cash. Diploma given. Splendid opportunities for graduates. 8 weeks' course $50 and up. Send for Circular

FREE Beauty work done every day. Expert operators. Wilfred Academy of Hair Beauty Culture, 161 Mass. Ave., Room 209

FREE Marcels, other beauty work, 15c. La Mar Academy, 171 Tremont St.

DRESSMAKING—TAILORING

Uniforms Custom tailored, all types, Uniform Shop, 755 Boylston St., Rox. 7234.

DERMATOLOGY

Noses Reshaped FACE LIFT All Featural Defects Corrected Reasonable Fees

A. STANLEY GIBSON, M. D. 154 Boylston St. Phone Lib. 4162 Ext. 35 Yrs.

Face Lifts, Noses, Wrinkles Moles and Other Defects Corrected. Hours 10-6. Sun. 11-2. Est. 35 yrs. C. E. REID, M. D. 300 Boylston St. Phone Lib. 2800. HAN. 1385

MEDICAL

FREE, X-RAY

Examination, consultation and trial treatment absolutely free to all who call before Dec. 17th. The X-ray and mercurial vapor treatment is still accomplishing wonders in diseases of every description. Don't delay. Call or write for free literature by Daniel J. Walsh, M. D., 18 Boylston st., Room 1, Boston. Entrance to the above office, Office hours, Mon., Wed., Fri., 9 to 12 a. m., 2 to 6, and 7 to 8. Tues. and Fri. 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Phone Liberty 2800. Lic. 1932

ACNE—BLOOD DISEASES TREATED BY THE LATEST METHOD Hours W. Mulcahy, M. D. 32 Boylston St. 9 to 8 HAN. 2938

PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

Swedish Massage 19 Hunt. Ave., Rm. 1. Ken. 9322. Lic. 1932

ADELLA A. M. W. Wiers, magnetic healing, massage. 48 Francis Ed. Ken. 5082.

MARIE GIANNINI—Massage, graduate Sweden. Tired, nervous people Ken 0768

MASSAGE Tires nerves, rejuvenation 108 Huntington Ave. Apt. 2 Ken. 5568.

MASSAGE by graduate. 1159 Commonwealth Ave. Suite 1.

SCIENTIFIC SWEDISH MASSAGE 839 COMMONWEALTH AVE. SUITE 2

ANNOUNCEMENTS

DENTISTRY

10% Extra Filling, Cleaning, all $2. Gold Crowns $3.50. Bridge work $4. Full mouth 24 supp., Dr. S. 9 years. 29½ Tremont St., 333 Wash. Bldg., near Washington.

PAINTING—PAPERING

PAPER HANGING—$4 up room, including paper; ceilings $2 up. Phone Tu. 5875

DANCING

DON'T MARK TIME—LEARN QUICKLY BALLROOM Guaranteed in 4 Lessons MY REPUTATION IS YOUR PROTECTION PROF. RITTER 177 Tremont St. Dewsbury 3100

Patricia Strictly Private Lessons. 2 Hours Rm. 20. Ken. 6814.

MLLE. GAUDET Private Lessons $1 CIRCLE 6919

BUS TRANSPORTATION

NEW YORK 6 TRIPS DAILY $3 HARTFORD—17 Trips Daily $2 VICTORIA-BERKSHIRE LINES 237 TREMONT ST., Bus. Met. Theatre. Lib. 5847

EMPLOYMENT

HELP WANTED—FEMALE

YOUNG MAN OVER 21

Neat and of good character. Permanent position. Opportunity for advancement for ambitious man. Apply for interview. See Mr. Wedge, 164 Stuart St.

WANTED—Experienced man in cakes factory, to operate mixer. Must be competent giver. Give age, experience, reference and full name of qualifications to Box 10, American, Box No. L-117.

HELP WANTED—MALE

RETAIL Liberal profit, 1697 Dorchester Ave.

Neckties Textile Mfrs., 82 Summer st., Harvey Cash for Coupons, Trading Stamps, Unused U. S. Postage Stamps. Coupon Co., 611 Wash. St.

SITUATIONS WANTED—Female

HIGH school girl, 17, will take care of children eve.; Revere-Everett. Rev. 0558.

FINANCIAL

MONEY TO LOAN

FURNITURE ♦ AUTOMOBILE ♦ NOTE LOANS UP TO $200 ♦ IN 24 HOURS

Choose a loan plan that will solve your money problems in 24 hours . . . on repayments terms that you can easily afford. 1 to 20 months to repay.

Come in . . . Write . . . or Phone

INDUSTRIAL BANKERS Inc.

Auto—Endorsed Note—Furniture Loans

BOSTON 73 Tremont St., Lal. 5337 2nd Floor, Tremont Bldg. License 22

CAMBRIDGE 922 Mass. Ave. Uni. 2800 Cor. Harvard Sq., 3rd Floor License 203

CHELSEA 445 Broadway Che. 2266 Ch. of Commerce Bldg. License 159

DORCHESTER 761 Dudley St. Col. 5379 2nd Floor, Uphams Corner Licens 66

EVERETT 471 Broadway Eve. 2194 2nd Floor, Rowe Block Mtg. 3036

MALDEN 110 Pleasant St. Mal. 3472 2nd Floor, Emery Bldg. License 159

MELROSE 13 Riverside Ave. Mel. 1030 2nd Fl., Washington Bldg. License 203

NEWTON 313 Washington St. New 5187 2nd Fl., Washington Bldg. License 203

ROSLINDALE 765 South St. Par. 6089 2nd Floor, Lothrop Bldg. License 203

SOMERVILLE 330 Dover St. Som. 3536 2nd Fl., Paris Dyes Bldg. License 203

WOBURN 323 Main St. Wob. 1430 Tannery Mat'l Bank Bldg. License 203

INDUSTRIAL BANKERS, Inc.

AUTO AND HOUSEHOLD LOANS Collateral Not Necessary With you Your Present Note Made Smaller NO ENDORSERS. LIB. 7368 GLOBE PLAN License 342 437 Park Square Building

Why Don't You Phone or YOU? MONEY CALL TODAY LOANS QUICKLY MADE FOR WINTER USE COAL — TAXES — CLOTHES — OLD BILLS

Small Amounts Usually Loaned With Only Borrower's Signature

Phone for Information, HUB. 4035 Ideal Financing Ass'n, Inc. 333 WASHINGTON ST. Rm. 408, Licens 83

FURNITURE AUTOMOBILE LOANS Only husband and wife need sign. UP TO 20 MONTHS TO PAY CAPITAL FINANCING 148 STATE STREET CAPITOL 9581 License 37 Room 707

NEED MONEY? You can borrow on your salary, auto, furniture or chattels

BANKERS FINANCE CORP. 31 Bromfield St., Rm. 903. Bdwy. LAF. 4310. License 256

See Pilgrim Plan AUTOMOBILE FURNITURE LOANS Call, Write or Phone Capitol 7243 PILGRIM PLAN, 24 School St. Rm. 401, 4th Floor License 42

WE SPECIALIZE in Loans to Home Owners

Very Small Repayments HUB FINANCE CO., 370 Washington St. LIBERTY 8410

NEED READY CASH? $50 to $500 loaned on furniture, automobiles and hired stocks. STATE LOAN CO., 9 Pleasant st., Malden. Mal. 5534, License 257.

$50 to $500 on automobiles and trucks. Mahon Finance & Acc. Corp., 502 Statler Bldg. Liberty 7300. License 1932

LOANS on furniture with 20 months to pay. Boston Morris Plan Company. License 83. 209 Washington St., Boston.

NEED READY CASH? $50 to $500 loaned on furniture, automobiles and hired stocks. STATE LOAN CO., 9 Pleasant st., Malden. Mal. 5534, License 257.

FINANCIAL

MONEY TO LOAN

FAMILY LOANS without endorsers ON FURNITURE, AUTOS, NOTES

Borrow $50, pay back $3 monthly
Borrow $100, pay back $5 monthly
Borrow $200, pay back $9 monthly
Borrow $300, pay back $12 monthly

On Principal, with Interest at Lawful Rate for the actual number of days you use the money.

National Loan Society

24 SCHOOL ST., BOSTON LAFAYETTE 0026
609 MASS. AVE., CAMBRIDGE PORTER 2131
1 SALEM ST., MALDEN 0085

License 17—117—117 Respectively

Need Money? New England Equity Corp. 455 Washington St., Room 405, 4th Floor. LIB. 1735. License 57.

REAL ESTATE MARKET

HOUSES FOR SALE

$2250 Small deposit, new, single, range, brass coil water heater, gas water heating, 7 rooms, tile bath, steel basement, garage, 2 minutes' walk to Dorchester Ave. Apply A. J. Chapin, 336 W. Broadway; Bos. 0800.

MEDFORD bungalow $1800; 2 rooms, porch, near Fellsway and school. Mys. 3474.

LOTS FOR SALE

5000 Sq. Ft. Billerica camp sites, $39 high shade, short street, boating, fishing; terms. M-124 Boston Amerlcan.

CITY LOTS, $75 EACH

Choice of 25 in West Roxbury. Were $100 to $500. For this week only. Write M-151 Boston American.

VERY beautiful lot for sale in Wellesley; price reasonable. Aspinwall 2676.

RENTALS

FURNISHED APARTMENTS

FURNISHED four apt., 3 heated rooms, $15 wk. 2114 Commonwealth Ave. Asp 7028.

UNFURNISHED APARTMENTS

FREE Rent to Feb. 1, 1934. Modern cutting heater, 3 coil burners, enamel cooking range, brass coil water heater, gas water heating, 7 rooms, tile bath, steel basement, garage, 2 minutes' walk to Dorchester Ave. Apply A. J. Chapin, 336 W. Broadway; Bos. 0800.

Unequalled Apartment Value 3-4-5 ROOMS, $40 to $65

Spacious rooms; tile baths, showers; refrigerators; restaurant; connecting garages in adjacent building. Superintendent on premises. Apply Supt. on premises, or Harry A. Gilmer, Somerset 3954.

BROOKLINE 1477-1481 Beacon St.

Beautifully arranged 7 room suites; tile bath; elec. refrig.; elevator service; reasonable rents. References. See Supt. on premises or Chas. H. Cushing, Lar. 7000.

829-833 Beacon St. 1-2-3 room suites Tile baths, Gen. Elec. Refrigerators; rent includes heat. $35 to $50. References required. Mr. Magner on premises.

IN THE FENWAY

2-room modern suites, $35 to $40. Elec. refrig.; excellent heat; expert management. Apply Supt., 11-13 Peterboro St. or Chas. H. Cushing, Lar. 7000.

PERKINS MANOR

109-115 Perkins St., Jamaica Plain 4-room suites, $65. Garage $5 Service elevator every modern appointment. J. E. Palmer, Manager. Jamaica 0800.

BACK BAY

Attractive 3 and 3-room suites, $35 to $45. Elec. refrig.; abundant hot water. See Supt. 87 St. Stephen St., or Chas. H. Cushing, Lar. 7000.

BACK BAY—6 Rooms, $50-$60

Thoroughly renewed in every detail. Refrigeration, gas range, hot water. Janitor St., or Dyer & Co. Longwood 2747.

AMBASSADOR HAL APTS. FURNISHED—UNFURNISHED 14 Ivy St., Boston—KEN. 1833

A+ $25 to $35 furnished and unfurnished 1-2-3 rooms; kitchenettes; electric refrigeration. 873 Huntington Ave. Ken. 1840.

ALLSTON—Commonwealth Ave. 5-room suite, all modern, renewed; free parking; refrigeration. $2.50 $45. Also 3-room suite, $30. Inquire Janitor or Mahler, Inc. Ast. 4300.

ALLSTON—58 Gardner St., 5-8-room apts.; refrigeration, garage, $50-$55. Next section. See janitor or Hubbard 2958.

ALLSTON—116-118 Gardner ave., attractive suites, 1-2-3 rooms, redecorated, newly heated. Inc. $27.50 up. Ast. 1000.

BEACON HILL—5-rm. apts., all impts., $28. 38½ Myrtle St. Lib. 3022.

BEACON HILL—2-3 rm. apts., $18, 74 Revere St. Lat. 1069.

BRIGHTON—3 rms., h. w. heat, Frigidaire, garage, $42, 32-B Crescent Circle. Bra. 2182.

BRIGHTON—4 beautiful outside rooms, upper, front, Inc. $30, concession. Sta. 1228.

BROOKLINE—3-room sunny suite, $27.50; deduction to man for part-time work. Lon. 7091.

DORCHESTER—5-room newly heated basement apt., modern, $22. 73 Hancock St. Col. 6091.

DORCHESTER—Heated 6 rms., all impts., Parking space, $30. Gar. 1022.

DORCHESTER—28 Pond st., modern 6 rooms, hot water heated, $45. Col. 7950.

DORCHESTER—Ideal 3-room suite, $45. Apply on premises, 19 Washington St.

FENWAY—75-78 Westland Ave., 3 and 6 rm. heated suites, $42.50 to $70. Ken. 6200.

FOREST HILLS—112 Hyde Park ave., 6 rooms, modern, garden, $55. Apply P. J. Cassidy, 18 Tremont St. Laf. 2530.

FOREST HILLS—Sunny, lower 5-room family, reduced. Jam. 3202-R after 6 p.m.

MALDEN—2 rooms, lower, newly renovated, all impts., garage. Malden 5243-R.

MATTAPAN—5 rm. apt., heated; large yard and garage. All impts. Adults. Reasonable location. Blue Hills 8472.

MATTAPAN—5 rms., all impts., sunny apt., convenient loc. Owner, Jam. 0095.

OPPOSITE the Museum, sunny 3-room apartment for rentals. 454 Hunt. Ave.

ROXBURY—75 Waverly St., heated 5 rms., all modern, parking, $45. Lib. 7335.

SOMERVILLE—$25, light heat and 3 rms. Newly renovated throughout. Desirable neighborhood. Mr. Crossen, Som. 3766.

WEST MEDFORD—Upper 4 rms., A-1 condition, adults, $45. 17 Irving St. Mal. 0775-W.

WEST ROXBURY—340 Baker St., heated, modern 4 room apt., janitor, parking.

WOLLASTON HILL—5 outside rooms, all impts., $45. Kenilton. Pres. 1613.

THE COMMONWEALTH AVE.—Low rents. Overlooking the Charles River. Attractively furnished 3 large rooms and rec. hall. Apply on premises or call Liberty 9207.

RENTALS

UNFURNISHED APARTMENTS

HOTEL CONTINENTAL Garden St. at Chauncy, Cambridge. Attractive 3-room suite, some furnished, moderate rentals. Garage. Porter 6100.

THE WARWICK—Boylston St. 2 to 4-room suites $50 to $95. Pay as convenient. Apply superintendent, apt. 1130-1134. BEACON ST., REGENT 4811

DORCHESTER—5 rms., all modern, heated, $35. Inc. sec. 1239 Mass. Ave. cor. Ed. ward Everett Sq. Fraser, agt. Hig. 0150.

ROOMS FOR HOUSEKEEPING

BEACHMONT—2 connecting furn. rms., heat, gas, elec. $6.50. 199 Bradston ave.

BOSTON—1308 Washington St., near Cathedral, steam heated rooms; water, $4 up. Dev. 9844.

BROOKLINE—224 Pleasant St., double room, bath, everything supplied, heat, hot water. Other rooms; $3 up, parking. Long. 8736.

BROOKLINE—Coolidge Cor., 2 connecting rooms, everything furn., $6. Asp. 6108.

CAMBRIDGE—Harvard Sq., 2-rm. suite, 2-rm. suite, heat, light, gas; reas. Put. 6057-J.

CAMBRIDGE—10 Fayette St., ignt housekeeping rooms, also single room, car space.

DORCHESTER—29 Monadnock St., furn. 2-3 rms., kitchenette, bath, heat, gas.

ORIENT HEIGHTS—Congenial American couple will share their apt. with businessman couple, 2 baths, reas. E. B. 1289.

REVERE—Sunny room, 3-rm. heated suite, everything supplied, reas. High. 9629.

SOMERVILLE—22 Richdale Ave., furn. heated 2-3-4 rooms, garage; 0844.

ROOMS WITHOUT BOARD

HOTEL BELMONT—116 Hunt. Ave., rmg. $1.50 per week. Ken. 9322. Lic. 1932

BACK BAY—6 Batavia St., furnished, well heated rm., $3 week. Ken. 6357.

BROOKLINE—Coolidge Cor., large front room, bay window, cont., hot water, heat, private home for 2, reas. Bea. 8400.

BROOKLINE—Unusually attractive warm front heated room; $5. Reg. 3027-R.

CAMBRIDGE—Furn. rm. in priv. family, gentlemen pref.; $5. Mr. Pow, 1149-B1.

ST. W. NEWTON ST., $5, $6, $7, $8 week. Tourists $1.00 per person a day with bath.

CHILDREN TO BOARD

WILL board infant from birth, good home in Dorchester, Columbia 4496.

OFFICES—STORES

Mail Address $2. Desk $10. 293 Washington St., Rm. 32

REAL ESTATE EXCHANGE

FULLY rented 2 family brick, new paint inside, only $7500. Will trade for part of exchanges. Real Estate Managers, Inc., 392 Centre St. Newton No. 2910.

BUS. OPPORTUNITIES

DRUG Store bargain for quick sale, fine location, nice fixtures, frigidaire and soda fountain. Reasonable if taken at once. 5144.

MEN'S custom made shoe equipment, consisting of customers' names, their lasts, patterns, machinery, etc.; A-1 condition. Stomakers' opportunity. Death reason for selling. Box D-177, Boston American.

POTATO and onion bag loading platform; low rent. M. J. Murphy, 338 Ocean St. Lynn.

MISC. FOR SALE

Certified BARGAINS

GLAZED STORM DOORS $3.50

Custom Made of Clear Fir and Pine

FRENCH DOORS all sizes at low prices.

Friend Lumber Co., Medford 424 Mystic ave. Mystic 0700

LINOLEUM Remnants Sale $15.99 Genuine Battleship linoleum, 12 ft. wide, expertly laid and cemented, marble and tile patterns. Reg. $19.50 value. Sale price $15.99 sq. yd.

H. EDISON CO. 200 PORTLAND ST. CAPITOL 6565

MOVING PICTURE FILMS

A limited supply of 16 mm films at less than half price. Comedies, Westerns, Musicals, Novelties, Serials, Travelogs, Sports, etc. 35 Piedmont St., Boston. Tel Han. 0150.

BRAKES Relined, adjusted, Duffy-Powers, $4.95 with old lining; guaranteed. Cambridge Auto Electric Service, 266 Mass. Ave. Cam. 0333.

HARVEY'S 1378 Boylston St., Ken. 3780

Auto Heater $4.95 with old heater; factory guaranteed. Cambridge Auto Electric Service, 266 Mass. Ave. Cam. 0333.

ST. BERNARD Puppies. Also grown stock. Saugus 1236.

$9 rebuilds 3 parlor or bedroom suite springs. Rowe Springs. Rowe Co. Porter 2193-J.

ROBERT ALLEN CO., 117 Chauncy St., wholesale neckwear, closing out, ties at 15c, to make room for new line.

Gross Colonial Furs, Hand made reproductions. Custom made robes. 794 Mass. Ave., Cam. Uni. 6794.

FURNITURE

FREE Turkey with every $50 order. Green's Furniture, 1384 Dorchester ave. Col. 1430.

ORIENTAL—Genuine Bokara rug, cost $500, set of 4 small Franco books, cost $75. Granite 0072.

FIXTURES

Automatic Music, Taverns

Music thru automatic amplified orchestra. Lease, sell, American K-11 or Cire, 5378.

WOODEN BAR, cash register, 3 stools, cane, $50. Call 1 to 3 p.m. 1 Bay State rd.

TYPEWRITERS—SUPPLIES

FREE Typewriter desk and chair with any typewriter. Standard or Portable, at $17.50 ea. Small down, $2 week. Call or write BOSTON TYPEWRITER CO. 179 Washington St. Room 1000. Lib. 6080

We rent typewriters, reasonable rates. Boston Typewriter & American Writing Machine Co. 114 Federal St.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

XMAS Brunswick Panatrope with Radio $225 to $250. Compare our values. Visit us at Boston's Music Center. Open this week until 9 P.M. Sharp. Jordan Marsh Co. 3rd Floor—Boylston St. Entrance.

DRUM OUTFITS Value $45 up $25 up Henry H. Savage & Sons, 166 Hanover St.

RARE collection of violins, $10-$25. Worth double the money. Porter 5837-J.

PIANOS—$15, $25, $35 up. Grands $85 up. 120 Sprague. Rowe. Lib. 8000. Open evenings.

MISCELLANEOUS FOR SALE

CUSTOM Seal Coat, size 44, lady, never worn. Cost $700, sell $200. Hyde Park 1070-W.

LIQUORS AND WINES

Kahn's Mkt. Fine variety. Free del. 185 Kneeland, W. B'way, Sou. Bos. 1493.

MISC. FOR SALE

CLOTHING

AS ADVERTISED SALE! OVERCOATS 1 and 2-PANT SUITS WORTH $20, $30, $35, $40 NOW $9 $12 $14 $17 UNITED CLOTHIER 103—WASHINGTON ST.—103 Open 8 A. M. Till 9 P. M. Saturday Till 11 P. M.

JEWELRY—DIAMONDS

BEFORE Selling Jewelry, Diamonds, Gold and Silver, See Us. PROVIDENT LOAN CO. 39 Cornhill. We pay full value. Let us appraise it.

GORDON'S Headquarters for cash for diamonds, jewelry, watches, gold, silver, platinum. Established 1898. 18 Province St. Boston.

SEE us before selling Old Gold and Diamonds. Old Estate Loan Bank, 354-C Mass. Ave. Boston.

HIGH $. Bloomfield, 373 Wash. St., Rm. 601 LOANS on jewelry, Musical instru., etc. Cost for 6% Gold, S. & A., 36 Hanover St.

FURS

GENUINE FUR COATS $15 AND UP

For LADIES and MISSES, CHRISTMAS GUARANTEED PERFECT ALL STYLE SKINS. Lowest Prices in Boston

MAX'S LOAN OFFICE 105 BROADWAY—BOSTON Cor. Broadway and Dover St.

FUR COATS Sacrifice, Raccoon, seal, reas offer! $18 Wash. St., Rm. 619.

COAL—COKE—OIL

PETROKARBON $12.65 Not a Shovel of ash to a ton Ask Your Dealer

COKE BEST GRADE $11.00 Guaranteed Antracite EGG, NUT STOVE Deliveries $12.50 PEOPLES COAL CO. Tel. GENEVA 0485

MIDDLESEX COKE CO. A GUARANTEED FUEL 1 TON $11.50 DELIVERED MYSTIC 0278

Service—Quality—Satisfaction

COKE $11.50 Per Ton Guaranteed Antracite Gas House Coke $11 All Sizes—Deliveries Anywhere Harvard Fuel Co. University 0242

HIGHEST QUALITY COKE $11 COAL AT LOWEST PRICES GUARANTEED QUALITY ANTHRACITE

COUNTY COAL CO. MYSTIC 2300 Malden, Mystic 0800

CLEERCOAL $13.25 TON Range size to 3-ton lots. Lumpy Soft Coal $7.50. PETROKARBON $12.65 Arlington 4820

DIAMOND COAL CO. Arlington 4820

MYSTIC BRIQUETTS, $10.50 Best Quality Anthracite, all sizes. Price considered with quality. Also N. E. Coke. J. P. O'NEILL COAL CO., Prospect 1166.

COKE Absolutely $10.45 Guaranteed 80% to 90% Lumpy Soft Coal, $7.25 QUALITY COAL CO. Kenmore 2230

Mattapan Coal Co. Best Grade Coke, $10.75. Guaranteed Anthracite Coal; egg, stove, $12.50; Briquettes, $9.50; Pennsylvania, $12.65. Sunset 0870. Dorchester 0870.

COKE Delivered in Bin $11 Ton Anthracite guaranteed Low Prices on Highest Quality Anthracite MERRIS COAL CO. Highlands 7053

Grade A Semet Solvay Coke, $11.25 Screened soft hard coal, $8.50 (Red Parrot Brand) Forte Coal & Coke Co. Som. 1423; days and nights Somerville

COKE—Best grade, $11 ton delivered $10.25; lumpy soft, $7.50 and $8. Com. 1932

Range Oil 7½c gallon. C. De Tullio, 1929 Columbia 4781

Coke 10.50 Briquettes $9.50. Range Oil Regular. Por. 4290.

Coke $10.25; A&C Coke $11.25; Briquette $9.50; Range Oil $7.50; Ant. $12.50. Bea. 1125-W.

BEST Bauilts, coke, Briquettes, anthracite, $11.50 per ton delivered. Mystic 0278.

HIGHLAND COKE All Sizes $11.00 Per Ton Delivered. Highland 0800

COKE $10 to Dec. to Sou. Ave. Lexington Modern Coke Co. Arl. 0195.

7½c Range Oil Less 1c. Col. 1705.

COKE, $10.50 Guaranteed Delivered in Bin Co. Inc. 2950. PRO. 1470-W.

FIRE WOOD Stove or Fireplace Assorted. $10 per load. 2 loads Free. 6050-5393

SEMET-SOLVAY COKE $16.75, guar., delivered in bins all coal $15.50 ton. Tel. 5141.

MANNING OIL Co. FUEL OIL 61 Del. Codman Sq., Pilling Sta., Dor. Gen. 8330.

WHITE Coal Co. Coke, $10.50 delivered. $10.65. Sixth Store del. Coke $11. Wey. 2311.

OIL BURNERS

"Quick Meal" Oil Burners, Stoves, Ranges, Gas Stoves. Repairs, Parts. All makes Waverly, 32 Union St., Capitol 2400

RANGE BURNER, factory expert will service your burners as cheaply as ordinary service men. Write or phone Kemtone Mfg. Co., 82 Brookline Ave.; Ken. 1361.

FACTORY needs cash; will sell $75 oil burners $25; approv. and guar. Modern Mfg. Co., 31 Summer St., L

COOK-COOS

By TED COOK

But after all, the stock market boys should be pretty happy that the babies who're writing liquor regulations have never been turned loose on them.

* * *

Add similes—

Bad as a pretty good tap dancer.

* * *

Says Genevieve, the kitchen cynic, "Maybe we'd get more justice in this country if we had a two-jury system: one jury to try the defendant, and another to try the one that tried the defendant."

Q. and A. DEPARTMENT

Dear Mme. Bella:

Is it proper to carry a fan on an informal theater party?

Curious.

Ans.—Whoops! It's thirty days if you don't.

Aunt ("Feathers") Bella.

Adam Scofflaw's Djournal

This night fetch home a frankfurther, and divide it half and half, with the Spanish pupling and my saney, and it warms my heart to see how eagerly they both guttle of it, and so make as resolve that I will henceforth each daye arrange some like small deed of generositie, as it create an cheerful aspect to our home, and causeth the pupling to come bounding to my football and provoketh my wyfe to sit her down on my lap.

* * *

I hate to argue with the mutts Whose proud rebuttal's usually "nuts!"

* * *

FAMOUS LAST WORDS

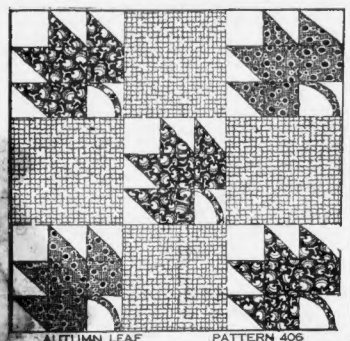
What do you think of Technocracy, General Johnson?

* * *

This program brought to you through courtesy of the Ceaseless Effort Bending Corporation, benders of ceaseless efforts.

Copyright, 1933, for the Boston Evening American

LAURA WHEELER DESIGNS



AUTUMN LEAF PATTERN 406

Autumn Leaf is one of the patterns that has been handed down to us from the earliest days of quilting. Its simplicity of construction—its practical quality—make it as much a favorite today as in olden times. It offers the opportunity for a variety of arrangements in materials. Sometimes it is seen with alternate rows of the leaves done in different materials and the alternate plain block of a contrasting material, as illustrated. Often, too, we find it with the leaves all of the same materials and the entire background done in one material. Either arrangement is easy to imagine with the leaves done in the lovely colors of autumn.

Yardages for both the arrangements described are given with the pattern.

Pattern 406 comes to you with complete, simple instructions for cutting, sewing and finishing, together with yardage chart, diagram of quilt, to help arrange the blocks for single and double bed size, and a diagram of block which serves as a guide for placing the patches and suggests contrasting materials.

Send 10 cents for this pattern to Boston Evening American, Needlecraft Dept., 82 Eighth ave., New York City.

DAILY CROSSWORD PUZZLE

By EUGENE SHEFFER

HORIZONTAL

1—Products of the field
6—Common mechanical device
11—One of the United States
12—Rugged cliff
13—Lady
14—Waving branches
15—Egyptian sun god
16—Moves back and forth
17—Ribbon river
18—Note
19—Insect
20—Cooking implement
22—Fragrant ointment of the ancients
23—Bring to court
24—Obligation
26—Medicine
27—South American country
28—Scrutinize
29—Border
30—Join closely
31—Existed
32—Fails to keep
34—Organ of hearing
41—Supposed hypnotic force
42—Strips
44—Towards
45—Narrate
47—Blockades
48—Above
50—Dash
51—Flies aloft
52—Take nourishment

VERTICAL

1—Track worn by a wheel
2—American Revolutionary patriot
3—Makes smooth
4—Single pieces of paper
5—Grate harshly over
6—Stomachs of animals
7—Male sheep
8—The self
9—Moisture appearing on plants
10—Member of the nobility
13—Flower
15—Procession of persons on horseback
17—Spoonshaped
20—Sauce made of white onions and melted butter
23—Melodies
24—Sheep with thick coats
27—Lair
33—Took a solemn oath
35—Wanderers
36—Muddied
38—Waste matter
39—Measure of capacity in the metric system
40—Set of steps for passing over a wall
42—Primus donna
43—Joint
46—Sound made by the pigeon
48—African antelope

YESTERDAY'S ANSWERS

Copyright, 1933, for the Boston Evening American

THIMBLE THEATRE, starring POPEYE

Popeye Now Playing at the Metropolitan

Two Birds With One Stone

I WANT THIS ROOM MESELF
I LIKE THIS ROOM AND I'M GOING TO HAVE IT!
YA CAN'T HAVE IT! I WANTS IT!
I'M GOING TO HAVE IT
WE AIN'T GOT ANOTHER ONE LIKE IT
HOW ABOUT ME ARRANGING IT SO'S YOU CAN BOTH HAVE THIS ROOM?
WHY, HOW ON EARTH COULD YOU DO THAT?
REVEREND SMITH! COME UP HERE AND MARRY THESE FOLKS 12-15

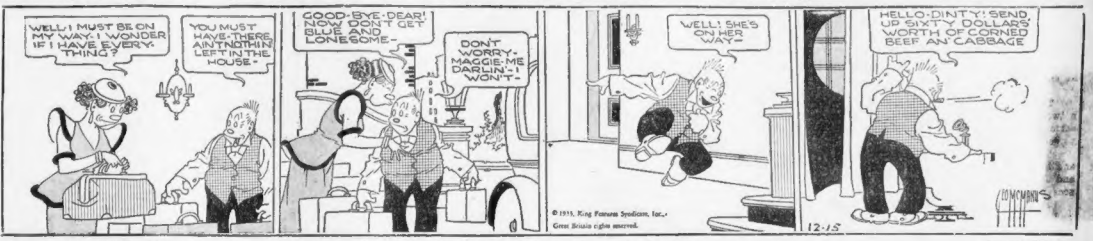
BRINGING UP FATHER

(FOLLOW JIGGS AND MAGGIE IN THE BIG COMIC SECTION OF THE SUNDAY ADVERTISER)

A Call to the Feast



WELL I MUST BE ON MY WAY- I WONDER IF I HAVE EVERYTHING?
YOU MUST HAVE- THERE AIN'T NOTHIN' LEFT IN THE HOUSE-
GOOD-BYE-DEAR! NOW GO'T GET BLUE AND LONESOME-
DON'T WORRY- MAGGIE-ME DARLIN'- I WON'T-
WELL! SHE'S ON HER WAY-
HELLO-DINTY! SEND UP SIXTY DOLLARS WORTH OF CORNED BEEF AN' CABBAGE 12-15

POLLY AND HER PALS

(FOLLOW POLLY AND HER PALS IN THE BIG COMIC SECTION OF THE SUNDAY ADVERTISER)

Sweet Meats

I THINK IT WAS A SILLY IDEA OF SANTY'S TO TURN US INTO TOYS TILL CHRISTMAS!
I'M AFRAID YOU WON'T SIT NOBLIDDY TO AGREE WITH YOU, CARRIE.
UNLESS IT'S POOR KITTY. SHE DON'T SEEM TO BE ENJOYIN' IT MUCH!
SHE'S BEEN OVER ENJOYIN' IT! THAT'S HER TROUBLE!
ZAT SO, SAM'L? WHAT IS HER TROUBLE?
TOO MANY SUGAR MICE!

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

After Visiting Hours

MY LITTLE TOMMY IS IN THE CHARITY HOSPITAL AND TODAY IS VISITING DAY — I'M PRAYIN' I FIND HIM BETTER
GEE, IT'S "TOUGH-AN' I HOPE YOU FIND HIM GETTIN' ALONG SWELL
HE'S A SWELL-LOOKIN' KID — AN' HE LOOKS AWFUL HEALTHY TOO
HE WAS NEVER SICK — UNTIL LAST MONTH — HE GOT A TERRIBLE COLD — FOR A WEEK I WAS AFRAID HE WAS GOING TO DIE
GEE, ZERO — THAT POOR MRS. CLEANLY IS GETTIN' A TOUGH BREAK — BEIN' POOR AIN'T SO BAD — BUT WHEN A POOR WIDOW'S ONLY KID GET'S SICK — AN' SHE AIN'T GOT NO MONEY TO GET SWELL DOCTORS — THEN, IT'S JUST POSITIVELY AWFUL!
OH, ANNIE — TOMMY IS OUT OF DANGER — HE'LL BE — GLORYOSKY — NOW I'M GLAD ALL OVER!
12-15

BARNEY GOOGLE

(FOLLOW BARNEY GOOGLE'S ADVENTURES IN THE BIG COMIC SECTION OF THE SUNDAY ADVERTISER)

He Has Appreciation

"OH, BARNEY- IF YOU ONLY KNEW HOW HAPPY I AM TO BE BACK-"
YEP- AFTER ALL THESE YEARS- WE SEEM JUS' LIKE STRANGERS-
IT'S KINDA NICE HAVIN' A WOMAN AROUND THE HOUSE-
BOY!! SHE'S CERTAINLY A WORKER!!
WHAT'LL I DO?? GIVE HER A REGULAR WEEKLY ALLOWANCE- OR JUS' SLIP HER A TIP ONCE IN A WHILE-?

TIM TYLER'S FLYING LUCK

(FOLLOW TIM TYLER'S FLYING LUCK IN THE BIG COMIC SECTION OF THE SUNDAY ADVERTISER)

Devils and the Deep Sea

SEE SPUD, UNCLE HALFORD'S CANOE IS PASSING US BUT IF I YELL TO HIM THE BANGES WILL HEAR ME AND THEN—
IF WE'D TRIED SWIMMIN' OUT TO THEM WE'D ALL GET DROWNED IN THAT STRONG CURRENT— MAYBE I—
LISTEN HALFORD - DO YOU HEAR THAT SPLASHING NOISE? SHARKS—?
NO, REX IT SOUNDS LIKE SOMEONE'S SWIMMING TOWARD US—
—IT'S ME— SPUD AND — I'VE FOUND TIM — HE'S BACK ON SHORE WITH "FANG"
SPUD! AND YOU'VE FOUND TIM? I— I— I CAN'T BELIEVE IT— GET INTO THE BOAT, QUICK SPUD'S REACHED THE CANOE "FANG" SEE, THEY'RE PADDLING TOWARD US— GEE, LISTEN TO THAT HOWLING— THE SAVAGES ARE COMING, TOO!

KRAZY KAT

Bird Comes Home to Roost

IT WAS I WHO MADE "MRS. KWAKK WAKK" CALL "OFFICER PUPP" A "COOCOO."
MY GOO'NESS, HOW SO?
OH, BY MY VENTRILOQUISM, YOUR WENTRILLY WOT?
YOU AND YOUR VENTRILOQUISM — RASCAL!!!
COO COO
LET THAT BE A LESSON TO YOU
WENTRILLY WOT, MRS. KWAKK WAKK? YOU TELL ME.

NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST EVENING NEWSPAPER

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1933

LARGEST EVENING CIRCULATION BY MORE THAN 75,000

Unfair Tax Exemptions

Of heartening significance to the overburdened taxpayers of the whole country is the avowal by Senator Ashurst (Democrat), of Arizona, of his belief that it is not necessary to amend the Federal Constitution in order to bring all tax-exempt securities—Federal, State and local—within the taxing power of Congress.

"I have reached the definite conclusion," declares Senator Ashurst, who is the able Chairman of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary, "that the language of the Sixteenth Ahemndment leaves no doubt that Congress can deal with the matter."

A majority of both Houses in Congress has long been in favor of compelling wealth to pay its due share of income taxes by preventing wealthy citizens from escaping such payments through the device of investing their surplus in tax-exempt securities.

Attempts to end this indefensible injustice by a change in the Federal Constitution have been defeated in the past by a group consisting chiefly of Senators and Representatives in Congress from the "Solid South."

If a majority of Congress can be convinced that Senator Ashurst is right in his contention that Congress already possesses this power under the Sixteenth Amendment the opposition to its use can be overcome.

To submit a constitutional amendment to the States requires a two-thirds vote in both Houses. To enact legislation to the same end can be done by amajority vote, unless it should be vetoed by the President.

This question of ending the tax exemption of Federal, State and local securities is in no sense partisan. Both Republicans and Democrats have long urged the abolishing of tax-exempt securities.

It was urged by Mr. Glass, now a Senator from Virginia, and Mr. Houston, who were Secretaries of the Treasury in the Cabinet of President Wilson. It was repeatedly recommended by Mr. Mellon, who held the Treasury portfolio in the Cabinets of Presidents Harding, Coolidge and Hoover.

While he was a Senator from Tennessee Mr. Hull, now Secretary of State, proposed a constitutional amendment dealing with the matter.

The late Nicholas Longworth, Representative in Congress from Ohio and Speaker of the House, made a hard fight for the approval of such an amendment by the House.

One hundred and one economists signed a statement earlier in the year, which was issued by the Department of Economics of the University of Pittsburgh, appealing to the Federal Government to prevent the issuance of any more tax-exempt securities for the following reason:

"Until this is done high income tax rates actually encourage further diversions of investment funds into these tax-exempt channels. The receivers of large incomes are thus enabled to avoid payment of their fair share of taxes."

It is estimated that there are approximately forty thousand million dollars in tax-exempt securities outstanding. Their total value prior to the beginning of the depression aggregated more than seventy thousand million dollars.

If Congress decides at the coming session that it has the power under the Sixteenth Amendment to the Constitution to enact legislation bringing all tax-exempt securities within the taxing power of the legislative branch, approximately one hundre dand fifty million dollars in Federal revenue can be obtained from this source.

In that way some of the heavy burden now borne by earned incomes can be transferred to unearned incomes, and "a great idle class living on tax-exempt income" will no longer be able to dodge its fair share of the tax burden.

Sound Reflation

The veteran Edwin R. A. Seligman, senior Columbia University economist, in a recent address on the campus, vigorously supported Mr. Roosevelt's monetary policy.

With the discerning mind of a realist with practical contacts, Professor Seligman declared that Mr. Roosevelt's present financial policy is "perhaps the strongest weapon in his hands to fight uncontrolled inflation."

He amplified this thought with the statement that "if critics of the present Administration are able to bring about a reversal of the present monetary program we might not be able to stem the tide of uncontrolled inflation."

As to the reactionary suggestion that the country return to the old gold dollar, Dr. Seligman observed:

"Nothing would be worse for this country and would bring more grave political danger than the restoration of the gold standardd on the old basis."

Dealing with the bugaboo of huge Federal capital and emergency expenditures, Professor Seligman, an outstanding authority on fiscal science, said:

"As long as the (ordinary) budget is balanced and especially since repeal has provided additional revenue there is no more reason to fear the expenditure of billions to bring about recovery than there was to fear the expenditure of billions to carry on the war."

Distinguishing between inflation and reflation, the economist indicated that inflation would not become a practical issue until the price level of eight or ten years ago has been restored.

It was high time that a universally respected expert, with no axe to grind, clarified the issue.

The so-called "sound money" agitators raised a straw man and then attempted to knock him down.

Meantime, with fidelity to his chosen work, Mr. Roosevelt happily sticks to his knitting.

Decent Drinking

Repeal means better drinks and purer drinking and safer drinks, but it does not necessarily mean MORE drinks.

It would be difficult, indeed, to imagine that this nation ever could drink more WITHOUT prohibition than it did WITH prohibition.

We think, however, that now repeal is here, there is a general disposition on the part of both the public and the dispensers of alcohol to get back to a rational basis of sale and consumption—in other words, to abolish the lawless, unregulated speakeasy and substitute the law-abiding hotel and restaurant which will be properly regulated by the State.

Fair taxes and fair prices will promote that, and promote temperance along with it. Heavy taxes and high prices will hinder it, and hinder temperance also.

Sensible persons don't want the old saloon and the political corruption that went with it to return.

They don't want the speakeasy and the political corruption that goes with it to remain.

The only sure way to guard against these abuses is to tax liquor moderately, to price it moderately, and to permit its sale in bona fide hotels, restaurants, and similarly legalized places—under restrictions which are not too irksome to be enforced.

This will make for decent drinking. Any other course will not.

Daily Bible Text "If God be for us, who can be against us?"—Romans, Ch. viii, v. 31.

By the Rev. P. L. Cosman, Calvary Baptist Church, Salem.

Old World Santa Skips a Stocking -:- By Nelson Harding

The European lata Claus
Now makes h Christmas rounds,
And fills the stkings to the brim
With lire, rncs and pounds.

Except one stocking that he skips,
And which is hung in vain.
Perhaps it is an oversight;
Will Santa please explain?

O. O. McIntyre

New YorkDay by Day

New York, Dec. 15—Thought while strolling: What became of th Tiller girls? Monta,ue Glass an his radio manager, Saul Flaum After making everybody give u their gold, America busts coat, ha, ha, buy- it. Sammy Feldman who often bought orchid corsages for entire choruses. That is, before the unbooming.

One word description of Lois Moran—killarneyish. Eddie Dowling and Steve Hannagan bear a resemblance. Circleville, O's pride— O. O. McIntyre Ted Lewis. He picked up those mannerisms as a boy, watching minstrel drum majors. That awful booking agent who suggests a penguin. Could that be Hoover laughing?

Lyda Roberti's laugh is like a pony's whinny. The whom-ish F. P. A. Who remembers Victor Moore and Emma Littlefield's skit: "Change your act, or back to the woods!" Lindy guys gathering on the curb around 4 p. m. Peggy Joyce is beginning to look fearfully weary. Isn't Gene Markey ever coming to town?

Rarely see Sailing Baruch around any more. The flood of beribboned pup dogs. Confirming the French dictum: "The more it changes the more it is the same thing." Wonder if others, too, are getting fed up with this constant Elsa Maxwell ballyhoo? Beautiful Maxine Elliot.

One of my favorite people—Nathan Burkan. George Tyron's snow-white thatch. Another resemblance, Ted Healy and Pat O'Brien. Young lovers always meet as though the world had been born that minute. And we oldsters lately as though it was just to go up in smoke!

• • •

A Col. Mann tale. He had just concluded a tirade against a portly famous Kentucky colonel—a real one. The latter's nephew entered old Sherry's where the Town Topics publisher was seated alone in a far corner. Spying him, the nephew cried: "Every prospect pleases but only Mann is vile!"

• • •

A revue high spot revealed the interior of the Union League with fuddy-duddies sitting about with ear trumpets and white beards to the waist, querulously discussing the times. The club is the last stronghold of the Tories and rebellers against the new, yet at the staid windows are seen the most patrician profiles in town. They are die-hards but many will adorn history's pages. Passing the Union League, one wonders if America does not need more men who venerate the traditions instead of those who leap so eagerly for every change.

• • •

The Cole Porters, rounding in from their French chateau for the annual visit, add panachs to what Maury Paul hails as the social intelligentsia. Porter, with still another London musical show hit to his string, takes the business of living in bounds and with unwinking brightness from Paris to London and New York and back again. He seems to believe that nothing really matters and diverts from his art much energy in gadding about. Yet few composers accomplish so much.

• • •

Few heroes hold their pedestals without brickbats. The effort to change the Yankee Stadium to the Babe Ruth Stadium is an example. Hundreds yowled that the stadium was built purposely with a short right field fence so that the Babe could pile up a dubious home run record. Next they will be saying Lindy merely lost control of his plane and landed in Paris.

• • •

Tallulah Bankhead, convalescing from a series of operations at her hotel, is a bright spot in the after-theater ennui. Instead of Tony's or Eddie's, it is now: "Let's pop in on Tallulah." And amid silken pillows the fabulous lady languidly keeps them in stitches.

• • •

Nobody could be more uncomfortable at formal dinners. It's my luck usually to be seated next to someone with a chip on my shoulder. My conversations at best are gimpy and a struggle. Last evening to break a long and ghastly silence I turned to a dowager on my right with this carefully couched brilliancy: "We have been having rather nice weather." And then right away she started to argue!

Copyright, 1933, for the Boston Evening American.

Listen World!

By Elsie Robinson

And now that we've recognized Soviet Russia—what next?

Are we going to copy some of the Russian customs as well as accept Russian orders and imports?

For instance—there are these new Russian homes. How much do you know about them? Yes, of course—one hears horrible tales. But actually the Russians have done some interesting things to homes.

Elsie Robinson

Homes in Russia—as homes everywhere—have been on a tough spot these last years. Space shrinking. Big Business taking over one domestic job after another. Wives leaving the homes to follow the jobs. Children leaving the homes to roam the streets, go to the gymnasiums, take in movies.

HOW CAN YOU KEEP UP THE OLD-FASHIONED HOME IN THE FACE OF CHANGES LIKE THAT? THE ANSWER IS—YOU CAN'T.

We've been facing that answer here in America, just as the Russians have. But the Russians aren't satisfied with just facing things, and sobbing or swearing over them. They're an intense and practical people. If the Old Fashioned Home had gone for good, then there must be a New Fashioned Home, so they reasoned. Meaning what?

The Russians didn't know exactly what a New Fashioned Home might mean. But they went right ahead and made experiments. And a lot of goshawful mistakes. Now, out of those experiments and mistakes, they're forming a rough pattern of a Modern Home.

What's it like? Well, in the first place it's like—reality. It isn't like what a sentimental picture of a home ought to be. It's like what a modern home has to be in modern Russia under modern conditions.

It's a very small home—only a few rooms, with just so much space legally allotted to each person. That's because there's very little room for family life in Russia today. It's also because family life in Russia today isn't spent in rooms or in homes. It's spent outside the home—in factories, fields, theatres, gymnasiums, tennis courts, drill and football grounds.

This is partly because domestic jobs have been taken out of the home and the mothers have followed them.

IT'S ALSO PARTLY BECAUSE RUSSIANS DON'T BELIEVE THAT IT'S GOOD FOR FAMILIES TO LIVE TOO CLOSELY, WITHIN FOUR WALLS. THEY THINK THAT HUSBANDS AND WIVES, PARENTS AND CHILDREN, BECOME BETTER CITIZENS OF THE WORLD IF THEY ARE OUT CIRCULATING IN THE WORLD INSTEAD OF CLUSTERING AROUND THE FAMILY TABLE.

This scheme, the Russian say, takes care of more than just babies and food—

IT TAKES CARE OF FEMININE LONELINESS, RESTLESSNESS AND DISCONTENT. FOR THE RUSSIANS ASTONISHINGLY BELIEVE THAT MOST WOMEN DO NOT LIKE TO STAY "COOPED UP AT HOME," BUT WOULD MUCH RATHER WORK TOGETHER IN SQUADS!

They believe that women, themselves, never voted that "woman's sphere is in the home"—but that men put them there to suit masculine convenience. And now, since women have as much voice as men in ruling modern Russia, women are being given their choice of Staying Put or Getting Out. And they're getting out.

So there's our huge, new neighbor with a home dwarfed to a camp and the whole family living on the loose and, seemingly, having a swell time of it. So what?

ARE WE GOING TO COME TO THAT?

We're facing the same conditions. Will we make the same answer?

Will we presently have community kitchens, community nurseries, community play grounds?

HOW WOULD YOU LIKE IT, MRS. JONES, IF WE DID?

Suppose you could decide the pattern for the modern American home—a pattern that would answer modern American problems and serve modern American needs—WHAT WOULD YOUR PATTERN BE?

Copyright, 1933, for the Boston Evening American.

By Edgar A. Guest

Man's Seven Photographic Ages

First he's welcomed to the earth—
"Mother to a son gives birth!"

Pictured he will next appear
Among "the babies of the year!"

Then ('tis every school boy's dream);
"Valued member of the team!"

Soon this double-column spread:
"College graduate to wed."

Follows this at forty-five:
"Heads a charitable drive!"

Now this text his cut requires:
"Prominent business man retires!"

Final picture! Sadly say:
"Well-known man died yesterday!"

(Copyright, 1933, Edgar A. Guest)

Roosevelt Facing Sharp Fight in Congress

By James T. Williams, Jr.

When Congress reconvenes the Roosevelt administration will meet its first test of strength in the United States Senate.

There the attack on the Roosevelt recovery program will begin. There the defense of that program must first be made. There the battle will rage from the time the session starts until it ends.

At times this conflict will be along party lines. Frequently, however, Democrats will join Republicans in the attack and Republicans will join Democrats in the defense of the Roosevelt policies and of the way in which the administration is carrying them out.

It will be a session in which the character of the Senate will be put to a test. The courage, sincerity and ability with which individual senators support or oppose the Roosevelt leadership will be a tremendous factor in shaping the final decision of the upper House and in supplying the deficiencies that the so-called popular branch of Congress will develop before the next session ends.

This prospect of a lively session partly explains the national significance which has been attached to the return to the Federal City so far in advance of the convening of Congress of Senator Hiram Johnson of California, a Roosevelt Progressive since the time of the first President Roosevelt, and one of the most independent and influential members of the Senate.

A HARD WORKER

It has long been Senator Johnson's custom to return to Washington from California some time before Congress convenes in order to prepare himself for the session. He is one of the hardest-working members o either House. The diligence with which he attends to California matters, regardless of whether they are brought to his attention by Republicans or Democrats, by Liberals, Conservatives, Progressives or Radicals—provided they are for the benefit of California—commands the respect of senators on both sides of the aisle.

But Senator Johnson also belongs to that distinguished minority member of the senate committee on commerce, next to the ranking minority member of the committee on foreign relations, one of the leaders of the committee on immigration, active in the affairs of the committee on irrigation and reclamation and a tower of strength on the committee on naval affairs. Senator Johnson is necessarily in the confidence of any administration in power regardless of whether he is a close adviser of the President or among his foremost critics.

GOOD EXAMPLE

Under the administration now in power the relations of President Roosevelt and Senator Johnson have been so cordial, the causes they hold in common so numerous, that it is easy for the President and the California Progressive either to fight shoulder to shoulder or to differ without misunderstanding.

Senator Johnson declined a seat in the Roosevelt cabinet because he believed he could fight more effectively for Progressive causes as a member of the Senate. He declined membership on the American delegation to the London economic conference for the same reason. He knows best where he can fight best and, in both cases, the reasons for his decination were thoroughly understood by the President.

Like Senator Johnson, Senator Norris, of Nebraska, another Roosevelt Progressive, has also returned to Washington to prepare for the session. Other senators are following their example. It is a good example to follow, because the coming session will be one of the most important the Senate has held since the great war. It will be distinguished by more than one great debate. The President will require not only the advice and counsel of Progressive senators on both sides of the aisle, but he will welcome criticism that is sincere, fearless and made in the light of the facts.

Human Side of the News

By Edwin C. Hill

A cowboy's lament comes to us from Billings, Montana. Dude rancher I. H. Larom rises to remark that dude ranching is headed for the last round-up if the craze for modernization continues at its present pace.

Mr. Larom hails from Valley, Wyoming, and is president of the Dude Ranchmen's Association. Addressing the convention of his associates, he told them that the customers of this newly-developed business, which runs into many millions a year, are demanding heated swimming pools, golf courses and breakfasts in bed, effete luxuries which scarcely belong to the great open spaces where men are men.

Such things, mourns Mr. Larom, are killing the goose which lays the golden egg. Let's get back, pleads Mr. Larom, to the real old West of the six-gallon Stetson, the bucking broncbos, the spurs and the chaps, with a plunge into the creek or into some ice-cold spring for the morning dip.

MINISTERS IN WANT

These dude ranches enjoy a wide vogue, although they really got started only about 20 years ago when a Pittsburgher, with a ranch near Yellowstone Park, thought he could keep a surplus of friends and acquaintances away from his ranch by announcing that he would have to charge for accommodations. His scheme had just the opposite effect. Quite willing to pay, Easterners came in droves and forced him into the hotel business.

Perceiving a good thing, ranchers all over the West went into the unique business, and today they raise not only hay, alfalfa, cattle and horses, but also raise up bankers and brokers and dowagers and debutantes to be amateur cow punchers. Something like 10,000 dudes a season hit the long trail to the land where the deer and the antelope frisk upon the rolling prairies, and from which Mr. Larom would firmly banish tennis racquet and niblick.

A startling item in the news, that 20,000 ordained ministers of the gospel of these United States are out of work, hundreds of them in desperate case and many dependent on charity for their daily bread. The Rev. Dr. John Clover Monsma, writing in Good Housekeeping, finds many ministers in the bread lines.

HOCKEY, BASKETBALL

For thousands of the best and most scholarly ministers the outlook is bleak and grim. A great many churches have closed their doors. Salaries have been reduced to mere pittances. Only 1 per cent of all the men who preach the word of God receive $4000 or more a year. Nearly 33 per cent receive $1000 to $1500. Nearly 15 per cent receive $500 or less. On that they are expected to keep sinners in the paths of rectitude and raise families.

A queer civilization and an inexplicable country, when all this can be true and when at the same time tribute of more than a billion dollars a year is paid to professional racketeers and criminals.

Professional sport enters the winter doldrums, with little to lift the blood pressure of the customers except professional hockey and college basketball. Football came to a crashing climax on a thousand gridirons after one of the most successful seasons in many years. There remains only the great intersectional contest which will be held in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena on New Year's Day.

Of all outdoor sports, football undoubtedly provides the most drama, the most stirring background. People surge through the turnstiles of football stadiums not so much for the sake of the game whose intricacies comparatively few understand, but in expectation of the thrill of the unexpected of the drama which so often springs from the accidental incidents exploding from enormous masses.

The mind of this writer goes winging back through the years to the most spectacular of such casual incidents; to the late afternoon of a November day just before we entered the great war. The stage of drama was the Polo Grounds in New York City. Army against Navy. Sixty thousand in the stands. The pale, declining sun taking on new and surprising brilliance from the gold lace and gold buttons of countless generals and admirals and officers of rank afloat and ashore. The racing, sinking sun delaying its daily demise with the unexpected lustre acquired from the gleaming silk hopers of cabinet ministers and ambassadors, moguls and magnifins of statecraft, politics, industry and commerce.

And in the center of all, in their special box, warily guarded by secret service men, the President of the United States and the lady he had just taken to wife—Woodrow Wilson and Edith Bolling Galt Wilson.

GROANS, GRUNTS, GROWLS

The day grim and severe with sometimes a flutter of snow and sometimes a whiff and whimper of rain, until sometime before the end of the game was due, it was difficult to perceive, in the thickening murk and gloom, the figures of the mud-stained gladiators, and to follow the flights and gyrations of the ball.

One followed the game by ear rather than by eye. Out of the murderous haze came oaths, and grunts, and growls, and the straining suspirations of young giants in heartbreaking toil. All this heavily punctuated by the dull thump and thud of the kicked ball.

And presently a miracle was born and grew to a full flower of beauty. For, back in the stands, someone had the inspiration to strike a match and make a little pin-point of light in the enveloping gloom. And the neighbor who imitated the gesture and quickly others lit matches and held them up, and finally matches were being lit by the thousand and the tens of thousands and held up, until all around the great oval at least forty thousand people were holding aloft little pin-points of light. It was like a world of fireflies suddenly aroused in flight, held suspended.

So the President must have thought, for, turning to his lady, he spoke in a voice which carried widely: "Look, look, my dear! Beautiful! The most beautiful picture I ever saw!"

Copyright, 1933, for the Boston Evening American.